COURT OF APPEAL FOR ONTARIO

B E T W E E N:

CAMERON STEPHENS MORTGAGE CAPITAL LTD.

Applicant (Respondent)

2011836 ONTARIO CORP., JEFFERSON PROPERTIES LIMITED PARTNERSHIP, 1000162801 ONTARIO CORP., AMERCAN CORPORATION and 1000199992 ONTARIO CORP.

Respondents (Appellant)

NOTICE OF MOTION

Albert Gelman Inc., in its capacity as receiver and manager (in such capacity, the "Receiver") of all present and future property, assets and undertakings of 2011836 Ontario Corp. and Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership (together, the "Debtors") including the real property listed in Schedule "A" (the "Real Property") to the order of Justice Cavanagh, dated December 21, 2023 (the "Receivership Order"), will make a Motion to a single Judge of the Court of Appeal for Ontario on January 13, 2026 at 10:00 AM, or as soon after that time as the Motion can be heard.

PROPOSED METHOD OF HEARING: The Motion is to be heard by video conference.

THE MOTION IS FOR:

(a) An order abridging the time for service of this Notice of Motion, and the Receiver's Motion Record and Factum in connection therewith and validating service thereof;

(b) A declaration that leave to appeal is required for the Appeal (as defined below) and, if necessary, that the Approval and Vesting Order (as defined below) is not stayed pursuant to section 195 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act ("BIA") or, in alternative, pursuant to the Courts of Justice Act and/or Rules of Civil Procedure;

(c) In the alternative, if the Approval and Vesting Order is stayed, an Order cancelling this stay;

(d) An Order sealing:

(i) The Confidential Appendices to the Sixth Report of the Receiver dated September 11, 2025 and the supplements thereto dated December 9, 2025, December 17, 2025 and January 8, 2026 (such reports being, collectively, the "Reports"); and

(ii) The Affidavit of Fanseay Wang dated January 2, 2026 (the "Fanseay Affidavit");

(e) The costs of this motion, plus applicable HST; and

(f) Such further and other relief as this Honourable Court deems just.

THE GROUNDS FOR THE MOTION ARE:

A. Background

(a) Pursuant to the Receivership Order, Albert Gelman Inc. was appointed as receiver and manager of all present and future assets, undertakings and personal property of the Debtors;

(b) The Real Property is the site of a 96-unit (the "Units" and, individually, a "Unit") residential real estate development project known as Richmond Hill Grace (the "Project"), which is the principal asset of the Debtors;

(c) Fanseay Wang ("Fanseay") is an individual residing in China and is the principal of the Debtors;

B. The Project

(d) Since its appointment, the Receiver has been working to complete the Project. The Project is now substantially complete and the Receiver is of the view that it is now appropriate to begin marketing the unsold Units for sale;

C. The Sales Process Motion

(e) On September 11, 2025, the Receiver brought a motion (the "Sales Process Motion") seeking, among other things:

(i) An Order amending the Receivership Order to authorize the Receiver to sell the Units without approval of the Court where the sale price of the Unit under the agreement of purchase and sale is not less than that Unit's Target Price, as set out in the Target Price

List developed by the Receiver and described in detail in the Sixth Report (each such Transaction being a "Permitted Transaction");

(ii) An Order approving a form of template vesting order that is to be completed by the Receiver for each Permitted Transaction and submitted to the Court Registrar for signature in order to convey title to the Units to purchasers free and clear of encumbrances; and

(iii) An Order approving the Sales Process described in the Sixth Report;

(f) Fanseay also filed a cross-motion (the "Cross-Motion") in connection with the Sales Process Motion which sought, among other things:

(i) A stay of retail and individual Unit sales pending completion of a Court-ordered bulk-sale market test conducted by an independent sales monitor;

(ii) An Order requiring the Receiver to disclose the Target Price List to stakeholders; and

(iii) An Order reserving and holding back 50% of the future fees of the Receiver and its counsel;

1. First Hearing

(g) The Sales Process Motion and the Cross-Motion were heard on October 23, 2025 by Justice Kimmel. On November 28, 2025, Justice Kimmel released her decision in connection with the Sales Process Motion and the Cross-Motion. Justice Kimmel:

(i) Dismissed the Cross-Motion (with the caveat that this dismissal only dismissed Fanseay's request for relief in opposition to the relief granted in connection with the Receiver's Sales Process Motion);

(ii) Ordered the relief sought in the Sales Process Motion, with the exception of (1) the Receiver's request for orders amending the Receivership Order to enable the Receiver to complete Permitted Transactions without Court approval; and (2) approving a template form of vesting order for use in connection with the same (such relief being the "Amendment Relief"); and

(iii) Adjourned the Receiver's motion for the Amendment Relief sine die.

(h) Justice Kimmel determined that it was premature to grant the Amendment Relief without the intended form of agreement of purchase and sale for use in connection with Permitted Transactions also being approved by the Court;

(i) Accordingly, Justice Kimmel suggested to the Receiver that the Receiver's Motion for the Amendment Relief be considered in the context of a motion for one or more AVOs based on the form of agreement and purchase and sale intended to be used in Permitted Transactions;

2. Second Hearing

(j) On December 19, 2025, the Court heard the return of the Sales Process Motion. At this hearing, Justice Dietrich made an Order (the "Approval and Vesting Order") that, among other things:

(i) granted the Amendment Relief; and

(ii) Approved two agreements of purchase and sale between the Receiver and homebuyers in connection with two Units;

D. The Appeal

(k) On December 30, 2025, Fanseay commenced the within appeal (the "Appeal"), purportedly on behalf of the Appellant;

(l) The Appeal seeks to set aside the Approval and Vesting Order;

(m) Neither Fanseay nor the Appellant have a right to appeal the Approval and Vesting Order under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act because the Approval and Vesting Order does not fall within any of the categories enumerated under s. 193 of the BIA;

E. Stay of Approval and Vesting Order

(n) In the absence of Fanseay and/or the Appellant having a right to appeal the Approval and Vesting Order, the Approval and Vesting Order is not stayed;

(o) In the alternative, if Fanseay and the Appellant have a right to appeal the Approval and Vesting Order, then any stay of the Approval and Vesting Order should be cancelled for the following reasons:

(i) The Appeal has no merit; and

(ii) The stay of the Approval and Vesting Order prevents the Receiver from closing the sale of Units, to the detriment of all stakeholders;

F. Urgency

(p) The interests of justice require that the issue of whether or not the Approval and Vesting Order is stayed be determined as soon as possible. The stay of the Approval and Vesting Order prevents the Receiver from closing agreements to sell Units, as agreed between the Receiver and Purchasers;

(q) This has the effect of wasting professional fees, preventing the Receiver from using the proceeds to funds its operations and inconveniencing homebuyers who intend to use the Units as their personal residence. This will be detrimental to the Debtors' stakeholders generally;

G. Sealing Order

(r) This Court should seal the Confidential Appendices to the Reports and the Fanseay Affidavit;

(s) These documents contain confidential information concerning the Receiver's estimate of the market value of the Units and pricing strategy. The disclosure of this information would adversely impact the ability of the Receiver to effectively market the Units for sale and obtain the best price for the Units. These documents and/or documents containing this information have already been sealed by Orders of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice;

H. Jurisdiction

(t) The relief sought by the Receiver in this Motion is within the jurisdiction of a single judge of the Court of Appeal for Ontario, because it does not seek any of the relief described in s. 7(3) of the Courts of Justice Act;

(u) The provisions of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3, as amended, and sections 101 and 137(2) of the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. C.43, as amended and the inherent and equitable jurisdiction of this Court;

(v) Rules 3, 16 and 37 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, R.R.O. 1990, Reg. 194, as amended; and

(w) Such further and other grounds as counsel may advise and this Honourable Court may deem just.

THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE will be used at the hearing of this Motion:

(a) The Reports; and

(b) Such further and other evidence as the lawyers may advise and this Honourable Court may permit.

THIRD SUPPLEMENT TO THE SIXTH REPORT OF THE RECEIVER

A. Introduction

1. On December 21, 2023 (the "Appointment Date"), the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "Court") made an order (the "Appointment Order") pursuant to section 243(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3, as amended ("BIA") and section 101 of the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O 1990, c. 43, as amended, inter alia, appointing Albert Gelman Inc. ("AGI") as receiver and manager (in such capacity, the "Receiver"), without security, of all present and future property, assets and undertakings of 2011836 Ontario Corp. ("201Co.") and Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership ("JPLP" and, together with 201Co., the "Debtors"), including the real property known municipally as 39, 53 and 67 Jefferson Side Road, Richmond Hill, Ontario (the "Real Property"). The Appointment Order was granted pursuant to an application (the "Receivership Application") made by Cameron Stephens Mortgage Capital Ltd. ("Cameron Stephens"), the Debtors' senior secured lender.

2. The primary objective of these receivership proceedings has been to complete the construction of a residential housing project located at the Real Property and known as "Richmond Hill Grace" (the "Project") and to sell the units in the Project, all in an effort to maximize the recovery to the Debtors' stakeholders.

B. Purpose of Report

3. The purpose of this report (the "Third Supplement") is to supplement the Sixth Report of the Receiver dated September 9, 2025 (the "Sixth Report"), the First Supplement to the Sixth Report of the Receiver dated December 9, 2025 (the "First Supplement") and the Second Supplement to the Sixth Report of the Receiver dated December 17, 2025 (the

"Second Supplement") in connection with the Receiver's motion for various relief in connection with the sale of Units (as defined in the Sixth Report) in the Project.

4. On December 19, 2025, this relief was granted by the Honourable Justice Dietrich (such Order being the "Approval and Vesting Order"). A copy of the Orders and Endorsement of the Honourable Justice Dietrich are attached hereto as Appendix A.

5. On December 30, 2025, Fanseay filed a Notice of Appeal purporting to appeal the Approval and Vesting Order (the "Appeal"). A copy of the Notice of Appeal is attached hereto as Appendix B.

6. On January 2, 2026, Fanseay filed a Notice of Motion seeking a stay of the Approval and Vesting Order pending appeal (the "Stay Motion"). A copy of this Notice of Motion is attached hereto as Appendix C.

7. The Receiver intends to bring a Motion before the Court of Appeal for Ontario addressing several issues in connection with the Appeal and the Stay Motion by seeking the following relief among other things (the "Receiver's Motion"):

(a) A declaration that leave to appeal is required for the Appeal and, if necessary, that the Approval and Vesting Order is not stayed pursuant to section 195 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act ("BIA") or, in alternative, pursuant to the Courts of Justice Act and/or Rules of Civil Procedure; and

(b) In the alternative, if the Approval and Vesting Order is stayed, an Order cancelling this stay.

Pactima eSignature Package ID: R77FDh4HdtOPSz6HByy51

8. The Receiver has prepared this Third Supplement in support of the Receiver's Motion.

C. Scope and Terms of Reference

9. This Third Supplement has been prepared solely for the purposes described in this report. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned that this Third Supplement may not be appropriate for any other purpose.

10. Capitalized terms not defined in this Third Supplement have the meanings ascribed to them in the Sixth Report.

D. Breach of NDA

11. On October 22, 2025, the Receiver and Fanseay executed a non-disclosure agreement (the "NDA") under which Fanseay agreed that he would not disclose the Target Price List to anyone. A copy of the NDA is attached hereto as Appendix D.

12. Pursuant to and in reliance on this NDA, on October 22, 2025, the Receiver provided Fanseay with a copy of the Target Price List. A copy of the email sending the Target Price List to Fanseay from the Receiver's counsel (excluding its attachments) is attached hereto as Appendix E.

13. Fanseay has breached the NDA by publicly disclosing the contents of the Target Price List. In particular, on January 2, 2026, Fanseay included the contents of the Target Price List in his affidavit in support of the Stay Motion, which was served on the Service List in this matter. A copy of Fanseay's email attaching his affidavit (with the link to the affidavit redacted) in support of the Stay Motion is attached hereto as Appendix F.

Pactima eSignature Package ID: R77FDh4HdtOPSz6HByy51

14. The Receiver notes, as well, that the Target Price List was sealed by Order of Justice Kimmel on November 28, 2025 (which Order is not under appeal by Fanseay).

15. A copy of Fanseay's affidavit, which contains information from the Target Price List, is attached hereto as Confidential Appendix 1.

16. On January 7, 2026, counsel to the Receiver sent an email to the Service List in this matter requesting that recipients of Fanseay's affidavit delete it and refrain from disclosing it to others. Subsequently, on January 7, 2026, counsel to the Receiver emailed Fanseay to demand that Fanseay destroy all copies of the Target Price List in Fanseay's possession, pursuant to the terms of the NDA. Copies of these emails are included in the thread attached hereto as Appendix F.

E. Need for urgent hearing of the Receiver's Motion

17. The Receiver respectfully requests that the Receiver's Motion be heard by the Court of Appeal for Ontario at the earliest possible date. There is an urgent need for the relief sought by the Receiver.

1. Delayed closings

18. Presently, agreements to purchase Units are scheduled to close in accordance with the following:

Suite #/Stacked or Freehold?	Date	Purchaser(s)	Closing Date
18/Freehold	October 14, 2025, as amended October 27, 2025	Connie Fan, Gerrome Tan	January 30, 2026
19/Freehold	October 14, 2025	Anna Manza	March 31, 2026
204/Stacked	November 16, 2025	Anna Mikhmel	April 30, 2026
212/Stacked	October 21, 2025, as amended November 2, 2025	Na Wang	January 15, 2026
213/Stacked	November 6, 2025, as amended November 14, 2025	Purvin Pui Fung Wai	January 20, 2026

19. This being said, the Receiver does not believe that it is appropriate to close these agreements in the face of the outstanding Stay Motion by Fanseay.

20. As a result, the Receiver will be forced to delay the closing of these agreements, which will cause the following forms of prejudice:

(a) The Receiver will either need to come to an agreement with purchasers under which the purchasers will take occupancy of their Unit without taking title, which will require the Receiver to spend professional fees, or delay the purchasers' occupancy, which will require the Debtors/Receiver to pay the purchasers as much as $7,500 each in delayed occupancy compensation; and

(b) The Receiver understands that the purchasers under the above agreements had intended to move into their Units on or about closing, to be used as their personal residences. The delay caused by the stay will cause inconvenience to these purchasers.

2. The Receiver's Borrowings

21. The Receiver is authorized to borrow up to $40,000,000 pursuant to the Appointment Order, as amended by the Order of Justice Steel dated May 2, 2025.

22. As of January 7, 2026, the Receiver has borrowed $37,603,020 from Cameron Stephens pursuant to the Receiver's Borrowing Charge.

23. By the end of February 2026, the Receiver anticipates that it will require a further approximately $2,918,000 above the funds already in its possession to operate the Project, which amount will be required for expenditure on:

(a) payments to various trades and suppliers in the ordinary course of construction in connection with the Project;

(b) maintenance of holdback amounts owing to various trades and suppliers;

(c) fees and disbursements of the Receiver's construction Manager, Elevate CM Corp.;

Pactima eSignature Package ID: R77FDh4HdtOPSz6HByy51

(d) fees and disbursements of the Receiver's consultants including engineers, architect and cost consultant;

(e) payment of settlement amounts in connection with amounts claimed by lien claimants against the Project and the Real Property;

(f) ongoing utility payments for electricity and natural gas;

(g) site security;

(h) return of deposits paid by purchasers under agreements of purchase and sale that could not be performed by the Receiver on the Debtors' behalf;

(i) various other miscellaneous administrative disbursements; and

(j) fees of the Receiver and its legal counsel.

24. Originally, the Receiver had planned to use the proceeds of the above agreements of purchase and sale (and other agreements that could have been closed as Permitted Transactions pursuant to the Approval and Vesting Order) to satisfy this further expenditure. This means that, if the Receiver is not able to close these agreements, the Receiver will likely be required to borrow amounts from Cameron Stephens in excess of $40,000,000 in the beginning of March 2026.

25. This would require the Receiver to bring a motion for an increase to its borrowing limit under the Appointment Order, which motion would almost certainly be opposed by Fanseay and which would have the effect of:

Pactima eSignature Package ID: R77FDh4HdtOPSz6HByy51

(a) Causing the Receiver to incur further professional fees in connection with that Motion; and

(b) Accelerating the interest burn of the Debtors' indebtedness to Cameron Stephens.

26. The Receiver presently anticipates that Cameron Stephens, the Debtors' first secured creditor, will suffer a shortfall after the liquidation of all of the Units. This means that these losses will very likely be irrecoverable by Cameron Stephens.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 8th day of January 2026,

ALBERT GELMAN INC., solely in its capacity as Court-Appointed Receiver of each of the Debtors and the Real Property and not in any other capacity

APPROVAL AND VESTING ORDER (FREEHOLD UNIT 19)

THIS MOTION, made by Albert Gelman Inc. in its capacity as the Court-appointed receiver (the "Receiver") of the undertaking, property and assets of Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership ("JPLP") and 2011836 Ontario Corp. ("201Co," and, together with JPLP, the "Debtors") for an order approving the sale transaction (the "Transaction") contemplated by an agreement of purchase and sale (the "Sale Agreement") between the Receiver, as vendor, and Anna Manza (born December 20, 1962, the "Purchaser"), as purchaser, dated October 8, 2025 and appended to the First Supplement to the Sixth Report of the Receiver dated December 9, 2025 (the "Report"), and vesting in the Purchaser the Debtor's right, title and interest in and to the assets described in the Sale Agreement (the "Purchased Assets"), was heard this day at 330 University Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

ON READING the Report and on hearing the submissions of counsel for the Receiver and those other parties listed on the counsel slip, no one appearing for any other person on the service list, although properly served as appears from the Lawyer's Certificate of Ryan Shah dated December 10, 2025:

1. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that the Transaction is hereby approved, and the execution of the Sale Agreement by the Receiver is hereby authorized and approved, with such minor amendments as the Receiver may deem necessary. The Receiver is hereby authorized and directed to take such additional steps and execute such additional documents as may be necessary or desirable for the completion of the Transaction and for the conveyance of the Purchased Assets to the Purchaser.

2. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DECLARES that upon the delivery of a Receiver's certificate to the Purchaser substantially in the form attached as Schedule A hereto (the "Receiver's Certificate"), all of the Debtors' right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Assets described in the Sale Agreement and listed on Schedule B hereto shall vest absolutely in the Purchaser, free and clear of and from any and all security interests (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), hypothecs, mortgages, trusts or deemed trusts (whether contractual, statutory, or otherwise), liens, executions, levies, charges, or other financial or monetary claims, whether or not they have attached or been perfected, registered or filed and whether secured, unsecured or otherwise (collectively, the "Claims") including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing: (i) any encumbrances or charges created by the Order of the Honourable Justice Cavanagh dated December 21, 2023; (ii) all charges, security interests or claims evidenced by registrations pursuant to the Personal Property Security Act (Ontario) or any other personal property registry system; and (iii) those Claims listed on Schedule C hereto (all of which are collectively referred to as the "Encumbrances", which term shall not include the permitted encumbrances, easements and restrictive covenants listed on Schedule D) and, for greater certainty, this Court orders that all of the Encumbrances affecting or relating to the Purchased Assets are hereby expunged and discharged as against the Purchased Assets.

3. THIS COURT ORDERS that upon the registration in Land Registry Office #65 of an Application for Vesting Order in the form prescribed by the Land Titles Act and/or the Land Registration Reform Act, the Land Registrar is hereby directed to enter the Purchaser as the owner of the subject real property identified in Schedule B hereto (the "Real Property") in fee simple, and is hereby directed to:

(a) delete and expunge from title to the Real Property all of the Claims listed in Schedule C hereto; and

(b) vest title to the Real Property in the Purchaser as herein provided, free and clear of, and without regard to, any relevant writs of executions that may have been filed with the Sheriff as against each and every registered owner of the Real Property, either before or after the date of this Order.

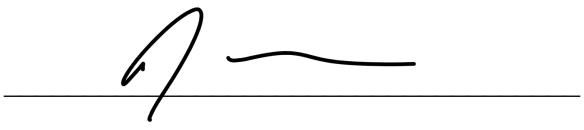
4. THIS COURT ORDERS that for the purposes of determining the nature and priority of Claims, the net proceeds from the sale of the Purchased Assets shall stand in the place and stead of the Purchased Assets, and that from and after the delivery of the Receiver's Certificate all Claims and Encumbrances shall attach to the net proceeds from the sale of the Purchased Assets with the same priority as they had with respect to the Purchased Assets immediately prior to the sale, as if the Purchased Assets had not been sold and remained in the possession or control of the person having that possession or control immediately prior to the sale.

5. THIS COURT ORDERS AND DIRECTS the Receiver to file with the Court a copy of the Receiver's Certificate, forthwith after delivery thereof.

6. THIS COURT ORDERS that, notwithstanding:

(a) the pendency of these proceedings;



(b) any applications for a bankruptcy order now or hereafter issued pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) in respect of the Debtors and any bankruptcy order issued pursuant to any such applications; and

(c) any assignment in bankruptcy made in respect of the Debtors;

the vesting of the Purchased Assets in the Purchaser pursuant to this Order shall be binding on any trustee in bankruptcy that may be appointed in respect of the Debtor and shall not be void or voidable by creditors of the Debtors, nor shall it constitute nor be deemed to be a fraudulent preference, assignment, fraudulent conveyance, transfer at undervalue, or other reviewable transaction under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) or any other applicable federal or provincial legislation, nor shall it constitute oppressive or unfairly prejudicial conduct pursuant to any applicable federal or provincial legislation.

7. THIS COURT HEREBY REQUESTS the aid and recognition of any court, tribunal, regulatory or administrative body having jurisdiction in Canada or in the United States to give effect to this Order and to assist the Receiver and its agents in carrying out the terms of this Order. All courts, tribunals, regulatory and administrative bodies are hereby respectfully requested to make such orders and to provide such assistance to the Receiver, as an officer of this Court, as may be necessary or desirable to give effect to this Order or to assist the Receiver and its agents in carrying out the terms of this Order.

ENDORSEMENT OF JUSTICE J. DIETRICH:

Introduction

[1] Albert Gelman Inc. ("AGI"), the court-appointed receiver (the "Receiver") of 2011836 Ontario Corp. ("201") and Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership ("JPLP" and, together with 201, the "Debtors") seeks orders for certain relief including relief that was previously adjourned by Justice Kimmel.

[2] By Order dated November 27, 2025, Justice Kimmel approved the Sales Process described at pages 18 and 19 of the Sixth Report of the Receiver. However, by the same Order, Justice Kimmel adjourned the Receiver's request to amend subsection 3(k) of the Receivership Order to authorize the Receiver to sell the Units (as defined in the Sixth Report) without approval of this Court in respect of any transaction, provided that the sale price of the Unit under an agreement of purchase and sale is not less than the Target Price (as defined in the Sixth Report) set out in Confidential Appendix 1 to the Sixth Report (each such transaction being a "Permitted Transaction") (the "Adjourned Relief").

[3] In particular, Justice Kimmel noted in her accompanying endorsement dated November 28, 2025, that the Adjourned Relief was premature absent concurrent approval of a template form of agreement of purchase and sale for use in connection with each Permitted Transaction.

[4] Along with the Adjourned Relief, the Receiver now seeks an order:

a. approving a template agreement of purchase and sale for use in connection with Permitted Transactions;

b. approving the First Supplement to the Sixth Report dated December 9, 2025 and the Second Supplement to the Sixth Report dated December 17, 2025;

c. approving the fees and expenses of the Receiver and its counsel as set out in the Firs Supplement and the affidavits attached thereto;

d. sealing the Confidential Appendices to the First Supplement and Second Supplement to the Sixth Report (the "Confidential Appendices"); and

e. authorizing the Receiver to distribute proceeds of the Transactions in accordance with the Interim Distribution as described in the First Supplement.

[5] As well, the Receiver seeks two approval and vesting orders approving the Transactions and Freehold AVO Agreements (as described below).

[6] Defined terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meaning provided to them in the factum of the Receiver filed for use on this motion.

[7] Mr. Fengxi Fanseay Wang filed a 'Fresh as Amended Factum of the Respondent' in opposition to the Receiver's motion dated December 18, 2025. He also filed with the Commercial List Office a document entitled Oral Submissions of the Respondent dated December 19, 2025.

[8] Mr. Wang, purporting to speak on behalf of the Respondent, seeks an adjournment of the Receiver's motion and if not adjourned he opposes the relief sought.

[9] I note that although Mr. Wang has previously been heard by this Court in this matter on behalf of the Respondents, I am not aware that an order granting him leave to speak on behalf of the corporate respondents has been granted. I also note that Mr. Wang was recently adjudged bankrupt and although he has attempted to appeal that decision, it appears that there were some procedural issues with that and Mr. Wang has filed, this morning, a motion seeking an extension of time for appeal. Although, I did hear from Mr. Wang on behalf of the Respondents, as no party objected for today's purposes, it is not clear that he is properly representing the Respondents or that he is able to do so. However, I do not make any determination about that matter today.

[10] Mr. Wang's request for an adjournment, as he expressed it during the hearing, was to allow him to prepare additional objection material. The Receiver's motion was served on December 9, 2025 - 10 days ago. During the hearing, I denied Mr. Wang's adjournment request given that interest of approximately $400,000 a month is continuing to accrue, Mr. Wang was able to prepare both a factum and oral submissions and the reasons for opposition set out in Mr. Wang's factum and expressed at today's hearing in the context of the adjournment request were previously addressed in Justice Kimmel's endorsement dated November 28, 2025 wherein she approved the Sale Process and dismissed his cross-motion.

[11] Justice Kimmel also set out in that endorsement the history of Mr. Wang's objections and prior determination in these and other related proceedings. In the circumstances, I declined to grant the adjournment requested by Mr. Wang and proceeded to hear the Receiver's motion.

[12] At some point during the Receiver's submissions on the motion, Mr. Wang disconnected from the virtual hearing. After a 10-minute recess during which counsel to the Receiver attempted to contact Mr. Wang to see if he was attempting to rejoin, the hearing continued. At no point did Mr. Wang contact counsel for the Receiver or for the applicant or the Registrar in an attempt to rejoin the hearing.

[13] For the reasons outlined below, at the conclusion of the hearing, I granted the relief sought by the Receiver.

Background

[14] The Receiver was appointed by Order dated December 21, 2023. JPLP is a limited partnership established for the purpose of constructing the Project located at real property municipally known as 39, 53 and 67 Jefferson Side Road, Richmond Hill, Ontario (the "Real Property").

[15] The Project is located at the Real Property and consists of 96 residential units, being 60 stacked condominium townhome units (the "Stacked Units") and 36 freehold townhome units (the "Freeholds" and, together with the Stacked Units, the "Units").

[16] The Project is now substantially complete and the Receiver has commenced the marketing of the Units for sale pursuant to a sales process approved by the Court as noted above. As noted above, the Sales Process Motion was opposed by Mr. Wang, the principal of the Debtors. In her November 28 Decision, Justice Kimmel dismissed Mr Wang's cross-motion in respect of the Sale Process related relief.

[17] As suggested by Justice Kimmel in connection with the Sales Process Motion, and in consultation with its counsel and advisors, the Receiver developed two template agreements of purchase and sale for use in connection with Permitted Transactions, depending on whether the Unit is a Freehold Unit or a Stacked Unit. These Template APSs (as defined in the First Supplement) are appended to the First Supplement.

[18] With respect to the Units, the Receiver has proposed a minimum target price for each Unit under a Permitted Transaction (a "Target Price"). The Target Price reflects the Receiver's estimate of the current fair market value of each Unit, subject to a discount to provide the Receiver with flexibility in negotiating a favourable price with potential purchasers, in all the circumstances. A transaction for the sale of a Unit will be a Permitted Transaction if the total consideration payable for a Unit under the agreement of purchase and sale is equal to or higher than the Target Price for that Unit.

[19] As noted in the First Supplement, the Receiver has entered into five agreements of purchase and sale for Units. In addition, there are eight Units that were subject to agreements of purchase and sale that pre-date the appointment of the Receiver.

[20] The Receiver is seeking, at this time, approval and vesting orders in respect of the two December AVO Agreements in respect of Freeholds.

[21] As of December 8, 2025, the Receiver has borrowed $35,901,755 from Cameron Stephens pursuant to the Receiver's Borrowing Charge. The Receiver requests authorization to use the proceeds of the Transactions to: (a) pay commission owing to Homelife and cooperating brokers in connection with the New Agreements; (b) pay the fees and disbursements of the Receiver and its legal counsel, to the extent those fees have been approved by the Court; and (c) repay amounts owing to Cameron Stephens under the Receiver's Borrowing Charge (such scheme of distribution being the "Interim Distribution").

Issues

[22] The issues before the Court are whether to

a. approve the two Freedhold Transactions and grant the requested AVOs;

b. authorize the Receiver to distribute the proceeds of the Transactions in accordance with the Interim Distribution;

c. approve the proposed amendments to the Appointment Order and Template APSs;

d. grant a limited sealing order in respect of the Confidential Appendices; and

e. approve the Receiver's conduct and fees and the fees of its counsel as set out in the First Supplement and the Second Supplement.

Analysis

[23] In Royal Bank of Canada v Soundair Corp. ("Soundair") 1991 CanLII 2727 (ONCA) at para 16, the Court of Appeal outlined the following factors that must be considered when determining approval of a proposed sale in a receivership context (the "Soundair Principles"): whether the receiver has made sufficient effort to get the best price and has not acted improvidently; the efficacy and integrity of the process by which offers are obtained; whether there has been unfairness in the working out of the process; and, the interests of all parties.

[24] Absent clear evidence that a proposed sale is improvident or that there was an abuse of process, a Court is to grant deference to the recommendation of a court officer to sell certain assets - only in exceptional circumstances will a Court intervene and proceed contrary to such recommendation: see Soundair at para 21.

[25] I am satisfied that the Soundair Principles have been satisfied in this case with respect to the two Transactions for Freehold units for which AVOs are now sought. The agreements are the product of Homelife's marketing efforts, in accordance with the Sales Process approved by this Court. The value of the consideration for each of the Freehold AVO Agreements exceeds the relevant Unit's Target Price, as set out in the Revised Target Price List.

[26] Accordingly, I am satisfied that the two AVOs requested are appropriate.

[27] At this time, the Receiver is only seeking authorization to distribute the proceeds from the Transaction on account of commissions owing to Homelife, fees and expenses of the Receiver and the indebtedness owing to Cameron Stephens, the first secured lender of the Debtors, through the Receiver's Borrowing Charge, which has priority over all other claims against the Debtors' assets, except those of the Receiver and its counsel for their fees.

[28] I am satisfied that payment of these amounts is appropriate and the requested Interim Distribution is approved.

[29] The Receiver's proposed amendment to subsection 3(k) of the Appointment Order provides a structure that will allow sales of the Unsold Units to be completed without the need for a motion and Court attendance in each instance, where an agreement to purchase a Unit is sufficiently valuable to constitute a Permitted Transaction. The proposed Permitted Transaction structure balances the need to expedite the sale process with the requirement to maximize recoveries for the benefit of stakeholders. The approach reflects typical market practices and takes into account the range of sale prices achieved for comparable units in this development and similar properties.

[30] The Receiver is satisfied that the Target Price for each Unit is reasonable and fair given current market conditions. As set out in the Sixth Report, the Receiver has offered to provide the Target Price List to parties on a confidential basis.

[31] This Court has approved similar mechanisms in insolvency proceedings involving the sale of a large number of units in a real estate development, see for example: Marshallzehr Group Inc v King Square Ltd. and Markland Residential Corporation (Court File No. CV-23- 00710215-00CL) Order of Justice Kimmel dated April 15, 2024; see Eleventh Report of KSV Kofman Inc. in its capacity as CCAA Monitor of Urbancorp Toronto Management Inc. et al. dated January 23, 2017 at s. 3.0, p. 8 and Urbancorp Toronto Management Inc. et al. (Court File No. CV-l6-11389-00CL) Approval and Vesting Order of Justice Newbould dated January 27, 2017 and most recently, in People's Trust Company et al. v. Vandyk-Backyard Queensview Limited et al see both the Order and Endorsement of Justice Black dated January 13, 2025.

[32] Justice Kimmel adjourned the Receiver's motion for this relief previously because she was not prepared to authorize such a mechanism in the absence of Court approval and review of the form of agreements that the Receiver proposed to use in connection with the same. The Receiver has now provided the Court and stakeholders with the Template APSs, one for the Freeholds and one for the Stacked Units. The Template APSs do not contain any "early termination conditions" and quite straightforwardly contemplate the conveyance of a Unit (and relevant parking space, if applicable) for cash consideration.

[33] Accordingly, I am satisfied that the relief requested authorizing the Permitted Transactions is appropriate.

[34] The limited sealing order being sought is necessary to preserve the Receiver's ability to maximize the value of the Units. The Confidential Appendices consist of the unredacted copies of the December AVO Agreements, a Revised Target Price List (which merely corrects an inadvertent exclusion of information from the original Target Price List) and a summary of the financial terms of the December AVO Agreements. If any of the pricing information in these documents was made public, it would compromise the Receiver's ability to obtain the best price for the Units because it may reveal information about the Receiver's pricing and negotiation strategy to potential purchasers, who could in turn use this information to make tactical, lower offers for the purchase of the Units. Accordingly,

I am satisfied that the requested sealing order for the Confidential Appendices meets the test in Sherman Estate v. Donovan 2021 SCC 25 at para 38 and that disclosure of this information would pose a risk to the public interest in enabling stakeholders of a company in receivership to maximize the realization of assets. The Receiver is directed to follow the applicable guidelines for the filing of sealed material with the court, and to eventually apply, at the appropriate time, for an unsealing order, if necessary.

[35] The request to approve the First Supplement and the Second Supplement is not unusual and there are good policy and practical reasons for doing so: see Laurentian University of Sudbury, 2022 ONSC 2927 at paras. 13-14, citing Target Canada Co. (Re), 2015 ONSC 7574 at paras. 2, 12, 22. The observations in those cases while made in the context of a Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act proceeding apply to the activities of a court appointed receiver: see Triple-I Capital Partners Limited v 12411300 Canada Inc, 2023 ONSC 3400 at para 66. The approval of the First Supplement and the Second Supplement is appropriate in the circumstances as the Receiver has acted reasonably and in good faith. The draft order provided contains the typical language that only the Receiver is entitled to rely on the approval.

[36] The Receiver also seeks approval of the fees and disbursements of itself and its legal counsel, as set out in the First Supplement and the affidavits attached thereto. In this respect, as the Court of Appeal for Ontario held in Bank of Nova Scotia v Diemer 2014 ONCA 851 at paras 33 and 45, this Court does not undertake a line-by-line analysis of the invoices. Rather, the guiding principles on fee approvals of this nature are whether the fees are fair, reasonable, and proportionate given the value of the property and liabilities as well as the complexity of the proceeding. In considering these guiding principles, the fees of the Receiver and its counsel are appropriate and are approved.

NOTICE OF APPEAL

1. THE APPEAL

TAKE NOTICE that the Appellant, Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership appeals to the Court of Appeal for Ontario from the following orders of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) Court File No. CV-23-00710795-00CL:

(a) the Endorsement of Justice Dietrich dated December 19, 2025;

(b) the Permitted Transaction Authorization Order dated December 19, 2025; and

(c) the Vesting Orders dated December 19, 2025 authorizing sales of project units by the Receiver (collectively, the “Orders”).

2. JURISDICTION

This appeal is brought as of right pursuant to section 193(c) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, as the Orders authorize dispositions of property whose value far exceeds $10,000 and finally determine substantive rights affecting the receivership estate.

3. ORDER APPEALED FROM

The Orders authorize the Receiver to proceed with unit sales pursuant to template and registrar-approved vesting orders, including sales that impair or extinguish existing contractual rights under Agreements of Purchase and Sale.

4. GROUNDS OF APPEAL

The Appellant relies on the following grounds:

(a) Error of Law – Undisclaimed Agreements of Purchase and Sale

The motion judge erred in law by authorizing sales that impair or extinguish binding Agreements of Purchase and Sale for stacked townhome units that were never disclaimed, and by treating such APSs as irrelevant contractual benchmarks without jurisdiction, statutory authority, or legal analysis.

(b) Failure to Distinguish Between Freehold and Stacked Units

The motion judge failed to distinguish between:

(i) 36 freehold townhome units, whose APSs were disclaimed; and

(ii) 60 stacked townhome units, whose APSs remain valid and binding.

As a result, the Court approved relief not sought, not argued, and not legally available with respect to the stacked units.

(c) Palpable and Overriding Error – Failure to Consider Material Evidence

The motion judge failed to consider or address material evidence on the record, including:

(i) the continued existence of firm, undisclaimed APSs for stacked townhome units;

(ii) unit-by-unit price comparisons demonstrating proposed sales at 30–40% below firm APS prices; and

(iii) the absence of purchaser default or necessity to cancel stacked APSs.

(d) Misapplication of Governing Receivership Sale Principles

The motion judge misapplied the principles governing court-supervised receivership sales, including Royal Bank of Canada v. Soundair Corp. and Romspen Investment Corp. v. Courtice Auto Wreckers Ltd., by approving a non-transparent, non-market-tested sale process that destroys rather than maximizes estate value.

(e) Improper Reliance on Alleged Urgency

The motion judge erred in accepting interest accrual as a basis for urgency without proportionality analysis, where a single proposed sale of each 60 units would cause losses materially exceeding monthly carrying costs and would irreversibly moot appellate review.

5. RELIEF SOUGHT

The Appellant seeks the following relief:

(a) an order setting aside the Endorsement and the Orders dated December 19, 2025;

(b) an order staying all sales of stacked townhome units that remain subject to undisclaimed firm Agreements of Purchase and Sale pending the determination of this appeal;

(c) an order requiring further court approval on a unit-by-unit basis before any sale may close, including any sale proposed pursuant to template or registrar-approved vesting orders; and

(d) such further and other relief as this Honourable Court deems just.

6. STAY PENDING APPEAL

TAKE NOTICE that the Appellant will bring a motion for a stay pending appeal, as the Orders authorize irreversible transactions that would render the appeal moot.

7. SERVICE AND FILING

This Notice of Appeal will be served and filed in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of the Court of Appeal for Ontario.

NOTICE OF MOTION

(Motion for Stay Pending Appeal)

TAKE NOTICE that the Appellant, Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership, will make a motion to the Court of Appeal for Ontario, at a date and time to be fixed by the Registrar, for the following relief.

RELIEF SOUGHT

1. An Order staying the execution and operation of the following Orders of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List), pending the determination of the appeal:
   (a) the Endorsement and Order of Justice Dietrich dated December 19, 2025;
   (b) the Permitted Transaction Authorization Order dated December 19, 2025; and
   (c) the Vesting Orders dated December 19, 2025.
2. Without limiting paragraph 1, an Order staying:
   (a) any sale, marketing, listing, or disposition of stacked townhome units formerly subject to pre-receivership Agreements of Purchase and Sale ("APSs"); and
   (b) any further termination, disclaimer, or extinguishment of stacked townhome APSs, pending the determination of the appeal.

3. An Order prohibiting any sale from closing pursuant to template or registrar-approved vesting orders, and requiring further court approval on a unit-by-unit basis pending appeal.
4. Such further and other relief as this Honourable Court deems just.

GROUNDS FOR THE MOTION

5. The appeal raises serious issues, including:
   (a) whether the motion judge erred in authorizing sales that impair or extinguish stacked townhome APSs that were never disclaimed;
   (b) whether the judge failed to distinguish between freehold townhomes (whose APSs were disclaimed) and stacked townhomes (whose APSs remain valid or contested);
   (c) whether the judge approved a sale process that destroys rather than maximizes value, contrary to governing receivership principles.
6. The Orders authorize irreversible transactions that will render the appeal moot if a stay is not granted.
7. The Receiver has a demonstrated pattern of seeking broad, undifferentiated authority, and subsequently exercising that authority in a manner that extinguishes higher-value contractual interests without further court oversight.
8. The balance of convenience favours a stay:
   (a) no urgency exists that justifies immediate sales;
   (b) any delay is compensable in money;
   (c) the prejudice to the Appellant and other stakeholders is permanent and irreparable if sales proceed.
9. The motion is supported by:
   (a) the Affidavit of Fengxi Fanseay Wang sworn in support of this motion;
   (b) the Notice of Appeal;
   (c) the Stay Factum of the Appellant; and
   (d) such further materials as counsel may advise and this Court may permit.

STATUTORY AUTHORITY

This motion is brought pursuant to:

10. Section 6(1)(b) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act;
11. Rules 61.16 and 62.02 of the Rules of Civil Procedure; and
12. the inherent jurisdiction of this Honourable Court.

SERVICE AND FILING

The Appellant intends to serve this motion electronically and to file the motion materials with the Court of Appeal for Ontario in accordance with the Rules.

9. The Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy, and verify in writing its destruction of, all material embodying Confidential Information upon written request of the Disclosing Party.

10. If any provision of this Agreement is declared or found to be illegal, unenforceable, or void, then such provision shall be null and void but each other provision hereof not so affected shall be enforced to the full extent permitted by applicable law.

11. Waivers and Amendments:

i. No delay or omission by any party in enforcing its rights or remedies hereunder shall impair such right or remedy or to be deemed to be a waiver thereof.

ii. No waiver of any right or remedy hereunder with respect to any occurrence or event on one occasion shall be deemed a waiver of such right or remedy with respect to such occurrence or event on any occasion.

iii. No amendment or waiver shall be valid unless in writing and signed by both parties.

SECOND SUPPLEMENT TO THE SIXTH REPORT OF THE RECEIVER

Pactima eSignature Package ID: MWtCF9CZuYL8egTsaCgug

A. Introduction

1. On December 21, 2023 (the "Appointment Date"), the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "Court") made an order (the "Appointment Order") pursuant to section 243(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3, as amended ("BIA") and section 101 of the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O 1990, c. 43, as amended, inter alia, appointing Albert Gelman Inc. ("AGI") as receiver and manager (in such capacity, the "Receiver"), without security, of all present and future property, assets and undertakings of 2011836 Ontario Corp. ("201Co.") and Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership ("JPLP" and, together with 201Co., the "Debtors"), including the real property known municipally as 39, 53 and 67 Jefferson Side Road, Richmond Hill, Ontario (the "Real Property"). The Appointment Order was granted pursuant to an application (the "Receivership Application") made by Cameron Stephens Mortgage Capital Ltd. ("Cameron Stephens"), the Debtors' senior secured lender.

2. The primary objective of these receivership proceedings has been to complete the construction of a residential housing project located at the Real Property and known as "Richmond Hill Grace" (the "Project") and to sell the units in the Project, all in an effort to maximize the recovery to the Debtors' stakeholders.

B. Purpose of Report

3. The purpose of this report (the "Second Supplement") is to supplement the Sixth Report of the Receiver dated September 9, 2025 (the "Sixth Report") and the First Supplement to the Sixth Report of the Receiver dated December 9, 2025 (the "First Supplement") in connection with the return of the Receiver's motion for various relief in connection with the sale of Units (as defined in the Sixth Report) in the Project.

Pactima eSignature Package ID: MWtCF9CZuYL8egTsaCgug

4. In particular, this Second Supplement addresses, among other things:

(a) the registration of the standard condominium in respect of the Stacked Units (as defined in the Sixth Report);

(b) an update to stakeholders and the Court that the Receiver will not be seeking the approval of the December AVO Agreements (as defined in the First Supplement) at the December 19, 2025 hearing of the within motion as the standard condominium was not registered with sufficient time before this hearing to permit preparation of materials for the same; and

(c) the Target Price List, which inadvertently omitted values for two of the Units. This Second Supplement includes a Revised Target Price List (as defined and described below) as a Confidential Appendix which addresses this omission.

C. Scope and Terms of Reference

5. This Second Supplement has been prepared solely for the purposes described in this report. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned that this Second Supplement may not be appropriate for any other purpose.

6. Capitalized terms not defined in this Second Supplement have the meanings ascribed to them in the Sixth Report.

D. Registration of the Standard Condominium

7. As set out in the First Supplement:

(a) 36 of the Units are Freeholds in the form of parcels of tied land appurtenant to a common elements condominium; and

Pactima eSignature Package ID: MWtCF9CZuYL8egTsaCgug

(b) 60 of the Units are Stacked Units in the form of units in a standard condominium.

8. On October 8, 2025, the Receiver successfully registered the common elements condominium in respect of the Freeholds with the Land Registry Office for York. A copy of the declaration for this common elements condominium is attached hereto as Appendix A.

9. On December 17, 2025, the Receiver successfully registered the standard condominium in respect of the Stacked Units with the Land Registry Office for York. A copy of the parcel register showing this registration is attached hereto as Appendix B.

10. A copy of the declaration for this standard condominium is attached hereto as Appendix C.

11. As a result of the registration of the standard condominium, the Receiver is now in a position to convey title to the Stacked Units to purchasers, subject to the Court issuing approval and vesting orders in connection with the same.

12. The Receiver initially anticipated that the declaration for the standard condominium would be registered earlier than December 17, 2025.

13. Because of the timing of this registration, the Receiver will not have sufficient time to prepare AVO materials for the December AVO Agreements in respect of Stacked Units and will only be seeking approval of the December AVO Agreements in respect of the Freeholds at the December 19, 2025 return of the Sales Process Motion.

E. Parcel Registers

14. The relevant parcel registers for the December AVO Units that are Freeholds can be found in the appendices listed in the below table.

F. Revised Target Price List

15. The Target Price List appended to the Sixth Report as Confidential Appendix 1 lists the minimum target price for each Unit under a Permitted Transaction, being the Receiver's estimate of the current fair market value of each Unit, subject to a discount to provide the Receiver with flexibility in negotiating a favourable price with potential purchasers, in all the circumstances. The Target Price List is discussed more fully in the Sixth report.

16. The Target Price List inadvertently omitted the relevant pricing information for Unit 120 and 201.

Pactima eSignature Package ID: MWtCF9CZuYL8egTsaCgug

17. The Receiver has rectified this omission in the revised target price list (the "Revised Target Price List") appended hereto as Confidential Appendix 1.

18. All of the comments and observations made about the Target Prices for the Units in the Target Price List in the Sixth Report apply equally to the Target Prices for Unit 120 and 201 in the Revised Target Price List.

19. The Receiver requests that the Revised Target Price List be:

(a) approved for use in connection with Permitted Transactions; and

(b) sealed by Order of this Court, as the Target Price List was sealed by the Sales Process Order, and for the same reasons.

G. Confidential Agreement Summary

20. The Receiver has prepared a summary of the December AVO Agreements which sets out the financial terms of each December AVO Agreement in conjunction with the relevant December AVO Unit's Target Price, among other information. This Confidential Agreement Summary is attached hereto as Confidential Appendix 2.

21. The Receiver respectfully requests that the Court make an order sealing this Confidential Appendix 2 to the Second Supplement.'

Pactima eSignature Package ID: MWtCF9CZuYL8egTsaCgug

All of which is respectfully submitted this 17th day of December 2025,

ALBERT GELMAN INC., solely in its capacity as Court-Appointed Receiver of each of the Debtors and the Real Property and not in any other capacity

(b) Every mortgagee shall be deemed to have agreed to waive any right to have proceeds of any insurance applied on account of the mortgage where such application would prevent application of the insurance proceeds in satisfaction of an obligation to repair. This subparagraph 6.2(b) of this Article VI shall be read without prejudice to the right of any mortgagee to exercise the right of an Owner to vote or to consent if the mortgage itself contains a provision giving the mortgagee that right;

(c) A certificate or memorandum of all insurance policies, and endorsements thereto, shall be issued as soon as possible to each Owner, and a duplicate original or certified copy of the policy to each mortgagee who has notified the Corporation of its interest in any POTL. Renewal certificates or certificates of new insurance policies shall be furnished to each Owner and to each mortgagee noted on the Record of the Corporation who have requested same. The master policy for any insurance coverage shall be kept by the Corporation in its offices, available for inspection by any Owner or mortgagee on reasonable notice to the Corporation;

(e) Where insurance proceeds are received by the Corporation or any other person, they shall be held in trust and applied, utilized and distributed in accordance with the Act and this Article VI; and

(f) Prior to obtaining any new policy or policies of insurance and at such other time as the board may deem advisable and in any event, at least every three (3) years, the Board shall obtain an appraisal from an independent qualified appraiser of the full replacement cost of the assets for the purpose of determining the amount of insurance to be effected and the cost of such appraisal shall be a Common Expense.

6.3 By the Owner

It is acknowledged that the foregoing insurance is the only insurance required to be obtained and maintained by the Corporation and that the following insurance, or any other insurance, should be obtained and maintained by each Owner for his or her own benefit at such Owner's own expense:

(a) Insurance on the Owner's POTL and all buildings constructed thereon. Every such policy of insurance shall contain waiver of subrogation against the Corporation, its managers, agents, employees and servants and against the other Owners and any members of their household or guests except for any damage arising from arson, fraud, vehicle impact, vandalism or malicious mischief caused or contributed by any of the aforementioned parties.

(b) Public liability insurance covering any liability of any Owner or any resident, tenant, invitee or licensee of such Owner to the extent not covered by any public liability and property damage insurance obtained and maintained by the Corporation;

(c) Insurance covering the deductible on the Corporation's main policy for which an Owner may be responsible.

6.4 Indemnity Insurance for Directors and Officers of the Corporation

The Corporation shall obtain and maintain insurance for the benefit of all of the directors and officers of the Corporation, if such insurance is reasonably available, in order to indemnify them against the matters described in the Act, including any liability, cost, charge or expense incurred by them in the execution of their respective duties (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Liabilities"), provided however that such insurance shall not indemnify any of the directors or officers against any of the Liabilities respectively incurred by them as a result of a breach of their duty to act honestly and in good faith, or in contravention of the provisions of the Act.

No Owner shall make any change, alteration or addition in or to such equipment without the prior written consent of the Board.

(c) The Corporation shall conduct such maintenance and make any repair that an Owner is obliged to make and that the Owner does not make within a reasonable time and in such an event, such Owner shall be deemed to have consented to having said repairs done by the Corporation, and such Owner shall reimburse the Corporation in full for the cost of such maintenance and repairs, including any legal or collection costs incurred by the Corporation to collect the costs of such repairs, and all such sums of money shall bear interest at the rate of eighteen (18%) per cent per annum, calculated monthly not in advance from the date or dates incurred, until paid by the Owner. The Corporation may collect all such costs in such instalments as the Board may decide upon. The instalments shall form part of the monthly contributions towards the Common Expenses of such Owner, after the Corporation has given written notice thereof. All such payments are deemed to be additional contributions towards the Common Expenses and recoverable as such.

5.2 Responsibility of Owner for Damage

Each Owner shall be responsible for any and all damage to other Units and to the Common Elements, which is caused by the failure of the Owner to maintain and repair his or her Unit and such parts of the Common Elements for which he/she is responsible, save and except for any such damage for which the cost of repairing same may be recovered under any policy of insurance held by the Corporation.

5.3 Repair and Maintenance by Corporation

(a) Save as otherwise specifically provided in this Declaration to the contrary, the Corporation shall maintain, and repair after damage, the Common Elements (including any portion of the Shared Facilities comprising parts of the Common Elements of this Condominium which the Common Elements Condominium has failed to maintain and repair, in accordance with the provisions of the Shared Facilities Agreement), other than any improvements to (and/or any facilities, services or amenities installed by any Unit Owner upon) any Common Elements set aside for the exclusive use of any Owner. In order to maintain a uniformity of appearance throughout the Condominium, the Corporation's duty to maintain and repair shall extend to all exterior surfaces of doors which provide access to the Units, exterior door frames, exterior window frames and all exterior window surfaces, and any exterior perimeter fences erected by the Declarant along the boundaries of the Property.

(b) The Corporation shall maintain and repair the Parking Units, and the Common Elements at its own expense and shall be responsible for the maintenance and repair of exclusive use Common Elements, however, the Corporation shall not be responsible for the maintenance and repair those parts of the aforesaid Units and Common Elements which are required to be maintained and repaired by the Owners pursuant to paragraph 5.1.

(d) Every Owner shall forthwith reimburse the Corporation for repairs to windows and doors serving his or her Unit, following damage to same caused by such Owner's negligence, or the negligence of his or her residents, tenants, invitees or licensees.

(e) While Owners are responsible for the replacement and repair of the heating, air conditioning and ventilation equipment, the Corporation may, if approved by a majority of the Owners at a meeting called for that purpose, undertake to maintain the heating, air conditioning and ventilation equipment, with such periodic maintenance to include regularly scheduled inspections of all such equipment and the cleaning and replacement of air filters (the "Maintenance"). If the Corporation undertakes the Maintenance, it shall ensure compliance with common industry practice with regard to the manufacturers' recommended maintenance program. The Corporation shall not be responsible for damage which arises as a result of premature failure, improper functioning and/or inadequate repair.

(f) The Corporation shall be responsible for the cost of repairing and/or replacing all door locks respectively leading into each of the Residential Units that were originally installed by the Declarant (and keyed to the Corporation's master key entry system), unless any such lock has been damaged by any Owner, or by such Owner's residents, tenants, invitees or licensees, in which case the Corporation shall undertake and complete such repair or replacement, but the cost of same shall be borne solely by the affected.

5.4 Repair and Maintenance of the Shared Facilities

In such event, an Owner shall be deemed to have consented to having repairs done to his or her Unit by the Corporation. The Owner shall reimburse the Corporation for the cost of such repairs, and all such costs shall bear interest at the rate of eighteen (18%) percent per annum, calculated monthly not in advance from the date or dates incurred, until paid by the Owner. The Corporation may collect such costs in such installments as the Board may decide upon, which installments shall be added to the monthly contributions towards the Common Expenses of such Owner, after receipt of written notice from the Corporation thereof, and shall be treated in all respects as Common Expenses, and be recoverable as such.

FIRST SUPPLEMENT TO THE SIXTH REPORT OF THE RECEIVER

A. Introduction

1. On December 21, 2023 (the "Appointment Date"), the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "Court") made an order (the "Appointment Order") pursuant to section 243(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3, as amended ("BIA") and section 101 of the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O 1990, c. 43, as amended, inter alia, appointing Albert Gelman Inc. ("AGI") as receiver and manager (in such capacity, the "Receiver"), without security, of all present and future property, assets and undertakings of 2011836 Ontario Corp. ("201Co.") and Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership ("JPLP" and, together with 201Co., the "Debtors"), including the real property known municipally as 39, 53 and 67 Jefferson Side Road, Richmond Hill, Ontario (the "Real Property"). The Appointment Order was granted pursuant to an application (the "Receivership Application") made by Cameron Stephens Mortgage Capital Ltd. ("Cameron Stephens"), the Debtors' senior secured lender. Attached as Appendix A is a copy of the Appointment Order.

2. The primary objective of these receivership proceedings has been to complete the construction of a residential housing project located at the Real Property and known as "Richmond Hill Grace" (the "Project") and to sell the units in the Project, all in an effort to maximize the recovery to the Debtors' stakeholders.

B. Purpose of Report

3. The purpose of this report (the "First Supplement") is to supplement the Sixth Report of the Receiver dated September 9, 2025 (the "Sixth Report") in connection with the return of the Receiver's motion for approval of a sales process for the Project, among other things, which was adjourned in part, sine die, by Order of Justice Kimmel. On the return of this motion, the Receiver seeks:

Pactima eSignature Package ID: ZHrgSV7IImhtHJpAlloqz

(a) Approval and vesting orders (collectively, "AVOs" and, individually, an "AVO"):

(i) Approving the Transactions and the December AVO Agreements (each as defined below);

(ii) following the Receiver's delivery of the Receiver's certificate substantially in the form attached as Schedule "A" to a given AVO, transferring and vesting all of the Debtor's right, title and interest in and to the relevant December AVO Unit (as defined below) in the relevant December AVO Purchaser (as defined below), free and clear of all liens, charges, security interests and encumbrances other than permitted encumbrances;

(b) An ancillary relief order:

(i) approving this First Supplement and the Receiver's activities described therein;

(ii) approving a form of template vesting order that is to be completed by the Receiver in the future for each Permitted Transaction (as defined in the Sixth Report) and submitted to the Court Registrar for signature, in order to convey one or more Units (as defined below) to a purchaser free and clear of any mortgages, charges, liens or other encumbrances in the absence of separate court attendances for each separate Permitted Transaction;

Pactima eSignature Package ID: ZHrgSV7IImhtHJpAlloqz

(iii) approving the Template APSs (as defined below) for use in connection with Permitted Transactions;

(iv) amending subsection 3(k) of the Appointment Order to authorize the Receiver to sell the Units without approval of this Court in respect of any such transaction, provided that:

1) the total consideration for the Unit under an agreement of purchase and sale is not less than the Target Price (as defined in the Sixth Report) set out in Confidential Appendix 1 to the Sixth Report; and

2) the agreement of purchase and sale for such transaction is substantially in the form of either the Freehold Template or the Stacked Template (each as defined below), subject to such minor deviations from the Template APSs as the Receiver deems appropriate (each such transaction being a "Permitted Transaction");

(v) sealing the confidential appendices to the First Supplement; and

(vi) authorizing the Receiver to distribute the proceeds of the Transactions in accordance with the Interim Distribution.

C. Scope and Terms of Reference

4. This First Supplement has been prepared solely for the purposes described in this report. Accordingly, the reader is cautioned that this First Supplement may not be appropriate for any other purpose.

5. Capitalized terms not defined in this First Supplement have the meanings ascribed to them in the Sixth Report.

D. Status of the Project

6. The Project consists of 96 residential units (collectively, the "Units" and, individually, a "Unit"), which Units represent the primary asset of the Debtors.

7. 36 of the Units are freehold townhomes in the form of parcels of tied land appurtenant to a common elements condominium (collectively, the "Freeholds").

8. 60 of the Units are stacked townhomes in the form of units in a standard condominium (collectively, the "Stacked Units").

9. Since its appointment, the Receiver has been working to complete the Project, with a view to marketing the Units for sale to homebuyers. The Project is now substantially complete.

10. On October 8, 2025, the Receiver successfully registered the common elements condominium in respect of the Freeholds with the Land Registry Office for York. A copy of the parcel register for the premises on which the Freeholds and the common elements condominium are situated is attached hereto as Appendix B.

Pactima eSignature Package ID: ZHrgSV7IImhtHJpAlloqz

11. As of the date of this First Supplement, the Land Registry Office for York has not yet registered the declaration for the standard condominium in respect of the Stacked Units. The Receiver anticipates that this declaration will be registered within the next business day.

12. As a result of the registration of the common elements condominium and the imminent registration of the standard condominium, the Receiver:

(a) is now in a position to convey title to the Freeholds to purchasers; and

(b) will very likely be in a position to convey title to the Stacked Units to purchasers as of the return of the Sales Process Motion (as defined below) on December 19, 2025, subject to the Court issuing approval and vesting orders in connection with the same.

E. The Sales Process

1. The Sales Process Motion

13. On September 11, 2025, the Receiver commenced the within motion (the "Sales Process Motion") which sought, among other things:

(a) An Order amending the Appointment Order to authorize the Receiver to sell the Units without approval of the Court where the sale price of the Unit under the agreement of purchase and sale is not less than that Unit's Target Price, as set out in the Target Price List developed by the Receiver and described in detail in the Sixth Report (each such Transaction being a "Permitted Transaction");

(b) An Order approving a form of template vesting order that is to be completed by the Receiver for each Permitted Transaction and submitted to the Court

Pactima eSignature Package ID: ZHrgSV7IImhtHJpAlloqz

Registrar for signature in order to convey title to the Units to purchasers free and clear of encumbrances;

(c) An Order approving the Sales Process described in the Sixth Report; and

(d) An Order sealing the Target Price List.

14. The Receiver's original Notice of Motion in connection with the Sales Process Motion is attached hereto as Appendix C.

15. The Sales Process Motion was opposed by Fanseay Wang ("Fanseay"), the principal of the Debtors. In addition to opposing the relief sought by the Receiver in the Sales Process Motion, on October 16, 2025, Fanseay served a cross-motion (the "Cross-Motion") on the Receiver which sought, among other things:

(a) A stay of retail and individual Unit sales pending completion of a Court-ordered bulk-sale market test conducted by an independent sales monitor;

(b) An Order requiring the Receiver to disclose the Target Price List to stakeholders; and

(c) An Order reserving and holding back 50% of the future fees of the Receiver and its counsel.

16. A copy of the notice of motion for the Cross-Motion is attached hereto as Appendix D.

Pactima eSignature Package ID: ZHrgSV7IImhtHJpAlloqz

17. The Sales Process Motion was heard on October 23, 2025 by Justice Kimmel. On November 28, 2025, Justice Kimmel released her decision in connection with the Sales Process Motion and the Cross-Motion. Justice Kimmel:

(a) Dismissed the Cross-Motion (with the caveat that this dismissal only dismisses Fanseay's request for relief in opposition to the relief granted in connection with the Receiver's Sales Process Motion);

(b) Ordered the relief sought in the Sales Process Motion, with the exception of (i) the Receiver's request for orders amending the Appointment Order to enable the Receiver to complete Permitted Transactions without Court approval; and (ii) approving a template form of vesting order for use in connection with the same (such relief being the "Amendment Relief"); and

(c) Adjourned the Receiver's motion for the Amendment Relief sine die.

18. A copy of Justice Kimmel's Order and Endorsement in connection with the Sales Process Motion are attached hereto as Appendix E.

19. Justice Kimmel determined that it was premature to grant the Amendment Relief without the intended form of agreement of purchase and sale for use in connection with Permitted Transactions also being approved by the Court.

20. Accordingly, Justice Kimmel suggested to the Receiver that the Receiver's Motion for the Amendment Relief be considered in the context of a motion for one or more AVOs based on the form of agreement and purchase and sale intended to be used in Permitted Transactions.

2. Template APSs

21. As suggested by Justice Kimmel in connection with the Sales Process Motion, and in consultation with its counsel and advisors, the Receiver has developed two template agreements of purchase and sale for use in connection with Permitted Transactions.

22. The template agreement of purchase and sale for use in connection with Freeholds (the "Freehold Template") is attached hereto as Appendix F.

23. The template agreement of purchase and sale for use in connection with Stacked Units (the "Stacked Template" and, together with the Freehold Template, the "Template APSs") is attached hereto as Appendix G.

3. Results of the Receiver's sale efforts to date

24. Through and with its real estate broker, Homelife, the Receiver has been marketing the Unsold Units for sale since September 29, 2025, as contemplated by the Sales Process approved by Order of Justice Kimmel.

25. As a result of these efforts, the Receiver has entered into agreements of purchase and sale (collectively, the "New Agreements" and, individually, a "New Agreement"), each of which is substantially in the form of either the Freehold Template or the Stacked Template, as applicable. The details of the New Agreements are set out in the table below. This table identifies the appendix to this First Supplement in which each New Agreement, and any applicable amendments, can be found.

28. Together, the New Agreements and the Pre-Receivership Agreements are referred to as the "December AVO Agreements" and, individually, a "December AVO Agreement."

29. The transactions contemplated by the December AVO Agreements are referred to collectively as the "Transactions" and, individually, a "Transaction."

30. The purchasers under the December AVO Agreements are referred to collectively as the "December AVO Purchasers" and, individually, as a "December AVO Purchaser.

G. Approval and Vesting Orders

31. The Receiver recommends that this Court approve the December AVO Agreements and grant AVOs vesting title to the December AVO Units in the relevant December AVO Purchasers, upon the closing of these Transactions and filing of the Receiver's certificate. The Receiver notes the following:

(a) To the best of the Receiver's knowledge, the relationships between JPLP and the purchasers under the Pre-Receivership Agreements were arm's length and the Pre-Receivership Agreements were the product of industry-standard marketing efforts for a single family residential unit on behalf of JPLP;

(b) The values of the Units subject to the Pre-Receivership Agreements exceed the Receiver's estimates of the current market values of these Units, which estimates are set out in the Target Price List, being Confidential Appendix 1 to the Sixth Report;

(c) The New Agreements are the product of Homelife's marketing efforts, in accordance with the Sales Process approved by this Court;

(d) The value of each of the December AVO Agreements exceeds the Target Price for the respective December AVO Unit, as set out in the Target Price List. As set out in greater detail in the Sixth Report, each Unit's Target Price reflects the Receiver's estimate of the current fair market value of each Unit (as at the date of the Sixth Report), subject to a discount to provide the Receiver with flexibility in negotiating a favourable price with potential purchasers, in all the circumstances;

(e) The Receiver is of the view that, in all the circumstances, further marketing efforts in respect of the December AVO Units would be unlikely to generate a greater return for the Debtors' stakeholders than the December AVO Agreements, taking into account:

(i) the Receiver's estimate of the market value of the December AVO Units;

(ii) the professional fees associated with further marketing efforts; and

Pactima eSignature Package ID: ZHrgSV7IImhtHJpAlloqz

(iii) the continued accrual of interest on amounts owing to Cameron Stephens under the amounts lent by Cameron Stephens to the Receiver under the Receiver's Borrowing Charge (as defined in the Appointment Order). Such indebtedness can be reduced through the distribution of the proceeds of the Transactions to Cameron Stephens; and

(f) In all the circumstances, the December AVO Agreements are commercially reasonable transactions and the Receiver is of the view that the Receiver's completion of the December AVO Agreements would be accretive to the estate of the Debtors and beneficial to their stakeholders.

H. Sealing Order

32. The Receiver requests that this Court grant a sealing order in respect of the Confidential Appendices to this First Supplement.

33. As set out above, the Confidential Appendices consist of the unredacted copies of the December AVO Agreements, which each set out the financial terms of the transactions contemplated therein.

34. If any of this pricing information was made public, it would compromise the Receiver's ability to obtain the best price for the Units because it may reveal information about the Receiver's pricing and negotiation strategy to potential purchasers, who could in turn use this information to make tactical, lower offers for the purchase of the Units. This would be detrimental to stakeholder recovery.

Pactima eSignature Package ID: ZHrgSV7IImhtHJpAlloqz

35. As a result, the Receiver is of the view that an order sealing the Confidential Appendices will permit the Receiver to maximize the proceeds of the Units and is in the best interests of the Debtors' stakeholders.

I. Interim Distribution

36. As amended by the Order of Justice Steele dated May 2, 2025, the Receiver is authorized to borrow $40,000,000, which amounts are secured by the Receiver's Borrowing Charge provided for in the Appointment Order. A copy of the Order of Justice Steele dated May 2, 2025 is attached hereto as Appendix U.

37. As of December 8, 2025, the Receiver has borrowed $35,901,755 from Cameron Stephens pursuant to the Receiver's Borrowing Charge.

38. The Receiver requests authorization to use the proceeds of the Transactions to:

(a) Pay commission owing to Homelife and cooperating brokers in connection with the New Agreements;

(b) Pay the fees and disbursements of the Receiver and its legal counsel, to the extent those fees have been approved by the Court; and

(c) Repay amounts owing to Cameron Stephens under the Receiver's Borrowing Charge (such scheme of distribution being the "Interim Distribution").

39. Repayment of amounts owing to Cameron Stephens under the Receiver's Borrowing Charge will minimize the accrual of interest on these amounts and will be in the best interests of stakeholders generally.

Pactima eSignature Package ID: ZHrgSV7IImhtHJpAlloqz

40. Pursuant to the listing agreement between Homelife and the Receiver, Homelife is to be paid between 0.8 and 1% of the sale price of a Unit as listing sales commission (and 3% of the sale price of a Unit if Homelife acts as both listing and cooperating agent in connection with a Unit sale).

41. According to agreements between the Receiver and cooperating agents in connection with the New Agreements, these cooperating agents are to be paid 3% of the sale price of a Unit.

42. In the Receiver's view, the foregoing real estate commission rates are typical for single-family residential real property in Ontario.

J. Bankruptcy of Fanseay

43. On December 1, 2025, Justice Kimmel made a bankruptcy order against Fanseay (the "Bankruptcy Order"). Copies of the Bankruptcy Order and the endorsement of Justice Kimmel in relation thereto are attached hereto as Appendix V.

44. The Bankruptcy Order appoints Albert Gelman Inc. as trustee-in-bankruptcy.

45. On December 3, 2025, Fanseay filed a Notice of Appeal in respect of the Bankruptcy Order. A copy of this Notice of Appeal is attached hereto as Appendix W.

K. Professional Fees

46. In accordance with paragraphs 17, 18 and 19 of the Appointment Order, the Receiver has been authorized to periodically pay its fees and disbursements, and that of its counsel, subject to approval by the Court.

47. The Receiver's professional fees incurred for services rendered from September 1, 2025 to November 30, 2025 amount to $185,696.00, plus disbursements in the amount of $824.95 (all excluding HST). These amounts represent professional fees and disbursements not yet approved by the Court. The time spent by the Receiver's professionals is described in the affidavit of Bryan Gelman, sworn December 8, 2025 attached hereto as Appendix X.

48. The fees of Paliare Roland Rosenberg Rothstein LLP ("Paliare"), litigation and insolvency counsel to the Receiver, for services rendered from September 1, 2025 to November 30, 2025 total $109,536.19 (inclusive of HST and disbursements). These amounts represent professional fees and disbursements not yet approved by the Court. The time spent by Paliare's professionals is described in the affidavit of Candace Baumtrog sworn December 9, 2025 attached hereto as Appendix Y.

L. Order Requested

49. The Receiver respectfully requests that the Court grant the relief described in paragraph 3 of this First Supplement.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 9th day of December 2025,

ALBERT GELMAN INC., solely in its capacity as Court-Appointed Receiver of each of the Debtors and the Real Property and not in any other capacity

5. THIS COURT ORDERS that all Persons shall forthwith advise the Receiver of the existence of any books, documents, securities, contracts, orders, corporate and accounting records, and any other papers, records and information of any kind related to the business or affairs of the Debtors, and any computer programs, computer tapes, computer disks, or other data storage media containing any such information (the foregoing, collectively, the "Records") in that Person's possession or control, and shall provide to the Receiver or permit the Receiver to make, retain and take away copies thereof and grant to the Receiver unfettered access to and use of accounting, computer, software and physical facilities relating thereto, provided however that nothing in this paragraph 5 or in paragraph 6 of this Order shall require the delivery of Records, or the granting of access to Records, which may not be disclosed or provided to the Receiver due to the privilege attaching to solicitor-client communication or due to statutory provisions prohibiting such disclosure.

6. THIS COURT ORDERS that if any Records are stored or otherwise contained on a computer or other electronic system of information storage, whether by independent service provider or otherwise, all Persons in possession or control of such Records shall forthwith give unfettered access to the Receiver for the purpose of allowing the Receiver to recover and fully copy all of the information contained therein whether by way of printing the information onto paper or making

NO EXERCISE OF RIGHTS OR REMEDIES

9. THIS COURT ORDERS that all rights and remedies against the Debtors, the Receiver, or affecting the Property, are hereby stayed and suspended except with the written consent of the Receiver or leave of this Court, provided however that this stay and suspension does not apply in respect of any "eligible financial contract" as defined in the BIA, and further provided that nothing in this paragraph shall (i) empower the Receiver or the Debtors to carry on any business which the Debtors are not lawfully entitled to carry on, (ii) exempt the Receiver or the Debtors from compliance with statutory or regulatory provisions relating to health, safety or the environment, (iii) prevent the filing of any registration to preserve or perfect a security interest, or (iv) prevent the registration of a claim for lien.

11. THIS COURT ORDERS that all Persons having oral or written agreements with the Debtors or statutory or regulatory mandates for the supply of goods and/or services, including without limitation, all computer software, communication and other data services, centralized banking services, payroll services, insurance, transportation services, utility or other services to the Debtors are hereby restrained until further Order of this Court from discontinuing, altering, interfering with or terminating the supply of such goods or services as may be required by the Receiver, and that the Receiver shall be entitled to the continued use of the Debtors' current telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, internet addresses and domain names provided in each case that the normal prices or charges for all such goods or services received after the date of this Order are paid by the Receiver in accordance with normal payment practices of the Debtors or such other practices as may be agreed upon by the supplier or service provider and the Receiver, or as may be ordered by this Court.

RECEIVER TO HOLD FUNDS

12. THIS COURT ORDERS that all funds, monies, cheques, instruments, and other forms of payments received or collected by the Receiver from and after the making of this Order from any source whatsoever, including without limitation the sale of all or any of the Property and the collection of any accounts receivable in whole or in part, whether in existence on the date of this Order or hereafter coming into existence, shall be deposited into one or more new accounts to be opened by the Receiver (the "Post Receivership Accounts"). For certainty, all receipts shall be deposited into the Post Receivership Accounts and all Permitted Disbursements (defined below) shall be drawn from the Post Receivership Accounts. “Permitted Disbursements” shall include but shall not be limited to realty taxes, utilities, insurance, construction and related costs, maintenance expenses, other reasonable expenses, and business expenses. The monies standing to the credit of such Post Receivership Accounts from time to time, net of any disbursements provided for herein, shall be held by the Receiver to be paid in accordance with the terms of this Order or any further Order of this Court.

EMPLOYEES

13. THIS COURT ORDERS that all employees of the Debtors shall remain the employees of the Debtors. The Receiver shall not be liable for any employee-related liabilities, including any successor employer liabilities as provided for in section 14.06(1.2) of the BIA, other than such amounts as the Receiver may specifically agree in writing to pay, or in respect of its obligations under sections 81.4(5) or 81.6(3) of the BIA or under the Wage Earner Protection Program Act.

PIPEDA

14. THIS COURT ORDERS that, pursuant to clause 7(3)(c) of the Canada Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act, the Receiver shall disclose personal information of identifiable individuals to prospective purchasers or bidders for the Property and to their advisors, but only to the extent desirable or required to negotiate and attempt to complete one or more sales of the Property (each, a "Sale"). Each prospective purchaser or bidder to whom such personal information is disclosed shall maintain and protect the privacy of such information and limit the use of such information to its evaluation of the Sale, and if it does not complete a Sale, shall return all such information to the Receiver, or in the alternative destroy all such information. The purchaser of any Property shall be entitled to continue to use the personal information provided to it, and related to the Property purchased, in a manner which is in all material respects identical to the prior use of such information by the Debtors and shall return all other personal information to the Receiver, or ensure that all other personal information is destroyed.

LIMITATION ON ENVIRONMENTAL LIABILITIES

15. THIS COURT ORDERS that nothing herein contained shall require the Receiver to occupy or to take control, care, charge, possession or management (separately and/or collectively, "Possession") of any of the Property that might be environmentally contaminated, might be a pollutant or a contaminant, or might cause or contribute to a spill, discharge, release or deposit of a substance contrary to any federal, provincial or other law respecting the protection, conservation, enhancement, remediation or rehabilitation of the environment or relating to the disposal of waste or other contamination including, without limitation, the Canadian Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Water Resources Act, or the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act and regulations thereunder (the "Environmental Legislation"), provided however that nothing herein shall exempt the Receiver from any duty to report or make disclosure imposed by applicable Environmental Legislation. The Receiver shall not, as a result of this Order or anything done in pursuance of the Receiver's duties and powers under this Order, be deemed to be in Possession of any of the Property within the meaning of any Environmental Legislation, unless it is actually in possession.

LIMITATION ON THE RECEIVER'S LIABILITY

16. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver shall incur no liability or obligation as a result of its appointment or the carrying out the provisions of this Order, save and except for any gross negligence or wilful misconduct on its part, or in respect of its obligations under sections 81.4(5) or 81.6(3) of the BIA or under the Wage Earner Protection Program Act. Nothing in this Order shall derogate from the protections afforded the Receiver by section 14.06 of the BIA or by any other applicable legislation.

RECEIVER'S ACCOUNTS

17. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver and counsel to the Receiver shall be paid their reasonable fees and disbursements, in each case at their standard rates and charges unless otherwise ordered by the Court on the passing of accounts, and that the Receiver and counsel to the Receiver shall be entitled to and are hereby granted a charge (the "Receiver's Charge") on the Property, as security for such fees and disbursements, both before and after the making of this Order in respect of these proceedings, and that the Receiver's Charge shall form a first charge on the Property in priority to all security interests, trusts, liens, charges and encumbrances, statutory or otherwise, in favour of any Person, but subject to sections 14.06(7), 81.4(4), and 81.6(2) of the BIA.

18. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver and its legal counsel shall pass its accounts from time to time, and for this purpose the accounts of the Receiver and its legal counsel are hereby referred to a judge of the Commercial List of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

19. THIS COURT ORDERS that prior to the passing of its accounts, the Receiver shall be at liberty from time to time to apply reasonable amounts, out of the monies in its hands, against its fees and disbursements, including legal fees and disbursements, incurred at the standard rates and charges of the Receiver or its counsel, and such amounts shall constitute advances against its remuneration and disbursements when and as approved by this Court.

FUNDING OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

IN THE MATTRER OF AN APPLICATION UNDER SUBSECTION 243(1) OF THE BANKRUPTCY AND INSOLVENCY ACT, R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3, AS AMENDED AND SECTION 101 OF THE COURTS OF JUSTICE ACT, R.S.O. 1990, c. C.43, AS AMENDED

NOTICE OF MOTION (MOTION RE. SALES PROCESS)

Albert Gelman Inc., in its capacity as receiver and manager (in such capacity, the "Receiver") of all present and future property, assets and undertakings of 2011836 Ontario Corp. and Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership (together, the "Debtors") including the real property listed in Schedule "A" (the "Real Property") to the order of Justice Cavanagh, dated December 21, 2023 (the "Receivership Order"), will make a motion to a Judge presiding over the Commercial List on October 23, 2025 at 10:00 AM, or as soon after that time as the Motion can be heard.

PROPOSED METHOD OF HEARING: The motion is to be heard by video conference at the following location: Zoom coordinates to be made available on Caselines.

THE MOTION IS FOR:

(a) An Order validating service of the Receiver's materials in connection with this Motion, generally, and, in particular, with respect to Fanseay Wang ("Fanseay");

(b) An Order approving the Sixth Report of the Receiver, dated September 9, 2025 (the "Sixth Report") and the Receiver's conduct and activities described therein;

(c) An Order approving the Sales Process (as defined and described in the Sixth Report);

(d) An Order amending subsection 3(k) of the Receivership Order to authorize the Receiver to sell the Units (as defined in the Sixth Report) without approval of this Court in respect of any such transaction, provided that the sale price of the Unit under an agreement of purchase and sale is not less than the Target Price (as defined in the Sixth Report) set out in Confidential Appendix 1 to the Sixth Report (each such transaction being a "Permitted Transaction");

(e) An Order approving a form of template vesting order that is to be completed by the Receiver in the future for each Permitted Transaction and submitted to the Court Registrar for signature, in order to convey one or more Units

(as defined below) to a purchaser free and clear of any mortgages, charges, liens or other encumbrances in the absence of separate court attendances for each separate Permitted Transaction;

(f) An Order approving the fees of the Receiver and its counsel as set out in the fee affidavits appended to the Sixth Report;

(g) An Order sealing the Target Price List (as defined in the Sixth Report), being Confidential Appendix 1 to the Sixth Report;

(h) The costs of this motion, plus applicable HST, as against Fanseay; and

(i) Such further and other relief as this Honourable Court deems just.

THE GROUNDS FOR THE MOTION ARE:

A. Background

(a) Pursuant to the Receivership Order, Albert Gelman Inc. was appointed as receiver and manager of the Real Property and all present and future assets, undertakings and personal property of the Debtors;

(b) The Real Property is the site of a 96-unit (the "Units" and, individually, a "Unit") residential real estate development project known as Richmond Hill Grace (the "Project"), which is the principal asset of the Debtors;

(c) The Receiver is of the view that the value of the Debtors' estates would be maximized through the completion of the Project and the marketing of the Units for sale to homebuyers;

B. The Project

(d) Since its appointment, the Receiver has been working to complete the Project. The Project is now substantially complete and the Receiver is of the view that it is now appropriate to begin marketing the unsold Units (the "Unsold Units") for sale;

(e) There are 87 Unsold Units, consisting of 51 unsold stacked townhouses and 36 unsold freehold homes;

C. The Sales Process

(f) On November 11, 2024, the Receiver engaged Homelife Landmark Reality Inc. ("Homelife") to act as sales representative in connection with the Units;

(g) In consultation with Cameron Stephens and Homelife, the Receiver has developed a proposed Sales Process for the Units, which is described below:

(i) Homelife will begin marketing the Units through a "sales launch" event on September 29, 2025 where local real estate agents will be invited to learn about the Units;

(ii) Homelife will operate a sales centre located on the Real Property where Homelife will market the Units to prospective purchasers and real estate agents;

(iii) Homelife will list the Units on the multiple listing service; and

(iv) Homelife will publish online advertisements for the Units on Instagram and Facebook;

D. Proposed Amendments to the Receivership Order

(h) As a matter of efficiency, the Receiver seeks to amend subsection 3(k) of the Appointment Order to authorize Permitted Transactions without seeking Court approval in each case. The Receiver seeks approval of a form of approval and vesting order to be completed by the Receiver in respect of each Permitted Transaction, to be submitted to the Court Registrar for signature, which will convey the Unit(s) to a purchaser free and clear of any mortgages, charges, liens or other encumbrances, without the need to bring a motion in each case;

(i) With respect to the Units, the Receiver has proposed a target selling price for each Unit under a Permitted Transaction (a "Target Price"). The Target Price reflects the Receiver's estimate of the current fair market value of each Unit, subject to a discount to provide the Receiver will flexibility in negotiating with prospective purchasers;

(j) A transaction for the sale of a Unit will be a Permitted Transaction if the sale price of the Unit under the agreement of purchase and sale is not less than the Target Price for that Unit. The list of Target Prices (the "Target Price List") is attached to the Sixth Report as Confidential Appendix 1;

(k) The form of approval and vesting order sought in connection with Permitted Transactions is substantially in the form of the Commercial List Users' Committee Model Approval and Vesting Order;

(l) The Receiver is seeking approval for this mechanism because it will allow sales of the Units to be completed without the need to bring a motion and attend court each time, which is required under the terms of the current Appointment Order. Continuing with the current approval process in respect of each Unit sale does not constitute a prudent use of judicial resources or the Debtors' assets;

(m) Bringing a motion and attending court for an approval and vesting order in connection with each sale transaction causes the Receiver to incur legal expenses and reduces the net proceeds available to creditors from each sale of an Unit;

(n) The Receiver has reviewed the Target Price List and confirms that other, comparable residential units have been sold within a similar range, accounting for specific Unit attributes such as location, size, view, or finishes;

(o) The proposed Permitted Transaction structure balances the need to expedite the sale process with the requirement to maximize recoveries for the benefit of stakeholders. The approach reflects typical market practices and takes into account the range of sale prices achieved for comparable units in similar developments within the same geographic location;

(p) Permitting the approval of Permitted Transactions in this summary fashion will minimize legal costs, enhance efficiency and generally maximize the net proceeds generated by the sale of the Units, for the benefit of all stakeholders;

(q) In the event the Receiver wishes to seek approval of the sale of an Unit for less than the Unit's Target Price, then the Receiver will be required to seek Court approval in the normal course;

E. Sealing Order

(r) The Target Price List contains a list of the Receiver's estimation of the fair market value for each of the Units, as of the date hereof. The Target Price List establishes a floor for the sale of an Unit to be considered a Permitted Transaction;

(s) If any of this pricing information was made public, it would compromise the Receiver's ability to obtain the best price for the Units because it would, in effect, permit a potential purchaser to know the "minimum price" for which the Receiver would be able to most efficiently sell the Units;

(t) As a result, the Receiver is of the view that an order sealing the Target Price List will permit the Receiver to maximize the proceeds of the Units and is in the best interests of the Debtors' stakeholders;

F. The Sixth Report

(u) The Receiver has engaged in activities and incurred fees and disbursements for the benefit of the Debtors' stakeholders, as set out in the Sixth Report;

(v) These activities, fees and disbursements (and those of the Receiver's counsel) have been accretive to the estates of the Debtors and should be approved by the Court alongside the Sixth Report;

(w) The provisions of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3, as amended, and sections 101 and 137(2) of the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. C.43, as amended and the inherent and equitable jurisdiction of this Court;

(x) Rules 2.03, 3.02, 16.08 and 37 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, R.R.O. 1990, Reg. 194, as amended; and

(y) Such further and other grounds as counsel may advise and this Honourable Court may deem just.

THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE will be used at the hearing of this Motion:

(a) The Sixth Report; and

(b) Such further and other evidence as the lawyers may advise and this Honourable Court may permit.

Self-Represented Respondent

TO THE APPLICANT, THE RECEIVER, AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD:

TAKE NOTICE that a cross-motion will be made by the Self-Represented Respondent, FENGXI (FANSEAY) WANG, in his capacity as director and authorized representative of the Respondent corporations, at 330 University Avenue, Toronto, Ontario, on October 23, 2025 at 10:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the motion may be heard, in person or by videoconference as the Court may direct.

The Respondent's self-representation status was confirmed orally by Justice Steele on May 2, 2025. This cross-motion is brought in continuation of that approval, while a separate motion for leave to represent the corporations on a self-represented basis was filed on September 19, 2025.

RELIEF SOUGHT

1. Directions that any sale process remain under Court supervision and approval, with no closings absent further Order.

2. A stay of retail or individual-unit sales pending completion of a Court-supervised bulk-sale market test conducted under the oversight of an independent Sales Monitor reporting directly to the Court.

3. An Order requiring a full bulk-sale market test for the Jefferson Properties project, open to qualified developers, with transparent public marketing, reporting of all bids received, and return to Court for approval of any transaction.

4. Appointment of a Sales Monitor, with authority to supervise the bulk-sale process, review the Receiver's conduct, and report to the Court and stakeholders.

5. Disclosure to the Sales Monitor and stakeholders (subject to appropriate confidentiality) of the Target Price List, appraisals, and valuation materials relied upon by the Receiver.

6. Fees reserved and held back: approval and payment of the Receiver's/counsel's fees for the impugned period reserved, with any interim draw capped at 50% and a 50% holdback on all future fees, pending the Sales Monitor's report and further order; and jurisdiction reserved to order reduction or repayment of any fees already paid if later found improvident, disproportionate, or obtained on incomplete information.

7. Such further and other relief as this Honourable Court may deem just.

8. Hearing Together: This Cross-Motion shall be heard together with the Respondent's Investigation Motion filed May 9, 2025.

This Cross-Motion is founded solely on materials already filed before the Court—principally the Receiver's own reports and related court-filed evidence—in faith that the Court decides only on verified fact and integrity, not on any pre-assumption, persuasive advocacy, or implications arising from skilled attorneys.

GROUNDS

9. Courts of Justice Act, ss. 101 and 106; Rules of Civil Procedure, rr. 1.04, 37, 38.

10. Receiver's fiduciary duties of transparency, impartiality, and value maximization in any sale of estate assets — principles requiring open, court-supervised marketing and often a bulk-sale test to ensure best realization — as established in:

10A. Royal Bank of Canada v. Soundair Corp., 1991 CanLII 2727 (ON CA) — foundational case on court-approved sales; the court must be satisfied that the process was fair, transparent, and yielded the best price reasonably obtainable.

10B. Romspen Investment Corp. v. Courtice Auto Wreckers Ltd., 2017 ONCA 301 — confirms that receivers must demonstrate open marketing and bona fide efforts to obtain maximum value, not merely accept convenience sales.

10C. Bank of Montreal v. Carnival National Leasing Ltd., 2011 ONSC 1007 — reiterates that a receiver is a court officer owing duties to all stakeholders, not just the appointing creditor, and must avoid self-interested or lender-driven sales.

10D. Horseshoe Valley Lands (Re), 2017 ONSC 426 — endorses court-supervised bulk-sale marketing as the proper safeguard where piecemeal sales risk diminishing total value.

10E. Harte Gold (Re), 2022 ONSC 653 — emphasizes that transparency and process integrity, not expediency, are the controlling factors for approving a receiver's sale.

10F. Urbancorp Cumberland 2 (Re), 2017 ONSC 7649 — confirms that where stakeholder interests diverge, the court may direct a structured sale process under independent supervision to ensure fairness and value.

11. Fee-approval principles of value and proportionality, and the Court's discretion to reduce, reserve, or order repayment of compensation where work has not preserved or enhanced estate value:

11A. Bank of Nova Scotia v. Diemer, 2014 ONCA 851 — establishes that compensation must reflect value achieved, not hours billed.

11B. Sub-Prime Mortgage Corp. v. 1219070 Ontario Inc. ("Phoenix Apartments"), 2010 ONSC 6535 — holds that a receiver will not be compensated for work that diminishes rather than preserves the estate.

11C. The evidentiary record in the Affidavit of Fengxi (Fanseay) Wang (September 2025) and exhibits, including the Receiver's Fourth Report (Sept 23, 2025) confirming over twenty months of receivership with no units delivered and continuing expenditures/delays.

11D. Such further grounds as the Court may permit.

THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE WILL BE USED AT THE HEARING

12. The Affidavit of Fengxi (Fanseay) Wang, sworn September 2025, and Exhibits "A"–"N" (including Exhibit "N" – Receiver's Fourth Report dated September 23, 2025).

13. The Factum of the Respondent (Cross-Motion) dated October 16, 2025.

14. The Draft Order (Proposed).

15. Such further material as the Court may permit.

ENDORSEMENT OF JUSTICE KIMMEL:

The Motion, Cross-Motion and Procedural Context

The Receiver's Motion

[1] Albert Gelman Inc. ("AGI"), the receiver and manager (in such capacity, the "Receiver") of 2011836 Ontario Corp. ("201") and Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership ("JPLP" and, together with 201, the "Debtors") seeks, among other things, an Order (the "Sales Process Approval Order"):

1. approving the Sixth Report of the Receiver, dated September 9, 2025 (the "Sixth Report") and the Receiver's conduct fees, and activities described therein, including the fees of the Receiver's counsel;

2. approving the Sales Process (as defined and described in the Sixth Report); and

3. amending the Order appointing the Receiver (the "Appointment Order") to authorize the Receiver to sell the Units (as defined below) without the specific approval of this court for any such transaction, provided that the sale price of the Unit under an agreement of purchase and sale is not less than the applicable minimum target price set out in Confidential Appendix to the Sixth Report.

The Cross-Motion

[2] Mr. Fanseay (Fengxi) Wang ("Wang") describes himself in his Notice of Cross Motion dated October 16, 2025 (the "Cross-Motion") to be acting in his capacity as director and authorized representative of the Respondent corporations (Debtors). He has brought a separate motion for leave to represent the corporations that was filed on September 19, 2025, but I see no record of it having been heard or any order made. Wang was nonetheless permitted to make submissions on behalf of the Debtors for the purposes of the Receiver's motion and the Cross-Motion, despite having not yet brought his motion for leave to represent them.

[3] Wang asks the court in his Cross-Motion to order:

1. a stay of retail/individual sales pending completion of a court-supervised bulk-sale market test;

2. the immediate appointment of an independent Sales Monitor/Inspector, reporting directly to the court, to investigate the Receiver's conduct and oversee the Sales Process;

3. disclosure of the Target Price List and all details of nine new sales to all stakeholders, with any necessary confidentiality protections, and provision for in-camera or sealed review by the court;

4. the establishment of a minimum price floor where no unit is sold for less than its specific, firm APS price as set out in Exhibit "A" to Wang's Affidavit [a table of Direct Unit-by-Unit Price Comparisons that is subject to non-disclosure and confidentiality restrictions]; and

5. the reservation or denial of Receiver's fees for the relevant period, consistent with the principles in Sub-Prime Mortgage Corp. v. 1219070 Ontario Inc., 2010 ONSC 6535.

[4] Although the Cross-Motion was served late, the Receiver and other participating parties did not object to it proceeding insofar as it mirrors the response advanced by Wang, purporting to speak on behalf of the Debtors, to the Receiver's motion.

Procedural Context

[5] The Receiver was appointed by order dated December 21, 2023 (the "Appointment Order"). At that time, the Debtors had partially constructed a residential development project called Richmond Hill Grace (the "Project") on the Debtors' real property (the "Real Property").

[6] There have been numerous court appearances and orders and endorsements made in connection with this receivership and a contested bankruptcy proceeding initiated by the applicant, Cameron Stephens Mortgage Capital ("Cameron Stephens"), against Wang personally under court file BK-24-00208725-OT31 (the "Wang Bankruptcy Proceeding"). The trial in the contested Wang Bankruptcy Proceeding commenced on October 21, 2025 and the hearing was continued and completed on November 10, 2025.

[7] In the week prior to November 10, 2025, Wang commenced an action on the civil list against Cameron Stephens (the "Wang Civil Action") and made a request for the Commercial List to appoint a judge to case manage seven proceedings identified by him to be interrelated, including this Receivership proceeding, the Wang Bankruptcy Proceeding and the newly commenced Wang Civil Action. A case conference was convened on November 24, 2025 before me as one of the co-team leads of the Commercial List to consider Wang's request for case management. Those seven proceedings are:

1. This Receivership proceeding (CV-23-00710795-00CL)
2. The Wang Bankruptcy Proceeding (BK-24-00208725-OT31)
3. The Wang Civil Action: Wang v. Cameron Stephens Mortgage Capital Ltd., new Statement of Claim filed November 7, 2025 (CV-25-00755625-0000)
4. Windsor Private Capital Limited Partnership v. Fanseay Wang (CV-24-00717073-0000)
5. Duca Financial Services Credit Union Ltd. v. AmerCan Corporation et al. (CV-24-00718071-00CL)
6. MNP Ltd., as Court-Appointed Receiver of AmerCan Corporation v. Xiaojing Jessica Sun and Fengxi Wang (CV-23-00718071-00CL)
7. Duca Financial Services Credit Union Ltd. v. Fanseay Wang (CV-25-00742064-0000)

[8] My decisions in this Receivership proceeding and in the Wang Bankruptcy Proceeding were held under reserve pending the case conference held on November 24, 2025 to ensure that the court was aware of the full procedural context and potential implications of those decisions. My endorsement regarding the Case Management Request was released on November 24, 2025. My decision in the Wang Bankruptcy Proceeding is still under reserve.

Prior Determinations

[9] There have been several earlier decisions and determinations made that have some bearing on the issues raised, particularly in the Cross-Motion. Some of these prior determinations were summarized in the endorsement of Steele J. from a May 2, 2025, hearing released on May 6, 2025, as follows:

3. Mr. Wang objects to the Receiver's management of the Project (defined below). Certain of the decisions objected to by Mr. Wang are res judicata. Specifically, the court has already approved the following in prior orders:

    a. The Receiver's decision to halt construction in January, 2024;

    b. The Receiver's decision to retain a new construction manager; and

    c. The Receiver obtaining the prior borrowing increase to $31,500,000.

9. On June 18, 2024, the court granted an order approving the Receiver's request to disclaim agreements of purchase and sale for the freehold townhomes.

10. On November 5, 2024, Cavanagh J. granted a lien claims process order (the "LCP Order"). This order provides a mechanism for adjudicating certain lien claims. The Receiver has determined that the cost of resolving the lien claims could be $2,100,000.

[10] When the Receiver brought its motion for approval to disclaim 28 agreements of purchase and sale that pre-dated the Receivership, it had obtained appraisals for an en bloc "as is where is" sale of the Property that were less than the then projected value for sales of completed Units. This informed the Receiver's recommendation that it should oversee the completion of the construction of the Units to be sold to homebuyers. The court concluded on that motion in its June 18, 2024 decision that: "The Receiver's decision to disclaim the 28 Freehold APSs is 'within the broad bounds of reasonableness'": Cameron Stephens Mortgage Capital Ltd. v. 2011836 Ontario Corp. et al., 2024 ONSC 3507, at para. 42. The court also found, at para. 32, that if the Receiver was not able to complete the Project, "the Project would be sold on an 'as-is, where-is' basis, resulting in a significant loss to the debtors' estate."

[11] In the May 6, 2025 endorsement, Steele J. increased the Receiver's borrowing limit to an amount that the Receiver indicated, based on the cost estimates in the report of its consultant Glynn Group Incorporated dated February 4, 2025 (the "Glynn Report"), would be needed to complete the Project. The Glynn Report was sealed by the same order and endorsement, which also approved an earlier report of the Receiver's and the Receiver's fees and the fees of its counsel presented for approval at that time. At para. 22 of that endorsement, the court concluded that:

> It is accretive to the estate for the Project to be completed because the potential realization on a completed project exceeds the value on an as is where is basis. It is to the benefit of all stakeholders that the Project be completed. Funding is necessary in order to do so.

[12] After receiving approval to disclaim the 28 agreements of purchase and sale and approval for increased borrowing charges to fund the development and construction costs to complete the Project, the Receiver has followed that course of action.

[13] Since May of 2025, there was at least one adjournment of the Wang Bankruptcy Proceeding to accommodate Wang, who was caring for his ailing mother out of the country. In the intervening time, the court also considered the Receiver's Request for Stay or Dismissal under r. 2.1 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, R.R.O. 1990, Reg. 194 (the "Request") in respect of Wang's motion brought by way of notice of motion dated May 9, 2025. The Request was not granted (per the court's endorsement of August 20, 2025) on the basis that the record did not show that the relief sought by Mr. Wang in his notice of motion dated May 9, 2025 had already been adjudicated.

[14] In disposing of the Request, the court made no comment on the substance of the relief sought in Wang's May 9, 2025 notice of motion seeking, among other things, the appointment of an independent inspector, auditor, or monitor, to investigate and report on the current state of construction progress on the Jefferson Project, the Receiver's use and accounting of the $23.2 million in DIP loan proceeds spent to date, site safety compliance, and site conditions (the "Investigation"). That motion for an Investigation into the Receiver's conduct has still not been scheduled for a hearing.

[15] Wang suggested that his Cross-Motion be heard at the same time as the earlier Investigation motion. The court determined that the Cross-Motion, which was largely a response to the Receiver's motion for approval of the Sales Process, should be heard on October 23, 2025.

The Debtors' Concerns and Receiver's Responses

[16] The opposition to the Receiver's Sales Process Motion and support for the Debtors' Cross-Motion are predicated on the same foundational assertions, that: there has been prolonged delay, value destruction, and actions taken by the Receiver in connection with the Project without prior court authorization. This is the basis for the Debtors' request for a court-supervised bulk-sale market test and independent oversight/investigation with direct reporting to the court. By way of overview, Wang complains that:

1. Shortly after its appointment, the Receiver cancelled the 28 firm APSs as "far below market", yet its current Target Price List (proposed Confidential Exhibit 1 to the Sixth Report for which a sealing order is sought) is, on average, about 35% lower than those cancelled APS prices, resulting in a loss of approximately $48.38 million relative to that benchmark.

2. The Receiver's broker publicly launched a "VIP Broker" campaign on or about September 29, 2025 and began soliciting deposits before any court authorization to sell. The Appointment Order requires court approval for sales over $250,000. The Receiver also appears to have allowed marketing or offers on "stack units" despite no court order terminating firm APSs on those units. Such conduct demonstrates a recurring pattern of disregard for the court's supervisory authority. Approval must rest on a process that is fair, open, transparent, and court-supervised. Starting sales activity before approval defeats that standard.

3. Continuing its pattern, the Receiver seals all site construction and project financing information while describing the process as "transparent", undermining confidence. Where confidence is eroded, courts should impose structured supervision.

4. The Receiver has refused to consider a bulk sale of the entire Project to a qualified operator-developer with the capability to finance, assume control, and complete the remaining construction as a way to test the market for the Project's going-concern value and achieve a better outcome for all stakeholders than a piecemeal, distressed sale of unfinished units.

5. The Receiver's appeal to "efficiency" is ironic where the Project, ready for delivery (3 weeks away according to the construction manager's report before the Receivership,) has been held idle for over twenty months. It is equally misplaced where the present market is dull and there is no urgency to sell, especially knowing the sale will cause 48 million dollars loss. Wang wants an Investigation conducted into the Receiver's conduct and a Sales Officer appointed to monitor any sales.

[17] By way of summary, the Receiver's response to these concerns is that:

1. The Receiver had court approval to cancel the 28 firm APSs and its recommendation for approval to do so at the time was based on evidence about the market as it was then.

2. The relief sought by the Receiver on this motion seeks authorization for past and future Unit sales. Everything the Receiver has done is subject to court approval.

3. Requests for sealing of confidential information that could, if disclosed publicly, undermine the Receiver's efforts to obtain the highest price available in the market for the sale of units in the Project have been and will be granted by the court if supported by evidence to satisfy the court that the sealing is qualified in scope and duration, to achieve the appropriate balance between the open court principle and the need to preserve confidentiality to ensure the market is not influenced by the transaction specific information that the Receiver seeks to seal. Wang has been provided with the confidential information and documents when he has agreed to sign non-disclosure agreements to maintain their confidentiality.

4. Wang has proffered no evidence to support the contention that a bulk sale of the entire Project will achieve a better economic outcome for stakeholders than the sale of units as they are completed and can be delivered to purchasers, now that the Project is almost complete. Whereas the Receiver's proposed Sales Process was developed in consultation with professionals and with regard to current market prices for comparable units in Richmond Hill.

5. The Receiver cannot control the condominium market. It has conferred with its professional advisors and Cameron Stephens and has formed the view that it would not be prudent to hold off in selling the now completed or almost completed Units. The inventory that is ready to be sold should be exposed to the market and sold, rather than held while carrying and maintenance costs continue to accrue with the passage of time and while the buildings are exposed to the elements with the onset of another winter upon us. The Debtors have been critical of the Receiver throughout but most of their criticisms, raised in opposition to relief sought by the Receiver, have not been accepted and many are res judicata. Adding the cost of an Investigation and a Sales Officer to this process which is already projected to leave a deficiency for the first secured creditor is not warranted. Furthermore, the Debtors' motion for an Investigation into the Receiver's conduct has never been rescheduled or decided. Nor have the Debtors put forward any qualified Sales Officer to take over or to provide the oversight.

The Proposed Sales Process

[18] The Project consists of 96 residential units, comprised of 60 stacked condominium townhome units (the "Condos") and 36 freehold townhome units (the "Freehold Towns" and, together with the Condos, the "Units"). The Units represent the primary asset of the Debtors.

[19] There are 87 Unsold Units, consisting of 51 unsold Condos and 36 unsold Freehold Towns. The Project is now substantially complete and the Receiver has started to test the market through soft marketing of the 87 unsold Units.

[20] There are 9 residential Units subject to pre-receivership agreements of purchase and sale ("APS"), that have not yet closed. Some of the purchasers are disputing their agreements and the Receiver is proposing to arbitrate those disputes in accordance with the APS terms.

[21] The Receiver describes at a high level its choice of real estate broker, Homelife Landmark Realty Inc. ("Homelife"), and its proposed Sales Process, developed in consultation with the Homelife and Cameron Stephens, at paras. 10-29 of the Receiver's Sixth Report. The Receiver is of the view that its proposed Sales Process is reasonable and will sufficiently and appropriately expose the Unsold Units to the market, having regard to the nature and quantity of the Unsold Units.

[22] The Sales Process contemplates amendments to the Appointment Order to allow an individual agreement of purchase and sale to be entered into and closed by the Receiver (including for the 9 Units already sold) without court approval of each sale, as long as the sale qualifies as a "Permitted Transaction" and is above the minimum "Target Price" set for the particular type of Unit (as detailed in the Receiver's Confidential Appendix 1). However, if the Receiver seeks to sell a Unit for less than its Target Price, then the Receiver would need to seek court approval of such a transaction in the normal course.

[23] The Receiver developed the Target Price List in consultation with Homelife, Cameron Stephens and its other advisors. The Receiver and its advisors have reviewed and analyzed pertinent market data and have developed an estimate of the current fair market value of the Units, and accordingly, the Target Price for each Unit. The market data reviewed by the Receiver and its agents includes, but is not limited to, the recent sales of comparable units on a per square foot basis and current listings of comparable units. This analysis has informed the Receiver's estimate of the fair market value and the listing price (and Target Price) for each of the Units. The Receiver has reviewed the Target Price List and confirms that other similar units in the Richmond Hill region have been sold within a similar price range, taking into account specific unit attributes such as size, view, or finishes, as well as the construction history of the Project.

[24] The Receiver is satisfied that the minimum selling price for a Permitted Transaction, being the Target Price for each Unit, is reasonable and fair given current market conditions and that the sale of Units under the proposed Sales process would be accretive to the Debtors' estate and their stakeholders. As set out in the Sixth Report, although the Receiver is seeking to seal the Confidential Appendix 1 setting out the Target Prices, it has offered to provide the Target Price List to parties on a confidential basis.

[25] The court's jurisdiction to approve the Sales Process falls within s. 243(1)(c) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, R.S.C., 1985, c. B-3, ("BIA"). The reasonableness and adequacy of any sale process proposed by a court-appointed receiver must be assessed with reference to the factors that a court will consider when approving a proposed sale: see Royal Bank v. Soundair Corp. (1991), 4 O.R. (3d) 1 (C.A.), at p. 6; CCM Master Qualified Fund v. blutip Power Technologies, 2012 ONSC 1750, 90 C.B.R. (5th) 74, at para. 6; Choice Properties Limited Partnership v. Penady (Barrie) Ltd., 2020 ONSC 3517, 81 C.B.R. (6th) 302, at para. 16.

[26] The reasons for the Receiver's recommendation of the Sales Process are detailed in its Sixth Report and analyzed with reference to the Soundair principles, as expanded by CCM Master and Choice Properties, in paras. 30, 34-37 of the Receiver's Factum. The Sales Process is fair, transparent, commercially efficacious, and designed to get the best price in the interests of all stakeholders in the circumstances. The Sales Process is flexible, authorizing the Receiver to broadly market the Units with an experienced real estate brokerage in the Richmond Hill area, without imposing any specific deadlines or auction processes. This Sales Process is tailored to the specific nature of the Real Property and the 87 Unsold Units that, the Receiver anticipates, will be bought by individuals to serve as their personal residences.

[27] While Wang asserts on behalf of the Debtors that the Sales Process is not designed to get the best price for all stakeholders and that a bulk sale should be pursued, Wang has not provided any evidence to suggest that his proposed bulk sales process is superior to the Receiver's proposed Sales Process in any way. The suggestion by Wang that a sale to a developer of the entire Project now might produce a higher overall price is entirely speculative, and would appear to be counter-intuitive given that the Project has now been completed and the Units are for the most part ready, or almost ready, to be sold. It is not obvious to the court what value could be added, and what the potential upside would be, for another developer to step in at this stage of the Project. Wang has not tendered any evidence to explain why a developer would pay more for this almost completed Project than the sum of the purchase price for the Units as they are sold to individual purchasers.

[28] Wang asserts that the case of Horseshoe Valley Lands (Re), 2017 ONSC 426 [indexed as Romspen Investment Corp. v. Horseshoe Valley Lands Ltd., 2017 ONSC 426, 45 C.B.R. (6th) 309] "endorses court-supervised bulk-sale marketing as the proper safeguard where piecemeal sales risk diminishing total value", however that decision was concerned with procedural matters associated with a disclaimer by a receiver of an agreement of purchase and sale that a mortgagee opposed. It does not "endorse" any particular means of marketing real property for sale.

[29] A proposed sale process by a court-appointed officer need not be perfect, only reasonable. A court should give significant weight to the recommendation of a receiver, who is a court-appointed officer with significant expertise in insolvency proceedings: see Marchant Realty Partners Inc. v. 2407553 Ontario Inc., 2021 ONCA 375, 90 C.B.R. (6th) 39, at paras. 10, 15 and 19.

[30] I accept the Receiver's recommendations, which are supported by the first secured creditor. Cameron Stephens supports this approach even though it is expecting to suffer a significant deficiency on its loan based on the current projections and expectations of the Receiver and its advisors. I find the Sales Process to be fair and reasonable in the circumstances and it is approved.

Proposed Amendments to the Appointment Order

[31] The proposed template form of approval and vesting order sought in connection with each Permitted Transaction is substantially in the form of the Commercial List Users' Committee Model Approval and Vesting Order (the "Template AVO"). The approach recommended by the Receiver takes into account that there are a significant number of Units to be sold and the Receiver's anticipation that most purchasers will be individual homebuyers with limited access to financial and legal services (as opposed to sophisticated investors).

[32] Conversely, the approach that Wang asks the court to adopt, requiring a motion to approve the sale of each of the almost 96 Units would be inefficient and require a significant expenditure on professional fees. Similarly, the suggestion that the court appoint a "sales monitor" would be duplicative of the Receiver's role and would drive up costs, with no apparent benefit to stakeholders.

[33] The Receiver is concerned that it would be unduly burdensome to require that all agreements of purchase and sale be approved through a normal course hearing before the court, as would typically be expected in an asset sale in an insolvency matter. The Receiver recommends this as a more practical and efficient use of judicial resources and to reduce overall costs for the benefit of the Debtors' stakeholders. The Receiver is also of the view that its proposed amendments to the Appointment Order will be accretive to the estate of the Debtors and appropriately balance efficiency with procedural fairness for all parties.

[34] The proposed mechanic of a Template AVO being issued over the counter for each Permitted Transaction is not unprecedented in insolvency proceedings involving the sale of a large number of units in a real estate development: see e.g. Marshallzehr Group Inc v. King Square Ltd. et al. (15 April 2024), Toronto, CV-23-00710215-00CL (Ont. S.C.); People's Trust Company et al. v. Vandyk-Backyard Queensview Limited et al., (13 January 2025) Toronto CV-24-00713783 (Ont. S.C.).

[35] That said, the court noted during the hearing of this motion that there is work that still needs to be done to ensure that not only the form of AVO but the form of agreements of purchase and sale are themselves aligned with the objectives of achieving a fair and reasonable price for the Units and that the overall economic outcome under any "pre-approved" AVO is at least equal to the Target Price for that Unit, net of any incentives that might be viewed as reducing the value to the estate even if stated purchase price is more. This led to the partial adjournment of the Receiver's motion and the removal of the proposed mechanism at paras. 6-9 of the draft order.

[36] It was suggested by the court that the mechanics would be best considered in the context of the first Templated AVO (or first batch of Template AVOs) that the Receiver seeks approval of, with the expectation that, if approved, the broader mechanic could be incorporated at that time by way of amendment to the Appointment Order.

Sealing of Receiver's Confidential Appendix 1

[37] The Receiver requests a sealing order in respect of the Target Price List, pending the sale of all of the Units or further Order of the court.

[38] As set out above, the Target Price List contains the Receiver's estimation of the current fair market value for each of the Units. The Target Price List establishes a floor for the sale of a Unit to be considered a Permitted Transaction, which floor is a Unit's Target Price.

[39] If any of this pricing information was made public, it would compromise the Receiver's ability to obtain the best price for the Units because it would, in effect, permit a potential purchaser to know the "minimum price" for which the Receiver would be able to efficiently sell a given Unit. As a result, the Receiver is of the view that an order sealing the Target Price List will permit the Receiver to maximize the proceeds of the Units and is in the best interests of the Debtors' stakeholders.

[40] The Receiver proposes to keep this Target Price List (as defined in the Sixth Report) confidential to prevent potential purchasers from strategically bidding at the Target Price for a Unit. However, recognizing that stakeholders have an interest in the Target Prices for the Units, the Receiver is willing to share the Target Price List with stakeholders that sign a non-disclosure agreement.

[41] Subsection 137(2) of the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. C.43, provides that the court may order that any document filed in a civil proceeding be treated as confidential, sealed, and not form part of the public record. It is common to temporarily seal commercially sensitive material when assets are to be sold under a court process. Courts have acknowledged that there is a public interest in the "general commercial interest of preserving confidential information" and in maximizing recoveries in an insolvency: Sherman Estate v. Donovan, 2021 SCC 25, [2021] 2 S.C.R. 75, at para. 41.

[42] In the insolvency context, when assets are contemplated to be sold pursuant to a court process, it is common to seal bids and other commercially sensitive material, such as sale price and details of competing offers, in the event that a further listing is required should the contemplated proposed transaction not close: see Romspen Investment Corporation v. Hargate Properties Inc., 2012 ABQB 412, 99 C.B.R. (5th) 319, at paras 2, 11, and 13.

[43] The requested sealing order is limited in scope and in time. There is no other reasonable way to preserve and ensure the viability and integrity of the Sales Process. The benefits of the protective order outweigh any deleterious impact on the "open court" principle. No stakeholder will be materially prejudiced by the proposed sealing order.

[44] While Wang has argued that sealing of the Target Price List will prevent stakeholders from assessing whether the Receiver is obtaining fair market value, this is contradicted by the Receiver's explicit offer to provide the Target Price List to stakeholders on a confidential basis. Finally, the proposed sealing order embodies the principle of proportionality. The Receiver is only seeking a sealing order for a limited time: until the Project is complete and all the Units are sold. After that time, the Target Price List will become part of the public record.

[45] The proposed sealing order balances the open court principle and legitimate commercial requirements for confidentiality in the circumstances. In my view, the benefits of the requested sealing order outweigh the negative impact on the "open court" principle. I am satisfied that the limited nature and scope of the proposed sealing order is appropriate and satisfies the Sierra Club of Canada v. Canada (Minister of Finance), 2002 SCC 41, [2002] 2 S.C.R. 522, at para. 53; requirements, as recast, in Sherman Estate, at para. 38.

[46] The Receiver is directed to follow the applicable guidelines for the filing of sealed material with the court, and to eventually apply, at the appropriate time, for an unsealing order, if necessary.

Approval of the Sixth Report and the Receiver's Activities and Fees and Fees of Receiver's Counsel

[47] The activities that the Receiver has engaged in since its Fifth Report dated June 16, 2025 are detailed in paragraph 34 of its Sixth Report. These activities were undertaken for the benefit of the stakeholders of the Debtors and, accordingly, this court should approve them.

[48] The Receiver's professional fees incurred for services rendered from June 1, 2025 to August 31, 2025 amount to $196,901.50, plus disbursements in the amount of $1,555.43 (all excluding HST). These amounts represent professional fees and disbursements not yet approved by the court. The time spent by the Receiver's professionals is described in the affidavit of Bryan Gelman sworn September 8, 2025 and attached as Appendix B to the Sixth Report.

[49] The fees of Paliare Roland Rosenberg Rothstein LLP ("Paliare"), counsel to the Receiver, for services rendered from June 1, 2025 to August 31, 2025 total $110,959.09 (inclusive of HST and disbursements). These amounts represent professional fees and disbursements not yet approved by the court. The time spent by Paliare's professionals is described in the affidavit of Beatrice Loschiavo sworn September 9, 2025, and attached as Appendix C to the Sixth Report.

[50] The Court has the jurisdiction to review and approve the activities of a court-appointed officer in an insolvency proceeding as set out in the officer's reports, and will approve them where they are reasonable and appropriate in the circumstances: see Cameron Stephens, at paras. 48, 52, and 57 citing Target Canada Co. (Re), 2015 ONSC 7574, 31 C.B.R. (6th) 311 at paras. 2, 12; Triple-I Capital Partners Limited v. 12411300 Canada Inc., 2023 ONSC 3400, at para. 66; Ravelston Corp. (Re) (2005), 24 C.B.R. (5th) 256 (Ont. C.A.), at para. 40.

[51] When considering whether to approve professional accounts, the court will consider the overall value contributed, taking into consideration (a) the nature, extent and value of the assets, (b) the complications encountered, (c) the degree of assistance provided by the debtor, (d) the time spent, (e) the receiver's knowledge, experience and skill, (f) the diligence and thoroughness displayed, (g) the responsibilities assumed, (h) the results of the receiver's efforts, and (i) the cost of comparable services when performed in a prudent and economical manner: Bank of Nova Scotia v. Diemer, 2014 ONCA 851, 20 C.B.R. (6th) 292, at paras. 33-35, 44-45.

[52] The Receiver has been involved in overseeing the ongoing construction and completion of the Project and has been engaging with stakeholders, including Wang. Its conduct has been reasonable, appropriate and accretive to the body of stakeholders. The quantum of the professional fees reflects the extent of the activities that the Receiver has been required to undertake in this proceeding, including steps that have been necessitated by Wang's persistent opposition to everything that the Receiver does.

[53] As this court has previously held (for example in the May 6, 2025 endorsement, at para. 34): "The fees and disbursements of the Receiver and its counsel were incurred at standard rates. The rates are consistent with those charged by sophisticated insolvency professionals and counsel. I am satisfied that the fees and disbursements are fair, reasonable and justified in the circumstances".

[54] Wang is asking to reduce and claw back fees paid to the Receiver and its counsel that have already been approved by prior court orders and to reduce the fees for which approval is now being sought.

[55] In terms of past fees, they have already been approved and no authority was presented that would cause the court to re-open those prior fee approvals and claw back fees previously paid.

[56] Wang refers to Sub-Prime Mortgage Corp. v.1219070 Ontario Inc.[sic should be indexed as: Sub-Prime Mortgage Corp. v. Ontario Phoenix Apartments Ltd.], 2010 ONSC 6535, 73 C.B.R. (5th) 10 in support of his request for the court to reduce the Receiver's fees. That case involved an exceptional situation where the recoveries achieved by the receiver were far less than anticipated by the receiver or the secured creditor who appointed the receiver. Wang's criticisms said to give rise to the need for an Investigation into the Receiver's conduct are based on Wang's view that the receivership has delayed the completion of the Project beyond his expectations, while the market has eroded and the costs have escalated. These concerns were the subject of Wang's May 9, 2025, motion which has never been rescheduled. There was also some mention during the hearing of Wang seeking leave to commence a separate action against the Receiver, which may overlap with this previously adjourned Investigation Motion. The question about whether there should be an Investigation into the Receiver's conduct is not presently pending and the court makes no determination about that issue at this time.

[57] The mere fact that these issues have been raised (repeatedly, not only in the Investigation Motion but also repeatedly in response to other motions that the court has granted over Wang's objections), is not a reason to reduce the fees of the Receiver and its counsel. They are approved for the reasons and based on the evidence generally outlined above and as set out in the Receiver's Sixth Report and the supporting fee affidavits.

Costs

[58] According to the Receiver's Costs Outline for this motion, its all-inclusive partial indemnity costs are: $14,927.87, substantial indemnity costs are $22,222.30, and full indemnity costs are $24,653.78. While the court appreciates that the Receiver is frustrated by the constant challenges that Wang raises and the impact that has on the fees charged by the Receiver's counsel, the Receiver did have to bring this motion. This motion might have been more straightforward if Wang had not raised the objections he did, but in the end those objections had little, if any, impact on the outcome of this motion. Further, the motion was not granted in its entirety as some aspects were adjourned to address concerns noted by the court.

[59] I am not inclined to make any order as to costs in favour of the Receiver and against Wang. If the Receiver wishes to pursue its request for an order requiring Wang to pay costs of this motion, a 9:30 scheduling appointment may be booked through the Commercial List office during which the court will further consider the Receiver's request for costs and whether the parties should be permitted to provide further cost submissions.

Order

[60] The Amended Sales Process Approval Order may issue in the form signed by me today and dated November 28, 2025.

[61] The order includes a provision dismissing the Debtor's Cross-Motion, but this dismissal is intended to be only insofar as it seeks relief in opposition to the relief granted on the Receiver's motion. To the extent that the Cross-Motion seeks the appointment of an inspector to investigate the Receiver's conduct, which overlaps with the relief sought in the Debtors' May 9, 2025 Investigation Motion, that issue is not being decided at this time.

[62] The order also includes a provision adjourning certain aspects of the relief sought by the Receiver on this motion regarding amendments to the Appointment Order for certain mechanics in the AVO process to streamline the approval of agreements of purchase and sale consistent with the proposed form of Template AVO to be utilized to transfer title to purchasers of Units who agree to pay at least the Target Price for their unit. As noted earlier, the court suggests that this may be best revisited in the context of the approval of the first AVO (or first batch of AVO's) for a sale under the Sales Process.

HARMONIZED SALES TAXES

4. (a) The Purchase Price set out above includes the HST net of Rebates as assigned/transferred to the Vendor, and the Purchase Price has been established on the basis that Purchaser will qualify for the full amount of the Rebate or Rebates, as applicable, and that the Rebate or Rebates will be assigned or an equivalent amount transferred or credited to the Vendor, in addition to such Purchase Price. The current rate of HST is 13 percent and this is the rate that is applicable to this contract before netting out the Rebates from such HST. Purchasers are advised that the Purchase Price offered to the Purchaser has been calculated on the basis that the Purchaser shall qualify for and assign to and/or transfer and/or reimburse the Vendor the maximum Rebate based on the Purchase Price set out herein as adjusted, save and except as hereinafter set out to the contrary. The Vendor shall credit the Purchaser on Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date as determined by the Vendor, with all Rebates to which the Purchaser is entitled, subject to the Purchaser assigning and/or transferring or crediting the Rebates (or an equivalent amount) to the Vendor and/or reimbursing the Vendor for such Rebates as hereinafter set out subject to the assignment/transfer/crediting of the Rebates to the Vendor. The Purchaser warrants and represents that he/she qualifies for the full amount of the Rebate possible with respect to this purchase transaction and that either he or she or a blood relation, as set out in the Income Tax Act (Canada), shall be occupying the Property from and after the Closing Date. In the event that there is any legislation of any Governmental Authority that does not permit the assignment of the Rebate then the Purchaser shall transfer, credit and/or pay an equivalent amount of the Rebate to the Vendor on Closing (or thereafter as applicable) and the Vendor shall be entitled to vendor's lien for such amount and the Purchaser acknowledges that this amount form part of the consideration due to the Vendor.

(b) If the rate of HST is increased or decreased or the percentage of calculation of the Rebate is amended/reduced, or the rate or thresholds in respect of the HST exemptions or rebate entitlement are changed between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date, with the result that the net amount of the HST to be remitted by the Vendor increases, then the Purchaser shall pay the Vendor an amount on the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date (as determined by the Vendor) equal to such additional HST payable by the Vendor. A statutory declaration of any officer of the Vendor as to the alteration, increase amendment, etc., as hereinbefore set out shall be determinative in this regard.

(c) If the rate of the HST is reduced between the date of this Agreement and the Unit Transfer Date but such reduction is for the benefit of the Purchaser and not the Vendor (the "HST Credit"), then the Purchaser hereby assigns all right, benefit and entitlement to such HST Credit and shall execute any and all forms, documents, assignments, etc., as required by the Vendor in this regard in the Vendor's absolute discretion. The Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the HST Credit directly to the Vendor.

(d) The Purchaser covenants and warrants (which covenant and warranty shall survive the completion of this Agreement) that he/she has not made any claim and will not make any claim for any Rebate or HST Credit in respect of the Property.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the Purchaser agrees that the Purchase Price for the Property, set out on page 1 of this Agreement, does not include HST on closing adjustments and amounts payable for Extras and/or upgrades purchased or ordered by the Purchaser (whether as part of this Agreement or otherwise) payable under this Agreement and that same are subject to HST on the Closing Date and/or the Unit Transfer Date and that such HST shall be chargeable and payable by the Purchaser in addition to any other HST included in the Purchase Price. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the HST payable in respect of such adjustments and/or Extras and/or upgrades shall be at the rate of HST otherwise applicable to this Agreement.

5. The Purchaser hereby irrevocably assigns and/or transfers to and/or credits the Vendor all of the Purchaser's rights, interests and entitlements to the Rebate (and concomitantly releases all of the Purchaser's claims to or interests in the Rebate, to and in favour of the Vendor), and hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the Rebate directly to the Vendor. The Purchaser represents and warrants that the Purchaser is acquiring the Property for his or his blood relative's primary place of residence within the meaning of the Excise Tax Act (Canada) or Income Tax Act (Canada) or any replacement statute and is entitled to the maximum amount of the Rebate applicable to purchase transactions of this nature, at the Purchase Price as amended in accordance with in this Agreement. In the event that there are separate assignments and rebates of the provincial and/or federal portion of the HST with respect to this transaction, the Purchaser shall execute and deliver all applications, assignments, declarations, documents and/or other assurances (in the form required by the Vendor or the Government of Canada and/or the Province of Ontario) to the Vendor required to establish and assign all of his or her right, title and interest in the Rebates or any portion thereof. In the event that there is any legislation of any Governmental Authority that does not permit the assignment of the Rebate then the Purchaser shall transfer, credit and/or pay an equivalent amount of the Rebate to the Vendor on Closing (or thereafter as applicable) and the Vendor shall be entitled to vendor's lien for such amount and the Purchaser acknowledges that this amount form part of the consideration due to the Vendor. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that the Vendor shall have the right in its complete discretion to determine whether the Purchaser qualifies for any Rebates and the Vendor's determination of such entitlement shall be final and binding. The Purchaser hereby covenants, warrants and/or represents to the Vendor, with respect to this transaction, that:

(a) the Purchaser is a natural person who is acquiring the Property with the intention of being the sole beneficial owner thereof on the Unit Transfer Date (and not as the agent or trustee for or on behalf of any other party or parties),

(b) upon the Closing Date and continuing up to and including the Unit Transfer Date, and continuing thereafter, the Purchaser or one or more of the Purchaser's blood relations, as determined in accordance with the Excise Tax Act (Canada) and Income Tax Act (Canada), shall personally occupy the Property as his, her or their primary place of residence, for such period of time as shall be required by the applicable legislation in order to entitle the Purchaser to the Rebate (and the ultimate assignment thereof to and in favour of the Vendor) in respect of the Purchaser's acquisition of the Property; and

(c) he or she has not claimed (and hereby covenants not to hereafter claim), for the Purchaser's own account, any part of the Rebate in connection with the Purchaser's acquisition of the Property, save as otherwise hereinafter expressly provided or contemplated or permitted.

6. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) the total consideration for the calculation of HST includes not only the Purchase Price but all other taxable supplies charged to the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise including without limitation, Extras, upgrades, applicable adjustments and/or reimbursements charged by the Vendor under this Agreement such as Tarion Enrolment fees, connections fees, as well as any charge for development charge levies and education levies or other levies and charges, etc. (with such additional amounts hereinafter referred to as the "Additional Charges"), the costs of which the Vendor may charge to the Purchaser. The Additional Charges and applicable HST shall constitute part of the taxable supply with respect to the said transaction and shall be added to the Purchase Price to determine the total consideration upon which HST and the Rebate are calculated; and

(b) any Extras and/or Additional Charges are part of the single supply of the home and for HST purposes constitutes a change in the price being paid for the Dwelling and for the purposes of HST shall be deemed to form part of the Purchase Price.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if it is determined by the Vendor, in its sole, subjective and absolute discretion, that the Purchaser is not entitled to the maximum permitted Rebate or any portion thereof (including any portion of same the Purchaser becomes disentitled to as a result of an increase in the total consideration payable hereunder as a result of any Additional Charges, Extras, etc., purchased or payable by the Purchaser), the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor, in addition to any other amounts stipulated in this Agreement, the amount of the Rebate to which the Purchaser becomes disentitled, (which shall be paid on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date as required by the Vendor as a requirement of closing), and until so paid, such amount shall form a charge/vendor's lien against the Property, which charge shall be recoverable by the Vendor in the same manner as a mortgage in default. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any loss, cost, damage and/or liability (including without limitation, legal fees and disbursements, and an amount equivalent to the Rebate, plus penalties and interest thereon) which the Vendor may suffer, incur or be charged with, as a result of the Purchaser's failure to qualify for the maximum permitted Rebate, or as a result of the Purchaser having qualified initially but being subsequently disentitled to the Rebate, or as a result of the inability to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor (or the ineffectiveness of the documents purporting to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor) and such amounts shall be deemed to comprise a vendor's lien registerable on title to the Property. If the Vendor determines that the Purchaser is not entitled to the Rebate at any time prior to the Unit Transfer Date then it shall be entitled to demand and the Purchaser shall pay, an additional deposit equal to an amount that is 20% of the Purchase Price as set out on Page 1 of this Agreement.

8. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that in the event of any amendment, revival, novation, re-instatement of this Agreement, acquisition of Extras or upgrades, or any other action of the Purchaser results in the Rebate or HST Credit not being assignable, in whole or in part, then the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor on the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date (as determined by the Vendor) the amount of the Rebate or HST Credit which the Vendor does not receive or become entitled to.

9. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that any breach by it of the provisions as set out in these foregoing sections dealing with HST shall be deemed to be a fundamental breach by the Purchaser and the Vendor, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor (at law or in equity) may, at its sole option, unilaterally suspend all of the Purchaser's rights, benefits and privileges contained herein (including without limitation, the right to make colour and finish selections with respect to the Property as hereinbefore provided or contemplated), and/or may unilaterally declare this Agreement to be terminated and of no further force or effect, whereupon all deposit monies theretofore paid, together with all monies paid for any extras or changes to the Property, may be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at contract, law or in equity.

10. The Addendum attached to this Agreement sets out the terms and conditions of the establishment and/or extension of the Closing Date and the Addendum shall prevail over any term or provisions relating to the Closing Date set out in this Agreement, and if any such term or provision exists in this Agreement that shall conflict or be inconsistent with the Addendum, then such terms and provisions shall be deemed to be severed and deleted from this Agreement without affecting the validity and enforceability of the balance of this Agreement. In the event that the Condominium has not been registered as of the Closing Date then the Purchaser shall take occupancy of the Property in accordance with the terms of this Purchase Agreement. In such event the transfer of title to the Property shall take place on the Unit Transfer Date. The Vendor, at its discretion and without obligation, shall be permitted a one-time unilateral right to extend the Closing Date for one (1) Business Day to avoid the necessary tender where a Purchaser is not ready to complete the transaction on the Closing Date. (b) if the Closing occurs prior to the Unit Transfer Date, a series of six (6) post-dated cheques (or such greater number as the Vendor may require), each in the amount of the said monthly Occupancy Fee, for the next 6 months (or more) commencing the month immediately following the month after Stub Period (as defined herein), together with two copies of the Occupancy License, executed by the Purchaser. The Purchaser shall pay the Vendor occupancy fees for the entire Interim Occupancy in accordance with the terms of the Act and this Agreement; from the said Land Titles Office because of any outstanding execution(s) filed against a person or persons with a name similar or identical to that of the Purchaser or guarantor, then the Purchaser or guarantor shall be obliged to deliver an unqualified statutory declaration of his/her solicitor, confirming that the Purchaser is not one and the same person as the judgment debtor(s) named in the said execution(s) [and shall also provide such other information and documentation as the Vendor's solicitor may reasonably require in order to be satisfied, in the Vendor's solicitor's sole discretion, that the Purchaser or guarantor is not one and the same person as the particular execution debtor(s) named in the outstanding execution(s)].

The failure of the Purchaser to provide the Financial Information as required above shall be an event of default by the Purchaser entitling the Vendor to its remedies herein, including, inter alia, the termination of this Agreement and the forfeiture of all deposit monies or other monies paid by the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement;

(h) all HST Rebate Forms, assignments of rebate, HST indemnities, and such other assurances, declarations, affidavits, undertakings (including undertakings to readjust), assurances, covenants, acknowledgments, directions and other closing documents (all in the Vendor's form without amendment) as the Vendor may require in its complete discretion: and,

11. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that he/she shall be personally responsible for making all arrangements for the supply of Dwelling Services to the Property and that in the event that he/she fails to make such arrangements on or before the earlier of the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date, that the service provider may refuse to provide such utility or service to the Property on or after such date. Save and except if prohibited by the Addendum, the Vendor shall have the right to extend the Unit Transfer Date one or more times upon without any requirement of prior notice, and the Purchaser shall not be entitled to any compensation for the extension of the Unit Transfer Date. The Purchaser shall adjust for any and all changes to the adjustments after closing within 20 days of request by the Vendor, failing which the default interest provisions for unpaid adjustments shall apply.

(e) The Purchaser agrees to indemnify the Vendor for all losses, costs and expenses incurred as a result of the Purchaser's neglect, damage or use of the Property or by reason of injury to any person or property in or upon the Property or the Condominium resulting from the negligence of the Purchaser, members of his immediate family, servants, agents, invitees, tenants, contractors and licensees. The Purchaser agrees that should the Vendor elect to repair or redecorate all or any part of the Property as a result of the Purchaser's neglect, damage or use of the Property, which shall be deemed to be an event of default by the Purchaser, that the Purchaser will immediately reimburse the Vendor for the cost of doing same, and with the determination of need for such repairs or redecoration shall be at the discretion of the Vendor, and such costs may be added to the Purchase Price.

(f) The Purchaser shall not have the right to assign, sublet or in any other manner dispose of the Occupancy Licence prior to the Unit Transfer Date without the prior written consent of the Vendor which consent may be arbitrarily withheld. The Purchaser acknowledges that, if permitted by the

The Vendor shall not be obligated to obtain or register a full or partial release of the Property from or in respect of such agreements, nor shall the Vendor be obliged to have said agreements deleted from title, and the Purchaser shall satisfy himself as to compliance therewith.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT REGARDING WARNING CLAUSES

15. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Draft Conditions and existing and/or future Development Agreements between the Vendor and/or the Subdivider and the Municipality may require the Vendor to provide the Purchaser with certain notices or warnings including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, notices or warnings regarding the use of the Property, environmental issues, noise levels from adjacent roadways or otherwise, maintenance of municipal fencing, school transportation and related educational issues, installation of pools, aesthetic restrictions, care of landscaping on the Property and the status of services and works in the Lands/development. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable, at this time, to provide the Purchaser with all such notices and warnings and same shall be provided in the future and shall be deemed to form part of this Agreement and the Purchaser shall execute all documents, amendments, acknowledgments, assurances as required by the Vendor in this regard and such further warnings or acknowledgments shall not affect nor diminish the Purchaser's obligation to complete his/her obligations under this Agreement. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor and\or Subdivider may be unable to sell the Property to the Purchaser or obtain the release of securities unless the Purchaser executes such acknowledgments, amendments or assurances, etc., as aforesaid. In the event that the Purchaser fails to execute such acknowledgments, amendments and\or assurances, etc., forthwith upon being requested to do so, such failure or refusal shall be considered a fundamental breach of this Agreement by the Purchaser and the Vendor shall be entitled to its remedies hereunder, including, at its sole option, to terminate this Agreement and upon such termination, all monies paid to the Vendor hereunder shall be forfeited to the Vendor as liquidated damages, not as a penalty, without prejudice to the exercise of any other remedy available to the Vendor, and this Agreement shall be at an end, and the Purchaser shall not have any further rights hereunder.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the engineering data and/or final approved grade in respect of the Property may not be finalized as of the date of execution of this Agreement, and accordingly the Vendor may be required to construct the Dwelling with a walk-out basement and/or deck or in the alternative may not be able to provide a walk-out basement and/or deck if specified in this Agreement, but the Purchaser shall be nonetheless obliged to complete this agreement. In the event that any additions and/or improvements are made to the Property or abutting road allowances by the Purchaser and/or its agents or contractors after closing such as, but not limited to, the installation of porches, decks, pools, spas, patios, plants, shrubs, trees, paved driveways or fences are so located so as to alter or affect the grading and/or drainage patterns of the Property, street sight lines, any easement granted or contemplated being granted to third parties or the Vendor and/or affects the final inspection and/or assumption of services by the Municipality and/or the return of any security to the Vendor, then the Purchaser agrees to remove such additions and/or improvements at his own expense, forthwith upon the Vendor's request, failing which the Vendor may remove same at the Purchaser's sole expense and the Vendor shall be permitted to register and maintain a vendor's lien for such costs against the Property. The undersigned hereby acknowledges that complete engineering data in respect of the final grading of the Property as approved by the Municipality may not, as yet, be complete, and accordingly, the Purchaser agrees to accept the Property subject to any grading requirements or other requirements imposed by the Municipality.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing to the contrary, the Vendor or anyone delegated by it shall have the right to enter upon the Property during the rectification period as set out above in order to, without limitation, change or rectify grades or drainage patterns, and/or carry out any sodding and/or restoration and/or re-grading work required by the Development Agreements (as such term is defined herein) and/or Governmental Authorities and may remove any fences, installations, landscaping, obstructions or signs situate on the Property, without liability of any kind, if the foregoing provisions of this paragraph are not observed by the Purchaser. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Municipality and any Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction, shall have the right to enter upon the Property and Lands for such purpose in the event the Vendor and/or Subdivider and/or the Condominium fails to satisfy its obligations in respect of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the transfer of title to the Property may contain a right of re-entry in favor of the Vendor and/or the Municipality and/or any other Governmental Authority having jurisdiction as aforesaid.

(d) Title to the Property may be subject to Development Agreements (as hereinafter defined) as well as restrictions, and/or covenants may be required to be given by the Purchaser on closing, preventing any changes being subsequently made to any exterior colour, materials, windows, treatment and/or cladding material of any exterior component of the Dwelling for any period of time after closing and as well as preventing the alteration or removal of any trees, vegetation, fencing, berm, retaining wall and/or other exterior element and the parties acknowledge that such items may be controlled by the Vendor, third party and/or any other governmental authority having jurisdiction for any period of time after closing. The Development Agreements may also contain important warning clauses affecting the use and enjoyment of the Property and the Purchaser is strongly advised to review same. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to abide by and comply with the terms and conditions of the Development Agreements, architectural controls, restrictions and covenants and agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any losses and all damages, suits costs, expenses or liabilities incurred by the Vendor as a result of the Purchaser not complying with or defaulting under (in any way and with negligence not being required) with the terms and provisions of the such Development Agreements. In addition, the Purchaser covenants and agrees not to dump any materials, sod or other debris, garbage and/or landscaping or construction materials upon any other lands owned by the Vendor and\or the Municipality and the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on closing or thereafter, for the costs of removing such materials and dumping same, including inter alia, haulage costs, labour costs and/or any other costs, expenses or fines incurred by the Vendor as a result of the Purchaser breaching this covenant, and the Vendor shall be entitled to register and maintain a vendor's lien for such costs.

(e) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the filing of the consulting engineers' certificate(s) with the Municipality, or the issuance by the Municipality of an occupancy certificate or such other confirmation that the Property may be occupied shall, subject to the provisions of the Addendum, constitute complete and absolute acceptance by the Purchaser of all construction matters, and the quality and sufficiency thereof including, without limitation, all mechanical, structural and architectural matters. Acceptance of construction and siting of the Dwelling and\or grading of the POTL by the Municipality or governmental authorities shall conclusively constitute acceptance by the Purchaser. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Property, road allowance or private road fronting or flanking the Property may have one or more postal boxes, CATV boxes, telephone boxes, fire hydrants and/or hydro-electric transformers, hydro poles, sidewalks, landscape furniture, storm drains, etc., as required by the Municipality and the Purchaser agrees to accept same where located, notwithstanding that same may not be shown on any sales material, site plan, community property plan or brochures.

MAINTENANCE OF SOD AND LANDSCAPING

17. The Purchaser shall be solely responsible for the watering and general maintenance of the sod, tree, shrubs any other landscape plantings placed on the Property and any adjacent or abutting unpaved road allowances and/or boulevards from and after the closing date, or from the date that the sod is laid or the trees or shrubs or any other landscape plantings are planted, whichever date is later, and the Vendor shall have no obligation in that regard. In the event that the Vendor is required to water and/or replace laid sod, trees, shrubs or any other landscape plantings as a result of the Purchaser's default of the aforesaid obligation, then the Vendor shall not be obligated to do so until payment has been made therefor by the Purchaser. Purchasers of POTLs upon which the Vendor has installed landscaping in accordance with the final approved plans for the Condominium or the site shall be obliged to maintain and water and replace such soft landscaping and vegetation and shall not alter or remove any such soft landscaping materials or vegetation unless replaced by soft landscaping materials and vegetation in keeping with the approved landscaping plans for the Subdivision and Condominium.

LANDSCAPING, RETAINING WALLS, FENCES, BERMS AND STRUCTURES OR FEATURES

18. The Purchaser agrees that in the event that any retaining wall, fence, berm and/or similar or other structure are built on the Property, the Purchaser shall be solely responsible for the repair and maintenance of same. Where the Purchaser is obliged to make such repairs and undertake such maintenance, the Purchaser shall indemnify and save harmless the Vendor and any Governmental Authorities from all damages or costs associated with same and the Purchaser agrees, at the request of the Vendor, to execute such additional assurances in this regard as may be required by the Vendor and to have same registered on title by the Vendor if required by Vendor at the Vendor's option.

Where any portion of any fence is within twelve (12) centimetres internally or externally of the Property line, such fence shall be deemed not to be an encroachment at that point (the "Permitted Encroachment") and the Purchaser agrees to accept title to the Property and to complete the sale contemplated herein, without abatement of the Purchase Price. If any portion of any fence is not deemed to be a Permitted Encroachment (an "Unpermitted Encroachment") then the Purchaser shall complete the transaction herein either upon the Vendor's undertaking to take all reasonable lawful steps to remove the Unpermitted Encroachment; or, at the Vendor's sole option, upon an abatement in the Purchase Price, such abatement to be calculated by the Vendor, in its discretion, acting reasonably.

As of the date of this Agreement, the final grading plan relating to the Land or Property may not have been completed by the Vendor or approved by the Municipality. Consequently, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the grading of the Land may require the use of retaining walls on the Land or on adjoining properties. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall have the right to construct such retaining walls without notice to the Purchaser and without compensation or abatement to the Purchase Price and the Purchaser agrees that he shall be responsible for maintaining the retaining wall on the Land from and after the Closing Date. In the event that the Purchaser fails to comply with this obligation, the Purchaser shall be responsible for all damages and injuries which may result. In addition, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may construct any fences and/or berms on or near the Lands, as may be required.

TARION WARRANTY AND MODIFICATION OF PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS AND FINISHES

The Vendor agrees to erect the Dwelling upon the Property generally in accordance with plans and specifications already examined by the Purchaser and as attached to this Agreement (the "Plans"). Provided however that the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that decor, finishes, furniture, improvements, mirrors, wall coverings, floor coverings, and window coverings of the model home are for display purposes only, are not included in the Vendor's standard finishes and are not included in the Purchase Price. The Purchaser acknowledges that the area of the Dwelling purchased hereunder, as represented or referred to by the Vendor or any sales agent, is approximate only, and is measured in accordance with the applicable Tarion Bulletin 22 standard for homes of this classification. Note: actual useable floor space may vary from the stated floor area. Accordingly, the Purchaser hereby confirms and agrees that all details and dimensions of the Dwelling purchased hereunder are approximate only, and that the Purchase Price shall not be subject to any adjustment based upon square footage, net floor area or otherwise. In addition the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the ceilings may be dropped below standard heights and walls may be modified or bulk heads or mechanical spaces installed to accommodate mechanical systems thereby affecting the useable space in the Dwelling. Therefore the Vendor and the Purchaser agree as follows:

(a) The parties confirm and acknowledge that Tarion requires the Vendor to provide the Purchaser with a New Homeowner Information Package (the "Package" or the "HIP"), or electronic access to such HIP, at or before the pre-delivery inspection (the "PDI") of the Dwelling before the Closing Date and the Purchaser agrees to sign a Confirmation of Receipt for the same on receipt of the Package and/or electronic access to the Package being provided. The HIP or information on same is also available by contacting Tarion or obtaining same from their website at www.Tarion.com. The Purchaser shall have the right to designate a representative to undertake the PDI on his/her behalf without detracting from the Purchaser's right to conduct or be present when the PDI is being undertaken. The Purchaser and/or his or her designate, shall meet the Vendor's representative at the time designated by the Vendor prior to the Closing Date, to undertake the PDI of the Residential Dwelling and to list all items remaining uncompleted at the time of such inspection together with all mutually agreed deficiencies with respect to the Residential Dwelling, on the Tarion Certificate of Completion and Possession and/or such form as may be prescribed by Tarion (the "PDI Form"). The said Tarion certificate and/or PDI Form shall be executed by both the Purchaser and the Vendor's representative forthwith after such inspection.

(b) The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that any warranties of workmanship or materials, in respect of any aspect of the construction of the Dwelling, whether implied by this Agreement or imposed by law or in equity, or by any statute or otherwise, shall be restricted to only those warranties deemed to be given by the Vendor pursuant to the ONHWPA, and shall extend only for the time period (and in respect of those items) stipulated or covered by ONHWPA. The Purchaser is advised to read the terms of the warranty as set out in the HIP carefully so that he/she understands what is included and/or excluded from such warranty and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that his/her only remedy shall be to pursue any claim as against the Vendor pursuant to the ONHWPA and its procedures and the Purchaser agrees that he/she shall not have, maintain, pursue, prosecute, etc., any claim against the Vendor in contract or at common law with respect to the subject matter of this agreement and/or warranties provided hereunder and shall not make, file, prosecute or otherwise advance any claim against the Vendor in the courts in this regard and this covenant may be plead as estoppel in this regard. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser hereby releases the Vendor from any liability whatsoever in respect of water damage caused to improvements of, and chattels stored in, the Dwelling, and acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall not be liable or responsible for the repair or rectification of any damages to any exterior areas resulting from ordinary settlement, including the settlement of patio stones or sodded areas, nor for any damage to interior household improvements, chattels or decor caused by material shrinkage, twisting or warpage, nor for any secondary or consequential damages whatsoever resulting from any defects in materials, design or workmanship related to the Dwelling, and that the Vendor's only obligation shall be to rectify any defects pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and Tarion's warranty. The Purchaser acknowledges that any Third Party Work (as hereinafter defined) whether or not carried out by trades or subtrades employed by the Vendor shall be deemed to be work contracted directly by the Purchaser with the Vendor acting as agent for the Purchaser and as such, the Third Party Work shall not be covered by the Tarion warranty. The Purchaser covenants and agrees not to enter into any agreement or arrangement with any trade or subtrade employed by or under contract with the Vendor and/or any of its contractors, subcontractors and/or agents in respect of any work on the Dwelling. The Purchaser covenants and agrees not to undertake any renovation of finishing work in respect of the basement of the Dwelling for a period of 30 months after the Closing Date and in the event that the Purchaser does undertake such work, then the Vendor shall be relieved of any and all responsibility to restore such work or finishes in the event that the Vendor has to remove same in order to complete any warranty work and the Purchaser shall indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any and all costs incurred by the Vendor in removing such finishes in order for the Vendor or its agents to be able to complete such warranty work. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Dwelling or Property does/may contain wood flooring which will absorb excess moisture under humid conditions and release its normal moisture content under excessively dry conditions. Wood flooring will naturally swell during the humid seasons and will shrink when heat is applied. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor will not be responsible for any swelling or shrinkage cracks resulting from excessive humidity or excessive dryness within the Dwelling. When the heating system is not in use during late spring, summer and early fall, the Vendor strongly recommends that the Purchaser use a dehumidifier in the Dwelling. Correspondingly, when the heating system is on during the late fall, winter and early spring, the Vendor strongly recommends use of a humidifier system within the Dwelling. The Purchaser takes full responsibility for any damage to the wood flooring as a result of its failure to mitigate air quality conditions as herein set out

(c) The Vendor shall complete the exterior landscaping or exterior building elements of the Property and Dwelling as soon as reasonably practicable, but the failure of the Vendor to complete the exterior landscaping or building elements, on or before the Closing Date and/or the Unit Transfer

Date, or the failure of the Developer to complete any element on the Lands, and/or Property, shall in no event entitle the Purchaser to refuse to take possession of the Dwelling and/or to close the within transaction on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date, or to fail to remit to the Vendor the entire amount of the Purchase Price and any other monies required to be paid by the Purchaser hereunder, or to maintain any holdback of any part of the Purchase Price or any other monies due to the Vendor, provided that the Vendor has complied with the occupancy requirements of the Addendum. The Vendor hereby undertakes to complete the Dwelling and all unfinished work or improvements thereto in accordance with this Agreement, unless same affects the ability of the Dwelling to be legally occupied and in such event the terms and provisions of the Addendum shall prevail. The Vendor shall provide the Purchaser, on or before closing, with such evidence that the Dwelling may be legally occupied in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Addendum. The Purchaser agrees in such event to close the transaction, notwithstanding that there remains, without limitation, grading, landscaping or other exterior work or interior work to be completed, without any hold back of any part of the Purchase Price, on the Vendor's undertaking given to complete the Dwelling and all improvements to the Property. The Purchaser shall not hold the Vendor or the Municipality and/or any other Governmental Authorities and/or any of their respective agents liable for any damages, charges or inconvenience arising from, or in connection with the completion (or non-completion) of any item, including but not limited to boulevard sodding, sidewalks, driveway approach, paving, fencing, final POTL grading and/or POTL sodding.

(d) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may, from time to time, as required by it in its discretion and/or by any governmental authority having jurisdiction or any other rights with respect to the Property, change, vary or modify the plans and specifications pertaining to the Dwelling and Property, (including architectural, structural, engineering, landscaping, grading, mechanical, site service or other plans) from the plans and specifications existing at the inception of the project, or as they exist at the time the Purchaser has entered into this Agreement, or as same may be illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) in the sales office or otherwise, including reversing the layouts of the Dwelling or changing the elevation/facade of the Dwelling. The Purchaser shall have absolutely no claim or cause of action whatsoever against the Vendor or its agent(s) for any such changes, variances or modifications. The Vendor shall advise the Purchaser of the changes as soon as reasonably possible about the amendments and alterations. The Purchaser also acknowledges and agrees that architectural and/or engineering control of exterior elevations, driveway construction, boulevard tree planting, landscaping, corner POTL fencing (including the location of such corner POTL fencing), exterior colour schemes, or any other matter external to the Dwelling or Property designed to enhance the aesthetics of the area in which the Property is situate (the "Requirements"), may be imposed by the Municipality or any other Governmental Authority and the Purchaser agrees to take occupancy and title to the Property subject to the Requirements. In the event the Vendor is required by any Governmental Authority to construct, alter, amend or change, pursuant to such Requirements, the exterior elevation for the Property and\or Dwelling other than as shown on the schedules to this Agreement or specified herein or is required to alter or modify the driveway, building façade or elevation, internal road or other hardscape installation, construction or location, boulevard tree planting or landscaping plan for the Dwelling or Property (all of which is hereinafter referred to as the "Amended Plans"), the Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorizes the Vendor to complete and construct the Dwelling and Property in accordance with the Amended Plans and the Amended Plans shall be the approved plans for the purposes of the Purchaser's obligation to complete this Agreement. The Vendor shall have the right to construct the Dwelling on a reverse mirror image plan, including reversal of the interior floor layout and other minor modifications and the Purchaser agrees to accept such reversal and/or modification absolutely without any right of abatement of, or set-off against, the Purchase Price, in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligations herein. The Vendor shall have the right to alter, modify and/or substitute other materials for that provided for in the Plans, provided that such material is of substantially equal or better quality than the material in the Plans, as determined by the Vendor, acting reasonably. Further, in the event the Vendor determines that it needs to alter the grade of the Dwelling for any reason, than as depicted in the Plans, and as a result of such change in the elevation, the Vendor needs to install a step or series of steps to any entrance to the Dwelling or garage and this affects the interior dimensions of the Dwelling or garage, then the Purchaser agrees to accept such change in grade and the change in the usable interior space in the garage and/or Dwelling caused by the installation of steps and shall complete this transaction without any abatement in the Purchase Price. With respect to any aspect of construction, finishing or equipment, the Vendor shall have the right subject to the requirements of TARION or the provisions of the ONHWPA, without the Purchaser's consent, to substitute materials, designs and/or installations, for those described in this Agreement, any schedule of finishes or in the plans or specifications, provided the substituted materials, designs and/or installations are in the judgment of the Vendor, whose determination shall be final and binding, of equal or better quality or as may be required as a matter of law or any applicable building, fire, plumbing and/or electrical code or regulation. References to model types or model numbers in any schedule of finishes or Extras addendum or agreement refer to current manufacturer's models as of the date of this agreement and may change without notice and the Vendor shall be entitled to replace with the manufacturer's or alternate manufacture models that are of a similar size, style, design and quality. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that finishing materials contained in any model suites or sales office displays including but not limited to substrates, floor and wall coverings, broadloom, furniture, electrical fixtures, window coverings, flooring, upgrade cabinetry, staircases, railings, appliances etc. may be for display purposes and may not be of the same grade or type, or may not necessarily be included in the dwelling unit purchased herein. Purchasers are advised that any ceiling height set out in this agreement will be measured approximately from the upper surface of the floor to the underside of the ceiling structure, provided however that various areas of the Dwelling may contain (or be subject to) ceiling bulkheads and/or dropped ceilings, in order to facilitate the installation of structural components, mechanical and HVAC systems and/or ductwork, and accordingly in those areas of the unit that are subject to said bulkheads and/or dropped ceilings the Vendor shall be entitled to reduce the overall ceiling height accordingly and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to accept such situations and/or alterations. The Purchaser acknowledges that any room dimensions as shown on any plans attached to this agreement or otherwise are approximate and may vary based on the construction requirements of the development in which the Property is situate and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to accept such variations and/or alterations. The Purchaser acknowledges, confirms and agrees that the extent of the actual or useable living space or net floor area within the confines of the unit may vary from any represented square footage or floor area measurement(s) made by or on behalf of the Vendor based on the permitted Tarion method of area calculation. The Purchaser shall have no claim against the Vendor for any changes, variances, alterations, amendments and/or modifications as permitted in this Agreement nor shall the Vendor be required to give notice thereof. The Purchaser hereby consents to any such alterations, variances, amendments and/or modifications and agrees to complete the sale notwithstanding same. The Purchaser shall have no claim against the Vendor for any such changes, variances, alterations, amendments or modifications, etc., nor shall the Vendor be required to give notice thereof. The Purchaser hereby consents to any such alterations and agrees to complete the sale notwithstanding any of the foregoing and that none of these matter shall be considered any material change.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, it is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that in the event that construction of the Dwelling is not completed on or before the Closing Date or any extension thereof as hereinbefore contemplated, for any reason except for the Vendor's willful neglect, or in the event the Purchaser cannot take possession of the Dwelling on Closing Date by reason of any fire damage or other hazards or damages whatsoever occasioned thereto, constituting an event of Unavoidable Delay (as defined in the Addendum), then subject to the terms of the Addendum to the contrary, Vendor shall not be responsible or liable for reimbursing the Purchaser for any costs, expenses, or damages suffered or incurred by the Purchaser as a result of such delay or damage, and specifically shall not be responsible for any costs and expenses incurred by the Purchaser in obtaining alternate accommodation pending the completion of construction of the Dwelling or the rectification of the damage, nor for any costs incurred in having to store or move the Purchaser's furniture or other belongings pending such completion or rectification work.

(e) The Vendor shall have the right to enter upon the Dwelling for a period of eight (8) years after the completion of the transaction set out in this Agreement, as required by the Vendor in its complete discretion, in order to complete and/or rectify outstanding items identified in the PDI Form or any other list prescribed by Tarion and the Vendor agrees to complete and/or rectify same within a reasonable time after Closing (or some other date as prescribed by Tarion), having regard to the availability of equipment, materials and labour. The failure or refusal by the Purchaser to provide access to the Property and/or the Dwelling situate thereon by the Vendor or its workmen, servants, agents or contractors following reasonable notice by the Vendor, shall relieve the Vendor of any obligation to complete or rectify any items of work that may be outstanding and otherwise required to be completed by the Vendor pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

(f) The Purchaser agrees that in no event shall the Purchaser be entitled to obtain possession of the Dwelling and Property unless and until the Purchaser and/or his/her designated representative has completed the pre- delivery inspection and executed the said PDI Form. In the event that the Purchaser and/or his/her designated representative has omitted or refused to execute the said PDI Form prior to the Closing Date, and the Vendor has duly attended at the Dwelling for the purposes of completing the said PDI Form and to inspect the Dwelling, the Vendor shall have the unilateral right and option of either completing this transaction and refusing to allow possession of the Dwelling by the Purchaser until such PDI Form has been duly executed, or of terminating this Agreement, whereupon all Deposits and monies paid or payable in respect of Extras, together with all interest accrued thereon at the prescribed rate, shall be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at law or in equity.

(g) It is expressly understood and agreed that the Dwelling will be separately metered for utilities, including electricity, gas and water services, and accordingly the consumption of electricity, gas and water/waste water services (as well as cable television, internet and telephone charges), shall be borne and paid for by the Purchaser from and after Closing Date.

(h) The Purchaser covenants and agrees to pay to the Vendor all amounts to correct and remedy all damage caused by the Purchaser or those for whom he is in law responsible to any services installed within the Property, which services shall, without limitation, include survey stakes, landscaping, trees, planting, curbs, curb cuts, streets, roads, street signs, street lighting, sanitary and storm sewers and any underground services installed by or on behalf of any public or private utilities.

(i) It is understood and agreed that the Purchaser is not entitled to perform any work on the Property prior to Closing without the Vendor's written consent and in the event that such consent is obtained, the Purchaser must obtain at its expense, and without restriction, any applicable building permits for the subject work at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense. It is further understood and agreed that such work shall not be warranted by Tarion or the Vendor or any other party related to the Vendor and that the Vendor shall not be responsible for any delay, costs and/or penalties arising as a result of the delay by the Purchaser in completing such permitted work on or before the scheduled Closing Date.

(j) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that if due to grading or other requirements, as determined by the Vendor, at its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, that it cannot or will not build a side door and/or door from the garage with direct access to the Dwelling, the Vendor need not build such door(s) and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to accept the Dwelling without such door(s) and the Purchaser shall not be entitled to any compensation or abatement of the Purchase Price.

FINISH SELECTION AND EXTRAS

19. (a) The Purchaser covenants and agrees to notify the Vendor, in writing within seven (7) days of the Vendor's request, as to any colours and finishes or other items to be chosen by the Purchaser from the Vendor's samples, and if the Purchaser fails to so notify the Vendor of his colour and finish selection or other selection within such time, the Vendor shall not be held liable for any delays in having the Dwelling substantially completed sufficient to permit occupancy thereof by the Closing Date, and the Purchaser shall complete the transaction on such date, notwithstanding that the Dwelling may not be substantially completed by such date. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that as a result of the Tarion Delayed Closing rules and regulations as set out in the Addendum, that any delay caused by the Purchaser in the selection of the finishes and colours can result in a delay in a construction and delivery of the Dwelling and as a result, a breach of the Purchaser's covenants in this section shall be considered a material breach of contract entitling the Vendor to all of its remedies in contract, law and equity, including without limitation, the right to terminate this Agreement and retain all monies paid thereto by the Purchaser as liquidated damages and not as penalty. Notwithstanding and in addition to the foregoing, in the event the Purchaser fails to make such selections as aforesaid, the Vendor shall be entitled to make such selections on behalf of the Purchaser and the Purchaser shall be obliged to complete this transaction without any holdback or abatement whatsoever.

(b) Subject to the Vendor's approval, if the Purchaser chooses to order third party upgrades or extras other than those specified and provided by the Vendor or if the Vendor agrees to allow the Purchaser or its agents to complete certain work within the Dwelling (collectively referred to as "Third Party Work"), then, if any delays in the completion of such Third Party Work affects the availability of legal occupancy of the Dwelling, then the Vendor shall not be held liable for any delays in having the Dwelling substantially completed sufficient to permit occupancy thereof by the Closing Date, and the terms of the Addendum shall apply. If the delay in the delivery and/or installation of the Third Party Work does not prevent the legal occupation of the Dwelling and the provision of the evidence confirming same as set out in the Addendum, then the Purchaser shall complete the transaction notwithstanding, without any holdbacks in respect of the Purchase Price. In the event that the Purchaser ordered and paid for extras comprising or requiring Third Party Work through the Vendor and such extras are not available on closing, but the lack of installation of same does not prevent the closing of such transaction and/or legal occupancy of the Dwelling, then the Vendor shall have the option of either i) providing its undertaking to install such Third Party Work extras in the Dwelling within a reasonable time of receipt of same after the Unit Transfer Date or ii) refunding the cost of the Third Party Work extras on the Unit Transfer Date by way of providing the Purchaser with a credit in the final statement of adjustments. In such latter event, such credit shall be accepted by the Purchaser as full and final settlement of any claim by the Purchaser with respect to such extras.

(c) The Purchaser specifically acknowledges that in the manufacture of finishing items, colour variances sometimes occur. The Purchaser hereby agrees to accept any such colour variation resulting from the manufacturing process without any right of abatement of purchase price and in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligations herein. More specifically, the Purchaser acknowledges that colour, texture, appearance, grains, veining, natural variations in appearance etc. of features and finishes installed in the Dwelling or the Property may vary from Vendor's samples as a result of normal manufacturing and installation processes and as a result of any such finishes being of natural products and the Purchaser agrees that the Vendor is not responsible for same. The Vendor is not responsible for shade difference occurring in the manufacture of items such as, but not limited to, finishing materials or products such as carpet, tiles, bath tubs, sinks and other such products where the product manufacturer establishes the standard for such finishes. Nor shall the Vendor be responsible for shade difference in colour of components manufactured from different materials but which components are designed to be assembled into either one product or installed in conjunction with another product and in these circumstances the product as manufactured shall be accepted by the Purchaser. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that pre-finished wood flooring (if any) may react to normal fluctuating humidity levels inducing gapping or cupping. The Purchaser acknowledges that natural stone (if any) is a very soft stone which will require a substantial amount of maintenance by the Purchaser and is very easily scratched and damaged. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that carpeting may be seamed in certain circumstances and said seams may be visible. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that various types of flooring, including but not limited to carpets, marble, tile, laminate, hardwood floors, or engineered wood in the dwelling unit may result in different heights (to be established by the Vendor in its sole discretion) in the transitional areas between them, and that the Vendor may use appropriate reducers in the area. For greater certainty, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that insofar as the wood finishes, laminate, marble, stone, carpeting, tiles, kitchen cabinetry or other manufactured finishing materials installed within the Dwelling are concerned: (i) the colour, texture and/or shading of such wood finishes, laminate, carpet, tiles, kitchen cabinetry or other manufactured finishing materials may vary slightly from that of those selected by the Purchaser from the Vendor's samples, due to variations or shading in dye-lots produced or manufactured by the suppliers; and (ii) the colour, finish and/or grain of wood and stone products may vary slightly from that of the wood or stone selected by the Purchaser from the Vendor's samples, inasmuch as wood and stone are natural materials which inherently cannot be precisely replicated or matched with other pieces or samples, thereby accounting for variations of colour and/or grain even within the same POTL or section of wood or stone. The Purchaser shall accordingly be estopped from claiming any entitlement to an abatement in the Purchase Price, or any replacement (in whole or in part) of the carpet, tiles, kitchen cabinetry, manufactured finishing materials or wood or stone products so installed or any other relief as a result of the variations hereinbefore described or contemplated. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that all light coloured materials, especially flooring, may be subject to fading or yellowing after use or exposure to sunlight and such fading or yellowing will not be covered by any warranty. The Purchaser further acknowledges that light coloured and white carpeting may be subject to discolouring at walls and sub-floor joints due to the filtering process that occurs with forced air heating, generally caused by pollutants and candles and both exterior and interior air quality and is not covered by any warranty provided for herein.

(d) The Purchaser covenants and agrees that he\she shall pay the Vendor in advance, (unless otherwise agreed in writing), for any Extras and the applicable HST and other taxes thereon ordered by the Purchaser and agrees that such payment shall be non-refundable in the event that this transaction is not completed due to any default hereunder by the Purchaser, and the Vendor may deduct the cost of such Extras, (as well as applicable HST and other taxes thereon) if not already paid for, from any deposit monies which may otherwise be refundable. In the event that for any reason the Extras are not installed by the Vendor prior to closing, the Vendor shall be entitled to refund all or part of monies paid as appropriate and this shall be accepted by the Purchaser as full and final settlement of any claim by the Purchaser with respect to the Extras, upgrades or changes which remain incomplete as aforesaid.

NO ACCESS UNTIL CLOSING

20. The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and confirms that he shall not be allowed without the specific written consent of the Vendor, (which consent may be arbitrarily withheld by the Vendor) access to the Property, for any purpose whatsoever. Once such right of access is exercised by the Purchaser with consent as aforesaid, he agrees to comply with all regulations and requirements imposed by any governmental authorities or imposed by the Vendor which may prevent, restrict or regulate such access due to health, safety or other governmental requirements or policies. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that any access to the Property shall be at the Purchaser's sole risk and the Purchaser hereby forever discharges and releases the Vendor, its successors and assigns, agents, employees and contractors from any and all damages, actions and claims whatsoever that the Purchaser may have as a result of personal injury or property damage occasioned by entering onto the Property, whether such entry was with or without the Vendor's express written consent. If permitted onto the Property, the Purchaser shall not enter the Property unless accompanied by a representative of the Vendor and the Purchaser shall be responsible to provide and wear all such protective headwear and footwear and any other equipment or clothing as required pursuant to the Occupational Health and Safety Act and/or any successor or other legislation and its regulations and the Purchaser agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, charges, damages or fines that the Vendor or its agents incur as a result of the Purchaser's breach of the foregoing, and in particular the Purchaser shall indemnify and save the Vendor, its servants and agents harmless from action, causes of the action, claims and demands for, upon or by reason or any damages, loss or injury to person or property of the purchaser, or any of his friends, relatives, workmen or agents who have entered on the Property whether with or without authorization, express or implied, of the Vendor.

OCCUPANCY AND COMPLETION

21. The Purchaser agrees that the Dwelling may be occupied when the requirements of the Municipality have been complied with and the Vendor has complied with the terms of the Addendum, notwithstanding that there remains exterior or other work to be completed as hereinbefore and hereinafter set out, including but not limited to completion of requirements pertaining to the Property or the Lands, requirements of any Development Agreement, the painting, paving of the driveway (if part of the Purchase Price), and\or any other grading, sodding and landscaping, all as hereinbefore provided.

TITLE

22. The Purchaser agrees to accept title to the Property subject to the following items and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to adhere to the terms and conditions as set out therein. If requested by the Vendor the Purchaser shall accept title to the Lot and/or Property from any registered owner of same and shall accept that owner's title covenants in lieu of the following items set out herein. The Purchaser agrees to satisfy himself as to compliance with any of the following items and the Vendor shall not be obligated on Closing, the Unit Transfer Date or thereafter to obtain any compliances, releases or discharges with respect to any of the following items:

(a) any subdivision agreement, site plan agreement, condominium agreement, servicing agreement, utility agreement, tree preservation agreement, development agreement, heritage agreement, front ending agreement, Section 37 Planning Act (Ontario) agreement, financial agreement engineering agreement and/or any other agreement entered into with the Municipality and\or any other governmental authority or with any public or private utility commission, including any restrictions, covenants, obligations or liabilities contained therein (collectively the "Subdivision Agreements" or the "Development Agreements");

The title is to be examined by the Purchaser at his own expense and without the Purchaser calling for the production of any deeds or abstracts of title, surveys, proof of evidence of title or to have furnished any copies thereof, other than those in the Vendor's possession. The Purchaser is to be allowed until 15 days prior to the Unit Transfer Date hereof to examine the title at his own expense and if within that time he shall furnish the Vendor in writing with any valid objections to the title which the Vendor shall be unwilling or unable to remove and which the Purchaser will not waive, this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any intermediate acts or negotiations, be null and void and the portion of the Deposit and Extras paid to the Vendor shall be returned without interest (unless interest is required pursuant to the Addendum) and the Vendor shall not be liable for any damages or costs whatsoever, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, loss of bargain, loss of profit, relocation costs, loss of income, professional fees and disbursements and any amount paid to third parties on account of decoration, construction or fixturing costs, unless such compensation is required pursuant to the Addendum and/or ONHWPA. Save as to any valid objections so made within such time, the Purchaser shall be conclusively deemed to have accepted the title of the Vendor to the Property. The Vendor shall be allowed to answer requisitions by way of a title advice statement addressed to purchasers of lands in the Subdivision. The Purchaser also acknowledges that the Vendor and the Vendor's Solicitor may arrange for the project to be enrolled with a title insurer or insurers acceptable to the Vendor (the "Title Insurer") in order to centralize underwriting for the project and avoid unnecessary duplication of costs for purchasers and their solicitors. In the event that the Purchaser elects to obtain title insurance through the Title Insurer, the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall not be required to perform some or all of the following due diligence thereby saving the Purchaser significant transaction costs: title search and review of title search; preparation of requisition letter; prepare, send out and review responses to clearance letters; execution searches against the Vendor; and corporate status searches.

(b) The Purchaser acknowledges that the Property is or will be encumbered by blanket mortgages and/or encumbrances which the Purchaser is not to assume and that the Vendor shall not be obliged to obtain and register (partial) discharges of such mortgages insofar as they affect the Property on the Unit Transfer Date. The Purchaser agrees to close the transaction notwithstanding the existence of such charge(s) and accept the Vendor's Solicitors' undertaking to register (partial) discharges of such mortgages in respect of the Property upon receipt, subject to the Vendor or the Vendor's Solicitors providing to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor the following:

(c) a mortgage statement or letter from the mortgagee(s) (or from their respective solicitors) confirming the amount, if any, or the terms if an amount is not applicable, required to be paid to the mortgagee(s) to obtain (partial) discharges of the mortgages with respect to the Property;

(i) a direction from the Vendor to the Purchaser to pay such amounts to its solicitors in trust and/or the mortgagee(s) (or to whomever the mortgagees may direct) on the Unit Transfer Date to obtain a (partial) discharge of the mortgage(s) with respect to the Property; and

(ii) an undertaking from the Vendor's Solicitors to deliver such amounts to the mortgagees and to register the (partial) discharge of the mortgages with respect to the Property upon receipt thereof and to advise the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor concerning registration particulars which notification can be performed by posting same on the world wide web in a location given to the Purchaser or his solicitor.

(d) For certainty, and without limiting the generality of the provisions of Section 23 of Schedule "D" herein, the Purchaser shall, both before and after closing, also grant and execute any and all temporary or permanent easement(s) for the installation and/or maintenance of private and/or municipal utility or other services to the Property, or to adjacent or neighbouring properties, in favour of any governmental authorities, private and/or public utilities and/or service providers and/or to adjacent or neighbouring land owners (including without limitation, any easement(s) for maintenance purposes for all lots within the plan of subdivision where less than 1.2 meter (4 foot) side yards are being provided), as well as easements for roof overhangs and eaves troughs and easements, forthwith upon the Vendor's request. In addition the Purchaser shall at the request of the Vendor, provide on Closing a transfer or transfers of easements in favour of any adjacent lands for overhead crane swings, facilitating the installation of shoring or foundations, installing and maintaining piles and/or tie-back installations, temporary working easements for construction on adjacent lands and/or the installation of temporary hoarding on the rear yard of the Lot as required in connection with any of the previously set out easements. The Purchaser shall procure any Planning Act consents and postponements from any holders of any mortgage or encumbrance registered on the Property by which such mortgage or encumbrance is postponed to any such easements, and the Purchaser shall be responsible for all costs and expenses in granting, procuring or registering such easements or postponements (including without limitation the cost of obtaining Planning Act consents). The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that due to the proximity of the Dwelling to adjacent Dwellings or structures, minor encroachments may exist with respect to eaves and/or exterior walls of certain dwellings, fences or other structures and the Purchaser specifically acknowledges and agrees to accept title to the Property subject to any such encroachments and such encroachments shall be deemed to be a "Permitted Encroachment" as defined above.

(e) Other than is required pursuant to the Addendum, the Vendor shall not be obliged to provide any title deeds, abstract, occupancy permits or certificates, surveys, grading certificates, or any other evidence of title or that the Dwelling may be legally occupied, and the Purchaser shall satisfy himself that the Dwelling may be occupied in accordance with municipal requirements. The Purchaser agrees to accept a transfer of title to the Property directly from the registered owner thereof, and to accept such owner's title covenants in lieu of the Vendor's title covenants, in the event that the Vendor is not the registered owner of the Property on closing, provided that the Vendor shall be obliged to provide such further and other covenants and undertakings as the Purchaser may be entitled to pursuant to this agreement.

PLANNING ACT

24. This Agreement shall be effective to create an interest in the Property and/or Lot only if there is compliance with the subdivision control provisions as set out in the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990 and any amendments thereto, including without limitation Section 50 thereof, on or before the Unit Transfer Date.

MANNER OF PURCHASER'S TITLE

25. The Purchaser agrees to advise the Vendor or its solicitors within fifteen (15) days of acceptance of this Agreement of the manner in which title is to be taken by the Purchaser, failing which the Vendor shall be entitled to endorse title to the Purchaser as set out in accordance with this Agreement.

COSTS OF REGISTRATION AND TAXES

26. The transfer/deed of land shall be prepared at the Vendor's expense and may contain any or all of the provisions set forth in this Agreement and shall be executed by the Purchaser, if required by the Vendor, and the Purchaser shall execute and deliver on the Closing Date and/or the Unit Transfer Date a covenant, undertaking or agreement incorporating all or any of the terms contained herein or as may be required by the Vendor. The Purchaser undertakes and agrees to register the transfer/ deed at his expense on the Unit Transfer Date at the time of Closing and agrees to pay the land transfer tax in connection with the registration of the transfer/deed.

RISK UNTIL CLOSING

27. All buildings and equipment comprising the Dwelling and the Property shall be and remain at the risk of the Vendor until Unit Transfer Date. Provided that from and after the Closing Date, if same occurs prior to the Unit Transfer Date, the Purchaser shall provide the Vendor with proof of liability insurance as provided for herein and shall be responsible for obtaining and maintaining any insurance for his/her personal property and contents and the Purchaser shall be responsible for the Dwelling and the Property pursuant to the terms of Schedule "C" of the Addendum attached hereto. Subject to the terms of the Addendum to the contrary, in the event of damage to the Dwelling or Property prior to the Unit Transfer Date, the Vendor may either repair the damage, finish the Dwelling and complete the sale or may terminate this Agreement and have the Deposits and Extras paid by the Purchaser to the Vendor returned to the Purchaser (together with any interest required by law) and the Vendor shall thereupon be released from its obligations hereunder. It is understood and agreed that the proceeds of all insurance policies held by the Vendor are for the benefit of the Vendor alone. These provisions are subject to any overriding provisions in the ONHWPA, its regulations and/or the Addendum to the contrary.

EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

28. (a) The Purchaser hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Vendor to be and act as his lawful attorney, in the Purchaser's name, place and stead, in order to execute the PDI Form, Tarion deposit receipt and new housing application form for the HST Rebate (if applicable) or any other documents comprising prescribed security for deposits , together with any other ancillary documents required to be executed in order to procure any available Rebate(s) of the HST applicable in connection with this transaction, as well as any deposit insurance policy (and related documents) if any. Each of the individuals comprising the Purchaser, if more than one (hereinafter referred to as the "Donor") hereby constitutes and appoints the other (hereinafter referred to as the "Donee") to be and act as the Donor's lawful agent and attorney, in order to receive such notices provided in the Addendum, and/or for the purposes of receiving notices required or desired to be delivered by the Vendor in accordance with this Agreement, acknowledging receipt of warning clause notices or of the inclusion of same within this Agreement, covenanting to indemnities required by the governmental authorities. Provided that this shall not apply in the event that any Purchaser is released from this Agreement prior to the Unit Transfer Date or termination. In accordance with the provisions of The Powers of Attorney Act R.S.O. 1990 as amended and/or The Substitute Decisions Act. S.O. 1992, as amended, the Purchaser hereby confirms and agrees that the powers of attorney set out herein may be exercised by the attorney so appointed during any subsequent legal incapacity of the Purchaser, and may and shall only be revoked upon the death of the party giving such power of attorney or as aforesaid. Each power of attorney as granted in this agreement shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest

(b) If any documents required to be executed and delivered by the Purchaser to the Vendor are, in fact, executed by a third party appointed as the attorney for the Purchaser, then the power of attorney appointing such person must be registered in the Land Titles office where the Property is registered, and a duplicate registered copy thereof (together with a statutory declaration sworn by the attorney or the Purchaser's solicitor confirming that said power of attorney has not been revoked) shall be delivered to the Vendor along with such documents. Where a third party has been appointed as the attorney for the Purchaser, then any notices required or desired to be delivered to the Purchaser in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, may be given to the said attorney, in lieu of the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor (and shall be deemed to have been received by the Purchaser when so delivered to his attorney).

(c) Where the Purchaser herein is a corporation, or where the Purchaser is buying in trust for a corporation to be incorporated, the execution of this Agreement by the principal or principals of such corporation, or by the person named as the Purchaser in trust for a corporation to be incorporated, as the case may be, shall be deemed and construed to constitute the personal guarantee of such person or persons so signing with respect to the obligations of the Purchaser herein. The Vendor's consent allowing a corporate purchaser to purchase a Dwelling shall not derogate from such Purchaser's obligation to reimburse the Vendor for an amount equivalent to the Rebate (as defined herein) in the event that such corporate purchaser does not qualify for the Rebate.

EXECUTION BY A SPOUSE

29. If the Purchaser is a married person, his or her spouse shall co-sign this Agreement to ensure the performance of the covenants hereunder including, inter alia, the payment of the Purchase Price, together with any other documents that may be required by the Vendor as ancillary thereto, including without limitation, the execution of a counterpart of this Agreement (adding the said spouse as a party to this Agreement) and the Purchaser agrees to deliver such documentation as and when requested by the Vendor.

TENDER AND EXCHANGE OF DOCUMENTS

30. (a) The parties acknowledge that on the Unit Transfer Date this transaction shall be completed electronically and accordingly there will be no exchange of documents at the Land Registry Office between the parties or their respective solicitors. Any tender of documents or monies hereunder, including those required to be exchanged on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date, shall be made respectively upon the Vendor or the Purchaser, or upon their respective solicitors, as hereinafter set out and any money shall be tendered by certified solicitor's trust cheque, bank draft from a bank or trust or loan corporation or wire transfer using the LVTS system from a chartered bank or trust company. The Vendor shall be allowed to tender and deliver documentation to the Purchaser by posting the documentation required to be delivered to the Purchaser on the Closing Date and/or the Unit Transfer Date on an internet web site on the world wide web, and providing notice to the Purchaser and/or his/her solicitor of the method of accessing such documents on such internet site and the internet address of such web site, or by electronic mail or telefacsimile and the Vendor shall be entitled to charge the Purchaser the costs of any upload costs for the use of such web site or delivery costs. The Vendor shall not be obliged to provide originals of such documents. In the event the Vendor's documents are posted on such site, said documents may be executed electronically in accordance with the Electronic Commerce Act (Ontario) and the posting of such documentation, electronically signed where required, and the notification to the Purchaser's solicitor or the Purchaser of where on the intra-net and/or world wide web such documents can be accessed, shall be deemed to effective tender of such documents on the Purchaser and/or their solicitor, as hereinbefore set out. Notwithstanding anything set out herein to the contrary, any tender upon the Vendor on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date must be made at the offices of its solicitor during normal business hours, which shall be deemed to be 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on any business day (excluding weekends and statutory holidays).

(b) The Purchaser shall deliver on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date, such declarations, certificates, affidavits, undertakings, indemnities, directions, forms, documents, certificates and other documents as required by the Vendor in its discretion, as well as all monies and funds as may be required herein (by way of certified cheque, bank draft, wire transfer, etc., as provided for in this Agreement), including inter alia, the "Requisite Deliveries" as defined in the Document Registration Agreement governing closing, to the Vendor or Vendor's solicitor (as determined by the Vendor) by no later than 3:00 p.m. on the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date as the case may be. In the event that the Purchaser or his solicitor has not delivered the Requisite Deliveries and/or monies as hereinbefore set out at such location and by the later of such time as stipulated in this Agreement, then the Purchaser shall be deemed for all purposes to have waived tender by the Vendor, and the Purchaser shall be estopped and forever barred from claiming any defect in the title to the Property, or any deficiency in the construction thereof, or that the Vendor was unable or unwilling to provide occupancy of the Dwelling and/or complete this transaction in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

ELECTRONIC REGISTRATION

31. (a) The parties hereto agree that if the electronic registration system (the "Teraview Electronic Registration System" or "TERS") is operative in the applicable Land Titles Office, then, at the option of the Vendor's solicitor, the following provisions shall prevail, namely:

(i) the Purchaser shall be obliged to retain a lawyer, who is both an authorized TERS user and in good standing with the Law Society, to represent the Purchaser in connection with the completion of this transaction, and shall authorize such lawyer to enter into an escrow closing agreement with the Vendor's solicitor on the latter's standard form (the "Document Registration Agreement"), establishing the procedures and timing for completing this transaction and to be delivered by the Vendor's solicitor to the Purchaser's lawyers no later than 7 days before the Unit Transfer Date.

(ii) the delivery and exchange of documents, monies and keys to the Dwelling (and with "exchange" being the delivery of documents, monies and keys by each of the parties hereto as provided for in this Agreement), and the release thereof to the Vendor and the Purchaser, as the case may be:

(A) shall not occur at the same time as the registration of the transfer/deed (and other registerable documentation);

(B) shall be governed by Document Registration Agreement, pursuant to which the solicitor receiving any documents, keys and/or certified funds will be required to hold same in escrow, and will not be entitled to release same except in strict accordance with the provisions of the Documentation Registration Agreement;

(b) the Purchaser shall be obliged to deliver all documents and funds as may be required to close the transaction to the office of the Vendor's solicitor on or before the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date as the case may be, in accordance with the tender provisions of this Agreement;

(c) the Vendor may deliver all documents required for closing on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date, save and except for the electronic deed, to the Purchaser's solicitor, with the Vendor's documents executed electronically in accordance with the Electronic Commerce Act 2002 (Ontario);

(d) if the Purchaser's lawyer is unwilling or unable to complete this transaction via TERS, in accordance with the provision contemplated under the Document Registration Agreement, then said lawyer (or the authorized agent thereof) shall be obliged to personally attend at the office of the Vendor's solicitor, at such time on the scheduled Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date as may be directed by the Vendor's solicitor, in order to complete this transaction via TERS utilizing the computer facilities in the Vendor's solicitors office;

(e) the Purchaser expressly acknowledges and agrees that he or she will not be entitled to receive a completed electronic transfer/deed to the Dwelling for release and registration until the balance of the funds due on closing (as well as all other documents as may be required by the Vendor), in accordance with the statement of adjustments, are either remitted by certified cheque via personal delivery or by electronic funds transferred to the Vendor's solicitor (or in such other manner as the latter may direct) at its offices, prior to the release of the transfer/deed for registration;

(f) documents to be registered on title to the Dwelling may be delivered by the Vendor to the Purchaser or its solicitor party hereto by telefax or email (or by a similar system reproducing the original), provided that all documents so transmitted have been duly and properly executed by the appropriate parties/signatories thereto. The Purchaser and\or its solicitor shall be obliged to provide the Vendor with a copy of the registered transfer forthwith after the Unit Transfer Date;

(g) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, it is expressly understood and agreed by the parties hereto that an effective tender shall be deemed to have been validly made by the Vendor upon the Purchaser when the Vendor's solicitor has: delivered all closing documents and/or funds to the Purchaser's solicitor in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement (including delivery of such documents via the internet); and has completed all steps required by TERS in order to complete this transaction that can be performed or undertaken by the Vendor's solicitor without the co-operation or participation of the Purchaser's solicitor without the necessity of personally attending upon the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor with the aforementioned documents and/or funds [and without any requirement to have an independent witness evidencing the foregoing]. If TERS is not used for the completion of this transaction then an effective tender shall be deemed to have been validly made by the Vendor upon the Purchaser when the Vendor's solicitor has electronically and/or personally delivered all closing documents and deliveries to the Purchaser's solicitor in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement without the necessity of personally attending upon the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor with the aforementioned documents and deliveries [and without any requirement to have an independent witness evidencing the foregoing]. The parties acknowledge and agree that keys are not included in the deliveries and are to be released at the office or on-site office of the Vendor once the transaction contemplated herein is completed and therefore will not be available with the exchange of documents, deliveries and funds, and are accordingly not required for a tender.

RELEASE OF KEYS

32. The Purchaser acknowledges that the keys to the Property shall be available for release to the Purchaser at the site or other office of the Vendor and that this availability constitutes a valid tender of keys on the Purchaser.

FORCE MAJEURE

33. Whenever (and to the extent that) the Vendor are prevented, hindered or delayed in the fulfilment of any obligation hereunder, or in the doing of any work by reason of an "act of force majeure" or incident causing "Unavoidable Delay", then, save and except to the extent as provided for or restricted in the Addendum to the contrary, such party's liability to perform such obligation shall be postponed, and such party shall be relieved from any liability in damages or otherwise for breach thereof, for so long as (and to the extent that) such prevention, hindering or delay continues to exist. This right is intended to provide for those instances or situations not provided for in the Addendum, if any. An incident of "force majeure" shall have the same meaning as an incident comprising "Unavoidable Delay" as defined in the Addendum.

NON-REGISTRATION, ASSIGNMENT AND POSTPONEMENT AND SUBORDINATION

34. (a) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges the full priority of any construction financing or other mortgages arranged by the Vendor and secured by the Property over his interest as Purchaser for the full amount of the said mortgage or construction financing, notwithstanding any law or statute to the contrary and agrees to execute all acknowledgements or postponements required to give full effect thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser agrees that this Agreement shall be subordinated to and postponed to the mortgage(s) assumed and/or arranged by the Vendor (and presently registered or to be registered on title to the Property) and any advances made thereunder from time to time, and to any easements, Development Agreements or any other agreements referred to herein to which title may be subject. The Purchaser agrees to execute all necessary documents and assurances to give effect to the foregoing as required by the Vendor. Any breach by the Purchaser of this section shall be considered a material breach.

The Purchaser further covenants and agrees that he will in no way, directly or indirectly, assign, convey, list for sale, sell or transfer his rights under this Agreement prior to the Unit Transfer Date to any other person without the consent of the Vendor in writing, which consent may be withheld in the Vendor's sole discretion, and that he will at no time register or attempt to register this Agreement on title to the Property by way of caution, deposit, assignment or in any way whatsoever, or register a certificate of pending litigation and it is expressly agreed by all parties hereto that any such registration or attempt by the Purchaser or anyone acting for or through him shall, at the option of the Vendor, entitle the Vendor to terminate this Agreement and make it absolutely null and void and any monies paid under this Agreement, including inter alia all deposit monies together with all monies paid for any Extras or changes to the Property, may be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at contract, law or equity. In the event that this Agreement, a caution, certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument whatsoever is registered against or dealing with the title in contravention of this provision, then the Purchaser hereby appoints the Vendor his true and lawful attorney pursuant to The Powers of Attorney Act R.S.O. 1990, as amended and/or The Substitute Division Act 1992, as amended for the purposes of removing the contract, caution, certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument from title, including the giving of any discharge, the lifting of any caution, the granting of any order or the assignment of any rights pursuant to this Agreement and this power of attorney shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest. The Purchaser shall bear all costs incurred by the Vendor in the exercise of its function pursuant to this power of attorney. Further, the Purchaser hereby covenants and agrees that at any time prior to Unit Transfer Date any default by him in the performance of any of his covenants or obligations contained herein shall entitle the Vendor, at its sole option, to terminate this Agreement and, upon such termination, all monies paid to the Vendor hereunder shall be forfeited to the Vendor and this Agreement shall be at an end and the Purchaser shall not have any further rights hereunder. The Vendor shall have the right to assign this Agreement, provided that any such assignee shall be bound by all of the covenants made by the Vendor herein, and upon such assignment, the Vendor shall thereupon be released from all obligations hereunder, unless provided for in the Addendum to the contrary.

(b) The Purchaser further covenants and agrees that until the Vendor receives the entire Purchase Price, that:

(i) he will not sell, mortgage, pledge, lien or in any way encumber the Property either directly or indirectly;

(ii) if an execution is filed against him/her and/or the Property he/she will forthwith have the execution removed;

(iii) if an execution is registered against person(s) with a similar name(s), he/she shall execute all documents required by the Vendor in its discretion, to evidence that he is not the same person(s) named in such execution(s), sufficient to enable the Vendor to obtain a clear execution certificate from the local Land Titles Office.

DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

35. In the event that the Purchaser defaults on any of his obligations contained in this Agreement, makes any assignment to creditors, files for bankruptcy or files any consumer proposal or becomes insolvent on or before Closing, including without limitation, breaching or failing in the performance or observance of any covenant, term, agreement, restriction, stipulation or provision of this Agreement to be performed and/or observed by the Purchaser or if there is any lien, execution or encumbrance arising from any action or default whatsoever of the Purchaser being charged against or affecting the Property, and such Purchaser fails to remedy such default forthwith upon request, then the Vendor, in addition to any other rights or remedies this Agreement provides, may, at its sole option, unilaterally suspend all of the Purchaser's rights, benefits and privileges contained herein (including without limitation, the right to make colour and finish selections with respect to the Dwelling as hereinbefore provided or contemplated), and/or unilaterally declare the Purchaser in default and\or this Agreement to be terminated and of no further force or effect, whereupon, save and except as provided in the Addendum to the contrary, all Deposits and Extras theretofore paid, together with all interest accrued thereon at the prescribed rate, if any, shall be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at law or in equity. Notwithstanding and in addition to the foregoing, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that time shall be of the essence with respect to all payments to be made by the Purchaser to the Vendor pursuant to this Agreement. In the event that the Purchaser is in default with respect to the payment of any amount owing by the Purchaser to the Vendor pursuant to this Agreement, the Vendor shall have the right to declare this Agreement null and void or, provided the Purchaser satisfies the Vendor that the Purchaser will complete the transaction, the Vendor may (but shall have no obligation to) elect to complete the transaction of purchase and sale contemplated by this Agreement provided that the Purchaser shall pay interest on the amounts which are in arrears calculated at the rate of 18% per annum commencing on the date on which such amount was due and payable by the Purchaser to the Vendor until the date on which all arrears are paid in full plus all additional legal and other expenses incurred by the Vendor. In the event that this agreement is terminated as hereinbefore set out, the Purchaser shall be obliged to execute such releases and any other documents or assurances as the Vendor may require, in order to confirm that the Purchaser, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, does not have (nor could be deemed or construed to have) any interest whatsoever in the Property and/or this Agreement, and in the event the Purchaser fails or refuses to execute same, the Purchaser hereby appoints the Vendor to be his lawful attorney in order to execute such releases, documents and assurances in the Purchaser's name, place and stead, and in accordance with the provisions of The Powers of Attorney Act R.S.O. 1990, as amended and/or The Substitute Decisions Act, 1992, as amended, the Purchaser hereby declares that this power of attorney may be exercised by the Vendor during any subsequent legal incapacity on the part of the Purchaser.

36. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that notwithstanding any rights which he might otherwise have at law or in equity arising out of this Agreement, he shall not assert any of such rights, nor have any claim or cause of action (as a result of any matter or thing arising under or in connection with this Agreement) against any person, firm, corporation or other legal entity, other than the person, firm, corporation or legal entity specifically named or defined as the Vendor herein, even though the Vendor may be found to be a nominee or agent of another person, firm, corporation or other legal entity, and this acknowledgment and agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel and bar against the Purchaser in any action or proceeding brought by the Purchaser to assert any of such rights, claims or causes of action. In the event the Vendor's solicitor is holding any of the Deposits and/or Extras in trust pursuant to this Agreement, then in the event of a default by the Purchaser, the Vendor's solicitor shall be entitled to pay and release to the Vendor the said Deposits and/or Extras together with any interest accrued thereon, provided the Vendor has delivered to its solicitors a statement of an officer of the Vendor, certifying that the Purchaser has committed a default pursuant to this Agreement that has not been remedied and that the Vendor has terminated this Agreement and that the Vendor is therefore entitled to the deposit and accrued interest, if any. The Purchaser hereby releases the said solicitors from any obligation to hold the Deposits and/or Extras, if any, in trust, and shall not make any claim whatsoever against the said solicitors and the Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the said solicitors to deliver the said deposit monies and accrued interest, if any, to the Vendor.

LIMITATION

37. No waiver by the Vendor of any breach of covenant or default in the performance of any obligation hereunder or any failure by the Vendor to enforce its rights herein shall constitute any further waiver of the Vendor's rights herein, it being the express intent of the parties that any waiver or forbearance in enforcing its rights by the Vendor shall apply solely to that particular breach or failure. The rights, remedies and recourses of the Purchaser in connection with this Agreement are limited to the Vendor, notwithstanding that the Vendor may be, or be deemed to be by law, acting as an agent or otherwise on behalf of some other person, firm, corporation or other entity and the Purchaser hereby agrees that with respect to this Agreement it shall not have any rights, remedies or recourse against such other person, firm, corporation, or other entity at law or otherwise. The Vendor shall have the right to assign or transfer this Agreement in its sole discretion. The Purchaser shall be obliged to take title from any third party or the Subdivider holding title to the Property.

Any Non-Addendum Notices sent to the Purchaser and/or his or her solicitor at the address, telefacsimile number and/or e-mail address provided by the Purchaser and/or his or her solicitor shall be deemed to have been delivered to all of the Purchasers even if he/she/they do not reside at such municipal address or share or have access to such e-mail address, and the Purchaser specifically appoints that Purchaser residing at such address or controlling such e-mail address as his/her/their agent for receiving notices under this Agreement.

(b) Any Non-Addendum Notices or document desired or required to be given to the Vendor shall be deemed to have been sufficiently given if same is in writing and personally delivered or telefaxed to an officer of the Vendor at the address noted below (or at such other address as the Vendor may designate from time to time, upon notice being given to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor as hereinbefore provided), with a copy of same to be personally delivered or telefaxed to the Vendor's solicitor, and any such document or notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of such personal delivery, or on the next day (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and statutory holidays) following the date of facsimile transmission (provided a confirmation of transmission receipt is produced at the time of facsimile transmission). Notwithstanding the foregoing, this provision shall not apply to the exchange of electronic documents created in TERS between the respective solicitors for the Vendor and Purchaser, and such exchange of electronic documents shall take place utilizing TERS and the electronic transmission format required herein, and documents messaged or access permitted through the TERS system shall be deemed to have been delivered on the date and time same were messaged and/or released as such date is shown on the TERS system. Any documents messaged after 5:00 p.m. (Toronto time) shall be deemed to be delivered and received on the next day that TERS system is available for the registration.

(c) This offer by the Purchaser, constituted by his/her/their execution of this Agreement, shall be irrevocable by the Purchaser until the 5th day (excluding Saturday, Sunday or any statutory holiday) following the date of his execution of this Agreement as set forth below, after which time, this offer may be withdrawn, and if so, same shall be null and void and the Deposit shall be returned to the Purchaser without interest or deduction. For clarity, the initial ten (10) day statutory rescission period shall commence on the date that this offer by the Purchaser is executed by the Vendor and delivered to the Purchaser.

(d) If the Purchaser moves from the address set out on the Addendum and/or changes any of the relevant contact information provided on the Addendum and fails to notify the Vendor of the change or new contact information, then delivery of such notices shall be deemed to be effective if made to the address, fax number or email address as set out on the Addendum even if the Purchaser does not receive notice of same.

CONSTRUCTION LIENS

39. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the monies paid to the Vendor as Deposits or Extras, shall not be recognized and treated for the purposes of The Construction Lien Act R.S.O. 1990, as amended, as monies held in trust pursuant to the provisions of the Act. The Purchaser shall be deemed and construed to be a "home buyer" within the meaning of The Construction Lien Act R.S.O. 1990, as amended (and shall not constitute an "owner" as defined in Section 1(1) thereof), and as such, the Purchaser shall not be entitled to demand that any holdback of the Purchase Price be maintained for construction liens on the Closing Date.

NON-MERGER, VENDOR'S LIEN

The Vendor will however, upon request, deliver to the Purchaser (for registration at the Purchaser's expense) a release of the Vendor's lien or a withdrawal of caution but only after all monies owing to the Vendor by the Purchaser have been duly paid to the Vendor by the Purchaser, including without limitation, the repayment of any adjustments resulting from this transaction.

The Purchaser agrees to complete and execute the mortgage application and financial disclosure forms requested by the Vendor truthfully and to the best of his/her ability, and the Purchaser acknowledges that the information, evidence and documents required to be provided by him pursuant to this subparagraph may be required to be furnished to the Vendor from time to time prior to Closing. The Purchaser hereby specifically authorizes and directs any mortgagee or financial institution giving the Purchaser purchase financing for the Property, to provide to the Vendor a copy of all mortgage commitments/financial disclosure in respect of same and all revisions thereto, together with all other associated documentation. In the event that the Purchaser fails to submit the information, evidence and/or documents for approval within the time periods as hereinbefore set forth as and when requested by the Vendor, or if the information, evidence and/or documentation submitted pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement or any amendment thereto is, in whole or in part, false or misleading, or if the Purchaser fails to disclose any relevant facts pertaining to his financial circumstances or abilities, then the Purchaser shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement, and the default provisions of this Agreement shall apply.

DEVELOPMENT MATTERS AND REZONING OF ADJACENT LANDS

43. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor or the Vendors' assigns or related or affiliated corporation(s), or the Subdivider, may apply to rezone or subdivide or amend the Official Plan and/or obtain site plan approval with respect to lands within, or adjacent to or in the neighboring vicinity of the lands contained within the plan of subdivision encompassing the Property and/or any lands within the Municipality, County or Region in which the Property is situate, and the Purchaser hereby covenants and agrees that it shall not oppose any such official plan amendment, rezoning, condominium and/or subdivision application(s), site plan approval applications, or any other applications ancillary thereto, including without limitation, any application(s) made for a minor variance before the relevant Committee of Adjustment or any other governmental body or authority having jurisdiction so as to enable the Vendor or its nominee to sever lands, grant easements, change the set back requirements of such lands, the present use of such lands or any part thereof, or to vary the density coverage, dwelling count, size of lots or yield thereof, or for any other lawful purpose, and the Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that this covenant may be pleaded as an estoppel or bar to any opposition or objection raised by the Purchaser thereto. The Purchaser further covenants and agrees to extract a covenant similar to the foregoing from its immediate successors in title to the Property, and shall specifically include such a restrictive covenant in any subsequent conveyance, transfer or other disposition of the Property, and shall assign the benefit of such covenant to the Vendor or the Vendor's nominee forthwith upon the Vendor's request.

CONDOMINIUM PROVISIONS

44. In addition to purchasing the Real Property, the Purchaser hereby agrees that he\she is purchasing a common interest in the Condominium as more particularly described in the Condominium Documents on the terms and conditions as hereinafter.

(a) That portion of the Purchase Price applicable to the common interest in the Condominium shall be Two ($2.00) Dollars which shall be payable as part of the monies dues on the Unit Transfer Date from the Purchaser to the Vendor. There is no deposit payable by the Purchaser for the purchase of the common interest in the Condominium.

The Purchaser further acknowledges that upon receipt of a Transfer/Deed of Land to the POTL, that the common interest in the Condominium Corporation cannot be severed from the Real Property upon any subsequent sale of the POTL.

(c) The Purchaser acknowledges that the Condominium, the common elements and the purchase of a common interest in the Condominium are not warranted by Tarion under the ONHWPA.

(d) The Purchaser acknowledges that the roadway and laneway common elements of the Condominium Corporation will not be constructed to the standards and/or requirements, if any of the Municipality, for public roads and services. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that the Purchaser shall have no claims against the Vendor for said standards of workmanship or materials. The Purchaser agrees that the foregoing may be pleaded by the Vendor as an estoppel in any action brought by the Purchaser or his successors in title against the Vendor. The Vendor may, from time to time, change, vary or modify in its sole discretion or at the instance of any Governmental Authority or mortgagee or as it may require in its discretion, any part of the Condominium to conform with any municipal requirements related to official plan or official plan amendments, zoning by-laws, committee of adjustment and/or land division committee decisions, municipal site plan approval, or as may be required by the Vendor in its discretion. Such changes may be to the plans and specifications existing at inception of the Condominium or as they existed at the time the Purchaser entered into this Agreement, or as illustrated on any sales brochures or otherwise. The Purchaser shall have no claim against the Vendor for any such changes, variances or modifications nor shall the Vendor be required to give notice thereof. The Purchaser hereby consents to any such alterations and agrees to complete the sale notwithstanding any such modifications.

(e) In the event that for any reason whatsoever, the Condominium has not been registered by the Closing Date or if the Vendor is unable to deliver to the Purchaser on or before Closing, a conveyance of the Property, with title in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, then the Vendor at its option, may require that the Purchaser close the purchase transaction and take possession of the POTL on the Closing Date and enter into the Occupancy Licence.

This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, the parties hereto, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns.

JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY

46. This Agreement of Purchase and Sale shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario. 47. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and the Addendum then the terms of the Addendum shall prevail and the terms of this Agreement in conflict or inconsistent shall be deemed to be severed from the Agreement without affecting the validity and/or enforceability of the balance of the Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal or invalid, or beyond the powers or capacity of the parties hereto, then provided such provision is not, in the Vendor's sole opinion, essential or fundamental to the completion of this transaction, such provision shall be deemed and construed to be severed and deleted from this Agreement, and the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

BINDING OFFER AND ENTIRE AGREEMENT

48. The parties re-affirm that this Agreement when accepted shall constitute a binding Purchase Agreement between the Purchaser and the Vendor. It is agreed and understood that there is no representation, warranty, collateral term or condition affecting this Agreement or the Property, or for which the Vendor (or any sales representative representing the Vendor) can be held responsible or liable in any way, whether contained, portrayed, illustrated or represented by, or in, any plan, drawing, brochure, display, model or any other sales/marketing material(s), or alleged against any sales representative representing the Vendor, other than as expressed herein in writing. The Purchaser further confirms that in entering into this Agreement, he has not relied on any representation, warranty, collateral agreement or condition affecting this Agreement or the Property, or supported thereby, other than those specifically set out in this Agreement or in any of the schedules hereto, and specifically absolves the Vendor and/or any other party that may seek indemnification or contribution from the Vendor, of any obligation or liability to perform or comply with any promise or comply with any promise or representation that may have been made by any sales representative/agent or alleged against them, unless the same has been reduced to writing and is contained in this Agreement or in the schedules hereto.

EXECUTION AND ELECTRONIC EXCHANGE

49. This Agreement may be executed and counter-signed by telefacsimile and/or electronic mail and a telefacsimile or electronically transmitted reproduction of this offer with a signature of the Vendor and/or the Purchaser may be relied upon to the same extent as if it were an original. The Vendor and the Purchaser covenant and agree, upon the request of the other, to provide an originally executed copy of this Agreement to the requesting party.

EVIDENCE OF COMPLIANCE

50. The Purchaser shall pay the Vendor's solicitors charges for each evidence of compliance delivered to the Purchaser, or its solicitors, pursuant to subsection 81(6) of the Act.

N.S.F.

51. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that a three hundred and fifty dollar ($350.00) administrative fee shall be charged to the Purchaser for any cheque paid with respect to any deposit payable pursuant to this Agreement or any extras or upgrades or the occupancy fee which is returned "N.S.F." or upon which a "Stop Payment" has been ordered and such administrative fee shall be paid within five (5) days of written demand therefore, but in any event, shall be adjusted on Closing if applicable. In addition, the Purchaser shall pay any legal fees and disbursements charged by the Vendor's solicitors, plus applicable taxes, in connection with any such cheque which is returned N.S.F. or for which a Stop Payment has been ordered, as well as for the Purchaser's failure or delay in complying with the terms of this Agreement, which fees shall be paid forthwith upon demand by the Vendor or its solicitors.

In the event that the Purchaser desires to increase the amount to be paid to the Vendor's solicitor on the Occupancy Date at any time after the expiry of the initial ten (10) day statutory rescission period, or wishes to vary the manner in which the Purchaser has previously requested to take title to the Unit, or wishes to add or change any unit(s) being acquired from the Vendor, then the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor's Solicitors, either on the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, as determined by the Vendor, their legal fees in the amount of $350.00 plus HST, per request, in order to implement any such change, but without there being any obligation whatsoever on the part of the Vendor to approve of, or to implement, any of the foregoing changes so requested.

As such, the Corporation shall have a right of access to the lots for the purpose of inspecting, repairing and maintaining the common elements and the servicing of this infrastructure, whether or not such infrastructure is located within the common elements;

6. The Purchaser acknowledges that existing and/or future site plan agreements, section 37 agreements, development agreements and other agreements with the Municipality and other Governmental Authorities, affecting the real property may require the Vendor to provide the Purchaser with certain notices or warnings including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, notices or warnings regarding the usage of the real property, environmental issues, noise levels from adjacent or nearby buildings, hospitals, plazas, roadways or otherwise, school transportation and related educational issues, the absence of door-to-door mail delivery, the location of mailboxes, the status of services and works in the condominium and in general, any other matter that may be deemed by the Municipality and/or Governmental Authorities to inhibit the enjoyment by the Purchaser of the real property. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable at this time to provide the Purchaser with all such notices and warnings. On or before closing, the Purchaser shall forthwith execute upon request by the Vendor, acknowledgements or amendments to this Agreement containing the required notices and warning clauses. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable to sell the real property to the Purchaser unless the Purchaser executes such acknowledgements or amendments as aforesaid. In the event that the Purchaser fails to execute such acknowledgements or amendments forthwith upon being requested to do so by the Vendor, the Vendor shall be entitled, at its sole option, to terminate this Agreement and upon such termination, all monies paid to the Vendor hereunder shall be forfeited to the Vendor and this Agreement shall be at an end, and the Purchaser shall not have any further rights hereunder.

8. The Purchaser expressly acknowledges that at the date of execution of this Agreement, draft plan and/or site plan approval pursuant to the provisions of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990 and/or Condominium Act, R.S.O. 1998 as either may be amended may not yet have been obtained with respect to the project. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the draft conditions and any Development Agreements may contain warnings, and other provisions which are required to be included in agreements of purchase and sale for units in the Condominium. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to execute any and all documentation, including an amendment to this Agreement, as may be required by the Vendor, and in a form satisfactory to the Vendor, in order that the foregoing provisions shall be incorporated into this Agreement and acknowledged by the Purchaser.

9. The Purchaser acknowledges receipt of notice from the Vendor that the Vendor or related or associated corporations may develop other lands in the vicinity of the Condominium and may apply for zoning or rezoning thereof, and the Purchaser agrees and undertakes on behalf of themselves, their successors and assigns not to object or oppose any applications for the development, zoning, rezoning, amendment to the Official Plan or Secondary Plan or any similar applications and agrees that this paragraph may be pleaded as a bar to any objection thereof. The Purchaser covenants to include this clause in any conveyance, mortgage or disposition of the Unit and to assign the benefit of such covenant to the Vendor.

10. Without limiting the generality of the preceding subparagraph, the Purchaser is hereby advised that:

    (i) despite the inclusion of noise control features in the development and within the building units, sound levels due to increasing road and rail traffic may on occasion interfere with some activities of the dwelling occupants;

    (ii) odour levels from neighbouring properties may occasionally cause inconvenience to the residential occupants;

    (iii) local schools may have limited capacity, which could impact the availability of enrollment for residents in the area; and

(iv) as and when other residential units/POTLs in the project are being completed and/or moved into, excessive levels of noise, vibration, dust and/or debris are possible, and same may accordingly temporarily cause noise and inconvenience to the residential occupants.

11. The Municipality does not require off-site snow removal. However, in the case of heavy snow falls the limited storage space available on the property may make it necessary to truck the snow off the site and the cost of same will be included in the common expense fees.

12. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor is not required to deliver "hard" or paper copies of the documentation pertaining to the conveyance of title to the POTL, draft or otherwise, to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor (the "Closing Documentation"). The Vendor or the Vendor's representatives may, at their option, deliver to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor any or all of the Closing Documentation by email and/or by website. If delivered by website, the Closing Documentation shall be made available for download on an internet website designated by the Vendor and access to such website shall be affected by way of a confidential password to be provided to the Purchaser and/or the Purchaser's solicitor. In the event the Vendor delivers or tenders closing documents required in connection with this transaction on the Title Transfer Date by posting same on the world wide web, then the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on the Closing Date for the costs incurred by the Vendor to utilize such web services for the project and/or this transaction. In the event that any such fees are issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right to apportion such costs to the Purchaser in accordance with his/her proportionate ownership interest in the Condominium as set out in Schedule D to the Declaration.

13. Purchasers/tenants are advised that sound levels due to increasing road traffic may occasionally interfere with some activities of the dwelling occupants as the sound levels exceed the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria.

14. Purchasers/Tenants are advised that this dwelling unit has been fitted with a forced air heating system and the ducting, etc. was sized to accommodate central air conditioning. Installation of central air conditioning by the occupant will allow windows and exterior doors to remain closed, thereby ensuring that the indoor sound levels are within the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria. (Note: The location and installation of the outdoor air conditioning device should be done so as to comply with noise criteria of MOE Publication NPC-216, Residential Air Conditioning Devices and thus minimize the noise impacts both on and in the immediate vicinity of the subject property.)

SETTING AND CHANGING CRITICAL DATES

1. Setting the Firm Closing Date

(a) Completing Construction Without Delay: The Vendor shall take all reasonable steps to complete construction of the home on the Property and to Close without delay.
(b) Firm Closing Date: The Vendor shall set a Firm Closing Date, which shall be set out in the Statement of Critical Dates at the time the Purchase Agreement is signed.

2. Changing the Firm Closing Date – Three Ways

(a) The Firm Closing Date, can be changed only:
  (i) by the Vendor setting a Delayed Closing Date in accordance with section 3;
  (ii) by the mutual written agreement of the Vendor and Purchaser in accordance with section 4; or
  (iii) as the result of an Unavoidable Delay of which proper written notice is given in accordance with section 5.
(b) If a new Firm Closing Date is set in accordance with section 4 or 5, then the new date is the "Firm Closing Date" for all purposes in this Addendum.

3. Changing the Firm Closing Date – By Setting a Delayed Closing Date

(a) If the Vendor cannot Close on the Firm Closing Date and sections 4 and 5 do not apply, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a Delayed Closing Date in accordance with this section, and delayed closing compensation is payable in accordance with section 7.
(b) The Delayed Closing Date may be any Business Day after the date the Purchaser receives written notice of the Delayed Closing Date but not later than the Outside Closing Date.
(c) The Vendor shall give written notice to the Purchaser of the Delayed Closing Date as soon as the Vendor knows that it will be unable to Close on the Firm Closing Date, and in any event at least 10 days before the Firm Closing Date, failing which delayed closing compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Closing Date, in accordance with paragraph 7(c). If notice of a new Delayed Closing Date is not given by the Vendor before the Firm Closing Date, then the new Delayed Closing Date shall be deemed to be the date which is 90 days after the Firm Closing Date.
(d) After the Delayed Closing Date is set, if the Vendor cannot Close on the Delayed Closing Date, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a new Delayed Closing Date, unless the delay arises due to Unavoidable Delay under section 5 or is mutually agreed upon under section 4, in which case the requirements of those sections must be met. Paragraphs (b) and (c) above apply with respect to the setting of the new Delayed Closing Date.
(e) Nothing in this section affects the right of the Purchaser or Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement on the bases set out in section 10.

4. Changing Critical Dates – By Mutual Agreement

(a) This Addendum sets out a framework for setting, extending and/or accelerating Critical dates, which cannot be altered contractually except as set out in this section 4. Any amendment not in accordance with this section is voidable at the option of the Purchaser.
(b) The Vendor and Purchaser may at any time, after signing the Purchase Agreement, mutually agree in writing to accelerate or extend any of the Critical Dates. Any amendment which accelerates or extends any of the Critical Dates must include the following provisions:

  (i) the Purchaser and Vendor agree that the amendment is entirely voluntary – the Purchaser has no obligation to sign the amendment and each understands that this purchase transaction will still be valid if the Purchaser does not sign this amendment;
  (ii) the amendment includes a revised Statement of Critical Dates which replaces the previous Statement of Critical Dates;
  (iii) the Purchaser acknowledges that the amendment may affect delayed closing compensation payable; and
  (iv) if the change involves extending either the Firm Closing Date or the Delayed Closing Date, then the amending agreement shall:

    i. disclose to the Purchaser that the signing of the amendment may result in the loss of delayed closing compensation as described in section 7;
    ii. unless there is an express waiver of compensation, describe in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation; and
    iii. contain a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser waives compensation or accepts the compensation referred to in clause ii above, in either case, in full satisfaction of any delayed closing compensation payable by the Vendor for the period up to the new Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date.

  If the Purchaser for his or her own purposes requests a change of the Firm Closing Date or the Delayed Closing Date, then subparagraphs (b)(i), (iii) and (iv) above shall not apply.
(c) A Vendor is permitted to include a provision in the Purchase Agreement allowing the Vendor a one-time unilateral right to extend a Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, as the case may be, for one (1) Business Day to avoid the necessity of tender where a Purchaser is not ready to complete the transaction on the Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, as the case may be. Delayed closing compensation will not be payable for such period and the Vendor may not impose any penalty or interest charge upon the Purchaser with respect to such extension.

(d) The Vendor and Purchaser may agree in the Purchase Agreement to any unilateral extension or acceleration rights that are for the benefit of the Purchaser.

5. Extending Dates – Due to Unavoidable Delay

(a) If Unavoidable Delay occurs, the Vendor may extend Critical Dates by no more than the length of the Unavoidable Delay Period, without the approval of the Purchaser and without the requirement to pay delayed closing compensation in connection with the Unavoidable Delay, provided the requirements of this section are met.
(b) If the Vendor wishes to extend Critical Dates on account of Unavoidable Delay, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, and an estimate of the duration of the delay. Once the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has commenced, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser by the earlier of: 20 days thereafter; and the next Critical Date.
(c) As soon as reasonably possible, and no later than 20 days after the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has concluded, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, identifying the date of its conclusion, and setting new Critical Dates. The new Critical Dates are calculated by adding to the then next Critical Date the number of days of the Unavoidable Delay Period (the other Critical Dates changing accordingly), provided that the Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, as the case may be, must be at least 10 days after the day of giving notice unless the parties agree otherwise. Either the Vendor or the Purchaser may request in writing an earlier Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, and the other party's consent to the earlier date shall not be unreasonably withheld.
(d) If the Vendor fails to give written notice of the conclusion of the Unavoidable Delay in the manner required by paragraph (c) above, then the notice is ineffective, the existing Critical Dates are unchanged, and any delayed closing compensation payable under section 7 is payable from the existing Firm Closing Date.
(e) Any notice setting new Critical Dates given by the Vendor under this section shall include an updated revised Statement of Critical Dates.

EARLY TERMINATION CONDITIONS

6. Early Termination Conditions

(a) The Vendor and Purchaser may include conditions in the Purchase Agreement that, if not satisfied, give rise to early termination of the Purchase Agreement, but only in the limited way described in this section.
(b) The Vendor is not permitted to include any conditions in the Purchase Agreement other than: the types of Early Termination Conditions listed in Schedule A; and/or the conditions referred to in paragraphs (j), (k) and (l) below. Any other condition included in a Purchase Agreement for the benefit of the Vendor that is not expressly permitted under Schedule A or paragraphs (j), (k) and (l) below is deemed null and void and is not enforceable by the Vendor, but does not affect the validity of the balance of the Purchase Agreement.
(c) The Vendor confirms that this Purchase Agreement is subject to Early Termination Conditions that, if not satisfied (or waived, if applicable), may result in the termination of the Purchase Agreement. ○ Yes ○ No
(d) If the answer in (c) above is "Yes", then the Early Termination Conditions are as follows. The obligation of each of the Purchaser and Vendor to complete this purchase and sale transaction is subject to satisfaction (or waiver, if applicable) of the following conditions and any such conditions set out in an appendix headed "Early Termination Conditions":

Condition #1 (if applicable)
Description of the Early Termination Condition:

N/A

The Approving Authority (as that term is defined in Schedule A) is: N/A
The date by which Condition #1 is to be satisfied is the _____day of_____, 20 _____.

Description of the Early Termination Condition:

N/A

The Approving Authority (as that term is defined in Schedule A) is: N/A
The date by which Condition #2 is to be satisfied is the _____day of _____, 20_____.

The date for satisfaction of any Early Termination Condition may be changed by mutual agreement provided in all cases it is set at least 90 days before the Firm Closing Date, and will be deemed to be 90 days before the Firm Closing Date if no date is specified or if the date specified is later than 90 days before the Firm Closing Date. This time limitation does not apply to the condition in subparagraph 1(b)(iv) of Schedule A which must be satisfied or waived by the Vendor within 60 days following the later of: (A) the signing of the Purchase Agreement; and (B) the satisfaction or waiver by the Purchaser of a Purchaser financing condition permitted under paragraph (l) below.

Note: The parties must add additional pages as an appendix to this Addendum if there are additional Early Termination Conditions.

(e) There are no Early Termination Conditions applicable to this Purchase Agreement other than those identified in subparagraph (d) above and any appendix listing additional Early Termination Conditions.
(f) The Vendor agrees to take all commercially reasonable steps within its power to satisfy the Early Termination Conditions identified in subparagraph (d) above.
(g) For conditions under paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A the following applies:

(i) conditions in paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A may not be waived by either party;
(ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice not later than five (5) Business Days after the date specified for satisfaction of a condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied (together with reasonable details and backup materials) and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
(iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed not satisfied and the Purchase Agreement is terminated.

(h) For conditions under paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A the following applies:

(i) conditions in paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A may be waived by the Vendor;
(ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice on or before the date specified for satisfaction of the condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied or waived; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied nor waived, and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
(iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed satisfied or waived and the Purchase Agreement will continue to be binding on both parties.

(i) If a Purchase Agreement or proposed Purchase Agreement contains Early Termination Conditions, the Purchaser has three (3) Business Days after the day of receipt of a true and complete copy of the Purchase Agreement or proposed Purchase Agreement to review the nature of the conditions (preferably with legal counsel). If the Purchaser is not satisfied, in the Purchaser's sole discretion, with the Early Termination Conditions, the Purchaser may revoke the Purchaser's offer as set out in the proposed Purchase Agreement, or terminate the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, by giving written notice to the Vendor within those three Business Days.
(j) The Purchase Agreement may be conditional until Closing (transfer to the Purchaser of title to the home), upon compliance with the subdivision control provisions (section 50) of the Planning Act, which compliance shall be obtained by the Vendor at its sole expense, on or before Closing.
(k) The Purchaser is cautioned that there may be other conditions in the Purchase Agreement that allow the Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement due to the fault of the Purchaser.
(l) The Purchase Agreement may include any condition that is for the sole benefit of the Purchaser and that is agreed to by the Vendor (e.g., the sale of an existing dwelling, Purchaser financing or a basement walkout). The Purchase Agreement may specify that the Purchaser has a right to terminate the Purchase Agreement if any such condition is not met, and may set out the terms on which termination by the Purchaser may be effected.

MAKING A COMPENSATION CLAIM

7. Delayed Closing Compensation

(a) The Vendor warrants to the Purchaser that, if Closing is delayed beyond the Firm Closing Date (other than by mutual agreement or as a result of Unavoidable Delay as permitted under sections 4 and 5), then the Vendor shall compensate the Purchaser up to a total amount of $7,500, which amount includes: (i) payment to the Purchaser of a set amount of $150 a day for living expenses for each day of delay until the date of Closing; or the date of termination of the Purchase Agreement, as applicable under paragraph (b) below; and (ii) any other expenses (supported by receipts) incurred by the Purchaser due to the delay.
(b) Delayed closing compensation is payable only if: (i) Closing occurs; or (ii) the Purchase Agreement is terminated or deemed to have been terminated under paragraph 10(b) of this Addendum. Delayed closing compensation is payable only if the Purchaser's claim is made to Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Closing, or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and otherwise in accordance with this Addendum. Compensation claims are subject to any further conditions set out in the ONHWP Act.
(c) If the Vendor gives written notice of a Delayed Closing Date to the Purchaser less than 10 days before the Firm Closing Date, contrary to the requirements of paragraph 3(c), then delayed closing compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Closing Date.
(d) Living expenses are direct living costs such as for accommodation and meals. Receipts are not required in support of a claim for living expenses, as a set daily amount of $150 per day is payable. The Purchaser must provide receipts in support of any claim for other delayed closing compensation, such as for moving and storage costs. Submission of false receipts disentitles the Purchaser to any delayed closing compensation in connection with a claim.

(e) If delayed closing compensation is payable, the Purchaser may make a claim to the Vendor for that compensation after Closing or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and shall include all receipts (apart from living expenses) which evidence any part of the Purchaser's claim. The Vendor shall assess the Purchaser's claim by determining the amount of delayed closing compensation payable based on the rules set out in section 7 and the receipts provided by the Purchaser, and the Vendor shall promptly provide that assessment information to the Purchaser. The Purchaser and the Vendor shall use reasonable efforts to settle the claim and when the claim is settled, the Vendor shall prepare an acknowledgement signed by both parties which:

(i) includes the Vendor's assessment of the delayed closing compensation payable;
(ii) describes in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation (the "Compensation"), if any; and
(iii) contains a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser accepts the Compensation in full satisfaction of any delay compensation payable by the Vendor.

(f) If the Vendor and Purchaser cannot agree as contemplated in paragraph 7(e), then to make a claim to Tarion the Purchaser must file a claim with Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Closing. A claim may also be made and the same rules apply if the sale transaction is terminated under paragraph 10(b), in which case, the deadline for a claim is one (1) year after termination.

8. Adjustments to Purchase Price

Only the items set out in Schedule B (or an amendment to Schedule B), shall be the subject of adjustment or change to the purchase price or the balance due on Closing. The Vendor agrees that it shall not charge as an adjustment or readjustment to the purchase price of the home, any reimbursement for a sum paid or payable by the Vendor to a third party unless the sum is ultimately paid to the third party either before or after Closing. If the Vendor charges an amount in contravention of the preceding sentence, the Vendor shall forthwith readjust with the Purchaser. This section shall not: restrict or prohibit payments for items disclosed in Part I of Schedule B which have a fixed fee; nor shall it restrict or prohibit the parties from agreeing on how to allocate as between them, any rebates, refunds or incentives provided by the federal government, a provincial or municipal government or an agency of any such government, before or after Closing.

MISCELLANEOUS

9. Ontario Building Code – Conditions of Closing

(a) On or before Closing, the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser:
(i) an Occupancy Permit (as defined in paragraph (d)) for the home; or
(ii) if an Occupancy Permit is not required under the Building Code, a signed written confirmation by the Vendor that all conditions of occupancy under the Building Code have been fulfilled and occupancy is permitted under the Building Code.

(b) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (a), to the extent that the Purchaser and the Vendor agree that the Purchaser shall be responsible for one or more prerequisites to obtaining permission for occupancy under the Building Code, (the "Purchaser Occupancy Obligations"):
(i) the Purchaser shall not be entitled to delayed closing compensation if the reason for the delay is that the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations have not been completed;
(ii) the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser, upon fulfilling all prerequisites to obtaining permission for occupancy under the Building Code (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations), a signed written confirmation that the Vendor has fulfilled such prerequisites; and
(iii) if the Purchaser and Vendor have agreed that such prerequisites (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations) are to be fulfilled prior to Closing, then the Vendor shall provide the signed written confirmation required by subparagraph (ii) on or before the date of Closing.

(c) If the Vendor cannot satisfy the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), the Vendor shall set a Delayed Closing Date (or new Delayed Closing Date) on a date that the Vendor reasonably expects to have satisfied the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), as the case may be. In setting the Delayed Closing Date (or new Delayed Closing Date), the Vendor shall comply with the requirements of section 3, and delayed closing compensation shall be payable in accordance with section 7. Despite the foregoing, delayed closing compensation shall not be payable for a delay under this paragraph (c) if the inability to satisfy the requirements of subparagraph (b)(ii) is because the Purchaser has failed to satisfy the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations.

(d) For the purposes of this section, an "Occupancy Permit" means any written or electronic document, however styled, whether final, provisional or temporary, provided by the chief building official (as defined in the Building Code Act) or a person designated by the chief building official, that evidences that permission to occupy the home under the Building Code has been granted.

10. Termination of the Purchase Agreement

(a) The Vendor and the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by mutual written agreement. Such written mutual agreement may specify how monies paid by the Purchaser, including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras are to be allocated if not repaid in full.

(b) If for any reason (other than breach of contract by the Purchaser) Closing has not occurred by the Outside Closing Date, then the Purchaser has 30 days to terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor. If the Purchaser does not provide written notice of termination within such 30-day period then the Purchase Agreement shall continue to be binding on both parties and the Delayed Closing Date shall be the date set under paragraph 3(c), regardless of whether such date is beyond the Outside Closing Date.
(c) If: calendar dates for the applicable Critical Dates are not inserted in the Statement of Critical Dates; or if any date for Closing is expressed in the Purchase Agreement or in any other document to be subject to change depending upon the happening of an event (other than as permitted in this Addendum), then the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor.
(d) The Purchase Agreement may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of section 6.
(e) Nothing in this Addendum derogates from any right of termination that either the Purchaser or the Vendor may have at law or in equity on the basis of, for example, frustration of contract or fundamental breach of contract.
(f) Except as permitted in this section, the Purchase Agreement may not be terminated by reason of the Vendor's delay in Closing alone.

11. Refund of Monies Paid on Termination

(a) If the Purchase Agreement is terminated (other than as a result of breach of contract by the Purchaser), unless there is agreement to the contrary under paragraph 10(a), the Vendor shall refund all monies paid by the Purchaser including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras, within 10 days of such termination, with interest from the date each amount was paid to the Vendor to the date of refund to the Purchaser. The Purchaser cannot be compelled by the Vendor to execute a release of the Vendor as a prerequisite to obtaining the refund of monies payable as a result of termination of the Purchase Agreement under this paragraph, although the Purchaser may be required to sign a written acknowledgement confirming the amount of monies refunded and termination of the purchase transaction. Nothing in this Addendum prevents the Vendor and Purchaser from entering into such other termination agreement and/or release as may be agreed to by the parties.
(b) The rate of interest payable on the Purchaser's monies is 2% less than the minimum rate at which the Bank of Canada makes short-term advances to members of Canada Payments Association, as of the date of termination of the Purchase Agreement.
(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) above, if either party initiates legal proceedings to contest termination of the Purchase Agreement or the refund of monies paid by the Purchaser, and obtains a legal determination, such amounts and interest shall be payable as determined in those proceedings.

The Vendor and Purchaser agree that they shall not include any provision in the Purchase Agreement or any amendment to the Purchase Agreement or any other document (or indirectly do so through replacement of the Purchase Agreement) that derogates from, conflicts with or is inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, except where this Addendum expressly permits the parties to agree or consent to an alternative arrangement. To: Purchaser(s) of the Property

1. Take Note

You are entering into a purchase transaction which relates to a new/pre-construction condominium unit[1]. You should be aware of the possibility that it may never be completed.

Important information about your purchase is set out in this document.

You should review your purchase agreement including this document with a legal professional familiar with condominium transactions.

Remember that you have a 10-day period to cancel your purchase.[2]

2. Be Aware of Timing

The Vendor's best estimate as to when your unit will be ready for occupancy is shown as the "First Tentative Occupancy Date" on the Statement of Critical Dates and is _____ (Month/Day/Year). This date may be further extended. Please refer to the Statement of Critical Dates in the Condominium Addendum (which forms part of your Purchase Agreement) for an explanation of how this date may change.

3. Completion of Your Purchase Is Not Certain – It Can Be Terminated by the Vendor[3]

Your Purchase Agreement contains early termination conditions which could result in your purchase being terminated. These are set out in detail in the Condominium Addendum. In general terms, the Vendor can end your purchase if:

a. By N/A _____ (Month/Day/Year), a set level of sales for the project has not been achieved.

b. By N/A _____ (Month/Day/Year), certain zoning and/or development approvals have not been obtained.

c. By N/A _____ (Month/Day/Year), satisfactory financing for the project has not been obtained.

This may not list all of the conditions that may exist in the Condominium Addendum.

Other recourse (monetary or otherwise) may be limited – you should speak to a legal professional.

4. Ownership of Property

There are currently a number of encumbrances on title to the Property that would prevent conveyance of the title to the unit to the purchaser. Prior to closing, Albert Gelman Inc., in its capacity as Receiver of Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership and 2011836 Ontario Corp., will apply to the Ontario Superior Court of Justice [Commercial List] for a vesting order that will vest title to the unit in the purchaser, free and clear of all such encumbrances, such that the sale can be completed.

"Parking Unit" means the parking unit(s) included in this agreement of purchase and sale (if any) to be located in the parking structure in a location to be specified by the Vendor in its sole discretion prior to the Occupancy Date. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor, in its sole discretion, shall have the right to relocate the Parking Unit to another location in the building prior to the Closing Date and same shall not be considered a material change.

"Property" shall mean the lands and premises upon which the Condominium is constructed or shall be constructed and legally described in the Condominium Documents provided for this Condominium and this Agreement and legally described as Part of Lots B and C, Plan 1916, designated as Part 3, Plan 65R-37587, Town of Richmond Hill, Ontario, being all of PIN 03208-3230 (LT);

"Purchase Price" for the purposes of the calculation of the applicable HST, shall mean the contract price set out on page 1 of this Agreement, as increased by any amount(s) as set out herein reimbursable and/or payable by the Purchaser to the Vendor (hereinafter defined as "Additional Charges") for the purposes of calculating the total value of consideration for the purposes of HST;

"Rebate" or "Rebates" shall mean any provincial and/or federal new housing purchase rebate and/or transitional rebate applicable to this purchase transaction (where such transitional rebate is claimable by the Purchaser and not the Vendor), and shall include any refund, credit, rebate of any form or nature of such HST applicable to this purchase transaction but specifically shall not include any new housing residential rental property rebate or any similar rental or leasing rebate whatsoever;

"Residential Unit" or "Dwelling Unit" means the dwelling unit described on page 1 of the Agreement;

"Site Plan" means the Site Plan included in the Disclosure Statement accompanying this Agreement.

3. Unpaid Balance

The Purchaser shall not have the right to prepay the Unpaid Balance prior to the Closing Date, save and except upon the making of an election to do so, in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

The Purchaser covenants that his/her spouse shall also execute all documents as may be required to be executed by the Purchaser pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement and shall also guarantee the payment of the Unpaid Balance to the Vendor.

The Purchaser is hereby notified that a consumer report containing credit and/or personal information may be requested at any time in connection with this transaction, with respect to the Purchaser and his/her spouse.

4. Delay

The Unit shall be deemed to be completed for the purposes of the Occupancy Date or any extension thereof when the interior of the dwelling unit shall have been substantially completed in the opinion of the Vendor, and the Purchaser agrees that the sale shall be completed on that date, as hereinafter provided, without holdback of any part of the purchase price and the Vendor shall complete any outstanding details of construction required by the contract within a reasonable time thereafter having regard to weather conditions and the availability of supplies or tradesmen. In any event, the Purchaser acknowledges that failure to complete the common elements on or before the Occupancy Date shall not be deemed to be a failure to complete the Unit.

5. (a) Interim Occupancy: If the Unit is substantially completed, as set out in paragraph 4 hereof, on the Occupancy Date, but the Corporation has not yet been registered, then the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor the amount payable on the Occupancy Date as herein provided and shall occupy the Unit as a licensee on that date pursuant to the Vendor's standard occupancy agreement and shall pay to the Vendor a monthly occupancy fee which, in addition to any other components or factors which the Vendor may from time to time lawfully utilize in calculating said occupancy fee, shall be equal to the monthly estimated common expenses for the Unit, an amount reasonably estimated on a monthly basis for municipal taxes attributable to the Unit and interest, calculated in accordance with the Act, on a monthly basis, on the Unpaid Balance and the occupancy by the Purchaser shall be governed insofar as is applicable, by the provisions of the proposed Declaration and by-laws. The Purchaser shall provide on or before the Occupancy Date a series of post-dated cheques for the monthly occupancy fee as requested by the Vendor. IT IS UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED THAT ALL AMOUNTS PAID BY THE PURCHASER BY WAY OF OCCUPANCY FEE ARE PAYABLE AS AN OCCUPANCY LICENSE FEE ONLY AND ARE NOT TO BE CREDITED TO THE PURCHASER AS PAYMENTS ON ACCOUNT OF THE PURCHASE PRICE. If the Declaration and Description have not been registered by the tenth (10th) day following the end of the Purchaser's Termination Period as described in the Addendum attached hereto, the Purchaser agrees to vacate the Unit at the Vendor's sole option on that day and deliver up possession of the Unit to the Vendor, in which event the deposits and any amount paid to the Vendor on account of the Purchase Price shall be returned to the Purchaser, subject to any repair and redecorating expenses of the Vendor necessary to restore the Unit to its original state on occupancy, reasonable wear and tear excepted and the return of such monies shall be deemed to terminate this Agreement. The Purchaser hereby consents to such termination pursuant to Section 79(2) of the Act and agrees to provide the Vendor with a release of this Agreement in the Vendor's standard form. The occupancy fee shall be proportionately adjusted in the event of such termination. If the Declaration and Description have not been registered within six (6) months after the Occupancy Date, the Vendor has the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the monthly occupancy fee payable by the Purchaser, such that the common expense component thereof excludes any projected contribution to the reserve fund, which will obviate any obligation on the part of the Vendor, pursuant to the Act, to remit any reserve fund contribution to the Corporation upon registration, for each month of occupancy after the sixth month.

(b) Closing Date: The "Closing Date" or "Closing" shall be the later of (i) the Occupancy Date, (ii) the date fixed by the Vendor that is at least ten (10) days after the date on which an Approval and Vesting Order is issued by the Ontario Superior Court of Justice approving this Agreement and the transaction contemplated therein (the "AVO"), and (iii) the date fixed by the Vendor that is at least ten (10) days following the date on which any appeals or motions to set aside or vary the AVO have been finally determined, upon which date a transfer of title to the Unit shall be delivered to the Purchaser. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that they will, at their own expense, complete the transaction in accordance with the notice aforesaid and register the transfer of title immediately upon delivery of the transfer to them.

6. Construction and Changes

The Vendor agrees to complete the Unit and common elements in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with the standards established by the Home Construction Regulatory Authority and/or the Condominium Authority of Ontario and/or Tarion Warranty Corporation ("Tarion"). The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may, from time to time, in its sole discretion, or as required by the Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction, or the Vendor's Mortgagee, change, vary or modify the plans and specifications pertaining to the Unit or the Condominium (including architectural, structural, engineering, landscaping, grading, mechanical, site, servicing or other plans) from the plans and specifications existing at the inception of the project, or as they exist at the time the Purchaser has entered into this Agreement, or as same may be illustrated in any sales brochure, model in the sales office or otherwise, and the Purchaser shall have absolutely no claim or cause of action against the Vendor or its agents for any such changes, variances or modifications, nor shall the Purchaser be entitled to any notice thereof and where any such change, variation or modification is a material change as set out in the Act, then the Purchaser's only recourse and remedy shall be pursuant to the Act. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor may, from time to time, substitute such other materials utilized in the construction of the Unit and the common elements of the Condominium, from those specified or contemplated in the aforesaid plans or specifications, provided that the quality of any substituted material(s) is comparable to or better than the material(s) originally indicated in the said plans or specifications. The determination of whether or not a substitute material is of equal or better quality shall be made by the Vendor's architect whose determination shall be final and binding.

The items set out in any features schedule attached hereto are included in the Purchase Price, unless specified in the features list. Model unit or sales office furnishings, decor, improvements, mirrors, drapes, tracks, and wallpaper are for display purposes only and are not included in the Purchase Price. Any item identified as optional or an upgrade in the sales or marketing material and information is not included in the dwelling unit but may be purchased at additional cost under a separate schedule to this Agreement. The location of mechanical installations may not be as shown on the sales brochure and will be located in accordance with approved plans and/or good construction practice and may result in room size reduction.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that architectural control of boulevard tree planting, landscaping, acoustical fencing, exterior colour schemes, or any other matter external to the dwelling unit designed to enhance the aesthetics of the Condominium as a whole, may be imposed by the Governmental Authorities and the Purchaser agrees to accept, without any right of abatement or purchase price, any changes required as a result of such architectural control. The Vendor shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to construct the hereinbefore described dwelling unit either as shown on the sales brochures, renderings and other plans and specifications therefore reviewed and approved by the Purchaser, or, to construct such dwelling unit on a reverse mirror image plan, including reversal of interior floor plan layout. Construction of a reverse mirror image dwelling unit plan is hereby irrevocably accepted by the Purchaser without any right of abatement of purchase price and in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligations as to construction of the dwelling unit type hereinbefore described.

The Purchaser covenants and agrees to attend upon receipt of notice from the Vendor, at the date and time specified in such notice, to make colour and other selections from the Vendor's standard samples, such selections to be noted on the Vendor's standard form and when completed shall constitute part of this Agreement (the "Colour Chart"). In the event any item on the Colour Chart becomes unavailable, or, if such selection would not be available in a timely fashion (such determination to be made by the Vendor at its sole discretion), the Purchaser shall be allowed seven (7) days written notice to attend to re-select an alternative from the Vendor's available samples. In the event the Purchaser does not attend and execute the Colour Chart at the date and time specified in the above- noted notice from the Vendor or if the Purchaser does not so re-select within the time hereinbefore limited, the Vendor may at its option, make such selection on behalf of the Purchaser, and in any such event, the Purchaser hereby irrevocably agrees to accept the Vendor's selection without any right of abatement of purchase price and in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligation herein. Only such item as may be unavailable, or unavailable in a timely fashion (as determined by the Vendor at its sole discretion) may be re-selected by the Purchaser. In the event of default by the Purchaser in re-selection, and a re-selection by the Vendor on behalf of the Purchaser, the re- selection shall be of equal or better quality than the original selection.

The Purchaser specifically acknowledges that in the manufacture of finishing items, colour variances sometimes occur. The Purchaser hereby agrees to accept any such colour variation resulting from the manufacturing process without any right of abatement of purchase price and in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligations herein. More specifically, the Purchaser acknowledges that colour, texture, appearance, grains, veining, natural variations in appearance etc. of features and finishes installed in the Unit may vary from Vendor's samples as a result of normal manufacturing and installation processes and as a result of any such finishes being of natural products and the Purchaser agrees that the Vendor is not responsible for same. The Vendor is not responsible for shade difference occurring in the manufacture of items such as, but not limited to, finishing materials or products such as carpet, tiles, bath tubs, sinks and other such products where the product manufacturer establishes the standard for such finishes. Nor shall the Vendor be responsible for shade difference in colour of components manufactured from different materials but which components are designed to be assembled into either one product or installed in conjunction with another product and in these circumstances the product as manufactured shall be accepted by the Purchaser. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that pre-finished wood flooring (if any) may react to normal fluctuating humidity levels inducing gapping or cupping. The Purchaser acknowledges that natural stone (if any) is a very soft stone which will require a substantial amount of maintenance by the Purchaser and is very easily scratched and damaged. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that carpeting may be seamed in certain circumstances and said seams may be visible. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that various types of flooring, including but not limited to carpets, marble, tile, laminate, hardwood floors, or engineered wood in the dwelling unit may result in different heights (to be established by the Vendor in its sole discretion) in the transitional areas between them, and that the Vendor may use appropriate reducers in the area.

The Purchaser covenants and agrees that he/she shall pay to the Vendor in advance for all extras, upgrades or changes ordered by the Purchaser at the time such order is made and the Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that such payment is non-refundable unless this transaction is not completed due only to the Vendor’s default. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that if, upon the Occupancy Date, any of the extras, upgrades or changes ordered by the Purchaser remain incomplete in whole or in part or if the Vendor shall, in its sole discretion, determine that it will not provide extras, upgrades or changes or cannot complete the extras, upgrades or changes then there shall be refunded to the Purchaser upon Occupancy Date closing that portion of the amount paid by the Purchaser in connection with such extras, upgrades or changes which remain incomplete in whole or in part as aforesaid, as determined by the Vendor. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that the amount so paid to the Purchaser (or for which, in the alternative, the Purchaser receives credit in the statement of adjustments) shall be accepted by the Purchaser as full and final settlement of any claim by the Purchaser with respect to the extras, upgrades or changes which remain incomplete as aforesaid. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the Vendor's liability with respect to such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes shall be limited to the return of the amounts referred to aforesaid and, thereafter, there shall be no further liability upon the Vendor in connection with such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes and upon such payment being made or credit being given, the Vendor shall be deemed to have been released from any and all obligations, claims or demands whatsoever with respect to such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes. In the event the Purchaser neglects to advise the Vendor forthwith upon request as to the Purchaser's selection of finishing specifications, or orders any extras, upgrades in interior finishings, or performs any work in or about the dwelling unit which causes delay in the Vendor's construction operations, the Vendor may require the Purchaser to complete this transaction on the Occupancy Date herein set out without holdback of any part of the purchase price, on the Vendor's undertaking to complete any of the Vendor's outstanding work.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the confirmation by the municipality that occupancy of this unit is permitted shall constitute complete and absolute acceptance by the Purchaser of all construction matters and the quality and sufficiency thereof including, without limitation, all mechanical, structural and architectural matters.

7. Warranty

The Vendor covenants that on the Occupancy Date a written warranty in Tarion's standard form will be requested by the Vendor from Tarion. The Purchaser agrees to accept such warranty in lieu of any other warranty or guarantee, expressed or implied, it being understood and agreed that there is no representation, warranty, guarantee, collateral agreement or condition precedent to, concurrent with, or in any way affecting this Agreement or the subject land or Unit other than as expressed herein.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything contained in the said warranty, the Purchaser waives any right to any claim against the Vendor for damage to any ceiling or walls due to normal shrinkage and the Purchaser agrees that this Agreement may be pleaded by the Vendor in estoppel of any such claims by the Purchaser.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Unit does/may contain wood flooring which will absorb excess moisture under humid conditions and release its normal moisture content under excessively dry conditions. Wood flooring will naturally swell during the humid seasons and will shrink when heat is applied. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor will not be responsible for any swelling or shrinkage cracks resulting from excessive humidity or excessive dryness within the Unit. When the heating system is not in use during late spring, summer and early fall, the Vendor strongly recommends that the Purchaser use a dehumidifier in the Unit. Correspondingly, when the heating system is on during the late fall, winter and early spring, the Vendor strongly recommends use of a humidifier system within the Unit. The Purchaser takes full responsibility for any damage to the wood flooring as a result of its failure to mitigate air quality conditions as herein set out.

8. Inspection of Unit

(a) The Purchaser acknowledges that a Homeowner Information Package (the "Package") is available from Tarion and the Vendor will deliver one to the Purchaser at or before the Pre-Delivery Inspection ("PDI") required by Tarion. The Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) agrees to execute and provide to the Vendor the Confirmation of Receipt ("Receipt") of the Package, in the form required by Tarion, forthwith upon receipt of the Package. The Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) will meet at the Unit on or before the Occupancy Date to conduct the PDI. During the PDI, the Purchaser shall not be entitled to examine the Unit except when accompanied by a representative of the Vendor. The Purchaser agrees to comply with all regulations under the Occupational Health & Safety Act, including the wearing of head and foot protection and such other safety apparel as designated by the Vendor and the Purchaser agrees to indemnify the Vendor against any fines incurred as a result of non-compliance with these provisions by the Purchaser, or the Purchaser's designate, as the case may be. The Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) shall arrange the PDI with a representative of the Vendor and is to give the representative of the Vendor at least three (3) days' prior notice of the PDI, which shall be conducted at a mutually convenient time prior to the Occupancy Date. During the PDI, the Purchaser and the Vendor agree to list any incomplete, damaged or deficient items with respect to the Unit on the PDI Form (the "Form") required by or approved by Tarion. In addition, the Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) shall execute all other forms prescribed from time to time by, and required to be completed by Tarion, including any Certificate of Completion and Possession (the "CCP"). The Purchaser agrees that such warrantable items as are included in the Form represent the balance of work to be completed by the Vendor with respect to the Unit and the Purchaser agrees that no further request for completion of items may be maintained by the Purchaser, save and except as lawfully required by Tarion, and this shall serve as a good and sufficient release of the Vendor in that regard. Except for the PDI, the Purchaser agrees that prior to the Occupancy Date, the Purchaser, their agents or representatives will not, in any circumstances enter onto the Condominium and the Unit except at the request of the Vendor and accompanied by a representative of the Vendor and any entry other than as aforesaid shall be deemed to be a trespass and the Vendor shall be entitled to exercise any rights that it may have pursuant to this Agreement or at law as a result of same. In the event the Purchaser sends a designate to conduct the PDI in the Purchaser's place, the Purchaser shall first provide the Vendor with the Appointment of Designate for PDI in the form prescribed by Tarion, prior to the PDI, failing which the Purchaser shall be required to attend personally. In the event that the Purchaser appoints such designate, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Purchaser shall be bound by all of the documentation executed by the designate to the same degree and with the same force and effect as if executed by the Purchaser directly. The Purchaser further agrees that the Vendor shall have the right to enter the Unit after completion of the transaction in order to complete such items as are included in the Form. The Vendor shall complete such items as are contained in the Form within a reasonable time after closing, subject to weather conditions and the availability of supplies and trades. The warranties given under the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act, as amended, replace any warranties at law or otherwise. The Purchaser agrees that in no event shall the Purchaser be entitled to obtain possession of the Unit until and unless the Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) has executed the Receipt, Form and CCP, together with any other documents lawfully required by Tarion (collectively the "Documents"). In the event the Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) has failed to complete the PDI and execute the Documents on or before the Occupancy Date, the Vendor shall have the right, at the Vendor's sole option, to terminate this Agreement and forfeit all deposit monies paid by the Purchaser hereunder, together with any monies paid for extras, in full, in addition to and without prejudice to any other remedy available to the Vendor arising out of such default.

(b) Prior to the Occupancy Date, the Purchaser shall not be entitled to do or cause to be done any work, installation, improvement or alteration to the Unit or the common elements, in default of which, the Vendor shall have the right to either charge the Purchaser on the Occupancy Date or on the Closing Date, for all costs and expenses incurred by the Vendor in removing or rectifying all work done by the Purchaser, in such amounts as determined by the Vendor in its sole discretion or, at the Vendor's sole option, to terminate this Agreement and forfeit all deposit monies paid by the Purchaser hereunder, together with any monies paid for extras, in full, in addition to and without prejudice to any other remedy available to the Vendor arising out of such default.

9. Damages Before Closing

The Unit shall be and remain at the risk of the Vendor until Closing, and pending completion of the sale the Vendor will hold all insurance policies and the proceeds thereof in trust for the parties as their interests may appear, and in the event that the Unit or the Building of which the Unit forms a part are substantially damaged or destroyed, and the Vendor, in its sole discretion decides that it will not rebuild or repair such damage, then the Vendor may elect to terminate this Agreement and upon returning to the Purchaser the deposit without interest except as may be required by law, the Vendor's liability shall be at an end and the Purchaser shall execute and complete such documents as may be necessary to clear the title to the real property. The Purchaser is hereby advised that the Vendor's builder's risk and/or comprehensive liability insurance (effective prior to the registration of the Condominium), and the Condominium's master insurance policy (effective from and after the registration of the Condominium) will not cover any betterments or improvements made to the Unit, nor any furnishings or personal belongings of the Purchaser or other residents of the Unit, and accordingly the Purchaser shall arrange for his or her own insurance coverage with respect to same, effective from and after the Occupancy Date, all at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Purchaser alone is responsible for the repair and replacement of all improvements and betterments made or acquired by the Purchaser within or upon the Unit.

10. Access by Vendor for Maintenance and Completion

(a) Notwithstanding the transfer of title to the Unit to the Purchaser, or occupancy of the Unit by the Purchaser, the Vendor or its duly authorized agents shall have free access at all reasonable times to the Unit in order to make inspections or do any work or repairs thereon which may be deemed necessary in connection with the completion of the Unit or of any servicing or installations in connection with the Unit or the common elements or any other unit in the Condominium and this right shall be in addition to any rights and easements in favour of the Vendor under the Act. A right of entry in favour of the Vendor for a period not exceeding five (5) years similar to the foregoing may be included in the Transfer/Deed of Land provided on Closing.

(b) The Purchaser shall not interfere with the completion by the Vendor of other units and the common elements. Until all the units are completed and sold, the Vendor may make such use of the unsold units and the common elements as may facilitate such completion and sale, including but not limited to maintenance of a sales office, the showing of the units and the display of signs.

11. Acceptance of Title by Purchaser

(a) The Purchaser agrees to accept title subject to the following:

(i) the Declaration, Description, any By-laws, or other documents registered on behalf of, or for the benefit of the Condominium (the "Condominium Documents"), notwithstanding that they may be amended and varied from the proposed Condominium Documents in the general form attached to the Disclosure Statement delivered to the Purchaser as set out in the Acknowledgment;

(ii) registered restrictions or covenants that run with the land, including any encroachment agreement(s) with any governmental authorities or adjacent land owner(s), provided that same are complied with as at the Closing Date;

(iii) easements, encroachments, rights-of-way, leases, agreements and/or licences now registered, or to be registered hereafter, which are required by the Governmental Authorities or any authority, commission or corporation or required by the Vendor, including for the supply and installation of utility services, drainage, telephone services, telecommunication services, electricity, gas, storm and/or sanitary sewers, water, cable television and/or any other service(s) to or for the benefit of the Condominium or to any adjacent or neighbouring properties, as well as any easement(s) which may be required by the Vendor or by the owner of the land, if not one and the same as the Vendor, and/or by any owner(s) of adjacent or neighbouring properties for servicing and/or access to (or entry from) such properties, together with any easement and cost-sharing agreement(s) or reciprocal agreement(s) confirming (or pertaining to) any easement or right-of-way for access, egress, support, maintenance and/or servicing purposes, and/or pertaining to the sharing of any services, facilities and/or amenities with adjacent or neighbouring property owners, including the Vendor;

(iv) registered agreements with any governmental authority and registered agreements with utilities, service providers and/or with local ratepayer associations, including without limitation, any development, site plan, subdivision, engineering and/or other municipal agreement or similar agreements entered into with any governmental authorities (with all of such agreements being hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Development Agreements");

(v) unregistered or inchoate liens for unpaid utilities in respect of which no formal bill, account or invoice has been issued by the relevant utility authority (or if issued, the time for payment of same has not yet expired), without any claim or request by the Purchaser for any utility holdback(s) or reduction/abatement in the Purchase Price, provided that the Vendor delivers to the Purchaser the Vendor's written undertaking to pay all outstanding utility accounts owing with respect to the Unit(s) (including any amounts owing in connection with any final meter reading(s) taken on or immediately prior to the Closing Date, if applicable), as soon as reasonably possible after the completion of this transaction;

(vi) any by-law, regulation, restriction, easement, noise attenuation provision, environmental notice, warning, restrictive covenant, lease, license or other agreement relating to the use or development of the Condominium;

(vii) any easement, right of re-entry, lease, license or other agreement relating to the installation, operation, maintenance and repair of any public art or any other installation or feature which is part of the common elements of the Condominium;

(viii) any agreement which is necessary for the operation, maintenance or repair of the Condominium;

(ix) any easement, right-of-way or other agreement in favour of the Vendor (and any successor in title) or in favour of any adjacent landowners to facilitate the development of and access to the remainder of the lands owned or previously owned by the Vendor, and to facilitate the development of and access to any adjacent lands;

(x) a temporary easement and right of re-entry in favour of the Vendor for the purpose of completing construction of the Condominium and complying with its obligations pursuant to any agreement with any governmental authority;

(xi) any restrictive covenant or building restrictions relating to the Unit or the Condominium;

(xii) the right of the Vendor, Corporation or the Governmental Authorities and it’s or their servants, agents and employees, to enter, inspect and install services and utilities and to maintain and repair same;

(xiii) any conditional sales agreements, notices of security interests or other agreements relating to any rental or leased equipment in the Unit or Condominium;

(xiv) any noise report or noise study;

(b) It is understood and agreed that the Vendor shall not be obliged to obtain or register on title to the Unit a release or discharge of (or an amendment to) any of the aforementioned items referred to in subparagraph 11(a) hereof, nor shall the Vendor be obliged to have any of same deleted from the title to the property, and the Purchaser hereby expressly acknowledges and agrees that the Purchaser shall satisfy himself or herself as to compliance therewith. The Purchaser agrees to observe and comply with the terms and provisions of the Development Agreements, and all restrictive covenants registered on title. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that the retention by the Governmental Authorities of security (e.g. in the form of cash, letters of credit, a performance bond, etc., satisfactory to the Governmental Authorities) intended to guarantee the fulfilment of any outstanding obligations under the Development Agreements shall, for the purposes of the purchase and sale transaction contemplated hereunder, be deemed to be satisfactory compliance with the terms and provisions of the Development Agreements. The Purchaser also acknowledges that the wires, cables and fittings comprising the cable television system serving the Condominium are (or may be) owned by the local cable television supplier, or by a company associated, affiliated with or related to the Vendor.

(c) The Purchaser covenants and agrees to consent to the matters referred to in subparagraph 11(a) hereof and to execute all documents and do all things requisite for this purpose, either before or after the Closing Date.

(d) The Vendor shall be entitled to insert in the Transfer/Deed of Land, specific covenants by the Purchaser pertaining to any or all of the restrictions, easements, covenants and agreements referred to herein and in the Condominium Documents, and in such case, the Purchaser may be required to deliver separate written covenants on closing. If so requested by the Vendor, the Purchaser covenants to execute all documents and instruments required to convey or confirm any of the easements, licences, covenants, agreements, and/or rights, required pursuant to this Agreement and shall observe and comply with all of the terms and provisions therewith. The Purchaser may be required to obtain a similar covenant (enforceable by and in favour of the Vendor), in any agreement entered into between the Purchaser and any subsequent transferee of the Unit.

(e) The Vendor shall be entitled to a vendor's lien for any unpaid purchase monies or interest thereon and for any other adjustments required to be made by the Purchaser pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and not made at the time of Closing. The Purchaser hereby consents to registration of the Vendor's lien provided for herein, and the Vendor will upon request deliver to the Purchaser (for registration at the Purchaser's expense) a release of the Vendor's lien within a reasonable time after receipt by the Vendor of the final advance of the monies secured by the Vendor's lien.

(f) The Purchaser agrees to advise the Vendor's solicitor within thirty (30) days prior to the Occupancy Date, as to how title will be taken, failing which, the Vendor is hereby directed to engross title in the name of the Purchaser(s) named in this Agreement and the Vendor's solicitors shall be entitled to charge a fee in order to make any subsequent changes thereto. The Purchaser agrees to accept any changes required to the unit number of the subject property as a result of the registered plan of condominium or otherwise as determined by the Vendor.

(g) Subject to the terms of the Addendum attached to this agreement of purchase and sale, the Purchaser is responsible for obtaining their own occupancy permit or other occupancy authorization from the local municipality and shall satisfy himself that occupancy is permitted by the Municipality on the Occupancy Date. The Vendor shall not be liable for any damages the Purchaser may suffer in the event the Purchaser is unable to obtain same, except as may be stipulated by Tarion.

(h) The Purchaser further agrees to accept the Vendor's solicitors' personal undertaking to discharge any mortgages, liens or encumbrances against the Unit or common elements that the Purchaser is not assuming and to close notwithstanding such mortgages, liens or encumbrances.

12. Vendor's Covenants

The Vendor hereby covenants as follows:

(a) To take all reasonable steps to sell the residential units included in the property without delay other than any units leased by the Vendor. In that regard, the Vendor hereby specifically reserves to itself the right to lease any of the units that are not sold from time to time in the Condominium project in accordance with the terms of the registered Declaration and By-laws. This right of the Vendor shall apply to each and every unit in the Condominium project that is unsold from time to time and the Vendor hereby specifically declares that it intends to lease such unsold units as it may see fit. The Vendor may accept bona fide offers or options to purchase on leased units to close upon expiration of such a lease.

(b) To take all reasonable steps to deliver to the Purchaser a registerable deed or transfer of the Unit without delay.

(c) To hold in trust for the Corporation the money, if any, that the Vendor collects from the Purchaser on behalf of the Corporation.

The covenants of the Vendor in this paragraph contained are hereby understood and agreed to be the extent of the Vendor's obligations in that regard and it is understood and agreed that there are no further obligations or covenants in that regard other than those specifically stated above. Any breach by the Vendor of the foregoing covenants shall only entitle the Purchaser to such remedies as may be available under the Act and no other remedies or rights with respect thereto.

13. Purchaser's Acknowledgments/Covenants

The Purchaser covenants as follows:

(a) The Purchaser, and any authorized signing authority thereof listed in the Agreement, shall deliver to the Vendor a copy of a valid government-issued identification document within seven (7) days following the execution of this Agreement.

(b) The Purchaser shall occupy and take possession of the Unit on the Occupancy Date or within fifteen (15) days thereafter on the terms set out herein. The Purchaser will use the Unit for the purpose of the single family dwelling only.

(c) The Purchaser shall not assign the occupancy license or any rights thereunder or grant a sub-license or otherwise part with possession of the Unit without the Vendor's written consent, and the parties hereto acknowledge that it is reasonable for the Vendor to withhold such consent in the circumstances of this transaction.

(d) Prior to Closing, the Purchaser covenants and agrees not to sell, list for sale, lease, rent, transfer or assign this Agreement or the Unit or agree to sell, transfer or assign this Agreement or the Unit or any rights to occupancy of the Unit without the Vendor's written consent, which consent may be arbitrarily withheld. The Purchaser covenants that the Unit is being purchased and will be used for the Purchaser's personal use and not for investment or speculative purposes, and the Purchaser shall deliver a Statutory Declaration on the Occupancy Date confirming the foregoing. If the Purchaser should die prior to Closing, the Vendor shall at its option be entitled to declare this Agreement null and void and upon so doing shall return all monies paid hereunder to the personal representatives of the Purchaser without interest except as may be required by law.

(e) Prior to Closing, the Purchaser shall maintain the Unit in a clean and sightly condition and shall not make any alterations or additions thereto without first obtaining the Vendor's written approval.

(f) The monthly occupancy fee shall be paid by the Purchaser monthly, in advance, on the first day of each month commencing on the Occupancy Date, provided that if the Occupancy Date occurs on other than the first day of a month, then the occupancy fee for such month shall be pro-rated on a per diem basis and shall be paid in advance, on the Occupancy Date. On the Occupancy Date, the Purchaser agrees to prepay the adjusted occupancy fee for the month in which the Occupancy Date occurs and for the next full month thereafter.

(g) In the event that this Agreement is terminated, the Purchaser shall forthwith vacate the Unit and the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor the total cost, as estimated by the Vendor, of repairing any damage to the Unit caused by the Purchaser and removing any installation or decorations made by or on behalf of the Purchaser so that the Unit is put back into the same state as existed immediately prior to the Occupancy Date.

(i) The Vendor shall not be liable for any death or injury arising from or out of any occurrence in, upon, at, or relating to the proposed Condominium, or the Unit or damage to property of the Purchaser or of others located on the proposed Condominium or the Unit, nor shall it be responsible for loss of or damage to any property of the Purchaser or others from any cause whatsoever, even if any such death, injury, loss or damage results from the negligence of the Vendor, its agents, servants or employees, or other persons from whom it may at law be responsible. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Vendor shall not be liable for any injury or damage to persons or property resulting from fire, explosion, falling plaster, steam, gas, electricity, water, rain, flood, snow or leaks from any part of the proposed Condominium or the Unit or from the pipes, appliances, plumbing, works, roof or subsurface of any floor or ceiling or from the street or any other place or by dampness or by any other cause whatsoever, The Vendor shall not be liable for any such damage caused by other owners, occupants, tenants, invitees or any other person on the proposed Condominium or by occupants of adjacent property thereto, or the public, or caused by construction or any private, public or quasi-public work. All property of the Purchaser kept or stored on the proposed Condominium or on or in the Unit shall be kept or stored at the risk of the Purchaser only and the Purchaser shall indemnify the Vendor and save it harmless from and against any claim arising out of any damages to the same, including without limitation, any subrogation claims by the Purchaser's insurers; and

(ii) Notwithstanding any other terms, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement, the Purchaser shall protect, indemnify and hold the Vendor harmless from and against any and all loss (including loss of all occupancy payments payable by the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement), claims actions, damages, liability and expense in connection with loss of life, personal injury, damaged property or any other loss or injury whatsoever arising from or out of this Agreement, or any occurrence in, upon or at the proposed Condominium, or the Unit, or the occupancy or use by the Purchaser of the proposed Condominium or any part thereof or the Unit, or occasioned wholly or in part by any act or omission of the Purchaser or by anyone permitted to be on the proposed Condominium or the Unit by the Purchaser, even if the Vendor or any of its servants, agents, employees or others from whom it is in law responsible has acted negligently. If the Vendor shall, without fault on its part, be made a party to any litigation commenced by or against the Purchaser, then the Purchaser shall protect, indemnify and hold the Vendor harmless and shall pay all costs, expenses and reasonable legal fees incurred or paid by the Vendor in connection with such litigation.

(h) The Purchaser agrees to comply with the provisions of the terms of the proposed Declaration, By-laws and Rules.

(i) Breach of any of the covenants contained in this paragraph shall be a default of the Purchaser under the terms of this Agreement.

(j) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the selling agent represents the Purchaser and does not represent the Vendor. The selling agent is not authorized by the Vendor to make any representations or promises regarding the project or the sale of the Unit to the Purchaser. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that in the event of any conflict between any oral comment or representation made by the Vendor or its sales staff and this Agreement, this Agreement and any schedule or addendum hereto shall govern. Furthermore, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that unless specified in writing in this Agreement, the Vendor and its sales staff shall been deemed to have not made any representations regarding the project or the Unit whatsoever.

(k) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that it shall not assist or take part in any class action suit filed or threatened to be filed against the Vendor or any party involved in the development of the Property and that any proceedings, whether in arbitration or in court, will be conducted only on an individual basis and not as a class, representative, mass, or consolidated action.

(l) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that notwithstanding anything else contained herein, the Purchaser shall have forty-five (45) days from the date that this Agreement is executed by both parties to select and confirm with the Vendor any Extras that the Purchaser wishes to purchase which Extras shall be in addition to the Purchase Price (the "Requirement"). The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that in the event that the Purchaser fails to satisfy the Requirement, the Dwelling shall be constructed with the standard features and finishes as provided in Schedule "A" attached hereto.

14. Examination of Title by Purchaser

The Vendor shall notify the Purchaser or his solicitor when the Condominium has been registered. The Purchaser shall be allowed 10 days thereafter to examine title to the Unit at his own expense. If within that time any valid objection to title is made in writing to the Vendor which the Vendor shall be unable or unwilling to remove and which the Purchaser will not waive, then the Agreement shall, notwithstanding any intermediate acts or negotiations in respect of such objections, become null and void, the Purchaser shall surrender to the Vendor vacant possession of the Unit and the Deposit shall be returned to the Purchaser with interest and without deduction and the Vendor shall have no further liability or obligation hereunder and shall not be liable for any costs or damages. Save as to any valid objection to title made within such time, the Purchaser shall be deemed to have accepted the title of the Vendor to the Unit. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall be entitled to respond to all requisitions through the use of a standard title memorandum or title advice statement prepared by the Vendor's Solicitor and that same shall constitute a satisfactory manner of responding to the Purchaser's title requisitions, thereby relieving the Vendor and the Vendor's Solicitor of the requirement to respond directly or specifically to the Purchaser's requisitions. The Purchaser also acknowledges that the Vendor and the Vendor's Solicitor may arrange for the project to be enrolled with a title insurer or insurers acceptable to the Vendor (the "Title Insurer") in order to centralize underwriting for the project and avoid unnecessary duplication of costs for purchasers and their solicitors. In the event that the Purchaser elects to obtain title insurance through the Title Insurer, the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall not be required to perform some or all of the following due diligence thereby saving the Purchaser significant transaction costs: title search and review of title search; preparation of requisition letter; prepare, send out and review responses to clearance letters; execution searches against the Vendor; and corporate status searches. As a result of the foregoing and regardless of whether the Purchaser obtains title insurance through the Title Insurer, the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor or its solicitors on the Closing Date an administration fee of three hundred dollars ($300.00) plus applicable taxes for enrolling the project with the Title Insurer and for preparing and delivering to the Purchaser's solicitor and Title Insurer a title advice statement.

15. Adjustments

The Purchaser shall be responsible and be obligated to pay the following costs and/or charges in respect of the Unit either on the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date as determined by the Vendor. (a) assessments prepaid or owing for contribution towards the common expenses, and/or reserve fund and/or the monthly occupancy fee;

(b) an amount equal to that estimated by the Vendor to be payable by the Purchaser for the Purchaser's Unit contribution towards the common expenses and/or reserve fund of the corporation for a period of up to two (2) months, which sum shall be paid directly to the Corporation on closing and credited by the Corporation to the Purchaser, for use by the Corporation as it deems reasonable. Such sum shall be in addition to any common expenses otherwise payable to the Corporation. In addition, the Purchaser agrees to deliver a series of twelve (12) post-dated cheques or execute a pre-authorized chequing plan in an amount estimated by the Vendor to be payable monthly to the Corporation on account of common expenses;

(c) unearned insurance premiums, and where such insurance is carried by the corporation, the Purchaser's Unit share of any unearned or accrued premiums determined by the Purchaser's proportionate contribution to the common expenses;

owing to him. If realty taxes are owing for a period when the Condominium project was assessed and taxed as one structure and not as individual units, then the adjustment of realty taxes shall include an amount calculated to attribute a portion of such realty taxes owing on the Condominium project to the Unit based on its common interest.

(e) any other prepaid or current expense, such as gas, electricity, fuel, water, etc., which shall be adjusted by attributing to the Purchaser's Unit its share of such expenses, as determined by its common interest;

(f) a charge of three hundred ($300.00) dollars plus HST for each Charge to be discharged by the Vendor to complete this transaction;

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that should any of the aforementioned charges be issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right at its sole discretion, to apportion the cost of such charges to the Purchaser on a proportionate basis, based on the Purchaser's percentage interest in the common elements as set out in Schedule "D" to the Declaration;

The amount of the foregoing adjustment shall be determined by a certificate signed on the part of the Vendor which the Purchaser agrees to accept. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that should any of the Levies be issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right in its sole discretion, to apportion the Levies to the Purchaser on a proportionate basis, based on either the Purchaser's percentage interest in the common elements as set out in Schedule "D" to the Declaration, or by dividing the total amount of Levies by the number of residential dwelling units in the Condominium and by charging the Purchaser in the statement of adjustments with that portion of the Levies.

(l) the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor for the costs of any public art, planting, hard and soft landscaping, landscape furniture or other aesthetic or architectural treatment on the Condominium or Property or public lands adjacent or proximate thereto (the "Exterior Aesthetics") required by Governmental Authorities with respect to the development of the Condominium or lands in general. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that should the costs associated with the Transportation Levy be issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right in its sole discretion, to apportion the Transportation Levy to the Purchaser on a proportionate basis, based on either the Purchaser's percentage interest in the common elements as set out in Schedule "D" to the Declaration, or by dividing the total amount of the costs associated with the Transportation Levy by the number of residential dwelling units in the Condominium and by charging the Purchaser in the statement of adjustments with that portion of the costs associated with the Transportation Levy;

(n) the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor for the entire amount of all levies, charges, obligations, costs or assessments assessed against, payable or attributable to the Units or against the Property or any portion thereof pursuant or with respect to, or in connection with any parkland dedication or any cash in lieu payment or other parkland levies or similar levies, payments, charges, assessments or contributions, pursuant to the Planning Act, R.S.O., 1990 as amended from time to time and/or pursuant to any other relevant legislation, regulation, policy, or authority, and such costs shall be payable even if such costs are included in any Levy (the "Parkland Levy"). The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that should the costs associated with the Parkland Levy be issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right in its sole discretion, to apportion the Parkland Levy to the Purchaser on a proportionate basis, based on either the Purchaser's percentage interest in the common elements as set out in Schedule "D" to the Declaration, or by dividing the total amount of the costs associated with the Parkland Levy by the number of residential dwelling units in the Condominium and by charging the Purchaser in the statement of adjustments with that portion of the costs associated with the Parkland Levy;

The amount of the foregoing adjustment shall be determined by a certificate signed on the part of the Vendor which the Purchaser agrees to accept. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that should any of the aforementioned payments or charges be issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right in its sole discretion, to apportion the cost of such payments or charges to the Purchaser on a proportionate basis, based on either the Purchaser's percentage interest in the common elements as set out in Schedule "D" to the Declaration, or by dividing the total amount of such payments, charges and/or costs by the number of residential dwelling units in the Condominium and by charging the Purchaser in the statement of adjustments with that portion of the payments, charges and/or costs;

(r) any new taxes imposed on the Unit by the federal, provincial or municipal government or any increases to existing taxes currently imposed on the Unit by such government;

(s) In the event that there are any changes in the Ontario Building Code Act, the Building Code, the Fire Code, Electrical Code or any other building or construction code, legislation, regulation or requirement that affects the design and/or construction of the Unit, Property and/or Condominium and increases the cost of same to the Vendor or owner of the Property, or if the Municipality imposes any architectural, landscaping, site plan or other amendments to the Unit, Condominium or Property after the date of this agreement then the Purchaser agrees to reimburse the Vendor for such increased costs, either based on the direct costs applicable to the unit or on a proportionate share basis as determined by the Vendor. A certificate signed by an officer of the Vendor shall be final and binding with respect to such increased costs;

(t) any other adjustments provided for in this Agreement of Purchase and Sale;

(u) a $250.00, plus Applicable Taxes, administrative fee shall be charged to the Purchaser for (i) each deposit cheque in the possession of the Vendor's solicitors that the Vendor permits to be exchanged for a replacement cheque or deposited on a later date than the date indicated on the face of said cheque; or (ii) for any amendments executed by the Vendor at the request of the Purchaser, provided that the Vendor shall be under no obligation to execute or provide any requested amendments;

(v) a $250.00, plus Applicable Taxes, administrative fee shall be charged to the Purchaser for each sum that the Vendor permits to be paid to the Vendor's solicitor on account of the Purchase Price for the Unit by wire transfer or direct deposit. All payments by wire transfer or direct deposit shall be made in strict accordance with the provisions of the Vendor's solicitor's wire transfer and direct deposit form, which may be amended by the Vendor's solicitor from time to time. Without derogation from any other right or remedy of the Vendor, if such form is not complied with and a wire transfer or direct deposit is made on account of the Purchase Price, the Purchaser shall pay an additional adjustment of $250.00, plus Applicable Taxes, as an administrative fee per occurrence.

If any of the adjustments to be made on the Occupancy Date and/or Closing cannot be accurately determined at the respective time, then the Vendor may estimate the adjustment to be made and the Purchaser shall accept such estimate; there shall be a later and final adjustment when all the items to be adjusted can be accurately determined. All proper readjustments shall be made after the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date if necessary, forthwith upon request. Any monies owing to the Vendor pursuant to such readjustment or as a result of any expenses incurred by the Vendor arising from a breach by the Purchaser of any of the Purchaser's obligations set out in this Agreement shall be payable upon written demand by the Vendor and shall bear interest from the date of written demand at the rate of twenty percent (20%) per annum, calculated daily, not in advance, and shall be a charge on the Unit until paid and such charge shall be enforced in the same manner as a mortgage in default. The balance due on the Occupancy Date and/or the Closing Date shall be paid by certified cheque drawn in favour of those parties as may be directed by the Vendor and/or its solicitors.

The Purchaser shall, from the Occupancy Date take all necessary steps to assume sole responsibility for all charges for hydro, water, gas and other services attributable to the Unit, unless same are included as a proposed common expense. The Purchaser shall be required to execute and deliver on the Occupancy Date or thereafter as required by the Vendor, all documents and any cheques or pre- authorized chequing plan as required by the Vendor related to the sub-metering of any utility. The Vendor shall be entitled to rebates issued or paid by any utility provider or by any entity supplying the various equipment to the Unit, even though such equipment may be of a rental/leased nature. The Purchaser agrees that he will execute any form of acknowledgement, direction, consent or assignment required by the Vendor in order to evidence the Vendor's entitlement to any such rebate.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that a three hundred and fifty dollar ($350.00) administrative fee shall be charged to the Purchaser for any cheque paid with respect to any deposit payable pursuant to this Agreement or any extras or upgrades or the occupancy fee which is returned "N.S.F." or upon which a "Stop Payment" has been ordered and such administrative fee shall be paid within five (5) days of written demand therefore or as otherwise directed by the Vendor. In addition, the Purchaser shall pay any legal fees and disbursements charged by the Vendor's solicitors, plus applicable taxes, in connection with any such cheque which is returned N.S.F. or for which a Stop Payment has been ordered, as well as for the Purchaser's failure or delay in complying with the terms of this Agreement, which fees shall be paid forthwith upon demand by the Vendor or its solicitors.

In the event that the Purchaser desires to increase the amount to be paid to the Vendor's solicitor on the Occupancy Date at any time after the expiry of the initial ten (10) day statutory rescission period, or wishes to vary the manner in which the Purchaser has previously requested to take title to the Unit, or wishes to add or change any unit(s) being acquired from the Vendor, then the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor's Solicitors, either on the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, as determined by the Vendor, their legal fees in the amount of $350.00 plus HST, per request, in order to implement any such change, but without there being any obligation whatsoever on the part of the Vendor to approve of, or to implement, any of the foregoing changes so requested.

The interest component of the monthly occupancy fee shall be adjusted on the Closing Date for any discrepancy between the interest rate employed in the calculation of the monthly occupancy fee and that actually payable pursuant to paragraph 5(a) hereof. In addition, on the Closing Date, the Purchaser and the Vendor covenant and agree to deliver mutual undertakings to readjust the realty tax component of the monthly occupancy fees paid, as soon as the final realty tax bill in respect of the Unit (including all supplementary assessments with respect thereto covering the period of time from the Occupancy Date to the Closing Date) has been determined or issued by the tax department of the Municipality, so as to accord with the amount actually assessed against the Unit.

Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Purchase Price does not include any HST exigible with respect to any of the adjustments payable by the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement, or any extras or upgrades purchased, ordered or chosen by the Purchaser from the Vendor which are not specifically set forth in this Agreement, and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to pay such HST to the Vendor in accordance with the Excise Tax Act.

16. Management of the Condominium Project

The Vendor or a management company to be named by the Vendor shall manage the Condominium. The Vendor or the management company shall enter into a management agreement with the Corporation and the management fees, together with all proper common expenses incurred in connection with such management, shall be a common expense and will be included with the monthly maintenance charge.

17. Condominium Documents - Disclosure Statement

The Purchaser acknowledges receipt of the Disclosure Statement which has been delivered by the Vendor to the Purchaser in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the regulations passed thereunder, together with all other documents required to be delivered with the Disclosure Statement as required by the Act.

18. Modification of Condominium Documents

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may, from time to time in its sole discretion, due to site conditions or constraints, or for marketing considerations, or for any other legitimate reason, including without limitation any request or requirement of any of the governmental authorities or any request or requirement of the Vendor's architect or other design consultants:

(i) change the Property's municipal address or numbering of the Unit (in terms of the unit number and/or level number ascribed to any one or more of the units comprising the Unit);

(ii) change, vary or modify the plans and specifications pertaining to the Unit or the Condominium, or any portion thereof (including architectural, structural, engineering, landscaping, grading, mechanical, site servicing and/or other plans and specifications) from the plans and specifications existing at the inception of the project, or existing at the time that the Purchaser has entered into this Agreement, or as same may be illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) in the sales office or otherwise, including without limitation, making any change to the total number of dwelling, parking and/or other ancillary units intended to be created within the Condominium, and/or any change to the total number of levels or floors within the Condominium, as well as any changes or alterations to the design, style, size and/or configuration of any dwelling or other ancillary units within the Condominium; and/or

(iii) change, vary, or modify the number, size and location of any windows, column(s) and/or bulkhead(s) within or adjacent to (or comprising part of) the Unit, from the number, size and/or location of same as displayed or illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) or floor plan(s) previously delivered or shown to the Purchaser, including the insertion or placement of any window(s), column(s) and/or bulkhead(s) in one or more locations within the Unit which have not been shown or illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) or floor plan(s) previously delivered or shown to the Purchaser (regardless of the extent or impact thereof), as well as the removal of any window(s), column(s) and/or bulkhead(s) from any location(s) previously shown or illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) in the sales office or otherwise;

and that the Purchaser shall have absolutely no claim or cause of action whatsoever against the Vendor or its sales representatives (whether based or founded in contract, tort or in equity) for any such changes, deletions, alterations or modifications, nor shall the Purchaser be entitled to any abatement or reduction in the Purchase Price whatsoever as a consequence thereof, nor any notice thereof (unless any such change, deletion, alteration or modification to the said plans and specifications is material in nature (as defined by the Act) and significantly affects the fundamental character, use or value of the Unit and/or the Condominium, in which case the Vendor shall be obliged to notify the Purchaser in writing of such change, deletion, alteration or modification as soon as reasonably possible after the Vendor proposes to implement same, or otherwise becomes aware of same), and where any such change, deletion, alteration or modification to the said plans and specifications is material in nature as set out in the Act, then the Purchaser's only recourse and remedy shall be the termination of this Agreement prior to the closing date (and specifically within 10 days after the Purchaser is notified or otherwise becomes aware of such material change), and the return of the Purchaser's deposit monies, together with interest accrued thereon at the rate prescribed by the Act.

19. Planning Act

This Agreement shall be effective to create an interest in the property only if the subdivision control provisions of the Planning Act are complied with by the Vendor on or before Closing,

20. Agreement not to be Registered

The Purchaser acknowledges that registration of this Agreement, a caution, a certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument of any kind whatsoever against title to the Unit or Condominium prior to closing, would obstruct mortgage advances and cause substantial damage to the Vendor. Therefore, the Purchaser covenants and agrees prior to closing, not to register this Agreement, a caution, a certificate of pending litigation or other instrument against title to the Unit or the Condominium, and further covenants and agrees not to give, register or permit to be registered any encumbrance against the Unit or sell or make any other disposition thereof until after Closing. In the event that this Agreement of Purchase and Sale, a caution, a certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument whatsoever is registered against or dealing with the title in contravention of this provision, the Purchaser shall be in default pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement and in addition to all other rights and remedies available to the Vendor, then the Purchaser hereby appoints the Vendor his true and lawful attorney for the purposes of removing the instrument from title including giving of any discharge, the lifting of any caution or the assignment of any rights pursuant to this Agreement, and the Purchaser shall bear all costs incurred by the Vendor in the pursuance of his function pursuant to this power of attorney.

21. Default

(a) The Purchaser shall be deemed to be in default of this Agreement in each and every of the following events, namely:

(i) upon the non-payment of all or any portion of any amount payable pursuant to this Agreement or any amount payable for extras or upgrades, on the date or within the time specified;

(ii) upon the breach of, or failure in the performance or observance of any covenant, term, agreement, restriction, stipulation or provision of this Agreement to be performed and/or observed by the Purchaser;

(iii) upon any lien, execution or encumbrance arising from any action or default whatsoever of the Purchaser being charged against or affecting the Unit or Condominium prior to successful completion of this transaction on the closing date; or

(iv) upon the Purchaser (and if the Purchaser is more than one person then any one of the Purchaser) makes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent by any court of competent jurisdiction under any legislation then in force, or takes the benefit of any act that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors, or shall go into liquidation, either voluntary or under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or otherwise acknowledges its insolvency;

(b) If any default by the Purchaser occurs under this Agreement, the Vendor shall have the right, in addition to any other rights or remedies which the Vendor may have, to terminate this Agreement and forfeit all monies paid (including all deposits paid) together with any interest earned thereon and monies paid or payable for extras or upgrades ordered by the Purchaser, whether or not installed in the dwelling. The deposit and further deposit(s) are expressly deemed to be deposit monies only, and not partial payments. In the event the Vendor's solicitors are holding any of the deposits in trust pursuant to this Agreement, then in the event of a default by the Purchaser, the Vendor's solicitors are irrevocably authorized and directed to pay to the Vendor the said deposits together with any interest earned thereon, provided the Vendor has delivered to its solicitors a certificate of an officer of the Vendor, certifying that the Purchaser has committed a default pursuant to this Agreement that has not been remedied and that the Vendor has terminated this Agreement and that the Vendor is therefore entitled to the deposits and accrued interest, if any. Thereupon the Purchaser hereby releases the said solicitors from any obligation to hold the deposit monies, if any, in trust and shall not make any claim whatsoever against the said solicitors and the Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the said solicitors to deliver the said deposit monies and accrued interest, if any, to the Vendor pursuant to the foregoing. Without prejudice to the Vendor's rights as to forfeiture of monies paid as aforesaid and in addition thereto, the Vendor shall have the right to recover from the Purchaser all costs, losses and damages arising out of default on the part of the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement including interest thereon from the date of demand at the rate of twenty percent (20%) per annum calculated daily, not in advance until paid. In the event this Agreement, in future, is amended for the benefit of the Purchaser and/or in order to induce the closing of the transaction by giving the Purchaser a credit or a reduction against the purchase price and the Purchaser fails to complete the transaction, all damages shall be assessed as if such amendment was not entered into.

(c) If the transaction is not completed for any reason whatsoever and notwithstanding refund or forfeiture of deposits, the Purchaser shall execute and deliver such documents affecting title to the Unit or Condominium or a release with respect to this Agreement or any agreement or document in a form designated by the Vendor, and in the event the Purchaser fails or neglects to execute such documents, the Purchaser hereby appoints and authorizes the Vendor, the Purchaser's true and lawful attorney to so execute the said documentation.

(d) It is understood and agreed that the rights contained in this section 21 on the part of the Vendor are in addition to any other rights (whether of a more onerous nature or not) which the Vendor may have at law, in equity, or under any other provisions of this Agreement, and the Vendor expressly has the right to exercise all or any one or more of the rights contained in this Agreement, or at law or in equity, without exercising at such time the remainder of such right or rights and without prejudice to the subsequent right of the Vendor to exercise any remaining right or rights at law, in equity or in this Agreement.

22. Agreement Not to Merge with Transfer

All of the covenants, warranties and obligations contained in this Agreement to be performed by the Purchaser shall survive the Closing of this transaction and shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the transfer of title to the Unit to the Purchaser. The Purchaser shall execute and deliver, when requested by the Vendor, one or more covenants incorporating the terms hereof.

23. Waiver

No provision of this Agreement may be waived by either party except in writing. The waiver of any of the provisions hereunder shall not affect the right of either party to enforce all other provisions not so waived.

24. Subordination of Agreement

The Purchaser agrees that this Agreement shall be subordinate to and postponed to any mortgages arranged by the Vendor and any advances thereunder from time to time, and to any easement, service agreement and other similar agreements made by the Vendor concerning the lands and also to the registration of all Condominium documents. The Purchaser agrees to do all acts necessary and execute and deliver all necessary documents, both before and after Closing, as may be reasonably required by the Vendor from time to time to give effect to this undertaking.

25. Acceptance

This Agreement by the Purchaser when accepted by the Vendor shall constitute a binding contract of purchase and sale.

26. Time of Essence and No Representations etc.

Time shall in all respects be strictly of the essence of this Agreement and no extension of time for any payment by the Purchaser or rectification of any breach of any agreement, stipulation, condition or restriction shall operate as a waiver of this provision with respect to any other payment or rectification of any other breach, except as specifically agreed upon in writing by the Vendor or the Purchaser, as the case may be.

The parties hereto agree that there are no representations, warranties, collateral agreements or conditions affecting this Agreement or the Unit other than as expressed herein in writing.

In the event that the date for payment of any deposit required to be paid pursuant to this Agreement or the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or statutory holiday, then such date shall be automatically deemed to be amended to the next business day.

The Purchaser acknowledges that the new home industry is complex and that while sales agents are knowledgeable about most issues regarding the purchase and construction of a new home, they cannot be expected to know all aspects in detail. Accordingly, the Purchaser acknowledges that no representations have been made to the Purchaser by the Vendor or its sales agents upon which the Purchaser relies and which were essential to the Purchaser's decision to purchase this property, except as are set forth herein in writing.

27. Preparation and Cost of Registering Documents

The Transfer is to be prepared at the expense of the Vendor on the Vendor's standard form. If required by the Vendor, the Transfer may contain covenants on the part of the Purchaser to comply with the stipulations set out above, the covenants, conditions, provisions and restrictions set out in the Declaration and By-laws, and is to be executed by the Purchaser and prepared at the expense of the Vendor. The Transfer shall be registered forthwith on Closing at the Purchasers expense. The Purchaser agrees to accept a transfer of the Unit from the registered owner of the Unit, as directed by the Vendor, and the Purchaser agrees to provide and execute and deliver on Closing, whatever indemnities, assurances and other documentation that may be required by the Vendor in order to transfer title as aforesaid. The Vendor shall have the option to collect the HST, if any, payable by the Purchaser on chattels which are involved in this transaction as a charge on Closing and the allocation of such chattels to be estimated, if necessary, by the Vendor.

28. Tender

Any tender of documents or money, or any notice to be given hereunder may be made upon the Vendor or the Purchaser or any party acting for the said Vendor or Purchaser and money may be tendered by negotiable cheque certified by a chartered bank or trust company carrying on business in the Province of Ontario.

The Purchaser agrees to attend at the appropriate Registry Office at noon on the Closing Date to complete this transaction unless an alternate time has been specifically agreed upon between the Vendor and Purchaser or their respective solicitors, in default of which attendance the Vendor shall be deemed to have affected a good and valid tender upon the Purchaser. On the Occupancy Date (provided that it is not also the Closing Date) the Purchaser shall deliver all required documents and funds to the offices of the Vendor's solicitors by 2:00 p.m. on that date, failing which the Purchaser shall be in default under this Agreement.

Keys will be released to the Purchaser at the construction site or the Registry Office or the Sales Office or the Head Office of the Vendor, as the Vendor in its absolute discretion determines, on the Occupancy Date after receipt of all required funds and documents, unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing between the Vendor and Purchaser. The Purchaser agrees that the Vendor's solicitor's advice that keys are available for release to the Purchaser constitutes a valid tender of keys on the Purchaser.

On the Occupancy Date the Purchaser shall deliver to the Vendor a clear execution certificate in respect of the Purchaser's name and any person in whose favour the Purchaser has given its written direction to engross title, from the Land Titles Office where the Condominium is situate, and shall also provide the Vendor with such other information and documentation as may be required in order to enable the Vendor to obtain a clear execution certificate as aforesaid (or alternatively, to satisfy the Vendor's solicitor, in their sole discretion, that the Purchaser and any person in whose favour the Purchaser has given its written direction to engross title is/are not one and the same person as any particular execution debtor named in any given execution certificate).

Notwithstanding subparagraph 35(d) hereof, or any other term to the contrary herein, in the event the Purchaser or his/her solicitor advise the Vendor or its solicitor, on or before the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, as applicable, that the Purchaser is unable or unwilling to complete the purchase or take occupancy, the Vendor is relieved of any obligation to make any formal tender upon the Purchaser or his/her solicitor and may exercise forthwith any and all of its rights and remedies provided for in this Agreement and at law.

29. Gender and Number

This Agreement and its acceptance are to be read with all changes of gender and number as may be required by the context.

30. Successors and Assigns

Except as expressly herein provided, the Parties hereto further agree that the covenants, agreements, provisos and conditions in this Agreement contained shall extend to and be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns. In the event that more than one party comprises the Purchaser herein, the obligations of such parties under this Agreement shall be joint and several, and the execution of a Colour Chart or any amendment to this Agreement by only one (1) party which comprises the Purchaser herein, shall bind all other parties comprising the Purchaser and each such party hereby grants a Power of Attorney to the other or others for any such purpose.

31. Headings and Notice

The headings to the clauses of this Agreement form no part of the Agreement but shall be deemed to be inserted for convenience of reference only. Any notice required to be given pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been properly given if it is in writing and is delivered by hand, e-mail, facsimile machine or by ordinary prepaid post to the attention of the Purchaser or to the Purchaser's solicitor to their respective addresses indicated herein or as may be advised from time to time in writing, or to the address of the Unit after the Occupancy Date, and to the Vendor at 1001-980 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario M4W 3V8, with a copy to the Vendor's solicitor at the address indicated in this Agreement or such other address as may from time to time be given by notice in accordance with the foregoing. Such notice shall be deemed to have been received on the day it was delivered by hand, e-mail or facsimile machine and upon the second day following posting. The Purchasers hereby agrees to immediately update the Vendor, by providing written notice of any change of the Purchaser's address, phone number, fax number and/or email address.

32. Meaning of Words

The meaning of the words and phrases used in this Agreement shall be as described in the Condominium Act, 1998, S.O. 1998, C.19, and any amendments thereto (herein referred to as the "Act") unless specifically amended herein.

33. Applicable Law

This Agreement of Purchase and Sale shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario. In the event any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement or any portion or portions thereof are invalid or unenforceable, the same shall be deemed to be deleted herefrom and shall not be deemed to affect the enforceability or validity of the balance of this Agreement of Purchase and Sale.

34. Electronic Registration

If the electronic registration system (hereinafter referred to as the "Teraview Electronic Registration System" or "TERS") is operative at the applicable land registry office on the Closing Date, the following provisions shall prevail:

(a) The Purchaser shall retain a solicitor who is both an authorized TERS user and in good standing with the Law Society of Ontario to represent the Purchaser for the closing. The Purchaser will authorize its solicitor to enter into a Document Registration Agreement on the Vendor's solicitors' standard form (the "Escrow Agreement"). The closing time and Release Deadline for the purposes of the Escrow Agreement shall be 5:00 p.m. on the closing date.

(b) The Purchaser acknowledges that the delivery of documents and/or money may not occur contemporaneously with the registration of the Transfer/Deed of Land and may be delivered in escrow pursuant to the Escrow Agreement. In the event of electronic registration of documents, the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on Closing for the additional legal costs incurred with respect to electronic registration.

(c) If the closing of this transaction cannot be completed in escrow pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, the Purchaser's solicitor shall attend at the offices of the Vendor's solicitors or at the appropriate land registry office, as directed by the Vendor's solicitors and at such time as directed by the Vendor's solicitors in order to complete this transaction.

(d) Paragraph 28 of this Schedule "X" is amended to provide that tender shall have been validly made by the Vendor when the "Completeness Signature" for the Transfer/Deed of Land has been electronically "signed" by the Vendor's solicitors on or before the closing date, and same shall be satisfactory evidence that the Vendor is ready, willing and able to complete the sale transaction and the Vendor shall be deemed to have effected a sufficient, good and valid tender upon the Purchaser.

(e) The parties agree that the delivery of documents (other than documents to be registered) on the Closing Date may occur by facsimile transmission or similar system reproducing them, provided that all documents have been properly executed by the appropriate parties, save and except for such documents as may be specified by the Vendor's solicitors as requiring original copies to be delivered on the Closing Date. The person transmitting the documents shall also provide original documents to the recipient within two (2) business days of the later of (i) facsimile transmission of the documents, or (ii) a request for the original documents by the recipient.

(f) At the option of the Vendor, the Purchaser agrees that the delivery of any documents not intended for registration on title to the Unit(s) may be delivered to the Purchaser by electronic transmission of electronically signed documents through the internet provided that all documents so transmitted have been duly and properly executed by the appropriate parties/signatories thereto. The Purchaser shall not require the delivery of originals of any such documents. The Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on closing for any additional legal costs incurred related to the electronic posting of documents in the amount of $250.00, plus Applicable Taxes.

(g) If the Purchaser's lawyer is unwilling or unable to complete this transaction via TERS, in accordance with the provisions contemplated under the Escrow Agreement, then said lawyer (or authorized agent thereof) shall be obligated to personally attend at the office of the Vendor's solicitor, at such time on the scheduled Closing Date as may be directed by the Vendor's solicitor or as mutually agreed upon, in order to complete this transaction via TERS utilizing the computer facilities in the Vendor's solicitor's office, and shall pay a fee as determined by the Vendor's solicitor, acting reasonably for the use of the Vendor's computer facilities.

(h) Notwithstanding that all closing funds payable by the Purchaser (in accordance with the statement of adjustments) in connection with the final closing of this transaction must be provided by way of a certified cheque made payable to the Vendor's solicitors and be drawn upon (or issued by) a Canadian chartered bank or trust company, it is understood and agreed that at the Vendor's sole option and discretion, exercisable on written notice to the Purchaser's solicitor by the Vendor's solicitor at any time prior to the scheduled final closing date, the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall be required to participate in (and shall correspondingly be obliged to comply with the procedures for transmitting all certified funds for closing this transaction in accordance with) the closing funds management service provided by Teranet Enterprises Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Teranet"), provided however that in such case:

(a) the Vendor's solicitor shall receive written confirmation from Teranet (by fax or e-mail) of its receipt of all required closing funds from the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor, prior to the Vendor's solicitor being obliged to release the transfer for electronic registration (and the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall execute all requisite directions and/or authorizations to Teranet in order to implement and facilitate the foregoing); and

(b) all fees charged by Teranet [together with all applicable bank charges for the wired transfer(s) of funds] that are otherwise payable or incurred by either or both of the Vendor and the Purchaser in connection with Teranet's closing funds management service, shall be fully borne and paid for solely by the Purchaser.

35. Notices/Acknowledgements

(a) The Purchaser acknowledges that existing and/or future site plan agreements, section 37 agreements, development agreements and other agreements with the Municipality and other Governmental Authorities, affecting the real property may require the Vendor to provide the Purchaser with certain notices or warnings including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, notices or warnings regarding the usage of the real property, environmental issues, noise levels from adjacent or nearby buildings, hospitals, plazas, roadways or otherwise, school transportation and related educational issues, the absence of door-to-door mail delivery, the location of mailboxes, the status of services and works in the condominium and in general, any other matter that may be deemed by the Municipality and/or Governmental Authorities to inhibit the enjoyment by the Purchaser of the real property. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable at this time to provide the Purchaser with all such notices and warnings. On or before closing, the Purchaser shall forthwith execute upon request by the Vendor, acknowledgements or amendments to this Agreement containing the required notices and warning clauses. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable to sell the real property to the Purchaser unless the Purchaser executes such acknowledgements or amendments as aforesaid. In the event that the Purchaser fails to execute such acknowledgements or amendments forthwith upon being requested to do so by the Vendor, the Vendor shall be entitled, at its sole option, to terminate this Agreement and upon such termination, all monies paid to the Vendor hereunder shall be forfeited to the Vendor and this Agreement shall be at an end, and the Purchaser shall not have any further rights hereunder.

(b) The Purchaser expressly acknowledges that at the date of execution of this Agreement, draft plan and/or site plan approval pursuant to the provisions of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990 and/or Condominium Act, R.S.O. 1998 as either may be amended may not yet have been obtained with respect to the Condominium. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the draft conditions and any Development Agreements may contain warnings, and other provisions which are required to be included in agreements of purchase and sale for units in the Condominium. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to execute any and all documentation, including an amendment to this Agreement, as may be required by the Vendor, and in a form satisfactory to the Vendor, in order that the foregoing provisions shall be incorporated into this Agreement and acknowledged by the Purchaser.

(c) The Purchaser acknowledges receipt of notice from the Vendor that the Vendor or related or associated corporations may develop other lands in the vicinity of the Condominium and may apply for zoning or rezoning thereof, and the Purchaser agrees and undertakes on behalf of themselves, their successors and assigns not to object or oppose any applications for the development, zoning, rezoning, amendment to the Official Plan or Secondary Plan or any similar applications and agrees that this paragraph may be pleaded as a bar to any objection thereof. The Purchaser covenants to include this clause in any conveyance, mortgage or disposition of the Unit and to assign the benefit of such covenant to the Vendor.

(d) Without limiting the generality of the preceding subparagraph, the Purchaser is hereby advised that:

(i) noise levels caused by the Condominium's emergency generator, mechanical rooms, mechanical and/or electrical equipment, the HVAC system, the Condominium's recreation facilities, Jefferson Side Road and neighbouring properties, all may occasionally cause noise and inconvenience to the residential occupants; and

(ii) as and when other residential units in the Condominium are being completed and/or moved into, excessive levels of noise, vibration, dust and/or debris are possible, and same may accordingly temporarily cause noise and inconvenience to the residential occupants.

(e) The Vendor reserves the right to increase or decrease the final number of levels to be constructed within the Condominium as well as the final number of residential, parking and locker units intended to be created within the Condominium, as well as the right to alter the design, style, size and/or configuration of the residential units and commercial units ultimately comprised within the Condominium which have not yet been sold by the Vendor to any unit purchaser(s), all in the Vendor's sole discretion, and the Purchaser expressly acknowledges and agrees to the foregoing, provided that the final budget for the first year following registration of the Condominium is prepared in such a manner so that any such variance in the residential, parking and/or locker unit count will not affect in any material or substantial way, the percentages of common expenses and common interests allocated and attributable to the residential, parking and/or locker units sold by the Vendor to the Purchaser. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that one or more residential units situate adjacent to one another may be combined or amalgamated prior to the registration of the Condominium, in which case the common expenses and common interests attributable to such proposed former units will be incorporated into one figure or percentage in respect of the final combined unit, and the overall residential unit count of the Condominium will be varied and adjusted accordingly. None of the foregoing changes or revisions (if implemented) shall in any way be considered or construed as a material change to the disclosure statement prepared and delivered by the Vendor to the Purchaser in connection with this transaction.

(f) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor cannot guarantee (and will not be responsible for) the arrangement of a suitable move-in time for purposes of accommodating the Purchaser's occupancy of the Unit on the Occupancy Date (or any acceleration or extension thereof as hereinbefore provided), and under no circumstances shall the Purchaser be entitled to any claim, refund, credit, reduction/abatement or set-off whatsoever against any portion of the Purchase Price, or against any portion of the common expenses or other adjustments with respect thereto (nor with respect to any portion of the monthly occupancy fees so paid or payable, if applicable) as a result of the service elevator not being available to accommodate the Purchaser moving into the Condominium on (or within any period of time after) the Occupancy Date (or any acceleration or extension thereof, as aforesaid).

(g) The Vendor's builder's risk and/or comprehensive liability insurance (effective prior to the registration of the Condominium), and the Condominium's master insurance policy (effective from and after the registration of the Condominium) will only cover the common elements and the standard unit and will not cover any betterments or improvements made to the standard unit, nor any furnishings or personal belongings of the Purchaser or other residents of the Unit, and accordingly the Purchaser should arrange for his or her own insurance coverage with respect to same, effective from and after the Occupancy Date, all at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense.

(h) The Municipality does not require off-site snow removal. However, in the case of heavy snow falls the limited storage space available on the property may make it necessary to truck the snow off the site and the cost of same will be included in the common expense fees.

(i) Purchasers are advised that the Vendor has no control over the development of lands adjacent to/or in proximity of the Condominium, and as such, notwithstanding any representations made to the Purchaser whether by a sales representative or in any marketing materials, the Vendor cannot guarantee that the Purchaser will have an unobstructed view from his or her Unit.

(j) Each Residential Unit has conduit(s) for the provision of television, telephone and internet service. These services are to be paid for directly by the owner of the Unit.

(k) Electricity, water and gas consumption in each Unit may be measured and invoiced by a submetering system installed and operated by a third party supplier (the "Supplier"). In such event each Unit owner shall receive and be responsible for payment of the invoice with respect to the electricity, water and gas consumption for his/her Unit, from the Occupancy Date forward. The Unit owner shall remit payment to the Supplier for electricity, water and gas consumption, separate from any other obligations the Unit owner has with respect to payment of common expenses as an owner within the condominium. The Unit owner will on either the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, execute the Supplier's form of contract and pre-authorized payment form and will provide the Supplier with a security deposit if required by the Supplier.

(l) Purchasers are advised that the Vendor may from time to time, in its sole and absolute discretion or as required by any Governmental Authority or construction requirements, change, vary or modify the plans, colours, materials, finishes, equipment, appliances, fixtures and specifications pertaining to the Condominium, the Residential Units Parking Units and/or Locker Units (all as defined in the Disclosure Statement) (including architectural, structural, mechanical, electrical or other plans, interior layout, height or rooms and interior spaces, unit numbering and level numbering) from the plans, colours, materials, finishes, equipment, appliances, fixtures and specifications existing at the time that the Purchaser entered into the Agreement of Purchase and Sale or as same may be illustrated in any sales brochures, models, representative view sets, photographs, illustrations or renderings, showroom displays, model suites, vignettes or otherwise, all without notice to or consent from the Purchaser. The Purchaser specifically acknowledges that he/she has not acquired the Unit based on the current layout, interior design, fixturing or furnishing of the display suite located in the Vendor's sales presentation centre. With respect to any aspect of construction, materials, finishes, colours, appliances, fixtures, equipment or dimensions, the Vendor shall have the right without notice to or consent from the Purchaser to make any changes to the plans and to substitutes materials, finishes, colours, appliances, fixtures, equipment or dimensions from those described in the Agreement of Purchase and Sale or in the plans and specifications associated therewith, provided that the substituted items are of equal or better quality, planning and construction. Purchasers are advised that the Agreement of Purchase and Sale contains provisions pursuant to which each Purchaser consents to any such changes, modifications and/or substitutions and agrees to complete the transaction of purchase and sale notwithstanding same.

(m) Purchasers are advised that the acquisition of a dwelling unit does not entitle the Purchaser to acquire a Parking Unit or Locker Unit unless specifically set out on the front page of this Agreement of Purchase and Sale or by way of a separate addendum.

(n) The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor has made no representation regarding the site lines and view from the Purchaser's Unit. In addition, purchasers are advised that other adjoining landowners may develop or redevelop their properties which may impact on the site lines and views from the Purchasers Unit.

(o) The Purchaser acknowledges that, with the exception of the budget attached to the Disclosure Statement accompanying this Agreement, no representation or warranty has been made to the Purchaser by the Vendor or any of its agents, employees or representatives with respect to municipal taxes, utility costs or other expenses relating to the ownership or operation of the Unit. The Purchaser acknowledges that he shall be responsible for making his own inquiries to the appropriate municipal authorities or utilities in this regard.

(p) The actual number of dwelling units in the Condominium may be amended as disclosed in various provisions of the Disclosure Statement. Consequently, the legal description and suite number which identifies a purchaser's dwelling unit on the front page of this Agreement of Purchase and Sale may be changed by the Vendor, in its sole and absolute discretion prior to final closing.

(q) Purchasers are advised that as a result of uncertainty in the natural gas, hydro and water distribution markets, the Vendor's reasonable assumptions regarding such utility costs may be incorrect as a result of circumstances which are not capable of being accurately predicted as of the date of this Agreement and which are beyond the Vendor's control. Consequently, prior to registration of the Condominium, the projected costs for such utilities for the first year shall be updated to reflect market conditions as of the date of registration as an alternative (in the Vendor's sole discretion) to applying the inflation factor referenced in the Disclosure Statement. The Budget and common expenses applicable to each unit shall be revised accordingly. Purchasers specifically acknowledge and agree that any increase in utility costs from that which was originally represented in the Budget shall not be the responsibility of the Vendor, despite section 75 of the Condominium Act. Purchasers acknowledge that the possibility of an increase in utility costs has been properly disclosed and, consequently, any increase shall not constitute a material change to the Disclosure Statement and Budget. In addition, Purchasers agree that this acknowledgement may be pleaded by the Vendor as complete defence to any application or objection raised by Purchasers in this regard.

(r) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that as a condition of closing, the Purchaser shall on either the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, as determined by the Vendor, in its sole and absolute discretion, enter into or assume lease(s) (collectively the "Lease") for the use of the heating, ventilation and air-conditioning unit and ancillary devices and systems servicing his/her Unit ("HVAC Unit") and/or the lease of a hot water heater tank and ancillary devices ("Hot Water Tank"). The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that by entering into or assume the Lease, the Purchaser shall be fully responsible for all rental payments and other costs associated with the Lease, including any security deposit required under the Lease. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that in the event that the Purchaser sells or assigns his/her Unit, on the closing of that transaction, the Purchaser shall assign and the transferee shall assume all of the rights and obligations under the Lease. In addition, in the event that the Purchaser is in default of the Lease or does not assign or assume the Lease on its closing day, then the lessor under the Lease or its representative, accompanied by the property manager or another representative of the Condominium, may enter onto the common elements of the Condominium and enter into the Unit to remove the HVAC Unit at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense. Any costs incurred by the Condominium related to the removal of the HVAC Unit and/or the Hot Water Tank shall be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser and all such amounts shall be collected by the Condominium as if same where Common Expenses. This condition is inserted for the sole benefit of the Vendor and may be waived by the Vendor at any time prior to 6:00 pm on the Closing Date by providing notice to the Purchaser of the Vendor's intention to waive this condition.

(s) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor (and any of its authorized agents, representatives and/or contractors), as well as one or more authorized representatives of the Condominium, shall be permitted to enter the Unit after Closing, from time to time, in order to enable the Vendor to correct outstanding deficiencies or incomplete work for which the Vendor is responsible, and to enable the Condominium to inspect the condition or state of repair of the Unit and undertake or complete any requisite repairs thereto (which the owner of the Unit has failed to do) in accordance with the Act.

(t) Vendor hereby specifically reserves to itself the right to lease any of the units that are not sold from time to time in the Condominium project in accordance with the terms of the registered Declaration and By-laws. This right of the Vendor shall apply to each and every unit in the Condominium project that is unsold from time to time and the Vendor hereby specifically declares that it intends to lease such unsold units as it may see fit. The Vendor may accept bona fide offers or options to purchase on leased units to close upon expiration of such a lease.

(u) The Purchaser acknowledges that the location of mechanical, electrical, heating, air conditioning and other service installations, may or may not be shown on sales brochures and, in any event, such mechanical, electrical, heating, air conditioning and other service installations will be located in accordance with approved plans and/or good construction practices, which may result in among other things, bulk heads, reduction in closet sizes and other changes to the Unit, and the Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that he or she shall correspondingly be obliged to accept the Unit in its delivered condition on Closing without any abatement or claim for compensation whatsoever.

(v) The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor is not required to deliver "hard" or paper copies of the documentation pertaining to the Occupancy of the Unit or the conveyance of title to the Unit, draft or otherwise, to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor (the "Closing Documentation"). The Vendor or the Vendor's representatives may, at their option, deliver to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor any or all of the Closing Documentation by email and/or by website. If delivered by website, the Closing Documentation shall be made available for download on an internet website designated by the Vendor and access to such website shall be effected by way of a confidential password to be provided to the Purchaser and/or the Purchaser's solicitor. In the event the Vendor delivers or tenders closing documents required in connection with this transaction on the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date by posting same on the world wide web, then the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on the Closing Date for the costs incurred by the Vendor to utilize such web services for the Condominium and/or this transaction. In the event that any such fees are issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right to apportion such costs to the Purchaser in accordance with his/her proportionate ownership interest in the Condominium as set out in Schedule D to the Declaration.

(w) The Purchasers acknowledges that supply of electricity and natural gas and/or water to each residential unit may be individually metered (the "Unit Meter") for consumption within the residential unit and the Purchaser will be invoiced for such consumption and all service or administration charges relating thereto (the "Unit Invoices") either by one or more private corporations providing re-sale, meter reading, payment and invoicing services to the Corporation and Purchaser and/or by a water, natural gas or hydro-electricity service provider or re-seller (collectively the "Service Provider"). The Unit Invoices will include the costs of all water, natural gas and/or electrical power as well as heat and cooling services consumed by the residential unit as well as service charges based on per litre or gallon of water, cubic metre of gas consumed or BTU consumed, per kilowatt per hour electricity consumed and other administration charges applicable to the metering service (with the costs of electricity, natural gas and other service charges hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Unit Services"). The Purchaser shall be responsible to pay the Unit Invoices in respect of the Unit Services as and when same are due and payable and such amounts, after the registration of the Condominium, shall be in addition to the common expenses payable by the Purchaser and shall not be included in the said common expenses. The cost of such Unit Services shall constitute an additional charge and such payment will not be credited against such Purchaser's obligation to pay occupancy fees in respect of the Purchaser's occupation of the residential unit. In addition to the Unit Invoices, the Service Provider may oblige the Purchaser to provide and/or replenish a security deposit, from time to time, in respect of Unit Services and such security deposit may be collected by the Vendor on closing. In the event that the Purchaser fails to pay the Unit Invoices on the due date, the Service Provider shall have the right to use the security deposit to satisfy the Unit Invoices and/or the right to terminate the supply of the Unit Service to the residential unit, and not to commence supplying such Unit Services again unless and until the Purchaser provides or replenishes the security deposit and pays the Unit Invoices. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to execute, upon request, any metering/invoicing/leasing/service or utility supply agreement, or assumption of acknowledgment of same, as required by the Service Provider and/or Vendor.

(x) In the event that the Vendor receives any rebate, credit, recovery, adjustment, discount or similar benefit from any party or parties in respect of any item that the Vendor is entitled to charge the Purchaser for in accordance with this, then the Vendor shall be entitled to retain any such rebate, credit, recovery, adjustment, discount or similar benefit for its own use and as its own property absolutely and shall not be obligated to credit or adjust with the Purchaser for any such rebate, credit, recovery, adjustment, discount or similar benefit.

(y) For owners of Residential Units located in Block G of the Site Plan, purchasers/tenants are advised that sound levels due to increasing road traffic may occasionally interfere with some activities of the dwelling occupants as the sound levels exceed the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria.

This dwelling unit has been supplied with a central air conditioning system which will allow windows and exterior doors to remain closed, thereby ensuring that the indoor sound levels are within the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment's, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria.

(z) For owners of Residential Units located in Block H of the Site Plan: Purchasers/tenants are advised that sound levels due to increasing road traffic may occasionally interfere with some activities of the dwelling occupants as the sound levels exceed the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria. This dwelling unit has been fitted with a forced air heating system and the ducting, etc. was sized to accommodate central air conditioning. Installation of central air conditioning by the occupant will allow windows and exterior doors to remain closed, thereby ensuring that the indoor sound levels are within the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria. (Note: The location and installation of the outdoor air conditioning device should be done so as to comply with noise criteria of MOE Publication NPC-216, Residential Air Conditioning Devices and thus minimize the noise impacts both on and in the immediate vicinity of the subject property.)

36. Harmonized Sales Taxes

(a) (i) The Purchase Price set out above includes the HST net of Rebates as provided for in this agreement, being hereinbefore defined as the Net HST, and the Purchase Price has been established on the basis that the Rebate or Rebates, as applicable, will be assigned to the Vendor, in addition to such Purchase Price. The current rate of HST is 13 percent and this is the rate that is applicable to this contract before netting out the Rebates from such HST. Purchasers are advised that the Purchase Price offered to the Purchaser has been calculated on the basis that the Purchaser shall qualify for and assign to and/or reimburse the Vendor the maximum Rebate based on the Purchase Price set out herein as adjusted, save and except as hereinafter set out to the contrary and this is what is meant in paragraph 2 when the Purchase Price is stipulated to be "inclusive of Harmonized Sales Taxes net of all Rebates". This can also be stated as (and with the Purchaser acknowledging and agreeing to) the HST being applicable to this agreement being calculated on the basis of the Purchase Price less the Net HST. Subject to section 36(d) herein, the Vendor covenants and agrees to credit the Purchaser on Closing with all Rebates to which the Purchaser is entitled, subject to the Purchaser assigning and/or transferring the Rebates to the Vendor and/or reimbursing the Vendor for such Rebates as hereinafter set out.

(ii) If the rate of HST is increased or decreased or the percentage of calculation of the Rebate is amended, or the rate or thresholds in respect of the HST exemptions or rebate entitlement are changed between the date of this Agreement and the Occupancy Date or Closing Date, with the result that the net amount of the HST to be remitted by the Vendor increases, then the Purchaser shall pay the Vendor an amount on the Occupancy Date or Closing Date equal to such additional HST payable by the Vendor. A statutory declaration of any officer of the Vendor as to the alteration, increase amendment, etc., as hereinbefore set out shall be determinative in this regard.

(iii) If the rate of the HST is reduced between the date of this agreement and the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date but such reduction is for the benefit of the Purchaser and not the Vendor (the "HST Credit"), then the Purchaser hereby assigns all right, benefit and entitlement to such HST Credit and shall execute any and all forms, documents, assignments, etc., as required by the Vendor in this regard in the Vendor's absolute discretion. The Purchaser hereby irrevocably assigns to the Vendor all of the Purchaser's rights, interests and entitlements to the HST Credit (and concomitantly releases all of the Purchaser's claims to or interests in the HST Credit, to and in favour of the Vendor), and hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the HST Credit directly to the Vendor.

(iv) The Purchaser covenants and warrants (which covenant and warranty shall survive the completion of this agreement) that it has not made any claim and will not make any claim for any Rebate or HST Credit in respect of the Unit.

(v) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the Purchaser agrees that the Purchase Price for the Property, set out on page 1 of this Agreement, does not include HST on closing adjustments and amounts payable for Extras and/or upgrades purchased or ordered by the Purchaser (whether as part of this Agreement or otherwise) payable under this Agreement and that same are subject to HST on the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date and that such HST shall be chargeable and payable by the Purchaser in addition to any other HST included in the Purchase Price. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the HST payable in respect of such adjustments and/or Extras and/or upgrades shall be at the rate of HST otherwise applicable to this Agreement.

(b) The Purchaser hereby irrevocably assigns to the Vendor all of the Purchaser's rights, interests and entitlements to the Rebate (and concomitantly releases all of the Purchaser's claims to or interests in the Rebate, to and in favour of the Vendor), and hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the Rebate directly to the Vendor. The Purchaser shall receive a credit on closing for such Rebate (provided to the extent he/she qualifies for same) if required by law in order for such Rebate to be assigned, transferred or reimbursed to the Vendor. The Purchaser represents and warrants that the Purchaser is acquiring the Property for his or his blood relative's primary place of residence within the meaning of the Excise Tax Act (Canada) or Income Tax Act (Canada) or any replacement statute and is entitled to the maximum amount of the Rebate applicable to purchase transactions of this nature at the Purchase Price set out in this Agreement. In the event that there are separate assignments and rebates of the provincial and/or federal portion of the HST with respect to this transaction, the Purchaser shall execute and deliver all applications, assignments, declarations, documents and/or other assurances (in the form required by the Vendor or the Government of Canada and/or the Province of Ontario) to the Vendor required to establish and assign all of his or her right, title and interest in the Rebate or any portion thereof. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that the Vendor shall have the right to determine whether the Purchaser qualifies for any Rebates and the Vendor's determination of such entitlement shall be final and binding. The Purchaser hereby covenants, warrants and/or represents to the Vendor, with respect to this transaction, that:

(i) the Purchaser is a natural person who is acquiring the Property with the intention of being the sole beneficial owner thereof of on the Closing Date (and not as the agent or trustee for or on behalf of any other party or parties),

(ii) upon the Occupancy Date and continuing up to and including the Closing Date, the Purchaser or one or more of the Purchaser's blood relations, as determined in accordance with the Excise Tax Act (Canada) and Income Tax Act (Canada), shall personally occupy the Unit as his, her or their primary place of residence, for such period of time as shall be required by the applicable legislation in order to entitle the Purchaser to the Rebate (and the ultimate assignment thereof to and in favour of the Vendor) in respect of the Purchaser's acquisition of the Unit; and

(iii) he or she has not claimed (and hereby covenants not to hereafter claim), for the Purchaser's own account, any part of the Rebate in connection with the Purchaser's acquisition of the Unit, save as otherwise hereinafter expressly provided or contemplated or permitted.

(c) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the total consideration for the calculation of HST includes not only the Purchase Price but all other taxable supplies charged to the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise including without limitation, Extras, upgrades, applicable adjustments and/or reimbursements charged by the Vendor under this Agreement such as enrolment fees, connections fees, as well as any charge for development charge levies and education levies or other levies and charges, etc. (with such additional amounts hereinafter referred to as the "Additional Charges"), the costs of which the Vendor may charge to the Purchaser. The Additional Charges and applicable HST shall constitute part of the taxable supply with respect to the said transaction and shall be added to the Purchase Price to determine the total consideration upon which HST is calculated; and

(ii) any Extras or Additional Charge is part of the single supply of the home and for HST purposes constitutes a change in the price being paid for the home and for the purposes of HST shall be deemed to form part of the Purchase Price.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if it is determined by the Vendor, in its sole, subjective, and absolute discretion, that the Purchaser is not entitled to the maximum permitted Rebate or any portion thereof (including any portion of same the Purchaser becomes disentitled to as a result of an increase in the total consideration payable hereunder as a result of any Additional Charges, Extras, etc., purchased or payable by the Purchaser), the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor, in addition to any other amounts stipulated in this Agreement, the amount of the Rebate to which the Purchaser becomes disentitled, (which shall be paid on the Occupancy Date or Closing Date as a requirement of closing), and until so paid, such amount shall form a charge/vendor's lien against the Units and/or Property, which charge shall be recoverable by the Vendor in the same manner as a mortgage in default. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any loss, cost, damage and/or liability (including without limitation, legal fees and disbursements, and an amount equivalent to the Rebate, plus penalties and interest thereon) which the Vendor may suffer, incur or be charged with, as a result of the Purchaser's failure to qualify for the maximum permitted Rebate, or as a result of the Purchaser having qualified initially but being subsequently disentitled to the Rebate, or as a result of the inability to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor (or the ineffectiveness of the documents purporting to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor) and such amounts shall be deemed to comprise a Vendor's lien registrable on title to the Unit and/or Property.

(e) The Purchaser covenants and agrees that in the event of any amendment, revival, novation, re-instatement of this agreement, acquisition of Extras or upgrades, or any other action of the Purchaser results in the Rebate or HST Credit not being assignable, in whole or in part, then the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor on the Occupancy Date or Closing Date the amount of the Rebate or HST Credit which the Vendor does not receive or become entitled to.

(f) The Purchaser covenants and agrees that any breach by it of the provisions as set out in these foregoing sections dealing with HST shall be deemed to be a fundamental breach by the Purchaser and the Vendor, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor (at law or in equity) may, at its sole option, unilaterally suspend all of the Purchaser's rights, benefits and privileges contained herein (including without limitation, the right to make colour and finish selections with respect to the Unit as hereinbefore provided or contemplated), and/or may unilaterally declare this Agreement and the Occupancy License to be terminated and of no further force or effect, whereupon all deposit monies theretofore paid, together with all monies paid for any extras or changes to the Unit, may be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at law or in equity.

37. Size of Unit

The Purchaser acknowledges that the location of mechanical and other service installations may or may not be shown on sales brochures and, in any event, such mechanical and other service installations will be located in accordance with approved plans and/or good construction practices, as determined by the Vendor in its sole and absolute discretion, which may result in room size reductions commensurate with the mechanical and other service installations being installed. The Purchaser acknowledges that the suite area of the Unit, as may be represented or referred to by the Vendor or any sales agent, or which appear in any sales material is approximate only, and is generally measured to the outside of all exterior, corridor and stairwell walls, and to the centre line of all party walls separating one unit from another. NOTE: For more information on the method of calculating the floor area of any unit, reference should be made to appropriate Builder Bulletin published by Tarion. Actual useable floor space may vary from any stated or represented floor area or gross floor area, and the extent of the actual or useable living space within the confines of the Unit may vary from any represented square footage or floor area measurement(s) made by or on behalf of the Vendor. In addition, the Purchaser is advised that the floor area measurements and supporting column and other wall sizes are generally calculated based on the middle floor of the Condominium building for each suite type, such that units on lower floors may have less floor space or larger supporting columns and other walls due to thicker structural members, while units on higher floors may have more floor space or thinner supporting columns and walls. Accordingly, the Purchaser hereby confirms and agrees that all details and dimensions of the Unit purchased hereunder are approximate only, and that in the event the dimensions or square footage of the Unit and/or dimensions or square footage of any room or area or structure within the Unit as measured in accordance with the appropriate Tarion Builder Bulletin are varied from those specified in this Agreement or as shown on any sales brochure, floor plan or other marketing documents, or any or all of the foregoing, the Purchaser agrees to accept all such variations without notice and without claim for compensation or abatement in the purchase price and this Agreement shall be read with all amendments required thereby. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the ceiling height of the Unit is measured from the upper surface of the concrete floor slab (or subfloor) to the underside surface of the concrete ceiling slab (or joists). However, where ceiling bulkheads are installed within the Unit, and/or where dropped ceilings are required, then the ceiling height of the Unit will be less than that represented, and the Purchaser shall correspondingly be obliged to accept the same without any abatement or claim for compensation whatsoever.

38. Deposit Receipt

The Purchaser hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Vendor to be and act as their lawful attorney, pursuant to the provisions of the Powers of Attorney Act, R.S.O. 1990 as amended from time to time, in the Purchaser's name, place and stead, in order to execute the deposit receipt issued pursuant to Tarion and the regulations thereunder as may be amended from time to time, and any excess condominium deposit insurance policy (and related documents) issued by any insurer or bonding company providing prescribed security for the Purchaser's deposit monies pursuant to the Act if, in fact, same is procured by the Vendor. In accordance with the provisions of the Powers of Attorney Act, R.S.O. 1990 as amended, the Purchaser hereby confirms and agrees that this power of attorney may be exercised by the Vendor during any subsequent legal incapacity of the Purchaser.

39. Deposits

All deposits paid by the Purchaser shall be held by the Vendor's solicitors in accordance with the Act and shall be released only in accordance with the provisions of section 81 of the Act and the regulations thereto, as amended. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that for the purposes of subsection 81(6) of the Act, compliance with the requirement to provide written evidence in the form prescribed by the Act of payment of monies by or on behalf of the Purchaser on account of the purchase price of the Unit shall be deemed to have been sufficiently made by delivery of such written evidence to the address of the Purchaser noted on the front page of this Agreement to which this Schedule is attached. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that any deposit cheques provided to the Vendor upon execution of this Agreement will not be deposited and accordingly interest as prescribed by the Act will not accrue thereon until after the expiry of the ten (10) day rescission period as provided for in Section 73 of the Act (or any extension thereof as may be agreed to in writing by the Vendor). The Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor on the Occupancy Date or Closing the Vendor's solicitors charges for each evidence of compliance delivered to the Purchaser or its solicitors, pursuant to subsection 81(6) of the Act. The Purchaser represents and warrants that the Purchaser is not a non-resident of Canada within the meaning of the Income Tax Act of Canada ("ITA"). If the Purchaser is not a resident of Canada for the purposes of the ITA, the Vendor shall be entitled to withhold and remit to Revenue Canada, the appropriate amount of interest payable to the Purchaser on account of the deposits paid hereunder, under the ITA. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Vendor shall be permitted to transfer deposit funds from one solicitors trust account to another solicitors trust account, in its sole discretion. Upon the transfer of any such deposit funds the new solicitor shall provide the Purchaser with notice that such deposit funds have been transferred.

40. Powers of Attorney

If any documents required to be executed and delivered by the Purchaser to the Vendor are, in fact, executed by a third party appointed as the attorney for the Purchaser, then the power of attorney appointing such person must be registered in the applicable Land Titles office, and a duplicate registered copy thereof (together with a statutory declaration sworn by the Purchaser's solicitor unequivocally confirming, without any qualification whatsoever, that said power of attorney has not been revoked) shall be delivered to the Vendor along with such documents.

41. Purchaser's Consent To The Collection And Limited Use Of Personal Information

For the purposes of facilitating compliance with the provisions of any applicable Federal and/or Provincial privacy legislation (including without limitation, the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act S.C. 2000, as amended), the Purchaser hereby consents to the Vendor's collection and use of the Purchaser's personal information necessary and sufficient to enable the Vendor to proceed with the Purchaser's purchase of the Unit, including without limitation, the Purchaser's name, home address, e-mail address, telefax/telephone number, age, date of birth, and in respect of marital status only for the limited purposes described in subparagraphs (c), (d), (h), (i) and (j) below, and in respect of residency status, and social insurance number only for the limited purpose described in subparagraph (i) and (j) below, as well as the Purchaser's financial information and desired suite design(s) and colour/finish selections, in connection with the completion of this transaction and for post-closing and after-sales customer care purposes, and to the disclosure and/or distribution of any or all of such personal information to the following entities, on the express understanding and agreement that the Vendor shall not sell or otherwise provide or distribute such personal information to anyone other than the following entities, namely to:

a) any companies or legal entities that are associated with, related to or affiliated with the Vendor, as well as other future condominium declarants that are likewise associated with, related to or affiliated with the Vendor (or with the Vendor's parent/holding company) and are developing one or more other condominium projects or communities that may be of interest to the Purchaser or members of the Purchaser's family, for the limited purposes of marketing, advertising and/or selling various products and/or services to the Purchaser and/or members of the Purchaser's family;

b) one or more third party data processing companies which handle or process marketing campaigns on behalf of the Vendor or other companies that are associated with, related to or affiliated with the Vendor, and who may send (by e-mail or other means) promotional literature/brochures about new condominiums and/or related services to the Purchaser and/or members of the Purchaser's family;

c) any financial institution(s) providing (or wishing to provide) mortgage financing, banking and/or other financial or related services to the Purchaser and/or members of the Purchaser's family;

d) any private lender(s) or financial institution(s) or their assignee or successor, providing (or wishing to provide) financing, or mortgage financing, banking and/or other financial or related services to the Vendor, the Tarion Warranty Corporation and/or any warranty bond provider and/or excess condominium deposit insurer, required in connection with the development and/or construction financing of the Condominium;

e) any insurance companies providing (or wishing to provide) insurance coverage with respect to the Property (or any portion thereof) and/or the common elements of the Condominium, including without limitation, any title insurance companies providing (or wishing to provide) title insurance to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's mortgage lender(s) in connection with the completion of this transaction;

f) any trades/suppliers or sub-trades/suppliers, who have been retained by or on behalf of the Vendor (or who are otherwise dealing with the Vendor) to facilitate the completion and finishing of the Unit and the installation of any extras or upgrades ordered or requested by the Purchaser;

g) one or more providers of cable television, cable communication, internet service, telephone, telecommunication, security alarm systems, hydro-electricity, chilled water/hot water, gas and/or other similar or related services to the Property (or any portion thereof) and/or the Condominium, unless the Purchaser advises the Vendor in writing not to provide such personal information to any such entity;

h) any relevant governmental authorities or agencies, including without limitation, the Land Titles Office (in which the Condominium is registered), the Ministry of Finance for the Province of Ontario (i.e. with respect to Land Transfer Tax), and Canada Revenue Agency (i.e. with respect to HST);

i) Canada Revenue Agency, to whose attention the appropriate interest income tax information return and/or the non-resident withholding tax information return is submitted (where applicable), which will contain or refer to the Purchaser's social insurance number or business registration number (as the case may be), as required by Regulation 201(l)(b)(ii) of The Income Tax Act R.S.C. 1985, as amended, or for the benefit of the Vendor or its related or parent company where the Purchaser has agreed to provide financial information to the Vendor to confirm the Purchaser’s ability to complete the transaction contemplated by the agreement of purchase and sale, including the Purchaser’s ability to obtain sufficient mortgage financing;

j) the Vendor's solicitors, to facilitate the interim occupancy and/or final closing of this transaction, including the closing by electronic means via the Teraview Electronic Registration System, and which may (in turn) involve the disclosure of such personal information to an internet application service provider for distribution of documentation;

k) the condominium corporation, for purposes of facilitating the completion of the corporation's voting, leasing and/or other relevant records, and to the condominium's property manager for the purposes of facilitating the issuance of notices, the collection of common expenses and/or implementing other condominium management/administration functions;

l) the Vendor’s accountants and/or auditors who will prepare the Vendor’s regular financial statements and audits; and

m) any person, where the Purchaser further consents to such disclosure or disclosures required by-law.

42. Purchaser Selling or Assigning

This Agreement is not assignable or transferable in any manner whatsoever by the Purchaser, and the Purchaser covenants not to offer, list or advertise for sale, lease or transfer the Unit, nor to sell, lease, assign or transfer his interest under this Agreement (or in the Unit) until after acquisition of title to the Unit on the Unit Transfer Date. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that once a breach of the preceding covenant occurs, such breach is (or shall be) incapable of rectification, and accordingly the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that in the event of such breach, the Vendor shall have the unilateral right and option of terminating this Agreement

(and the Occupancy Agreement) effective upon delivery of notice of termination to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor, whereupon the provisions of this Agreement dealing with the consequence of termination by reason of the Purchaser's default, shall apply. At any time prior to the Unit Transfer Date, the Vendor shall be permitted to assign this Agreement to any party registered as a Vendor pursuant to the Warranty Act, and upon notification of assumption of this Agreement and such assignment to the Purchaser, the Vendor shall be automatically released from all obligations arising pursuant to this Agreement and the assignee shall continue from the date of such assignment as the Vendor as if it had been the original party to this Agreement.

1. Setting the Firm Occupancy Date

(a) Completing Construction Without Delay: The Vendor shall take all reasonable steps to complete construction of the Building subject to all prescribed requirements, to provide Occupancy of the home without delay, and, to register without delay the declaration and description in respect of the Building.
(b) Firm Occupancy Date: The Vendor shall set out a Firm Occupancy Date which shall be set out in the Statement of Critical Dates at the time the Purchase Agreement is signed.

2. Changing the Firm Occupancy Date – Three Ways

(a) The Firm Occupancy Date can be changed only:
  (i) by the Vendor setting a Delayed Occupancy Date in accordance with section 3;
  (ii) by the mutual written agreement of the Vendor and Purchaser in accordance with section 4; or
  (iii) as the result of an Unavoidable Delay of which proper written notice is given in accordance with section 5.
(b) If a new Firm Occupancy Date is set in accordance with section 4 or 5, then the new date is the "Firm Occupancy Date" for all purposes in this Addendum.

3. Changing the Firm Occupancy Date – By Setting a Delayed Occupancy Date

(a) If the Vendor cannot provide Occupancy on the Firm Occupancy Date and sections 4 and 5 do not apply, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a Delayed Occupancy Date in accordance with this section, and delayed occupancy compensation is payable in accordance with section 7.
(b) The Delayed Occupancy Date may be any Business Day after the date the Purchaser receives written notice of the Delayed Occupancy Date but not later than the Outside Occupancy Date.
(c) The Vendor shall give written notice to the Purchaser of the Delayed Occupancy Date as soon as the Vendor knows that it will be unable to provide Occupancy on the Firm Occupancy Date, and in any event at least 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, failing which delayed occupancy compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, in accordance with paragraph 7(c). If notice of a new Delayed Occupancy Date is not given by the Vendor before the Firm Occupancy Date, then the new Delayed Occupancy Date shall be deemed to be the date which is 90 days after the Firm Occupancy Date.
(d) After the Delayed Occupancy Date is set, if the Vendor cannot provide Occupancy on the Delayed Occupancy Date, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a new Delayed Occupancy Date, unless the delay arises due to Unavoidable Delay under section 5 or is mutually agreed upon under section 4, in which case the requirements of those sections must be met. Paragraphs (b) and (c) above apply with respect to the setting of the new Delayed Occupancy Date.
(e) Nothing in this section affects the right of the Purchaser or Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement on the bases set out in section 10.

4. Changing Critical Dates – By Mutual Agreement

(a) This Addendum sets out a framework for setting, extending and/or accelerating Critical Dates, which cannot be altered contractually except as set out in this section 4. Any amendment not in accordance with this section is voidable at the option of the Purchaser. For greater certainty, this Addendum does not restrict any extensions of the Closing date (i.e., title transfer date) where Occupancy of the home has already been given to the Purchaser.
(b) The Vendor and Purchaser may at any time, after signing the Purchase Agreement, mutually agree in writing to accelerate or extend any of the Critical Dates. Any amendment which accelerates or extends any of the Critical Dates must include the following provisions:

  (i) the Purchaser and Vendor agree that the amendment is entirely voluntary – the Purchaser has no obligation to sign the amendment and each understands that this purchase transaction will still be valid if the Purchaser does not sign this amendment;
  (ii) the amendment includes a revised Statement of Critical Dates which replaces the previous Statement of Critical Dates;
  (iii) the Purchaser acknowledges that the amendment may affect delayed occupancy compensation payable; and
  (iv) if the change involves extending either the Firm Occupancy Date or the Delayed Occupancy Date, then the amending agreement shall:

    i. disclose to the Purchaser that the signing of the amendment may result in the loss of delayed occupancy compensation as described in section 7;
    ii. unless there is an express waiver of compensation, describe in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation; and
    iii. contain a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser waives compensation or accepts the compensation referred to in clause ii above, in either case, in full satisfaction of any delayed occupancy compensation payable by the Vendor for the period up to the new Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date.

  If the Purchaser for his or her own purposes requests a change of the Firm Occupancy Date or the Delayed Occupancy Date, then subparagraphs (b)(i), (iii) and (iv) above shall not apply.

(c) A Vendor is permitted to include a provision in the Purchase Agreement allowing the Vendor a one-time unilateral right to extend a Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be, for one (1) Business Day to avoid the necessity of tender where a Purchaser is not ready to complete the transaction on the Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be. Delayed occupancy compensation will not be payable for such period and the Vendor may not impose any penalty or interest charge upon the Purchaser with respect to such extension.
(d) The Vendor and Purchaser may agree in the Purchase Agreement to any unilateral extension or acceleration rights that are for the benefit of the Purchaser.

5. Extending Dates – Due to Unavoidable Delay

(a) If Unavoidable Delay occurs, the Vendor may extend Critical Dates by no more than the length of the Unavoidable Delay Period, without the approval of the Purchaser and without the requirement to pay delayed occupancy compensation in connection with the Unavoidable Delay, provided the requirements of this section are met.
(b) If the Vendor wishes to extend Critical Dates on account of Unavoidable Delay, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, and an estimate of the duration of the delay. Once the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has commenced, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser by the earlier of: 20 days thereafter; and the next Critical Date.
(c) As soon as reasonably possible, and no later than 20 days after the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has concluded, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, identifying the date of its conclusion, and setting new Critical Dates. The new Critical Dates are calculated by adding to the then next Critical Date the number of days of the Unavoidable Delay Period (the other Critical Dates changing accordingly), provided that the Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be, must be at least 10 days after the day of giving notice unless the parties agree otherwise. Either the Vendor or the Purchaser may request in writing an earlier Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, and the other party's consent to the earlier date shall not be unreasonably withheld.
(d) If the Vendor fails to give written notice of the conclusion of the Unavoidable Delay in the manner required by paragraph (c) above, then the notice is ineffective, the existing Critical Dates are unchanged, and any delayed occupancy compensation payable under section 7 is payable from the existing Firm Occupancy Date.
(e) Any notice setting new Critical Dates given by the Vendor under this section shall include an updated revised Statement of Critical Dates.

6. Early Termination Conditions

(a) The Vendor and Purchaser may include conditions in the Purchase Agreement that, if not satisfied, give rise to early termination of the Purchase Agreement, but only in the limited way described in this section.
(b) The Vendor is not permitted to include any conditions in the Purchase Agreement other than: the types of Early Termination Conditions listed in Schedule A; and/or the conditions referred to in paragraphs (i), (j) and (k) below. Any other condition included in a Purchase Agreement for the benefit of the Vendor that is not expressly permitted under Schedule A or paragraphs (i), (j) and (k) below is deemed null and void and is not enforceable by the Vendor, but does not affect the validity of the balance of the Purchase Agreement.
(c) The Vendor confirms that this Purchase Agreement is subject to Early Termination Conditions that, if not satisfied (or waived, if applicable), may result in the termination of the Purchase Agreement. ○ Yes ○ No
(d) If the answer in (c) above is "Yes", then the Early Termination Conditions are as follows. The obligation of each of the Purchaser and Vendor to complete this purchase and sale transaction is subject to satisfaction (or waiver, if applicable) of the following conditions and any such conditions set out in an appendix headed "Early Termination Conditions":

Condition #1 (if applicable)
Description of the Early Termination Condition:

N/A

The Approving Authority (as that term is defined in Schedule A) is: N/A

The date by which Condition #1 is to be satisfied is the _____day of_____, 20 _____.

Description of the Early Termination Condition:

N/A

The Approving Authority (as that term is defined in Schedule A) is: N/A

The date by which Condition #2 is to be satisfied is the _____day of _____, 20_____.

The date for satisfaction of any Early Termination Condition may be changed by mutual agreement provided in all cases it is set at least 90 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, and will be deemed to be 90 days before the Firm Occupancy Date if no date is specified or if the date specified is later than 90 days before the Firm Occupancy Date. This time limitation does not apply to the condition in subparagraph 1(b)(iv) of Schedule A which must be satisfied or waived by the Vendor within 60 days following the later of: (A) the signing of the Purchase Agreement; and (B) the satisfaction or waiver by the Purchaser of a Purchaser financing condition permitted under paragraph (k) below.

Note: The parties must add additional pages as an appendix to this Addendum if there are additional Early Termination Conditions.

(e) There are no Early Termination Conditions applicable to this Purchase Agreement other than those identified in subparagraph (d) above and any appendix listing additional Early Termination Conditions.
(f) The Vendor agrees to take all commercially reasonable steps within its power to satisfy the Early Termination Conditions identified in subparagraph (d) above.
(g) For conditions under paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A the following applies:

(i) conditions in paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A may not be waived by either party;
(ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice not later than five (5) Business Days after the date specified for satisfaction of a condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied (together with reasonable details and backup materials) and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
(iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed not satisfied and the Purchase Agreement is terminated.

(h) For conditions under paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A the following applies:

(i) conditions in paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A may be waived by the Vendor;
(ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice on or before the date specified for satisfaction of the condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied or waived; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied nor waived, and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
(iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed satisfied or waived and the Purchase Agreement will continue to be binding on both parties.

(i) The Purchase Agreement may be conditional until Closing (transfer to the Purchaser of title to the home), upon compliance with the subdivision control provisions (section 50) of the Planning Act and, if applicable, registration of the declaration and description for the Building under the Condominium Act, 1998, which compliance shall be obtained by the Vendor at its sole expense, on or before Closing.
(j) The Purchaser is cautioned that there may be other conditions in the Purchase Agreement that allow the Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement due to the fault of the Purchaser.
(k) The Purchase Agreement may include any condition that is for the sole benefit of the Purchaser and that is agreed to by the Vendor (e.g., the sale of an existing dwelling, Purchaser financing or a basement walkout). The Purchase Agreement may specify that the Purchaser has a right to terminate the Purchase Agreement if any such condition is not met, and may set out the terms on which termination by the Purchaser may be effected.

MAKING A COMPENSATION CLAIM

7. Delayed Occupancy Compensation

(a) The Vendor warrants to the Purchaser that, if Occupancy is delayed beyond the Firm Occupancy Date (other than by mutual agreement or as a result of Unavoidable Delay as permitted under sections 4 and 5), then the Vendor shall compensate the Purchaser up to a total amount of $7,500, which amount includes: (i) payment to the Purchaser of a set amount of $150 a day for living expenses for each day of delay until the Occupancy Date or the date of termination of the Purchase Agreement, as applicable under paragraph (b) below; and (ii) any other expenses (supported by receipts) incurred by the Purchaser due to the delay.

(b) Delayed occupancy compensation is payable only if: (i) Occupancy and Closing occurs; or (ii) the Purchase Agreement is terminated or deemed to have been terminated under paragraph 10(b) of this Addendum. Delayed occupancy compensation is payable only if the Purchaser's claim is made to Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Occupancy, or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and otherwise in accordance with this Addendum. Compensation claims are subject to any further conditions set out in the ONHWP Act.

(c) If the Vendor gives written notice of a Delayed Occupancy Date to the Purchaser less than 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, contrary to the requirements of paragraph 3(c), then delayed occupancy compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date.

(d) Living expenses are direct living costs such as for accommodation and meals. Receipts are not required in support of a claim for living expenses, as a set daily amount of $150 per day is payable. The Purchaser must provide receipts in support of any claim for other delayed occupancy compensation, such as for moving and storage costs. Submission of false receipts disentitles the Purchaser to any delayed occupancy compensation in connection with a claim.

(e) If delayed occupancy compensation is payable, the Purchaser may make a claim to the Vendor for that compensation after Occupancy or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and shall include all receipts (apart from living expenses) which evidence any part of the Purchaser's claim. The Vendor shall assess the Purchaser's claim by determining the amount of delayed occupancy compensation payable based on the rules set out in section 7 and the receipts provided by the Purchaser, and the Vendor shall promptly provide that assessment information to the Purchaser. The Purchaser and the Vendor shall use reasonable efforts to settle the claim and when the claim is settled, the Vendor shall prepare an acknowledgement signed by both parties which:

  (i) includes the Vendor's assessment of the delayed occupancy compensation payable;
  (ii) describes in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation (the "Compensation"), if any; and
  (iii) contains a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser accepts the Compensation in full satisfaction of any delayed occupancy compensation payable by the Vendor.

(f) If the Vendor and Purchaser cannot agree as contemplated in paragraph 7(e), then to make a claim to Tarion the Purchaser must file a claim with Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Occupancy. A claim may also be made and the same rules apply if the sale transaction is terminated under paragraph 10(b), in which case, the deadline for a claim is one (1) year after termination.

(g) If delayed occupancy compensation is payable, the Vendor shall either: pay the compensation as soon as the proper amount is determined; or pay such amount with interest (at the prescribed rate as specified in subsection 19(1) of O.Reg. 48/01 of the Condominium Act, 1998), from the Occupancy Date to the date of Closing, such amount to be an adjustment to the balance due on the day of Closing.

8. Adjustments to Purchase Price

Only the items set out in Schedule B (or an amendment to Schedule B), shall be the subject of adjustment or change to the purchase price or the balance due on Closing. The Vendor agrees that it shall not charge as an adjustment or readjustment to the purchase price of the home, any reimbursement for a sum paid or payable by the Vendor to a third party unless the sum is ultimately paid to the third party either before or after Closing. If the Vendor charges an amount in contravention of the preceding sentence, the Vendor shall forthwith readjust with the Purchaser. This section shall not: restrict or prohibit payments for items disclosed in Part I of Schedule B which have a fixed fee; nor shall it restrict or prohibit the parties from agreeing on how to allocate as between them, any rebates, refunds or incentives provided by the federal government, a provincial or municipal government or an agency of any such government, before or after Closing.

MISCELLANEOUS

9. Ontario Building Code – Conditions of Occupancy

(a) On or before the Occupancy Date, the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser:
  (i) an Occupancy Permit (as defined in paragraph (d)) for the home; or
  (ii) if an Occupancy Permit is not required under the Building Code, a signed written confirmation by the Vendor that all conditions of occupancy under the Building Code have been fulfilled and Occupancy is permitted under the Building Code.

(b) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (a), to the extent that the Purchaser and the Vendor agree that the Purchaser shall be responsible for one or more prerequisites to obtaining permission for Occupancy under the Building Code, (the "Purchaser Occupancy Obligations"):
  (i) the Purchaser shall not be entitled to delayed occupancy compensation if the reason for the delay is that the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations have not been completed;
  (ii) the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser, upon fulfilling all prerequisites to obtaining permission for Occupancy under the Building Code (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations), a signed written confirmation that the Vendor has fulfilled such prerequisites; and
  (iii) if the Purchaser and Vendor have agreed that such prerequisites (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations) are to be fulfilled prior to Occupancy, then the Vendor shall provide the signed written confirmation required by subparagraph (ii) on or before the Occupancy Date.

(c) If the Vendor cannot satisfy the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), the Vendor shall set a Delayed Occupancy Date (or new Delayed Occupancy Date) on a date that the Vendor reasonably expects to have satisfied the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), as the case may be. In setting the Delayed Occupancy Date (or new Delayed Occupancy Date), the Vendor shall comply with the requirements of section 3, and delayed occupancy compensation shall be payable in accordance with section 7. Despite the foregoing, delayed occupancy compensation shall not be payable for a delay under this paragraph (c) if the inability to satisfy the requirements of subparagraph (b)(ii) is because the Purchaser has failed to satisfy the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations.

(d) For the purposes of this section, an "Occupancy Permit" means any written or electronic document, however styled, whether final, provisional or temporary, provided by the chief building official (as defined in the Building Code Act) or a person designated by the chief building official, that evidences that permission to occupy the home under the Building Code has been granted.

10. Termination of the Purchase Agreement

(a) The Vendor and the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by mutual written agreement. Such written mutual agreement may specify how monies paid by the Purchaser, including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras are to be allocated if not repaid in full.

(b) If for any reason (other than breach of contract by the Purchaser) Occupancy has not been given to the Purchaser by the Outside Occupancy Date, then the Purchaser has 30 days to terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor. If the Purchaser does not provide written notice of termination within such 30-day period, then the Purchase Agreement shall continue to be binding on both parties and the Delayed Occupancy Date shall be the date set under paragraph 3(c), regardless of whether such date is beyond the Outside Occupancy Date.

(c) If: calendar dates for the applicable Critical Dates are not inserted in the Statement of Critical Dates; or if any date for Occupancy is expressed in the Purchase Agreement or in any other document to be subject to change depending upon the happening of an event (other than as permitted in this Addendum), then the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor.

(d) The Purchase Agreement may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of section 6.

(e) Nothing in this Addendum derogates from any right of termination that either the Purchaser or the Vendor may have at law or in equity on the basis of, for example, frustration of contract or fundamental breach of contract.

(f) Except as permitted in this section, the Purchase Agreement may not be terminated by reason of the Vendor's delay in providing Occupancy alone.

11. Refund of Monies Paid on Termination

(a) If the Purchase Agreement is terminated (other than as a result of breach of contract by the Purchaser), then unless there is agreement to the contrary under paragraph 10(a), the Vendor shall refund all monies paid by the Purchaser including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras, within 10 days of such termination, with interest from the date each amount was paid to the Vendor to the date of refund to the Purchaser. The Purchaser cannot be compelled by the Vendor to execute a release of the Vendor as a prerequisite to obtaining the refund of monies payable as a result of termination of the Purchase Agreement under this paragraph, although the Purchaser may be required to sign a written acknowledgement confirming the amount of monies refunded and termination of the purchase transaction. Nothing in this Addendum prevents the Vendor and Purchaser from entering into such other termination agreement and/or release as may be agreed to by the parties.

(b) The rate of interest payable on the Purchaser's monies shall be calculated in accordance with the Condominium Act, 1998.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) above, if either party initiates legal proceedings to contest termination of the Purchase Agreement or the refund of monies paid by the Purchaser, and obtains a legal determination, such amounts and interest shall be payable as determined in those proceedings.

The Vendor and Purchaser agree that they shall not include any provision in the Purchase Agreement or any amendment to the Purchase Agreement or any other document (or indirectly do so through replacement of the Purchase Agreement) that derogates from, conflicts with or is inconsistent with the provisions of this Addendum, except where this Addendum expressly permits the parties to agree or consent to an alternative arrangement. These are additional charges, fees or other anticipated adjustments to the final purchase price or balance due on Closing, the dollar value of which is stipulated in the Purchase Agreement and set out below.

As provided under Schedule “D” of the Purchase Agreement:

4. Paragraph 2(n). $300.00, per charge, towards the cost of preparing and registering a (partial) discharge of any blanket mortgages;

5. Paragraph 2(o). $250.00 for electronic communication and registration costs;

6. Paragraph 23(a). The Purchaser also acknowledges that the Vendor and the Vendor's Solicitor may arrange for the project to be enrolled with a title insurer or insurers acceptable to the Vendor (the “Title Insurer") in order to centralize underwriting for the project and avoid unnecessary duplication of costs for purchasers and their solicitors. In the event that the Purchaser elects to obtain title insurance through the Title Insurer, the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall not be required to perform some or all of the following due diligence thereby saving the Purchaser significant transaction costs: title search and review of title search; preparation of requisition letter; prepare, send out and review responses to clearance letters; execution searches against the Vendor; and corporate status searches. As a result of the foregoing and regardless of whether the Purchaser obtains title insurance through the Title Insurer, the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor or its solicitors on the Closing Date an administration fee of $300.00 plus applicable taxes for enrolling the project with the Title Insurer and for preparing and delivering to the Purchaser's solicitor and Title Insurer a title advice statement;

In addition, the Purchaser shall pay any legal fees and disbursements charged by the Vendor's solicitors, plus applicable taxes, in connection with any such cheque which is returned N.S.F. or for which a Stop Payment has been ordered, as well as for the Purchaser's failure or delay in complying with the terms of this Agreement, which fees shall be paid forthwith upon demand by the Vendor or its solicitors;

9. Paragraph 52. In the event that the Purchaser desires to increase the amount to be paid to the Vendor's solicitor on the Occupancy Date at any time after the expiry of the initial ten (10) day statutory rescission period, or wishes to vary the manner in which the Purchaser has previously requested to take title to the Unit, or wishes to add or change any unit(s) being acquired from the Vendor, then the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor's Solicitors, either on the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, as determined by the Vendor, their legal fees in the amount of $350.00 plus HST, per request, in order to implement any such change, but without there being any obligation whatsoever on the part of the Vendor to approve of, or to implement, any of the foregoing changes so requested;

PART II All Other Adjustments – to be determined in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement

These are additional charges, fees or other anticipated adjustments to the final purchase price or balance due on Closing, which will be determined after signing the Purchase Agreement, all in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement.

1. Paragraph 2(a). Realty taxes and local improvement charges attributable to the Property, including pre-paid or secured property taxes of any kind, which shall be apportioned and adjusted on the Unit Transfer Date, with the Unit Transfer Date to be apportioned and the responsibility of the Purchaser. The aforementioned realty tax adjustment shall be subject to re-adjustment as and when the actual final assessment for the Property is available;

2. Paragraph 2(b). The Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date for the cost of any enrolment and/or regulatory fees paid by the Vendor for the POTL/Dwelling Unit under, pursuant to or as a requirement or prerequisite of any governmental authority and any of the following: the New Home Warranties Plan Act, New Home Construction Licensing Act, 2017, the Condominium Act, the Condominium Management Services Act, or by any of the regulators or authorities pursuant to any of the foregoing, including, without limitation, the Tarion Warranty Corporation, the Home Construction Regulatory Authority and/or the Condominium Authority of Ontario;

HARMONIZED SALES TAXES

4. (a) The Purchase Price set out above includes the HST net of Rebates as assigned/transferred to the Vendor, and the Purchase Price has been established on the basis that Purchaser will qualify for the full amount of the Rebate or Rebates, as applicable, and that the Rebate or Rebates will be assigned or an equivalent amount transferred or credited to the Vendor, in addition to such Purchase Price. The current rate of HST is 13 percent and this is the rate that is applicable to this contract before netting out the Rebates from such HST. Purchasers are advised that the Purchase Price offered to the Purchaser has been calculated on the basis that the Purchaser shall qualify for and assign to and/or transfer and/or reimburse the Vendor the maximum Rebate based on the Purchase Price set out herein as adjusted, save and except as hereinafter set out to the contrary. The Vendor shall credit the Purchaser on Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date as determined by the Vendor, with all Rebates to which the Purchaser is entitled, subject to the Purchaser assigning and/or transferring or crediting the Rebates (or an equivalent amount) to the Vendor and/or reimbursing the Vendor for such Rebates as hereinafter set out subject to the assignment/transfer/crediting of the Rebates to the Vendor. The Purchaser warrants and represents that he/she qualifies for the full amount of the Rebate possible with respect to this purchase transaction and that either he or she or a blood relation, as set out in the Income Tax Act (Canada), shall be occupying the Property from and after the Closing Date. In the event that there is any legislation of any Governmental Authority that does not permit the assignment of the Rebate then the Purchaser shall transfer, credit and/or pay an equivalent amount of the Rebate to the Vendor on Closing (or thereafter as applicable) and the Vendor shall be entitled to vendor's lien for such amount and the Purchaser acknowledges that this amount form part of the consideration due to the Vendor.

(b) If the rate of HST is increased or decreased or the percentage of calculation of the Rebate is amended/reduced, or the rate or thresholds in respect of the HST exemptions or rebate entitlement are changed between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date, with the result that the net amount of the HST to be remitted by the Vendor increases, then the Purchaser shall pay the Vendor an amount on the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date (as determined by the Vendor) equal to such additional HST payable by the Vendor. A statutory declaration of any officer of the Vendor as to the alteration, increase amendment, etc., as hereinbefore set out shall be determinative in this regard.

(c) If the rate of the HST is reduced between the date of this Agreement and the Unit Transfer Date but such reduction is for the benefit of the Purchaser and not the Vendor (the "HST Credit"), then the Purchaser hereby assigns all right, benefit and entitlement to such HST Credit and shall execute any and all forms, documents, assignments, etc., as required by the Vendor in this regard in the Vendor's absolute discretion. The Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the HST Credit directly to the Vendor.

(d) The Purchaser covenants and warrants (which covenant and warranty shall survive the completion of this Agreement) that he/she has not made any claim and will not make any claim for any Rebate or HST Credit in respect of the Property.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the Purchaser agrees that the Purchase Price for the Property, set out on page 1 of this Agreement, does not include HST on closing adjustments and amounts payable for Extras and/or upgrades purchased or ordered by the Purchaser (whether as part of this Agreement or otherwise) payable under this Agreement and that same are subject to HST on the Closing Date and/or the Unit Transfer Date and that such HST shall be chargeable and payable by the Purchaser in addition to any other HST included in the Purchase Price. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the HST payable in respect of such adjustments and/or Extras and/or upgrades shall be at the rate of HST otherwise applicable to this Agreement.

5. The Purchaser hereby irrevocably assigns and/or transfers to and/or credits the Vendor all of the Purchaser's rights, interests and entitlements to the Rebate (and concomitantly releases all of the Purchaser's claims to or interests in the Rebate, to and in favour of the Vendor), and hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the Rebate directly to the Vendor. The Purchaser represents and warrants that the Purchaser is acquiring the Property for his or his blood relative's primary place of

In the event that there are separate assignments and rebates of the provincial and/or federal portion of the HST with respect to this transaction, the Purchaser shall execute and deliver all applications, assignments, declarations, documents and/or other assurances (in the form required by the Vendor or the Government of Canada and/or the Province of Ontario) to the Vendor required to establish and assign all of his or her right, title and interest in the Rebates or any portion thereof. In the event that there is any legislation of any Governmental Authority that does not permit the assignment of the Rebate then the Purchaser shall transfer, credit and/or pay an equivalent amount of the Rebate to the Vendor on Closing (or thereafter as applicable) and the Vendor shall be entitled to vendor's lien for such amount and the Purchaser acknowledges that this amount form part of the consideration due to the Vendor. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that the Vendor shall have the right in its complete discretion to determine whether the Purchaser qualifies for any Rebates and the Vendor's determination of such entitlement shall be final and binding. The Purchaser hereby covenants, warrants and/or represents to the Vendor, with respect to this transaction, that:

(a) the Purchaser is a natural person who is acquiring the Property with the intention of being the sole beneficial owner thereof on the Unit Transfer Date (and not as the agent or trustee for or on behalf of any other party or parties),

(b) upon the Closing Date and continuing up to and including the Unit Transfer Date, and continuing thereafter, the Purchaser or one or more of the Purchaser's blood relations, as determined in accordance with the Excise Tax Act (Canada) and Income Tax Act (Canada), shall personally occupy the Property as his, her or their primary place of residence, for such period of time as shall be required by the applicable legislation in order to entitle the Purchaser to the Rebate (and the ultimate assignment thereof to and in favour of the Vendor) in respect of the Purchaser's acquisition of the Property; and

(c) he or she has not claimed (and hereby covenants not to hereafter claim), for the Purchaser's own account, any part of the Rebate in connection with the Purchaser's acquisition of the Property, save as otherwise hereinafter expressly provided or contemplated or permitted.

The Additional Charges and applicable HST shall constitute part of the taxable supply with respect to the said transaction and shall be added to the Purchase Price to determine the total consideration upon which HST and the Rebate are calculated; and

(b) any Extras and/or Additional Charges are part of the single supply of the home and for HST purposes constitutes a change in the price being paid for the Dwelling and for the purposes of HST shall be deemed to form part of the Purchase Price.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if it is determined by the Vendor, in its sole, subjective and absolute discretion, that the Purchaser is not entitled to the maximum permitted Rebate or any portion thereof (including any portion of same the Purchaser becomes disentitled to as a result of an increase in the total consideration payable hereunder as a result of any Additional Charges, Extras, etc., purchased or payable by the Purchaser), the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor, in addition to any other amounts stipulated in this Agreement, the amount of the Rebate to which the Purchaser becomes disentitled, (which shall be paid on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date as required by the Vendor as a requirement of closing), and until so paid, such amount shall form a charge/vendor's lien against the Property, which charge shall be recoverable by the Vendor in the same manner as a mortgage in default. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any loss, cost, damage and/or liability (including without limitation, legal fees and disbursements, and an amount equivalent to the Rebate, plus penalties and interest thereon) which the Vendor may suffer, incur or be charged with, as a result of the Purchaser's failure to qualify for the maximum permitted Rebate, or as a result of the Purchaser having qualified initially but being subsequently disentitled to the Rebate, or as a result of the inability to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor (or the ineffectiveness of the documents purporting to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor) and such amounts shall be deemed to comprise a vendor's lien registerable on title to the Property. If the Vendor determines that the Purchaser is not entitled to the Rebate at any time prior to the Unit Transfer Date then it shall be entitled to demand and the Purchaser shall pay, an additional deposit equal to an amount that is 20% of the Purchase Price as set out on Page 1 of this Agreement.

8. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that in the event of any amendment, revival, novation, re-instatement of this Agreement, acquisition of Extras or upgrades, or any other action of the Purchaser results in the Rebate or HST Credit not being assignable, in whole or in part, then the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor on the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date (as determined by the Vendor) the amount of the Rebate or HST Credit which the Vendor does not receive or become entitled to.

9. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that any breach by it of the provisions as set out in these foregoing sections dealing with HST shall be deemed to be a fundamental breach by the Purchaser and the Vendor, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor (at law or in equity) may, at its sole option, unilaterally suspend all of the Purchaser's rights, benefits and privileges contained herein (including without limitation, the right to make colour and finish selections with respect to the Property as hereinbefore provided or contemplated), and/or may unilaterally declare this Agreement to be terminated and of no further force or effect, whereupon all deposit monies theretofore paid, together with all monies paid for any extras or changes to the Property, may be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at contract, law or in equity.

In such event the transfer of title to the Property shall take place on the Unit Transfer Date. After the registration of the Creating Documents, the Vendor's Solicitors shall designate a date as the Unit Transfer Date by delivery of written notice of such date to the Purchaser or his Solicitor, as set out in the Addendum. If the Unit Transfer Date falls on a day when the relevant Land Registry Office is not open for business, the Unit Transfer Date shall be the day next following when the Land Registry Office is open for business. Save and except if prohibited by the Addendum, the Vendor shall have the right to extend the Unit Transfer Date one or more times upon without any requirement of prior notice, and the Purchaser shall not be entitled to any compensation for the extension of the Unit Transfer Date. The Purchaser shall adjust for any and all changes to the adjustments after closing within 20 days of request by the Vendor, failing which the default interest provisions for unpaid adjustments shall apply.

SUPPLEMENTARY OCCUPANCY PROVISIONS

13. In addition to the terms and provisions of Schedule "C" to the Addendum, the following terms and provisions shall apply to the use and occupancy of the Property prior to the Unit Transfer Date by the Purchaser, namely:

(a) The Purchaser agrees to maintain the Property in a clean and sanitary condition and not to make any alterations, improvements or additions thereto, other than painting, without the prior written approval of the Vendor which may be unreasonably withheld.

(b) From and after the Closing Date to and until the Unit Transfer Date and continuing thereafter, the Purchaser shall be responsible for all utility, telephone expenses, cable television service, or other charges and expenses billed directly to the occupant of the Property by the supplier of such services.

(c) The Vendor and the Purchaser covenant and agree, notwithstanding the taking of possession, that all terms of this agreement of purchase and sale hereunder continue to be binding upon them and that the Vendor may enforce the provisions of the Occupancy Licence separate and apart from the purchase and sale provisions of this agreement.

(d) It shall be the responsibility of the Purchaser, after the Closing Date to insure the personal property of the Purchaser, as well as all contents on the Property of the Purchaser. The Vendor shall not be liable for the Purchaser's loss occasioned by fire, theft or other casualty, unless caused by the Vendor's willful conduct.

(e) The Purchaser agrees to indemnify the Vendor for all losses, costs and expenses incurred as a result of the Purchaser's neglect, damage or use of the Property or by reason of injury to any person or property in or upon the Property or the Condominium resulting from the negligence of the Purchaser, members of his immediate family, servants, agents, invitees, tenants, contractors and licensees. The Purchaser agrees that should the Vendor elect to repair or redecorate all or any part of the Property as a result of the Purchaser's neglect, damage or use of the Property, which shall be deemed to be an event of default by the Purchaser, that the Purchaser will immediately reimburse the Vendor for the cost of doing same, and with the determination of need for such repairs or redecoration shall be at the discretion of the Vendor, and such costs may be added to the Purchase Price.

(f) The Purchaser shall not have the right to assign, sublet or in any other manner dispose of the Occupancy Licence prior to the Unit Transfer Date without the prior written consent of the Vendor which consent may be arbitrarily withheld. (g) The Purchaser shall execute on Closing an occupancy agreement generally incorporating the terms of the Tarion Addendum Schedule "C", the supplementary terms hereof, any terms of any advisory/warning clauses forming part of this agreement and any other terms as determined by the Vendor in its discretion provided that such provisions do not conflict with the terms of Schedule "C" of the Tarion Addendum.

SUBDIVISION DRAFT PLAN APPROVAL

14. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Property may be subject to without limitation, conditions of draft approval (hereinafter "Draft Conditions") one or more Development Agreements, site plan agreements and/or subdivision agreements between the Vendor and Governmental Authorities and\or the Municipality, notice of which is hereby expressly acknowledged by the Purchaser, and pursuant to which the Vendor or the Municipality is responsible at its own expense for constructing and installing all services within the Lands, which services may include paved roads, sidewalks, storm water retention facilities, retaining walls, curbs, storm and sanitary sewers, street lights, parks, conservation areas, playgrounds, etc. and if the Subdivider is other than the Vendor, the Vendor shall not be liable in any way to the Purchaser for the manner in which said services are installed or constructed. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that it shall be his sole responsibility to review without limitation, the Draft Conditions, any Development Agreements, cost-sharing agreements, site plan agreements or subdivision agreements as hereinbefore described, prior to closing, which the Purchaser hereby agrees to take title subject to. The Vendor shall not be obligated to obtain or register a full or partial release of the Property from or in respect of such agreements, nor shall the Vendor be obliged to have said agreements deleted from title, and the Purchaser shall satisfy himself as to compliance therewith.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT REGARDING WARNING CLAUSES

15. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Draft Conditions and existing and/or future Development Agreements between the Vendor and/or the Subdivider and the Municipality may require the Vendor to provide the Purchaser with certain notices or warnings including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, notices or warnings regarding the use of the Property, environmental issues, noise levels from adjacent roadways or otherwise, maintenance of municipal fencing, school transportation and related educational issues, installation of pools, aesthetic restrictions, care of landscaping on the Property and the status of services and works in the Lands/development. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable, at this time, to provide the Purchaser with all such notices and warnings and same shall be provided in the future and shall be deemed to form part of this Agreement and the Purchaser shall execute all documents, amendments, acknowledgments, assurances as required by the Vendor in this regard and such further warnings or acknowledgments shall not affect nor diminish the Purchaser's obligation to complete his/her obligations under this Agreement. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor and\or Subdivider may be unable to sell the Property to the Purchaser or obtain the release of securities unless the Purchaser executes such acknowledgments, amendments or assurances, etc., as aforesaid. In the event that the Purchaser fails to execute such acknowledgments, amendments and\or assurances, etc., forthwith upon being requested to do so, such failure or refusal shall be considered a fundamental breach of this Agreement by the Purchaser and the Vendor shall be entitled to its remedies hereunder, including, at its sole option, to terminate this Agreement and upon such termination, all monies paid to the Vendor hereunder shall be forfeited to the Vendor as liquidated damages, not as a penalty, without prejudice to the exercise of any other remedy available to the Vendor, and this Agreement shall be at an end, and the Purchaser shall not have any further rights hereunder.

COMPLETION OF GRADING AND MUNICIPAL SERVICES

16. (a) The Vendor, its successors, assigns and all persons authorized by the Vendor, including, without limitation, the Municipality or any other governmental authorities having jurisdiction, shall have free access to the Dwelling and Property at all reasonable hours in order to make inspections and do such work or repairs as they may deem necessary. The Vendor, and all persons authorized by the Vendor, shall have a licence for a period of FIVE (5) years from the later of the Closing Date or the Unit Transfer Date to enter into, over, along or upon any part of the Property, without being deemed to have committed a trespass, for the purpose of enabling, without limitation, the completion or correction of sodding and grading, and the installation, maintenance and/or repair of any municipal services or utility services, and/or for the purpose of effecting any remedial and\or corrective measures to the Property as may be required by the Municipality, any utility, or any other governmental authority or bonding company, or other relevant authority having jurisdiction in this regard.

(b) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that the final grading of the Property may not be completed, nor a POTL grading certificate in respect of same issued by the Closing Date, yet the Purchaser agrees to nevertheless complete this transaction on the Closing Date, upon the Vendor's undertaking hereinafter set out, to complete the grading of the Property in accordance with municipal requirements as soon as reasonably possible after the Closing Date, weather and soil conditions and the availability of labor, equipment and materials permitting. The Vendor, by this Agreement, hereby undertakes to complete (if not already completed), the grading of the Property in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sentence, and the Purchaser shall not request or call for any further documentation or assurances pertaining to this undertaking in respect of grading, from the Vendor, or the Vendor's solicitors. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the engineering data and/or final approved grade in respect of the Property may not be finalized as of the date of execution of this Agreement, and accordingly the Vendor may be required to construct the Dwelling with a walk-out basement and/or deck or in the alternative may not be able to provide a walk-out basement and/or deck if specified in this Agreement, but the Purchaser shall be nonetheless obliged to complete this agreement. In the event that any additions and/or improvements are made to the Property or abutting road allowances by the Purchaser and/or its agents or contractors after closing such as, but not limited to, the installation of porches, decks, pools, spas, patios, plants, shrubs, trees, paved driveways or fences are so located so as to alter or affect the grading and/or drainage patterns of the Property, street sight lines, any easement granted or contemplated being granted to third parties or the Vendor and/or affects the final inspection and/or assumption of services by the Municipality and/or the return of any security to the Vendor, then the Purchaser agrees to remove such additions and/or improvements at his own expense, forthwith upon the Vendor's request, failing which the Vendor may remove same at the Purchaser's sole expense and the Vendor shall be permitted to register and maintain a vendor's lien for such costs against the Property. The undersigned hereby acknowledges that complete engineering data in respect of the final grading of the Property as approved by the Municipality may not, as yet, be complete, and accordingly, the Purchaser agrees to accept the Property subject to any grading requirements or other requirements imposed by the Municipality.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing to the contrary, the Vendor or anyone delegated by it shall have the right to enter upon the Property during the rectification period as set out above in order to, without limitation, change or rectify grades or drainage patterns, and/or carry out any sodding and/or restoration and/or re-grading work required by the Development Agreements (as such term is defined herein) and/or Governmental Authorities and may remove any fences, installations, landscaping, obstructions or signs situate on the Property, without liability of any kind, if the foregoing provisions of this paragraph are not observed by the Purchaser. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Municipality and any Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction, shall have the right to enter upon the Property and Lands for such purpose in the event the Vendor and/or Subdivider and/or the Condominium fails to satisfy its obligations in respect of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the transfer of title to the Property may contain a right of re-entry in favor of the Vendor and/or the Municipality and/or any other Governmental Authority having jurisdiction as aforesaid.

(d) Title to the Property may be subject to Development Agreements (as hereinafter defined) as well as restrictions, and/or covenants may be required to be given by the Purchaser on closing, preventing any changes being subsequently made to any exterior colour, materials, windows, treatment and/or cladding material of any exterior component of the Dwelling for any period of time after closing and as well as preventing the alteration or removal of any trees, vegetation, fencing, berm, retaining wall and/or other exterior element and the parties acknowledge that such items may be controlled by the Vendor, third party and/or any other governmental authority having jurisdiction for any period of time after closing. The Development Agreements may also contain important warning clauses affecting the use and enjoyment of the Property and the Purchaser is strongly advised to review same. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to abide by and comply with the terms and conditions of the Development Agreements, architectural controls, restrictions and covenants and agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any losses and all damages, suits costs, expenses or liabilities incurred by the Vendor as a result of the Purchaser not complying with or defaulting under (in any way and with negligence not being required) with the terms and provisions of the such Development Agreements. In addition, the Purchaser covenants and agrees not to dump any materials, sod or other debris, garbage and/or landscaping or construction materials upon any other lands owned by the Vendor and\or the Municipality and the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on closing or thereafter, for the costs of removing such materials and dumping same, including inter alia, haulage costs, labour costs and/or any other costs, expenses or fines incurred by the Vendor as a result of the Purchaser breaching this covenant, and the Vendor shall be entitled to register and maintain a vendor's lien for such costs.

(e) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the filing of the consulting engineers' certificate(s) with the Municipality, or the issuance by the Municipality of an occupancy certificate or such other confirmation that the Property may be occupied shall, subject to the provisions of the Addendum, constitute complete and absolute acceptance by the Purchaser of all construction matters, and the quality and sufficiency thereof including, without limitation, all mechanical, structural and architectural matters. Acceptance of construction and siting of the Dwelling and\or grading of the POTL by the Municipality or governmental authorities shall conclusively constitute acceptance by the Purchaser. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Property, road allowance or private road fronting or flanking the Property may have one or more postal boxes, CATV boxes, telephone boxes, fire hydrants and/or hydro-electric transformers, hydro poles, sidewalks, landscape furniture, storm drains, etc., as required by the Municipality and the Purchaser agrees to accept same where located, notwithstanding that same may not be shown on any sales material, site plan, community property plan or brochures.

MAINTENANCE OF SOD AND LANDSCAPING

17. The Purchaser shall be solely responsible for the watering and general maintenance of the sod, tree, shrubs any other landscape plantings placed on the Property and any adjacent or abutting unpaved road allowances and/or boulevards from and after the closing date, or from the date that the sod is laid or the trees or shrubs or any other landscape plantings are planted, whichever date is later, and the Vendor shall have no obligation in that regard. In the event that the Vendor is required to water and/or replace laid sod, trees, shrubs or any other landscape plantings as a result of the Purchaser's default of the aforesaid obligation, then the Vendor shall not be obligated to do so until payment has been made therefor by the Purchaser. Purchasers of POTLs upon which the Vendor has installed landscaping in accordance with the final approved plans for the Condominium or the site shall be obliged to maintain and water and replace such soft landscaping and vegetation and shall not alter or remove any such soft landscaping materials or vegetation unless replaced by soft landscaping materials and vegetation in keeping with the approved landscaping plans for the Subdivision and Condominium.

LANDSCAPING, RETAINING WALLS, FENCES, BERMS AND STRUCTURES OR FEATURES

18. The Purchaser agrees that in the event that any retaining wall, fence, berm and/or similar or other structure are built on the Property, the Purchaser shall be solely responsible for the repair and maintenance of same. Where the Purchaser is obliged to make such repairs and undertake such maintenance, the Purchaser shall indemnify and save harmless the Vendor and any Governmental Authorities from all damages or costs associated with same and the Purchaser agrees, at the request of the Vendor, to execute such additional assurances in this regard as may be required by the Vendor and to have same registered on title by the Vendor if required by Vendor at the Vendor's option.

Where any portion of any fence is within twelve (12) centimetres internally or externally of the Property line, such fence shall be deemed not to be an encroachment at that point (the "Permitted Encroachment") and the Purchaser agrees to accept title to the Property and to complete the sale contemplated herein, without abatement of the Purchase Price. If any portion of any fence is not deemed to be a Permitted Encroachment (an "Unpermitted Encroachment") then the Purchaser shall complete the transaction herein either upon the Vendor's undertaking to take all reasonable lawful steps to remove the Unpermitted Encroachment; or, at the Vendor's sole option, upon an abatement in the Purchase Price, such abatement to be calculated by the Vendor, in its discretion, acting reasonably.

As of the date of this Agreement, the final grading plan relating to the Land or Property may not have been completed by the Vendor or approved by the Municipality. Consequently, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the grading of the Land may require the use of retaining walls on the Land or on adjoining properties. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall have the right to construct such retaining walls without notice to the Purchaser and without compensation or abatement to the Purchase Price and the Purchaser agrees that he shall be responsible for maintaining the retaining wall on the Land from and after the Closing Date. In the event that the Purchaser fails to comply with this obligation, the Purchaser shall be responsible for all damages and injuries which may result. In addition, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may construct any fences and/or berms on or near the Lands, as may be required.

TARION WARRANTY AND MODIFICATION OF PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS AND FINISHES

The Vendor agrees to erect the Dwelling upon the Property generally in accordance with plans and specifications already examined by the Purchaser and as attached to this Agreement (the "Plans"). Provided however that the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that decor, finishes, furniture, improvements, mirrors, wall coverings, floor coverings, and window coverings of the model home are for display purposes only, are not included in the Vendor's standard finishes and are not included in the Purchase Price. The Purchaser acknowledges that the area of the Dwelling purchased hereunder, as represented or referred to by the Vendor or any sales agent, is approximate only, and is measured in accordance with the applicable Tarion Bulletin 22 standard for homes of this classification. Note: actual useable floor space may vary from the stated floor area. Accordingly, the Purchaser hereby confirms and agrees that all details and dimensions of the Dwelling purchased hereunder are approximate only, and that the Purchase Price shall not be subject to any adjustment based upon square footage, net floor area or otherwise. In addition the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the ceilings may be dropped below standard heights and walls may be modified or bulk heads or mechanical spaces installed to accommodate mechanical systems thereby affecting the useable space in the Dwelling. Therefore the Vendor and the Purchaser agree as follows:

(a) The parties confirm and acknowledge that Tarion requires the Vendor to provide the Purchaser with a New Homeowner Information Package (the "Package" or the "HIP"), or electronic access to such HIP, at or before the pre-delivery inspection (the "PDI") of the Dwelling before the Closing Date and the Purchaser agrees to sign a Confirmation of Receipt for the same on receipt of the Package and/or electronic access to the Package being provided. The HIP or information on same is also available by contacting Tarion or obtaining same from their website at www.Tarion.com. The Purchaser shall have the right to designate a representative to undertake the PDI on his/her behalf without detracting from the Purchaser's right to conduct or be present when the PDI is being undertaken. The Purchaser and/or his or her designate, shall meet the Vendor's representative at the time designated by the Vendor prior to the Closing Date, to undertake the PDI of the Residential Dwelling and to list all items remaining uncompleted at the time of such inspection together with all mutually agreed deficiencies with respect to the Residential Dwelling, on the Tarion Certificate of Completion and Possession and/or such form as may be prescribed by Tarion (the "PDI Form"). The said Tarion certificate and/or PDI Form shall be executed by both the Purchaser and the Vendor's representative forthwith after such inspection.

(b) The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that any warranties of workmanship or materials, in respect of any aspect of the construction of the Dwelling, whether implied by this Agreement or imposed by law or in equity, or by any statute or otherwise, shall be restricted to only those warranties deemed to be given by the Vendor pursuant to the ONHWPA, and shall extend only for the time period (and in respect of those items) stipulated or covered by ONHWPA. The Purchaser is advised to read the terms of the warranty as set out in the HIP carefully so that he/she understands what is included and/or excluded from such warranty and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that his/her only remedy shall be to pursue any claim as against the Vendor pursuant to the ONHWPA and its procedures and the Purchaser agrees that he/she shall not have, maintain, pursue, prosecute, etc., any claim against the Vendor in contract or at common law with respect to the subject matter of this agreement and/or warranties provided hereunder and shall not make, file, prosecute or otherwise advance any claim against the Vendor in the courts in this regard and this covenant may be plead as estoppel in this regard. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser hereby releases the Vendor from any liability whatsoever in respect of water damage caused to improvements of, and chattels stored in, the Dwelling, and acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall not be liable or responsible for the repair or rectification of any damages to any exterior areas resulting from ordinary settlement, including the settlement of patio stones or sodded areas, nor for any damage to interior household improvements, chattels or decor caused by material shrinkage, twisting or warpage, nor for any secondary or consequential damages whatsoever resulting from any defects in materials, design or workmanship related to the Dwelling, and that the Vendor's only obligation shall be to rectify any defects pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and Tarion's warranty. The Purchaser acknowledges that any Third Party Work (as hereinafter defined) whether or not carried out by trades or subtrades employed by the Vendor shall be deemed to be work contracted directly by the Purchaser with the Vendor acting as agent for the Purchaser and as such, the Third Party Work shall not be covered by the Tarion warranty. The Purchaser covenants and agrees not to enter into any agreement or arrangement with any trade or subtrade employed by or under contract with the Vendor and/or any of its contractors, subcontractors and/or agents in respect of any work on the Dwelling. The Purchaser covenants and agrees not to undertake any renovation of finishing work in respect of the basement of the Dwelling for a period of 30 months after the Closing Date and in the event that the Purchaser does undertake such work, then the Vendor shall be relieved of any and all responsibility to restore such work or finishes in the event that the Vendor has to remove same in order to complete any warranty work and the Purchaser shall indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any and all costs incurred by the Vendor in removing such finishes in order for the Vendor or its agents to be able to complete such warranty work. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Dwelling or Property does/may contain wood flooring which will absorb excess moisture under humid conditions and release its normal moisture content under excessively dry conditions. Wood flooring will naturally swell during the humid seasons and will shrink when heat is applied. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor will not be responsible for any swelling or shrinkage cracks resulting from excessive humidity or excessive dryness within the Dwelling. When the heating system is not in use during late spring, summer and early fall, the Vendor strongly recommends that the Purchaser use a dehumidifier in the Dwelling. Correspondingly, when the heating system is on during the late fall, winter and early spring, the Vendor strongly recommends use of a humidifier system within the Dwelling. The Purchaser takes full responsibility for any damage to the wood flooring as a result of its failure to mitigate air quality conditions as herein set out

(c) The Vendor shall complete the exterior landscaping or exterior building elements of the Property and Dwelling as soon as reasonably practicable, but the failure of the Vendor to complete the exterior landscaping or building elements, on or before the Closing Date and/or the Unit Transfer Date, or the failure of the Developer to complete any element on the Lands, and/or Property, shall in no event entitle the Purchaser to refuse to take possession of the Dwelling and/or to close the within transaction on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date, or to fail to remit to the Vendor the entire amount of the Purchase Price and any other monies required to be paid by the Purchaser hereunder, or to maintain any holdback of any part of the Purchase Price or any other monies due to the Vendor, provided that the Vendor has complied with the occupancy requirements of the Addendum. The Vendor hereby undertakes to complete the

Dwelling and all unfinished work or improvements thereto in accordance with this Agreement, unless same affects the ability of the Dwelling to be legally occupied and in such event the terms and provisions of the Addendum shall prevail. The Vendor shall provide the Purchaser, on or before closing, with such evidence that the Dwelling may be legally occupied in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Addendum. The Purchaser agrees in such event to close the transaction, notwithstanding that there remains, without limitation, grading, landscaping or other exterior work or interior work to be completed, without any hold back of any part of the Purchase Price, on the Vendor's undertaking given to complete the Dwelling and all improvements to the Property. The Purchaser shall not hold the Vendor or the Municipality and/or any other Governmental Authorities and/or any of their respective agents liable for any damages, charges or inconvenience arising from, or in connection with the completion (or non-completion) of any item, including but not limited to boulevard sodding, sidewalks, driveway approach, paving, fencing, final POTL grading and/or POTL sodding.

(d) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may, from time to time, as required by it in its discretion and/or by any governmental authority having jurisdiction or any other rights with respect to the Property, change, vary or modify the plans and specifications pertaining to the Dwelling and Property, (including architectural, structural, engineering, landscaping, grading, mechanical, site service or other plans) from the plans and specifications existing at the inception of the project, or as they exist at the time the Purchaser has entered into this Agreement, or as same may be illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) in the sales office or otherwise, including reversing the layouts of the Dwelling or changing the elevation/facade of the Dwelling. The Purchaser shall have absolutely no claim or cause of action whatsoever against the Vendor or its agent(s) for any such changes, variances or modifications. The Vendor shall advise the Purchaser of the changes as soon as reasonably possible about the amendments and alterations. The Purchaser also acknowledges and agrees that architectural and/or engineering control of exterior elevations, driveway construction, boulevard tree planting, landscaping, corner POTL fencing (including the location of such corner POTL fencing), exterior colour schemes, or any other matter external to the Dwelling or Property designed to enhance the aesthetics of the area in which the Property is situate (the "Requirements"), may be imposed by the Municipality or any other Governmental Authority and the Purchaser agrees to take occupancy and title to the Property subject to the Requirements. In the event the Vendor is required by any Governmental Authority to construct, alter, amend or change, pursuant to such Requirements, the exterior elevation for the Property and\or Dwelling other than as shown on the schedules to this Agreement or specified herein or is required to alter or modify the driveway, building façade or elevation, internal road or other hardscape installation, construction or location, boulevard tree planting or landscaping plan for the Dwelling or Property (all of which is hereinafter referred to as the "Amended Plans"), the Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorizes the Vendor to complete and construct the Dwelling and Property in accordance with the Amended Plans and the Amended Plans shall be the approved plans for the purposes of the Purchaser's obligation to complete this Agreement. The Vendor shall have the right to construct the Dwelling on a reverse mirror image plan, including reversal of the interior floor layout and other minor modifications and the Purchaser agrees to accept such reversal and/or modification absolutely without any right of abatement of, or set-off against, the Purchase Price, in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligations herein. The Vendor shall have the right to alter, modify and/or substitute other materials for that provided for in the Plans, provided that such material is of substantially equal or better quality than the material in the Plans, as determined by the Vendor, acting reasonably. Further, in the event the Vendor determines that it needs to alter the grade of the Dwelling for any reason, than as depicted in the Plans, and as a result of such change in the elevation, the Vendor needs to install a step or series of steps to any entrance to the Dwelling or garage and this affects the interior dimensions of the Dwelling or garage, then the Purchaser agrees to accept such change in grade and the change in the usable interior space in the garage and/or Dwelling caused by the installation of steps and shall complete this transaction without any abatement in the Purchase Price. With respect to any aspect of construction, finishing or equipment, the Vendor shall have the right subject to the requirements of TARION or the provisions of the ONHWPA, without the Purchaser's consent, to substitute materials, designs and/or installations, for those described in this Agreement, any schedule of finishes or in the plans or specifications, provided the substituted materials, designs and/or installations are in the judgment of the Vendor, whose determination shall be final and binding, of equal or better quality or as may be required as a matter of law or any applicable building, fire, plumbing and/or electrical code or regulation. References to model types or model numbers in any schedule of finishes or Extras addendum or agreement refer to current manufacturer's models as of the date of this agreement and may change without notice and the Vendor shall be entitled to replace with the manufacturer's or alternate manufacture models that are of a similar size, style, design and quality. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that finishing materials contained in any model suites or sales office displays including but not limited to substrates, floor and wall coverings, broadloom, furniture, electrical fixtures, window coverings, flooring, upgrade cabinetry, staircases, railings, appliances etc. may be for display purposes and may not be of the same grade or type, or may not necessarily be included in the dwelling unit purchased herein. Purchasers are advised that any ceiling height set out in this agreement will be measured approximately from the upper surface of the floor to the underside of the ceiling structure, provided however that various areas of the Dwelling may contain (or be subject to) ceiling bulkheads and/or dropped ceilings, in order to facilitate the installation of structural components, mechanical and HVAC systems and/or ductwork, and accordingly in those areas of the unit that are subject to said bulkheads and/or dropped ceilings the Vendor shall be entitled to reduce the overall ceiling height accordingly and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to accept such situations and/or alterations. The Purchaser acknowledges that any room dimensions as shown on any plans attached to this agreement or otherwise are approximate and may vary based on the construction requirements of the development in which the Property is situate and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to accept such variations and/or alterations. The Purchaser acknowledges, confirms and agrees that the extent of the actual or useable living space or net floor area within the confines of the unit may vary from any represented square footage or floor area measurement(s) made by or on behalf of the Vendor based on the permitted Tarion method of area calculation. The Purchaser shall have no claim against the Vendor for any changes, variances, alterations, amendments and/or modifications as permitted in this Agreement nor shall the Vendor be required to give notice thereof. The Purchaser hereby consents to any such alterations, variances, amendments and/or modifications and agrees to complete the sale notwithstanding same. The Purchaser shall have no claim against the Vendor for any such changes, variances, alterations, amendments or modifications, etc., nor shall the Vendor be required to give notice thereof. The Purchaser hereby consents to any such alterations and agrees to complete the sale notwithstanding any of the foregoing and that none of these matter shall be considered any material change.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, it is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that in the event that construction of the Dwelling is not completed on or before the Closing Date or any extension thereof as hereinbefore contemplated, for any reason except for the Vendor's willful neglect, or in the event the Purchaser cannot take possession of the Dwelling on Closing Date by reason of any fire damage or other hazards or damages whatsoever occasioned thereto, constituting an event of Unavoidable Delay (as defined in the Addendum), then subject to the terms of the Addendum to the contrary, Vendor shall not be responsible or liable for reimbursing the Purchaser for any costs, expenses, or damages suffered or incurred by the Purchaser as a result of such delay or damage, and specifically shall not be responsible for any costs and expenses incurred by the Purchaser in obtaining alternate accommodation pending the completion of construction of the Dwelling or the rectification of the damage, nor for any costs incurred in having to store or move the Purchaser's furniture or other belongings pending such completion or rectification work.

(e) The Vendor shall have the right to enter upon the Dwelling for a period of eight (8) years after the completion of the transaction set out in this Agreement, as required by the Vendor in its complete discretion, in order to complete and/or rectify outstanding items identified in the PDI Form or any other list prescribed by Tarion and the Vendor agrees to complete and/or rectify same within a reasonable time after Closing (or some other date as prescribed by Tarion), having regard to the availability of equipment, materials and labour. The failure or refusal by the Purchaser to provide access to the Property and/or the Dwelling situate thereon by the Vendor or its workmen, servants, agents or contractors following reasonable notice by the Vendor, shall relieve the Vendor of any obligation to complete or rectify any items of work that may be outstanding and otherwise required to be completed by the Vendor pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

(f) The Purchaser agrees that in no event shall the Purchaser be entitled to obtain possession of the Dwelling and Property unless and until the Purchaser and/or his/her designated representative has completed the pre- delivery inspection and executed the said PDI Form. In the event that the Purchaser and/or his/her designated representative has omitted or refused to execute the said PDI Form prior to the Closing Date, and the Vendor has duly attended at the Dwelling for the purposes of completing the said PDI Form and to inspect the Dwelling, the Vendor shall have the unilateral right and option of either completing this transaction and refusing to allow possession of the Dwelling by the Purchaser until such PDI Form has been duly executed, or of terminating this Agreement, whereupon all Deposits and monies paid or payable in respect of Extras, together with all interest accrued thereon at the prescribed rate, shall be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at law or in equity.

(g) It is expressly understood and agreed that the Dwelling will be separately metered for utilities, including electricity, gas and water services, and accordingly the consumption of electricity, gas and water/waste water services (as well as cable television, internet and telephone charges), shall be borne and paid for by the Purchaser from and after Closing Date.

(h) The Purchaser covenants and agrees to pay to the Vendor all amounts to correct and remedy all damage caused by the Purchaser or those for whom he is in law responsible to any services installed within the Property, which services shall, without limitation, include survey stakes, landscaping, trees, planting, curbs, curb cuts, streets, roads, street signs, street lighting, sanitary and storm sewers and any underground services installed by or on behalf of any public or private utilities.

(i) It is understood and agreed that the Purchaser is not entitled to perform any work on the Property prior to Closing without the Vendor's written consent and in the event that such consent is obtained, the Purchaser must obtain at its expense, and without restriction, any applicable building permits for the subject work at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense. It is further understood and agreed that such work shall not be warranted by Tarion or the Vendor or any other party related to the Vendor and that the Vendor shall not be responsible for any delay, costs and/or penalties arising as a result of the delay by the Purchaser in completing such permitted work on or before the scheduled Closing Date.

(j) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that if due to grading or other requirements, as determined by the Vendor, at its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, that it cannot or will not build a side door and/or door from the garage with direct access to the Dwelling, the Vendor need not build such door(s) and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to accept the Dwelling without such door(s) and the Purchaser shall not be entitled to any compensation or abatement of the Purchase Price.

FINISH SELECTION AND EXTRAS

19. (a) The Purchaser covenants and agrees to notify the Vendor, in writing within seven (7) days of the Vendor's request, as to any colours and finishes or other items to be chosen by the Purchaser from the Vendor's samples, and if the Purchaser fails to so notify the Vendor of his colour and finish selection or other selection within such time, the Vendor shall not be held liable for any delays in having the Dwelling substantially completed sufficient to permit occupancy thereof by the Closing Date, and the Purchaser shall complete the transaction on such date, notwithstanding that the Dwelling may not be substantially completed by such date. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that as a result of the Tarion Delayed Closing rules and regulations as set out in the Addendum, that any delay caused by the Purchaser in the selection of the finishes and colours can result in a delay in a construction and delivery of the Dwelling and as a result, a breach of the Purchaser's covenants in this section shall be considered a material breach of contract entitling the Vendor to all of its remedies in contract, law and equity, including without limitation, the right to terminate this Agreement and retain all monies paid thereto by the Purchaser as liquidated damages and not as penalty. Notwithstanding and in addition to the foregoing, in the event the Purchaser fails to make such selections as aforesaid, the Vendor shall be entitled to make such selections on behalf of the Purchaser and the Purchaser shall be obliged to complete this transaction without any holdback or abatement whatsoever.

(b) Subject to the Vendor's approval, if the Purchaser chooses to order third party upgrades or extras other than those specified and provided by the Vendor or if the Vendor agrees to allow the Purchaser or its agents to complete certain work within the Dwelling (collectively referred to as "Third Party Work"), then, if any delays in the completion of such Third Party Work affects the availability of legal occupancy of the Dwelling, then the Vendor shall not be held liable for any delays in having the Dwelling substantially completed sufficient to permit occupancy thereof by the Closing Date, and the terms of the Addendum shall apply. If the delay in the delivery and/or installation of the Third Party Work does not prevent the legal occupation of the Dwelling and the provision of the evidence confirming same as set out in the Addendum, then the Purchaser shall complete the transaction notwithstanding, without any holdbacks in respect of the Purchase Price. In the event that the Purchaser ordered and paid for extras comprising or requiring Third Party Work through the Vendor and such extras are not available on closing, but the lack of installation of same does not prevent the closing of such transaction and/or legal occupancy of the Dwelling, then the Vendor shall have the option of either i) providing its undertaking to install such Third Party Work extras in the Dwelling within a reasonable time of receipt of same after the Unit Transfer Date or ii) refunding the cost of the Third Party Work extras on the Unit Transfer Date by way of providing the Purchaser with a credit in the final statement of adjustments. In such latter event, such credit shall be accepted by the Purchaser as full and final settlement of any claim by the Purchaser with respect to such extras.

(c) The Purchaser specifically acknowledges that in the manufacture of finishing items, colour variances sometimes occur. The Purchaser hereby agrees to accept any such colour variation resulting from the manufacturing process without any right of abatement of purchase price and in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligations herein. More specifically, the Purchaser acknowledges that colour, texture, appearance, grains, veining, natural variations in appearance etc. of features and finishes installed in the Dwelling or the Property may vary from Vendor's samples as a result of normal manufacturing and installation processes and as a result of any such finishes being of natural products and the Purchaser agrees that the Vendor is not responsible for same. The Vendor is not responsible for shade difference occurring in the manufacture of items such as, but not limited to, finishing materials or products such as carpet, tiles, bath tubs, sinks and other such products where the product manufacturer establishes the standard for such finishes. Nor shall the Vendor be responsible for shade difference in colour of components manufactured from different materials but which components are designed to be assembled into either one product or installed in conjunction with another product and in these circumstances the product as manufactured shall be accepted by the Purchaser. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that pre-finished wood flooring (if any) may react to normal fluctuating humidity levels inducing gapping or cupping. The Purchaser acknowledges that natural stone (if any) is a very soft stone which will require a substantial amount of maintenance by the Purchaser and is very easily scratched and damaged. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that carpeting may be seamed in certain circumstances and said seams may be visible. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that various types of flooring, including but not limited to carpets, marble, tile, laminate, hardwood floors, or engineered wood in the dwelling unit may result in different heights (to be established by the Vendor in its sole discretion) in the transitional areas between them, and that the Vendor may use appropriate reducers in the area. For greater certainty, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that insofar as the wood finishes, laminate, marble, stone, carpeting, tiles, kitchen cabinetry or other manufactured finishing materials installed within the Dwelling are concerned: (i) the colour, texture and/or shading of such wood finishes, laminate, carpet, tiles, kitchen cabinetry or other manufactured finishing materials may vary slightly from that of those selected by the Purchaser from the Vendor’s samples, due to variations or shading in dye-lots produced or manufactured by the suppliers; and (ii) the colour, finish and/or grain of wood and stone products may vary slightly from that of the wood or stone selected by the Purchaser from the Vendor’s samples, inasmuch as wood and stone are natural materials which inherently cannot be precisely replicated or matched with other pieces or samples, thereby accounting for variations of colour and/or grain even within the same POTL or section of wood or stone. The Purchaser shall accordingly be estopped from claiming any entitlement to an abatement in the Purchase Price, or any replacement (in whole or in part) of the carpet, tiles, kitchen cabinetry, manufactured finishing materials or wood or stone products so installed or any other relief as a result of the variations hereinbefore described or contemplated. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that all light coloured materials, especially flooring, may be subject to fading or yellowing after use or exposure to sunlight and such fading or yellowing will not be covered by any warranty. The Purchaser further acknowledges that light coloured and white carpeting may be subject to discolouring at walls and sub-floor joints due to the filtering process that occurs with forced air heating, generally caused by pollutants and candles and both exterior and interior air quality and is not covered by any warranty provided for herein.

(d) The Purchaser covenants and agrees that he\she shall pay the Vendor in advance, (unless otherwise agreed in writing), for any Extras and the applicable HST and other taxes thereon ordered by the Purchaser and agrees that such payment shall be non-refundable in the event that this transaction is not completed due to any default hereunder by the Purchaser, and the Vendor may deduct the cost of such Extras, (as well as applicable HST and other taxes thereon) if not already paid for, from any deposit monies which may otherwise be refundable. In the event that for any reason the Extras are not installed by the Vendor prior to closing, the Vendor shall be entitled to refund all or part of monies paid as appropriate and this shall be accepted by the Purchaser as full and final settlement of any claim by the Purchaser with respect to the Extras, upgrades or changes which remain incomplete as aforesaid.

NO ACCESS UNTIL CLOSING

20. The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and confirms that he shall not be allowed without the specific written consent of the Vendor, (which consent may be arbitrarily withheld by the Vendor) access to the Property, for any purpose whatsoever. Once such right of access is exercised by the Purchaser with consent as aforesaid, he agrees to comply with all regulations and requirements imposed by any governmental authorities or imposed by the Vendor which may prevent, restrict or regulate such access due to health, safety or other governmental requirements or policies. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that any access to the Property shall be at the Purchaser's sole risk and the Purchaser hereby forever discharges and releases the Vendor, its successors and assigns, agents, employees and contractors from any and all damages, actions and claims whatsoever that the Purchaser may have as a result of personal injury or property damage occasioned by entering onto the Property, whether such entry was with or without the Vendor's express written consent. If permitted onto the Property, the Purchaser shall not enter the Property unless accompanied by a representative of the Vendor and the Purchaser shall be responsible to provide and wear all such protective headwear and footwear and any other equipment or clothing as required pursuant to the Occupational Health and Safety Act and/or any successor or other legislation and its regulations and the Purchaser agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, charges, damages or fines that the Vendor or its agents incur as a result of the Purchaser's breach of the foregoing, and in particular the Purchaser shall indemnify and save the Vendor, its servants and agents harmless from action, causes of the action, claims and demands for, upon or by reason or any damages, loss or injury to person or property of the purchaser, or any of his friends, relatives, workmen or agents who have entered on the Property whether with or without authorization, express or implied, of the Vendor.

(a) The title to the Property to be good and free from all encumbrances, save and except the Permitted Encumbrances as hereinbefore provided and any other registration as hereinafter provided for in this Agreement. The title is to be examined by the Purchaser at his own expense and without the Purchaser calling for the production of any deeds or abstracts of title, surveys, proof of evidence of title or to have furnished any copies thereof, other than those in the Vendor's possession. The Purchaser is to be allowed until 15 days prior to the Unit Transfer Date hereof to examine the title at his own expense and if within that time he shall furnish the Vendor in writing with any valid objections to the title which the Vendor shall be unwilling or unable to remove and which the Purchaser will not waive, this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any intermediate acts or negotiations, be null and void and the portion of the Deposit and Extras paid to the Vendor shall be returned without interest (unless interest is required pursuant to the Addendum) and the Vendor shall not be liable for any damages or costs whatsoever, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, loss of bargain, loss of profit, relocation costs, loss of income, professional fees and disbursements and any amount paid to third parties on account of decoration, construction or fixturing costs, unless such compensation is required pursuant to the Addendum and/or ONHWPA. Save as to any valid objections so made within such time, the Purchaser shall be conclusively deemed to have accepted the title of the Vendor to the Property. The Vendor shall be allowed to answer requisitions by way of a title advice statement addressed to purchasers of lands in the Subdivision. The Purchaser also acknowledges that the Vendor and the Vendor's Solicitor may arrange for the project to be enrolled with a title insurer or insurers acceptable to the Vendor (the "Title Insurer") in order to centralize underwriting for the project and avoid unnecessary duplication of costs for purchasers and their solicitors. In the event that the Purchaser elects to obtain title insurance through the Title Insurer, the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall not be required to perform some or all of the following due diligence thereby saving the Purchaser significant transaction costs: title search and review of title search; preparation of requisition letter; prepare, send out and review responses to clearance letters; execution searches against the Vendor; and corporate status searches.

Transfer Date. The Purchaser agrees to close the transaction notwithstanding the existence of such charge(s) and accept the Vendor's Solicitors' undertaking to register (partial) discharges of such mortgages in respect of the Property upon receipt, subject to the Vendor or the Vendor's Solicitors providing to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor the following:

(c) a mortgage statement or letter from the mortgagee(s) (or from their respective solicitors) confirming the amount, if any, or the terms if an amount is not applicable, required to be paid to the mortgagee(s) to obtain (partial) discharges of the mortgages with respect to the Property;

(i) a direction from the Vendor to the Purchaser to pay such amounts to its solicitors in trust and/or the mortgagee(s) (or to whomever the mortgagees may direct) on the Unit Transfer Date to obtain a (partial) discharge of the mortgage(s) with respect to the Property; and

(d) For certainty, and without limiting the generality of the provisions of Section 23 of Schedule "D" herein, the Purchaser shall, both before and after closing, also grant and execute any and all temporary or permanent easement(s) for the installation and/or maintenance of private and/or municipal utility or other services to the Property, or to adjacent or neighbouring properties, in favour of any governmental authorities, private and/or public utilities and/or service providers and/or to adjacent or neighbouring land owners (including without limitation, any easement(s) for maintenance purposes for all lots within the plan of subdivision where less than 1.2 meter (4 foot) side yards are being provided), as well as easements for roof overhangs and eaves troughs and easements, forthwith upon the Vendor's request. In addition the Purchaser shall at the request of the Vendor, provide on Closing a transfer or transfers of easements in favour of any adjacent lands for overhead crane swings, facilitating the installation of shoring or foundations, installing and maintaining piles and/or tie-back installations, temporary working easements for construction on adjacent lands and/or the installation of temporary hoarding on the rear yard of the Lot as required in connection with any of the previously set out easements. The Purchaser shall procure any Planning Act consents and postponements from any holders of any mortgage or encumbrance registered on the Property by which such mortgage or encumbrance is postponed to any such easements, and the Purchaser shall be responsible for all costs and expenses in granting, procuring or registering such easements or postponements (including without limitation the cost of obtaining Planning Act consents). The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that due to the proximity of the Dwelling to adjacent Dwellings or structures, minor encroachments may exist with respect to eaves and/or exterior walls of certain dwellings, fences or other structures and the Purchaser specifically acknowledges and agrees to accept title to the Property subject to any such encroachments and such encroachments shall be deemed to be a "Permitted Encroachment" as defined above.

(e) Other than is required pursuant to the Addendum, the Vendor shall not be obliged to provide any title deeds, abstract, occupancy permits or certificates, surveys, grading certificates, or any other evidence of title or that the Dwelling may be legally occupied, and the Purchaser shall satisfy himself that the Dwelling may be occupied in accordance with municipal requirements. The Purchaser agrees to accept a transfer of title to the Property directly from the registered owner thereof, and to accept such owner's title covenants in lieu of the Vendor's title covenants, in the event that the Vendor is not the registered owner of the Property on closing, provided that the Vendor shall be obliged to provide such further and other covenants and undertakings as the Purchaser may be entitled to pursuant to this agreement.

PLANNING ACT

24. This Agreement shall be effective to create an interest in the Property and/or Lot only if there is compliance with the subdivision control provisions as set out in the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990 and any amendments thereto, including without limitation Section 50 thereof, on or before the Unit Transfer Date.

MANNER OF PURCHASER'S TITLE

25. The Purchaser agrees to advise the Vendor or its solicitors within fifteen (15) days of acceptance of this Agreement of the manner in which title is to be taken by the Purchaser, failing which the Vendor shall be entitled to endorse title to the Purchaser as set out in accordance with this Agreement.

COSTS OF REGISTRATION AND TAXES

26. The transfer/deed of land shall be prepared at the Vendor's expense and may contain any or all of the provisions set forth in this Agreement and shall be executed by the Purchaser, if required by the Vendor, and the Purchaser shall execute and deliver on the Closing Date and/or the Unit Transfer Date a covenant, undertaking or agreement incorporating all or any of the terms contained herein or as may be required by the Vendor. The Purchaser undertakes and agrees to register the transfer/ deed at his expense on the Unit Transfer Date at the time of Closing and agrees to pay the land transfer tax in connection with the registration of the transfer/deed.

RISK UNTIL CLOSING

27. All buildings and equipment comprising the Dwelling and the Property shall be and remain at the risk of the Vendor until Unit Transfer Date. Provided that from and after the Closing Date, if same occurs prior to the Unit Transfer Date, the Purchaser shall provide the Vendor with proof of liability insurance as provided for herein and shall be responsible for obtaining and maintaining any insurance for his/her personal property and contents and the Purchaser shall be responsible for the Dwelling and the Property pursuant to the terms of Schedule "C" of the Addendum attached hereto. Subject to the terms of the Addendum to the contrary, in the event of damage to the Dwelling or Property prior to the Unit Transfer Date, the Vendor may either repair the damage, finish the Dwelling and complete the sale or may terminate this Agreement and have the Deposits and Extras paid by the Purchaser to the Vendor returned to the Purchaser (together with any interest required by law) and the Vendor shall thereupon be released from its obligations hereunder. It is understood and agreed that the proceeds of all insurance policies held by the Vendor are for the benefit of the Vendor alone. These provisions are subject to any overriding provisions in the ONHWPA, its regulations and/or the Addendum to the contrary.

The Vendor's consent allowing a corporate purchaser to purchase a Dwelling shall not derogate from such Purchaser's obligation to reimburse the Vendor for an amount equivalent to the Rebate (as defined herein) in the event that such corporate purchaser does not qualify for the Rebate.

(a) The parties acknowledge that on the Unit Transfer Date this transaction shall be completed electronically and accordingly there will be no exchange of documents at the Land Registry Office between the parties or their respective solicitors. Any tender of documents or monies hereunder, including those required to be exchanged on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date, shall be made respectively upon the Vendor or the Purchaser, or upon their respective solicitors, as hereinafter set out and any money shall be tendered by certified solicitor's trust cheque, bank draft from a bank or trust or loan corporation or wire transfer using the LVTS system from a chartered bank or trust company. The Vendor shall be allowed to tender and deliver documentation to the Purchaser by posting the documentation required to be delivered to the Purchaser on the Closing Date and/or the Unit Transfer Date on an internet web site on the world wide web, and providing notice to the Purchaser and/or his/her solicitor of the method of accessing such documents on such internet site and the internet address of such web site, or by electronic mail or telefacsimile and the Vendor shall be entitled to charge the Purchaser the costs of any upload costs for the use of such web site or delivery costs. The Vendor shall not be obliged to provide originals of such documents. In the event the Vendor's documents are posted on such site, said documents may be executed electronically in accordance with the Electronic Commerce Act (Ontario) and the posting of such documentation, electronically signed where required, and the notification to the Purchaser's solicitor or the Purchaser of where on the intra-net and/or world wide web such documents can be accessed, shall be deemed to effective tender of such documents on the Purchaser and/or their solicitor, as hereinbefore set out. Notwithstanding anything set out herein to the contrary, any tender upon the Vendor on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date must be made at the offices of its solicitor during normal business hours, which shall be deemed to be 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on any business day (excluding weekends and statutory holidays).

(b) The Purchaser shall deliver on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date, such declarations, certificates, affidavits, undertakings, indemnities, directions, forms, documents, certificates and other documents as required by the Vendor in its discretion, as well as all monies and funds as may be required herein (by way of certified cheque, bank draft, wire transfer, etc., as provided for in this Agreement), including inter alia, the "Requisite Deliveries" as defined in the Document Registration Agreement governing closing, to the Vendor or Vendor's solicitor (as determined by the Vendor) by no later than 3:00 p.m. on the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date as the case may be. In the event that the Purchaser or his solicitor has not delivered the Requisite Deliveries and/or monies as hereinbefore set out at such location and by the later of such time as stipulated in this Agreement, then the Purchaser shall be deemed for all purposes to have waived tender by the Vendor, and the Purchaser shall be estopped and forever barred from claiming any defect in the title to the Property, or any deficiency in the construction thereof, or that the Vendor was unable or unwilling to provide occupancy of the Dwelling and/or complete this transaction in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

ELECTRONIC REGISTRATION

31. (a) The parties hereto agree that if the electronic registration system (the "Teraview Electronic Registration System" or "TERS") is operative in the applicable Land Titles Office, then, at the option of the Vendor's solicitor, the following provisions shall prevail, namely:

(i) the Purchaser shall be obliged to retain a lawyer, who is both an authorized TERS user and in good standing with the Law Society, to represent the Purchaser in connection with the completion of this transaction, and shall authorize such lawyer to enter into an escrow closing agreement with the Vendor's solicitor on the latter's standard form (the "Document Registration Agreement"), establishing the procedures and timing for completing this transaction and to be delivered by the Vendor's solicitor to the Purchaser's lawyers no later than 7 days before the Unit Transfer Date.

(ii) the delivery and exchange of documents, monies and keys to the Dwelling (and with "exchange" being the delivery of documents, monies and keys by each of the parties hereto as provided for in this Agreement), and the release thereof to the Vendor and the Purchaser, as the case may be:

(A) shall not occur at the same time as the registration of the transfer/deed (and other registerable documentation);

(B) shall be governed by Document Registration Agreement, pursuant to which the solicitor receiving any documents, keys and/or certified funds will be required to hold same in escrow, and will not be entitled to release same except in strict accordance with the provisions of the Documentation Registration Agreement;

(b) the Purchaser shall be obliged to deliver all documents and funds as may be required to close the transaction to the office of the Vendor's solicitor on or before the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date as the case may be, in accordance with the tender provisions of this Agreement;

(c) the Vendor may deliver all documents required for closing on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date, save and except for the electronic deed, to the Purchaser's solicitor, with the Vendor's documents executed electronically in accordance with the Electronic Commerce Act 2002 (Ontario);

(d) if the Purchaser's lawyer is unwilling or unable to complete this transaction via TERS, in accordance with the provision contemplated under the Document Registration Agreement, then said lawyer (or the authorized agent thereof) shall be obliged to personally attend at the office of the Vendor's solicitor, at such time on the scheduled Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date as may be directed by the Vendor's solicitor, in order to complete this transaction via TERS utilizing the computer facilities in the Vendor's solicitors office;

(e) the Purchaser expressly acknowledges and agrees that he or she will not be entitled to receive a completed electronic transfer/deed to the Dwelling for release and registration until the balance of the funds due on closing (as well as all other documents as may be required by the Vendor), in accordance with the statement of adjustments, are either remitted by certified cheque via personal delivery or by electronic funds transferred to the Vendor's solicitor (or in such other manner as the latter may direct) at its offices, prior to the release of the transfer/deed for registration;

(f) documents to be registered on title to the Dwelling may be delivered by the Vendor to the Purchaser or its solicitor party hereto by telefax or email (or by a similar system reproducing the original), provided that all documents so transmitted have been duly and properly executed by the appropriate parties/signatories thereto. The Purchaser and\or its solicitor shall be obliged to provide the Vendor with a copy of the registered transfer forthwith after the Unit Transfer Date;

(g) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, it is expressly understood and agreed by the parties hereto that an effective tender shall be deemed to have been validly made by the Vendor upon the Purchaser when the Vendor's solicitor has: delivered all closing documents and/or funds to the Purchaser's solicitor in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement (including delivery of such documents via the internet); and has completed all steps required by TERS in order to complete this transaction that can be performed or undertaken by the Vendor's solicitor without the co-operation or participation of the Purchaser's solicitor without the necessity of personally attending upon the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor with the aforementioned documents and/or funds [and without any requirement to have an independent witness evidencing the foregoing]. If TERS is not used for the completion of this transaction then an effective tender shall be deemed to have been validly made by the Vendor upon the Purchaser when the Vendor's solicitor has electronically and/or personally delivered all closing documents and deliveries to the Purchaser's solicitor in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement without the necessity of personally attending upon the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor with the aforementioned documents and deliveries [and without any requirement to have an independent witness evidencing the foregoing]. The parties acknowledge and agree that keys are not included in the deliveries and are to be released at the office or on-site office of the Vendor once the transaction contemplated herein is completed and therefore will not be available with the exchange of documents, deliveries and funds, and are accordingly not required for a tender.

RELEASE OF KEYS

32. The Purchaser acknowledges that the keys to the Property shall be available for release to the Purchaser at the site or other office of the Vendor and that this availability constitutes a valid tender of keys on the Purchaser.

FORCE MAJEURE

33. Whenever (and to the extent that) the Vendor are prevented, hindered or delayed in the fulfilment of any obligation hereunder, or in the doing of any work by reason of an "act of force majeure" or incident causing "Unavoidable Delay", then, save and except to the extent as provided for or restricted in the Addendum to the contrary, such party's liability to perform such obligation shall be postponed, and such party shall be relieved from any liability in damages or otherwise for breach thereof, for so long as (and to the extent that) such prevention, hindering or delay continues to exist. This right is intended to provide for those instances or situations not provided for in the Addendum, if any. An incident of "force majeure" shall have the same meaning as an incident comprising "Unavoidable Delay" as defined in the Addendum.

NON-REGISTRATION, ASSIGNMENT AND POSTPONEMENT AND SUBORDINATION

34. (a) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges the full priority of any construction financing or other mortgages arranged by the Vendor and secured by the Property over his interest as Purchaser for the full amount of the said mortgage or construction financing, notwithstanding any law or statute to the contrary and agrees to execute all acknowledgements or postponements required to give full effect thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser agrees that this Agreement shall be subordinated to and postponed to the mortgage(s) assumed and/or arranged by the Vendor (and presently registered or to be registered on title to the Property) and any advances made thereunder from time to time, and to any easements, Development Agreements or any other agreements referred to herein to which title may be subject. The Purchaser agrees to execute all necessary documents and assurances to give effect to the foregoing as required by the Vendor. Any breach by the Purchaser of this section shall be considered a material breach.

The Purchaser further covenants and agrees that he will in no way, directly or indirectly, assign, convey, list for sale, sell or transfer his rights under this Agreement prior to the Unit Transfer Date to any other person without the consent of the Vendor in writing, which consent may be withheld in the Vendor's sole discretion, and that he will at no time register or attempt to register this Agreement on title to the Property by way of caution, deposit, assignment or in any way whatsoever, or register a certificate of pending litigation and it is expressly agreed by all parties hereto that any such registration or attempt by the Purchaser or anyone acting for or through him shall, at the option of the Vendor, entitle the Vendor to terminate this Agreement and make it absolutely null and void and any monies paid under this Agreement, including inter alia all deposit monies together with all monies paid for any Extras or changes to the Property, may be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at contract, law or equity. In the event that this Agreement, a caution, certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument whatsoever is registered against or dealing with the title in contravention of this provision, then the Purchaser hereby appoints the Vendor his true and lawful attorney pursuant to The Powers of Attorney Act R.S.O. 1990, as amended and/or The Substitute Division Act 1992, as amended for the purposes of removing the contract, caution, certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument from title, including the giving of any discharge, the lifting of any caution, the granting of any order or the assignment of any rights pursuant to this Agreement and this power of attorney shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest. The Purchaser shall bear all costs incurred by the Vendor in the exercise of its function pursuant to this power of attorney. Further, the Purchaser hereby covenants and agrees that at any time prior to Unit Transfer Date any default by him in the performance of any of his covenants or obligations contained herein shall entitle the Vendor, at its sole option, to terminate this Agreement and, upon such termination, all monies paid to the Vendor hereunder shall be forfeited to the Vendor and this Agreement shall be at an end and the Purchaser shall not have any further rights hereunder. The Vendor shall have the right to assign this Agreement, provided that any such assignee shall be bound by all of the covenants made by the Vendor herein, and upon such assignment, the Vendor shall thereupon be released from all obligations hereunder, unless provided for in the Addendum to the contrary.

(b) The Purchaser further covenants and agrees that until the Vendor receives the entire

Purchase Price, that:

(i) he will not sell, mortgage, pledge, lien or in any way encumber the Property either directly or indirectly;

(ii) if an execution is filed against him/her and/or the Property he/she will forthwith have the execution removed;

(iii) if an execution is registered against person(s) with a similar name(s), he/she shall execute all documents required by the Vendor in its discretion, to evidence that he is not the same person(s) named in such execution(s), sufficient to enable the Vendor to obtain a clear execution certificate from the local Land Titles Office.

DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

35. In the event that the Purchaser defaults on any of his obligations contained in this Agreement, makes any assignment to creditors, files for bankruptcy or files any consumer proposal or becomes insolvent on or before Closing, including without limitation, breaching or failing in the performance or observance of any covenant, term, agreement, restriction, stipulation or provision of this Agreement to be performed and/or observed by the Purchaser or if there is any lien, execution or encumbrance arising from any action or default whatsoever of the Purchaser being charged against or affecting the Property, and such Purchaser fails to remedy such default forthwith upon request, then the Vendor, in addition to any other rights or remedies this Agreement provides, may, at its sole option, unilaterally suspend all of the Purchaser's rights, benefits and privileges contained herein (including without limitation, the right to make colour and finish selections with respect to the Dwelling as hereinbefore provided or contemplated), and/or unilaterally declare the Purchaser in default and\or this Agreement to be terminated and of no further force or effect, whereupon, save and except as provided in the Addendum to the contrary, all Deposits and Extras theretofore paid, together with all interest accrued thereon at the prescribed rate, if any, shall be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at law or in equity. Notwithstanding and in addition to the foregoing, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that time shall be of the essence with respect to all payments to be made by the Purchaser to the Vendor pursuant to this Agreement. In the event that the Purchaser is in default with respect to the payment of any amount owing by the Purchaser to the Vendor pursuant to this Agreement, the Vendor shall have the right to declare this Agreement null and void or, provided the Purchaser satisfies the Vendor that the Purchaser will complete the transaction, the Vendor may (but shall have no obligation to) elect to complete the transaction of purchase and sale contemplated by this Agreement provided that the Purchaser shall pay interest on the amounts which are in arrears calculated at the rate of 18% per annum commencing on the date on which such amount was due and payable by the Purchaser to the Vendor until the date on which all arrears are paid in full plus all additional legal and other expenses incurred by the Vendor. In the event that this agreement is terminated as hereinbefore set out, the Purchaser shall be obliged to execute such releases and any other documents or assurances as the Vendor may require, in order to confirm that the Purchaser, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, does not have (nor could be deemed or construed to have) any interest whatsoever in the Property and/or this Agreement, and in the event the Purchaser fails or refuses to execute same, the Purchaser hereby appoints the Vendor to be his lawful attorney in order to execute such releases, documents and assurances in the Purchaser's name, place and stead, and in accordance with the provisions of The Powers of Attorney Act R.S.O. 1990, as amended and/or The Substitute Decisions Act, 1992, as amended, the Purchaser hereby declares that this power of attorney may be exercised by the Vendor during any subsequent legal incapacity on the part of the Purchaser.

36. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that notwithstanding any rights which he might otherwise have at law or in equity arising out of this Agreement, he shall not assert any of such rights, nor have any claim or cause of action (as a result of any matter or thing arising under or in connection with this Agreement) against any person, firm, corporation or other legal entity, other than the person, firm, corporation or legal entity specifically named or defined as the Vendor herein, even though the Vendor may be found to be a nominee or agent of another person, firm, corporation or other legal entity, and this acknowledgment and agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel and bar against the Purchaser in any action or proceeding brought by the Purchaser to assert any of such rights, claims or causes of action. In the event the Vendor's solicitor is holding any of the Deposits and/or Extras in trust pursuant to this Agreement, then in the event of a default by the Purchaser, the Vendor's solicitor shall be entitled to pay and release to the Vendor the said Deposits and/or Extras together with any interest accrued thereon, provided the Vendor has delivered to its solicitors a statement of an officer of the Vendor, certifying that the Purchaser has committed a default pursuant to this Agreement that has not been remedied and that the Vendor has terminated this Agreement and that the Vendor is therefore entitled to the deposit and accrued interest, if any. The Purchaser hereby releases the said solicitors from any obligation to hold the Deposits and/or Extras, if any, in trust, and shall not make any claim whatsoever against the said solicitors and the Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the said solicitors to deliver the said deposit monies and accrued interest, if any, to the Vendor.

LIMITATION

37. No waiver by the Vendor of any breach of covenant or default in the performance of any obligation hereunder or any failure by the Vendor to enforce its rights herein shall constitute any further waiver of the Vendor's rights herein, it being the express intent of the parties that any waiver or forbearance in enforcing its rights by the Vendor shall apply solely to that particular breach or failure. The rights, remedies and recourses of the Purchaser in connection with this Agreement are limited to the Vendor, notwithstanding that the Vendor may be, or be deemed to be by law, acting as an agent or otherwise on behalf of some other person, firm, corporation or other entity and the Purchaser hereby agrees that with respect to this Agreement it shall not have any rights, remedies or recourse against such other person, firm, corporation, or other entity at law or otherwise. The Vendor shall have the right to assign or transfer this Agreement in its sole discretion. The Purchaser shall be obliged to take title from any third party or the Subdivider holding title to the Property.

38. (a) Any notice or document required or desired to be given to the Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Addendum shall be delivered in accordance with the terms of such Addendum. For all other notices ("Non- Addendum Notices"), if any, notice shall be deemed to have been sufficiently given if same is in writing (electronically or on paper), and either personally delivered to the Purchaser or to his solicitor (at the address of the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor as in this Agreement, or as subsequently confirmed by the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor after the acceptance of this offer), or mailed by prepaid ordinary post or by registered mail, or sent by facsimile transmission, addressed to the Purchaser or to his solicitor (as the case may be) and/or delivered by electronic mail, and any such document or notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of personal delivery, or on the date of

The Vendor will however, upon request, deliver to the Purchaser (for registration at the Purchaser's expense) a release of the Vendor's lien or a withdrawal of caution but only after all monies owing to the Vendor by the Purchaser have been duly paid to the Vendor by the Purchaser, including without limitation, the repayment of any adjustments resulting from this transaction.

The Purchaser further covenants and agrees to extract a covenant similar to the foregoing from its immediate successors in title to the Property, and shall specifically include such a restrictive covenant in any subsequent conveyance, transfer or other disposition of the Property, and shall assign the benefit of such covenant to the Vendor or the Vendor's nominee forthwith upon the Vendor's request.

CONDOMINIUM PROVISIONS

44. In addition to purchasing the Real Property, the Purchaser hereby agrees that he\she is purchasing a common interest in the Condominium as more particularly described in the Condominium Documents on the terms and conditions as hereinafter.

(a) That portion of the Purchase Price applicable to the common interest in the Condominium shall be Two ($2.00) Dollars which shall be payable as part of the monies dues on the Unit Transfer Date from the Purchaser to the Vendor. There is no deposit payable by the Purchaser for the purchase of the common interest in the Condominium.

(b) The Purchaser agrees to accept title subject to the Creating Documents and such of the Condominium Documents registered from time to time (notwithstanding that same may be amended or varied from the proposed Condominium Documents provided to the Purchaser), as well as any other those interests, easements, encumbrances, covenants and other registered documents as permitted in accordance elsewhere in this Agreement. The Purchaser further acknowledges that upon receipt of a Transfer/Deed of Land to the POTL, that the common interest in the Condominium Corporation cannot be severed from the Real Property upon any subsequent sale of the POTL.

(c) The Purchaser acknowledges that the Condominium, the common elements and the purchase of a common interest in the Condominium are not warranted by Tarion under the ONHWPA.

(d) The Purchaser acknowledges that the roadway and laneway common elements of the Condominium Corporation will not be constructed to the standards and/or requirements, if any of the Municipality, for public roads and services. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that the Purchaser shall have no claims against the Vendor for said standards of workmanship or materials. The Purchaser agrees that the foregoing may be pleaded by the Vendor as an estoppel in any action brought by the Purchaser or his successors in title against the Vendor. The Vendor may, from time to time, change, vary or modify in its sole discretion or at the instance of any Governmental Authority or mortgagee or as it may require in its discretion, any part of the Condominium to conform with any municipal requirements related to official plan or official plan amendments, zoning by-laws, committee of adjustment and/or land division committee decisions, municipal site plan approval, or as may be required by the Vendor in its discretion. Such changes may be to the plans and specifications existing at inception of the Condominium or as they existed at the time the Purchaser entered into this Agreement, or as illustrated on any sales brochures or otherwise. The Purchaser shall have no claim against the Vendor for any such changes, variances or modifications nor shall the Vendor be required to give notice thereof. The Purchaser hereby consents to any such alterations and agrees to complete the sale notwithstanding any such modifications.

The Purchaser further confirms that in entering into this Agreement, he has not relied on any representation, warranty, collateral agreement or condition affecting this Agreement or the Property, or supported thereby, other than those specifically set out in this Agreement or in any of the schedules hereto, and specifically absolves the Vendor and/or any other party that may seek indemnification or contribution from the Vendor, of any obligation or liability to perform or comply with any promise or comply with any promise or representation that may have been made by any sales representative/agent or alleged against them, unless the same has been reduced to writing and is contained in this Agreement or in the schedules hereto.

EXECUTION AND ELECTRONIC EXCHANGE

49. This Agreement may be executed and counter-signed by telefacsimile and/or electronic mail and a telefacsimile or electronically transmitted reproduction of this offer with a signature of the Vendor and/or the Purchaser may be relied upon to the same extent as if it were an original. The Vendor and the Purchaser covenant and agree, upon the request of the other, to provide an originally executed copy of this Agreement to the requesting party.

EVIDENCE OF COMPLIANCE

50. The Purchaser shall pay the Vendor's solicitors charges for each evidence of compliance delivered to the Purchaser, or its solicitors, pursuant to subsection 81(6) of the Act.

N.S.F.

51. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that a three hundred and fifty dollar ($350.00) administrative fee shall be charged to the Purchaser for any cheque paid with respect to any deposit payable pursuant to this Agreement or any extras or upgrades or the occupancy fee which is returned "N.S.F." or upon which a "Stop Payment" has been ordered and such administrative fee shall be paid within five (5) days of written demand therefore, but in any event, shall be adjusted on Closing if applicable. In addition, the Purchaser shall pay any legal fees and disbursements charged by the Vendor's solicitors, plus applicable taxes, in connection with any such cheque which is returned N.S.F. or for which a Stop Payment has been ordered, as well as for the Purchaser's failure or delay in complying with the terms of this Agreement, which fees shall be paid forthwith upon demand by the Vendor or its solicitors.

ADVISORY CLAUSES AND PROVISIONS

1. Purchasers are advised that transformers, fire hydrants and valves, fencing, light standards, cable and telephone boxes and rear lot catch basins may be located within their POTL/lot.

2. This development will function as a common element condominium, comprising 36 freehold dwellings and certain common elements, the details and associated costs associated therewith which shall be presented in the sales office and through marketing materials.

3. Purchasers are advised that there will not be door to door mail delivery and that postal service will be from a super mail box(es) or designated Community Mailbox at a location designated by Canada Post in its discretion.

4. The Condominium Corporation shall be responsible for the inspection and long term maintenance of any stormwater management infrastructure within the common elements, and shall maintain the infrastructure in good repair and function on the subject lands.

5. Subject to the terms of the final registered condominium declaration, the Condominium Corporation shall be responsible for ensuring that proper drainage is maintained by ensuring that the grades remain in their original form. As such, the Corporation shall have a right of access to the lots for the purpose of inspecting, repairing and maintaining the common elements and the servicing of this infrastructure, whether or not such infrastructure is located within the common elements;

6. The Purchaser acknowledges that existing and/or future site plan agreements, section 37 agreements, development agreements and other agreements with the Municipality and other Governmental Authorities, affecting the real property may require the Vendor to provide the Purchaser with certain notices or warnings including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, notices or warnings regarding the usage of the real property, environmental issues, noise levels from adjacent or nearby buildings, hospitals, plazas, roadways or otherwise, school transportation and related educational issues, the absence of door-to-door mail delivery, the location of mailboxes, the status of services and works in the condominium and in general, any other matter that may be deemed by the Municipality and/or Governmental Authorities to inhibit the enjoyment by the Purchaser of the real property. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable at this time to provide the Purchaser with all such notices and warnings. On or before closing, the Purchaser shall forthwith execute upon request by the Vendor, acknowledgements or amendments to this Agreement containing the required notices and warning clauses. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable to sell the real property to the Purchaser unless the Purchaser executes such acknowledgements or amendments as aforesaid. In the event that the Purchaser fails to execute such acknowledgements or amendments forthwith upon being requested to do so by the Vendor, the Vendor shall be entitled, at its sole option, to terminate this Agreement and upon such termination, all monies paid to the Vendor hereunder shall be forfeited to the Vendor and this Agreement shall be at an end, and the Purchaser shall not have any further rights hereunder.

8. The Purchaser expressly acknowledges that at the date of execution of this Agreement, draft plan and/or site plan approval pursuant to the provisions of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990 and/or Condominium Act, R.S.O. 1998 as either may be amended may not yet have been obtained with respect to the project. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the draft conditions and any Development Agreements may contain warnings, and other provisions which are required to be included in agreements of purchase and sale for units in the Condominium. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to execute any and all documentation, including an amendment to this Agreement, as may be required by the Vendor, and in a form satisfactory to the Vendor, in order that the foregoing provisions shall be incorporated into this Agreement and acknowledged by the Purchaser.

9. The Purchaser acknowledges receipt of notice from the Vendor that the Vendor or related or associated corporations may develop other lands in the vicinity of the Condominium and may apply for zoning or rezoning thereof, and the Purchaser agrees and undertakes on behalf of themselves, their successors and assigns not to object or oppose any applications for the development, zoning, rezoning, amendment to the Official Plan or Secondary Plan or any similar applications and agrees that this paragraph may be pleaded as a bar to any objection thereof. The Purchaser covenants to include this clause in any conveyance, mortgage or disposition of the Unit and to assign the benefit of such covenant to the Vendor.

10. Without limiting the generality of the preceding subparagraph, the Purchaser is hereby advised that:

    (i) despite the inclusion of noise control features in the development and within the building units, sound levels due to increasing road and rail traffic may on occasion interfere with some activities of the dwelling occupants;

    (ii) odour levels from neighbouring properties may occasionally cause inconvenience to the residential occupants;

    (iii) local schools may have limited capacity, which could impact the availability of enrollment for residents in the area; and

(iv) as and when other residential units/POTLs in the project are being completed and/or moved into, excessive levels of noise, vibration, dust and/or debris are possible, and same may accordingly temporarily cause noise and inconvenience to the residential occupants.

11. The Municipality does not require off-site snow removal. However, in the case of heavy snow falls the limited storage space available on the property may make it necessary to truck the snow off the site and the cost of same will be included in the common expense fees.

12. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor is not required to deliver "hard" or paper copies of the documentation pertaining to the conveyance of title to the POTL, draft or otherwise, to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor (the "Closing Documentation"). The Vendor or the Vendor's representatives may, at their option, deliver to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor any or all of the Closing Documentation by email and/or by website. If delivered by website, the Closing Documentation shall be made available for download on an internet website designated by the Vendor and access to such website shall be affected by way of a confidential password to be provided to the Purchaser and/or the Purchaser's solicitor. In the event the Vendor delivers or tenders closing documents required in connection with this transaction on the Title Transfer Date by posting same on the world wide web, then the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on the Closing Date for the costs incurred by the Vendor to utilize such web services for the project and/or this transaction. In the event that any such fees are issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right to apportion such costs to the Purchaser in accordance with his/her proportionate ownership interest in the Condominium as set out in Schedule D to the Declaration.

13. Purchasers/tenants are advised that sound levels due to increasing road traffic may occasionally interfere with some activities of the dwelling occupants as the sound levels exceed the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria.

14. Purchasers/Tenants are advised that this dwelling unit has been fitted with a forced air heating system and the ducting, etc. was sized to accommodate central air conditioning. Installation of central air conditioning by the occupant will allow windows and exterior doors to remain closed, thereby ensuring that the indoor sound levels are within the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria. (Note: The location and installation of the outdoor air conditioning device should be done so as to comply with noise criteria of MOE Publication NPC-216, Residential Air Conditioning Devices and thus minimize the noise impacts both on and in the immediate vicinity of the subject property.)

1. Setting the Firm Closing Date

(a) Completing Construction Without Delay: The Vendor shall take all reasonable steps to complete construction of the home on the Property and to Close without delay.
(b) Firm Closing Date: The Vendor shall set a Firm Closing Date, which shall be set out in the Statement of Critical Dates at the time the Purchase Agreement is signed.

2. Changing the Firm Closing Date – Three Ways

(a) The Firm Closing Date, can be changed only:
  (i) by the Vendor setting a Delayed Closing Date in accordance with section 3;
  (ii) by the mutual written agreement of the Vendor and Purchaser in accordance with section 4; or
  (iii) as the result of an Unavoidable Delay of which proper written notice is given in accordance with section 5.
(b) If a new Firm Closing Date is set in accordance with section 4 or 5, then the new date is the "Firm Closing Date" for all purposes in this Addendum.

3. Changing the Firm Closing Date – By Setting a Delayed Closing Date

(a) If the Vendor cannot Close on the Firm Closing Date and sections 4 and 5 do not apply, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a Delayed Closing Date in accordance with this section, and delayed closing compensation is payable in accordance with section 7.
(b) The Delayed Closing Date may be any Business Day after the date the Purchaser receives written notice of the Delayed Closing Date but not later than the Outside Closing Date.
(c) The Vendor shall give written notice to the Purchaser of the Delayed Closing Date as soon as the Vendor knows that it will be unable to Close on the Firm Closing Date, and in any event at least 10 days before the Firm Closing Date, failing which delayed closing compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Closing Date, in accordance with paragraph 7(c). If notice of a new Delayed Closing Date is not given by the Vendor before the Firm Closing Date, then the new Delayed Closing Date shall be deemed to be the date which is 90 days after the Firm Closing Date.
(d) After the Delayed Closing Date is set, if the Vendor cannot Close on the Delayed Closing Date, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a new Delayed Closing Date, unless the delay arises due to Unavoidable Delay under section 5 or is mutually agreed upon under section 4, in which case the requirements of those sections must be met. Paragraphs (b) and (c) above apply with respect to the setting of the new Delayed Closing Date.
(e) Nothing in this section affects the right of the Purchaser or Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement on the bases set out in section 10.

4. Changing Critical Dates – By Mutual Agreement

(a) This Addendum sets out a framework for setting, extending and/or accelerating Critical dates, which cannot be altered contractually except as set out in this section 4. Any amendment not in accordance with this section is voidable at the option of the Purchaser.
(b) The Vendor and Purchaser may at any time, after signing the Purchase Agreement, mutually agree in writing to accelerate or extend any of the Critical Dates. Any amendment which accelerates or extends any of the Critical Dates must include the following provisions:

  (i) the Purchaser and Vendor agree that the amendment is entirely voluntary – the Purchaser has no obligation to sign the amendment and each understands that this purchase transaction will still be valid if the Purchaser does not sign this amendment;
  (ii) the amendment includes a revised Statement of Critical Dates which replaces the previous Statement of Critical Dates;
  (iii) the Purchaser acknowledges that the amendment may affect delayed closing compensation payable; and
  (iv) if the change involves extending either the Firm Closing Date or the Delayed Closing Date, then the amending agreement shall:

    i. disclose to the Purchaser that the signing of the amendment may result in the loss of delayed closing compensation as described in section 7;
    ii. unless there is an express waiver of compensation, describe in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation; and
    iii. contain a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser waives compensation or accepts the compensation referred to in clause ii above, in either case, in full satisfaction of any delayed closing compensation payable by the Vendor for the period up to the new Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date.

  If the Purchaser for his or her own purposes requests a change of the Firm Closing Date or the Delayed Closing Date, then subparagraphs (b)(i), (iii) and (iv) above shall not apply.
(c) A Vendor is permitted to include a provision in the Purchase Agreement allowing the Vendor a one-time unilateral right to extend a Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, as the case may be, for one (1) Business Day to avoid the necessity of tender where a Purchaser is not ready to complete the transaction on the Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, as the case may be. Delayed closing compensation will not be payable for such period and the Vendor may not impose any penalty or interest charge upon the Purchaser with respect to such extension.

Authentisign ID: 246A866A-BBA6-F011-8E61-0022483DC80

(d) The Vendor and Purchaser may agree in the Purchase Agreement to any unilateral extension or acceleration rights that are for the benefit of the Purchaser.

5. Extending Dates – Due to Unavoidable Delay

(a) If Unavoidable Delay occurs, the Vendor may extend Critical Dates by no more than the length of the Unavoidable Delay Period, without the approval of the Purchaser and without the requirement to pay delayed closing compensation in connection with the Unavoidable Delay, provided the requirements of this section are met.
(b) If the Vendor wishes to extend Critical Dates on account of Unavoidable Delay, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, and an estimate of the duration of the delay. Once the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has commenced, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser by the earlier of: 20 days thereafter; and the next Critical Date.
(c) As soon as reasonably possible, and no later than 20 days after the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has concluded, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, identifying the date of its conclusion, and setting new Critical Dates. The new Critical Dates are calculated by adding to the then next Critical Date the number of days of the Unavoidable Delay Period (the other Critical Dates changing accordingly), provided that the Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, as the case may be, must be at least 10 days after the day of giving notice unless the parties agree otherwise. Either the Vendor or the Purchaser may request in writing an earlier Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, and the other party's consent to the earlier date shall not be unreasonably withheld.
(d) If the Vendor fails to give written notice of the conclusion of the Unavoidable Delay in the manner required by paragraph (c) above, then the notice is ineffective, the existing Critical Dates are unchanged, and any delayed closing compensation payable under section 7 is payable from the existing Firm Closing Date.
(e) Any notice setting new Critical Dates given by the Vendor under this section shall include an updated revised Statement of Critical Dates.

6. Early Termination Conditions

(a) The Vendor and Purchaser may include conditions in the Purchase Agreement that, if not satisfied, give rise to early termination of the Purchase Agreement, but only in the limited way described in this section.
(b) The Vendor is not permitted to include any conditions in the Purchase Agreement other than: the types of Early Termination Conditions listed in Schedule A; and/or the conditions referred to in paragraphs (j), (k) and (l) below. Any other condition included in a Purchase Agreement for the benefit of the Vendor that is not expressly permitted under Schedule A or paragraphs (j), (k) and (l) below is deemed null and void and is not enforceable by the Vendor, but does not affect the validity of the balance of the Purchase Agreement.
(c) The Vendor confirms that this Purchase Agreement is subject to Early Termination Conditions that, if not satisfied (or waived, if applicable), may result in the termination of the Purchase Agreement. ○ Yes ○ No
(d) If the answer in (c) above is "Yes", then the Early Termination Conditions are as follows. This time limitation does not apply to the condition in subparagraph 1(b)(iv) of Schedule A which must be satisfied or waived by the Vendor within 60 days following the later of: (A) the signing of the Purchase Agreement; and (B) the satisfaction or waiver by the Purchaser of a Purchaser financing condition permitted under paragraph (l) below.

(e) There are no Early Termination Conditions applicable to this Purchase Agreement other than those identified in subparagraph (d) above and any appendix listing additional Early Termination Conditions.
(f) The Vendor agrees to take all commercially reasonable steps within its power to satisfy the Early Termination Conditions identified in subparagraph (d) above.
(g) For conditions under paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A the following applies:

(i) conditions in paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A may not be waived by either party;
(ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice not later than five (5) Business Days after the date specified for satisfaction of a condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied (together with reasonable details and backup materials) and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
(iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed not satisfied and the Purchase Agreement is terminated.

(h) For conditions under paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A the following applies:

(i) conditions in paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A may be waived by the Vendor;
(ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice on or before the date specified for satisfaction of the condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied or waived; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied nor waived, and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
(iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed satisfied or waived and the Purchase Agreement will continue to be binding on both parties.

(i) If a Purchase Agreement or proposed Purchase Agreement contains Early Termination Conditions, the Purchaser has three (3) Business Days after the day of receipt of a true and complete copy of the Purchase Agreement or proposed Purchase Agreement to review the nature of the conditions (preferably with legal counsel). If the Purchaser is not satisfied, in the Purchaser's sole discretion, with the Early Termination Conditions, the Purchaser may revoke the Purchaser's offer as set out in the proposed Purchase Agreement, or terminate the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, by giving written notice to the Vendor within those three Business Days.
(j) The Purchase Agreement may be conditional until Closing (transfer to the Purchaser of title to the home), upon compliance with the subdivision control provisions (section 50) of the Planning Act, which compliance shall be obtained by the Vendor at its sole expense, on or before Closing.
(k) The Purchaser is cautioned that there may be other conditions in the Purchase Agreement that allow the Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement due to the fault of the Purchaser.
(l) The Purchase Agreement may include any condition that is for the sole benefit of the Purchaser and that is agreed to by the Vendor (e.g., the sale of an existing dwelling, Purchaser financing or a basement walkout). The Purchase Agreement may specify that the Purchaser has a right to terminate the Purchase Agreement if any such condition is not met, and may set out the terms on which termination by the Purchaser may be effected.

MAKING A COMPENSATION CLAIM

7. Delayed Closing Compensation

(a) The Vendor warrants to the Purchaser that, if Closing is delayed beyond the Firm Closing Date (other than by mutual agreement or as a result of Unavoidable Delay as permitted under sections 4 and 5), then the Vendor shall compensate the Purchaser up to a total amount of $7,500, which amount includes: (i) payment to the Purchaser of a set amount of $150 a day for living expenses for each day of delay until the date of Closing; or the date of termination of the Purchase Agreement, as applicable under paragraph (b) below; and (ii) any other expenses (supported by receipts) incurred by the Purchaser due to the delay.
(b) Delayed closing compensation is payable only if: (i) Closing occurs; or (ii) the Purchase Agreement is terminated or deemed to have been terminated under paragraph 10(b) of this Addendum. Delayed closing compensation is payable only if the Purchaser's claim is made to Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Closing, or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and otherwise in accordance with this Addendum. Compensation claims are subject to any further conditions set out in the ONHWP Act.
(c) If the Vendor gives written notice of a Delayed Closing Date to the Purchaser less than 10 days before the Firm Closing Date, contrary to the requirements of paragraph 3(c), then delayed closing compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Closing Date.
(d) Living expenses are direct living costs such as for accommodation and meals. Receipts are not required in support of a claim for living expenses, as a set daily amount of $150 per day is payable. The Purchaser must provide receipts in support of any claim for other delayed closing compensation, such as for moving and storage costs. Submission of false receipts disentitles the Purchaser to any delayed closing compensation in connection with a claim.

Authentisign ID: 246A866A-BBA6-F011-8E61-0022483300C80

(e) If delayed closing compensation is payable, the Purchaser may make a claim to the Vendor for that compensation after Closing or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and shall include all receipts (apart from living expenses) which evidence any part of the Purchaser's claim. The Vendor shall assess the Purchaser's claim by determining the amount of delayed closing compensation payable based on the rules set out in section 7 and the receipts provided by the Purchaser, and the Vendor shall promptly provide that assessment information to the Purchaser. The Purchaser and the Vendor shall use reasonable efforts to settle the claim and when the claim is settled, the Vendor shall prepare an acknowledgement signed by both parties which:

(i) includes the Vendor's assessment of the delayed closing compensation payable;
(ii) describes in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation (the "Compensation"), if any; and
(iii) contains a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser accepts the Compensation in full satisfaction of any delay compensation payable by the Vendor.

(f) If the Vendor and Purchaser cannot agree as contemplated in paragraph 7(e), then to make a claim to Tarion the Purchaser must file a claim with Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Closing. A claim may also be made and the same rules apply if the sale transaction is terminated under paragraph 10(b), in which case, the deadline for a claim is one (1) year after termination.

8. Adjustments to Purchase Price

Only the items set out in Schedule B (or an amendment to Schedule B), shall be the subject of adjustment or change to the purchase price or the balance due on Closing. The Vendor agrees that it shall not charge as an adjustment or readjustment to the purchase price of the home, any reimbursement for a sum paid or payable by the Vendor to a third party unless the sum is ultimately paid to the third party either before or after Closing. If the Vendor charges an amount in contravention of the preceding sentence, the Vendor shall forthwith readjust with the Purchaser. This section shall not: restrict or prohibit payments for items disclosed in Part I of Schedule B which have a fixed fee; nor shall it restrict or prohibit the parties from agreeing on how to allocate as between them, any rebates, refunds or incentives provided by the federal government, a provincial or municipal government or an agency of any such government, before or after Closing.

MISCELLANEOUS

9. Ontario Building Code – Conditions of Closing

(a) On or before Closing, the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser:
(i) an Occupancy Permit (as defined in paragraph (d)) for the home; or
(ii) if an Occupancy Permit is not required under the Building Code, a signed written confirmation by the Vendor that all conditions of occupancy under the Building Code have been fulfilled and occupancy is permitted under the Building Code.

(b) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (a), to the extent that the Purchaser and the Vendor agree that the Purchaser shall be responsible for one or more prerequisites to obtaining permission for occupancy under the Building Code, (the "Purchaser Occupancy Obligations"):
(i) the Purchaser shall not be entitled to delayed closing compensation if the reason for the delay is that the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations have not been completed;
(ii) the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser, upon fulfilling all prerequisites to obtaining permission for occupancy under the Building Code (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations), a signed written confirmation that the Vendor has fulfilled such prerequisites; and
(iii) if the Purchaser and Vendor have agreed that such prerequisites (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations) are to be fulfilled prior to Closing, then the Vendor shall provide the signed written confirmation required by subparagraph (ii) on or before the date of Closing.

(c) If the Vendor cannot satisfy the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), the Vendor shall set a Delayed Closing Date (or new Delayed Closing Date) on a date that the Vendor reasonably expects to have satisfied the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), as the case may be. In setting the Delayed Closing Date (or new Delayed Closing Date), the Vendor shall comply with the requirements of section 3, and delayed closing compensation shall be payable in accordance with section 7. Despite the foregoing, delayed closing compensation shall not be payable for a delay under this paragraph (c) if the inability to satisfy the requirements of subparagraph (b)(ii) is because the Purchaser has failed to satisfy the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations.

(d) For the purposes of this section, an "Occupancy Permit" means any written or electronic document, however styled, whether final, provisional or temporary, provided by the chief building official (as defined in the Building Code Act) or a person designated by the chief building official, that evidences that permission to occupy the home under the Building Code has been granted.

10. Termination of the Purchase Agreement

(a) The Vendor and the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by mutual written agreement. Such written mutual agreement may specify how monies paid by the Purchaser, including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras are to be allocated if not repaid in full.

Authentisign ID: 246A866A-BBA6-F011-8E61-0022483DC80

(b) If for any reason (other than breach of contract by the Purchaser) Closing has not occurred by the Outside Closing Date, then the Purchaser has 30 days to terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor. If the Purchaser does not provide written notice of termination within such 30-day period then the Purchase Agreement shall continue to be binding on both parties and the Delayed Closing Date shall be the date set under paragraph 3(c), regardless of whether such date is beyond the Outside Closing Date.
(c) If: calendar dates for the applicable Critical Dates are not inserted in the Statement of Critical Dates; or if any date for Closing is expressed in the Purchase Agreement or in any other document to be subject to change depending upon the happening of an event (other than as permitted in this Addendum), then the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor.
(d) The Purchase Agreement may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of section 6.
(e) Nothing in this Addendum derogates from any right of termination that either the Purchaser or the Vendor may have at law or in equity on the basis of, for example, frustration of contract or fundamental breach of contract.
(f) Except as permitted in this section, the Purchase Agreement may not be terminated by reason of the Vendor's delay in Closing alone.

11. Refund of Monies Paid on Termination

(a) If the Purchase Agreement is terminated (other than as a result of breach of contract by the Purchaser), unless there is agreement to the contrary under paragraph 10(a), the Vendor shall refund all monies paid by the Purchaser including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras, within 10 days of such termination, with interest from the date each amount was paid to the Vendor to the date of refund to the Purchaser. The Purchaser cannot be compelled by the Vendor to execute a release of the Vendor as a prerequisite to obtaining the refund of monies payable as a result of termination of the Purchase Agreement under this paragraph, although the Purchaser may be required to sign a written acknowledgement confirming the amount of monies refunded and termination of the purchase transaction. Nothing in this Addendum prevents the Vendor and Purchaser from entering into such other termination agreement and/or release as may be agreed to by the parties.
(b) The rate of interest payable on the Purchaser's monies is 2% less than the minimum rate at which the Bank of Canada makes short-term advances to members of Canada Payments Association, as of the date of termination of the Purchase Agreement.
(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) above, if either party initiates legal proceedings to contest termination of the Purchase Agreement or the refund of monies paid by the Purchaser, and obtains a legal determination, such amounts and interest shall be payable as determined in those proceedings.

The Pre-Delivery Inspection (PDI)

Before you take possession of your new home, your builder is required to conduct a predelivery inspection (PDI) with you or someone you designate to act on your behalf. If you wish, you may be accompanied by someone who can provide expert assistance. The PDI is important because it is an opportunity to learn about how to operate and maintain parts of your home, such as the ventilation, plumbing, and heating systems. It is also important because it gives you an opportunity to note items in your home that are damaged, missing, incomplete, or not working properly before you take possession of your home. This record is also significant as it may help show what items may have been damaged before you moved in and helps resolve any disputes relating to whether or not an item of damage was caused by the use of the home.

The PDI is only one piece of evidence relating to damaged or incomplete Items, and you should note and document (e.g. via photos or video) any concerns or damaged items as soon as you notice them after taking possession if they were missed on your PDI. If the damaged items are not addressed by your builder, you can include them in your first warranty form submission to Tarion. Damaged items are covered under the warranty if the damage was caused by the builder or their trades. There is more information about the PDI here: https://www.tarion.com/homeowners/homeowner-resources-hub

Deposit Protection

The deposit you provide to your builder is protected up to certain limits if your builder goes bankrupt, fundamentally breaches your Agreement of Purchase and Sale or you exercise your legal right to terminate it. Deposit coverage limits are $60,000 if the purchase price is $600,000 or less and 10% of purchase price to a maximum of $100,000 if the purchase price is over $600,000. This protection includes the money you put down towards upgrades and other extras.

Delayed Closing Coverage

Your builder guarantees that your home will be ready for you to move in by a date specified in the Agreement of Purchase and Sale or a date that has been properly extended (if for certain reasons the original closing date cannot be met). You may be able to claim up to $7,500 from your builder in compensation if they do not meet the conditions for an allowable extension that are outlined in the Addendum to your Agreement of Purchase and Sale.

Warranty Coverage

The warranty on work and materials commences on your occupancy date and provides up to a maximum of $400,000 in coverage. There are limitations on scope and duration as follows. Your builder warrants that your home will, on delivery, have these warranties:

One-Year Warranty

- Your home is constructed in a workmanlike manner, free from defects in material, is fit for habitation and complies with Ontario's Building Code.

TARION

- Protects against unauthorized substitution of items specified in the Agreement of Purchase and Sale or selected by you.

Two-Year Warranty

- Protects against water penetration through the basement or foundation walls, windows, and the building envelope.
- Covers defects in work and materials in the electrical, plumbing, and heating delivery and distribution systems.
- Covers defects in work and materials that result in the detachment, displacement, or deterioration of exterior cladding (such as brick work, aluminum, or vinyl siding).
- Protects against violations of Ontario's Building Code that affect health and safety.

Seven-Year Warranty

- Protects against defects in work or materials that affect a structural load-bearing element of the home resulting in structural failure or that materially and adversely compromise the structural integrity; and/or that materially and adversely affect the use of a significant portion of the home.

Warranty Exclusions

Your warranty, provided to you by your builder and backed by Tarion, is a limited warranty – not all deficiencies are covered. And the protection provided by Tarion is also limited. Exclusions to coverage include: normal wear and tear, damage caused by improper maintenance, damage caused by a third party, secondary damage caused by defects that are under warranty, supplementary warranties, deficiencies caused by homeowner actions, elevators, HVAC appliances, specific defects accepted in writing and damage resulting from an Act of God.

Construction Performance Guidelines

The Construction Performance Guidelines are a resource to provide advance guidance as to how Tarion may decide disputes between homeowners and builders regarding defects in work or materials. The Construction Performance Guidelines are intended to complement Ontario's Building Code. They are supplemented by any applicable guidelines or standards produced by industry associations. They do not replace manufacturer warranties. The Construction Performance Guidelines are available in several different formats accessible via https://tarion.com/builders/construction-performance-guidelines

INFORMATION FOR BUYERS OF NEW/ PRE-CONSTRUCTION CONDOMINIUM HOMES

Property Jefferson Heights - 16 Bancroft Lane

INFORMATION FOR BUYERS OF NEW/PRE-CONSTRUCTION CONDOMINIUM HOMES ABOUT THE POSSIBLE TERMINATION OF PURCHASE AGREEMENT

To: Purchaser(s) of the Property

1. Take Note

You are entering into a purchase transaction which relates to a new/pre-construction condominium unit[1]. You should be aware of the possibility that it may never be completed.

Important information about your purchase is set out in this document.

You should review your purchase agreement including this document with a legal professional familiar with condominium transactions.

Remember that you have a 10-day period to cancel your purchase.[2]

2. Be Aware of Timing

The Vendor's best estimate as to when your unit will be ready for occupancy is shown as the "First Tentative Occupancy Date" on the Statement of Critical Dates and is _____ (Month/Day/Year). This date may be further extended. Please refer to the Statement of Critical Dates in the Condominium Addendum (which forms part of your Purchase Agreement) for an explanation of how this date may change.

3. Completion of Your Purchase Is Not Certain – It Can Be Terminated by the Vendor[3]

Your Purchase Agreement contains early termination conditions which could result in your purchase being terminated. These are set out in detail in the Condominium Addendum. In general terms, the Vendor can end your purchase if:

a. By N/A (Month/Day/Year), a set level of sales for the project has not been achieved.

b. By N/A (Month/Day/Year), certain zoning and/or development approvals have not been obtained.

c. By N/A (Month/Day/Year), satisfactory financing for the project has not been obtained.

This may not list all of the conditions that may exist in the Condominium Addendum.

[1] This information sheet applies to residential units in a standard residential condominium corporation as well as a phased condominium corporation (see paras 6(2) 2 and 4. of the Condominium Act, 1998).

[2] See Condominium Act, 1998, s.73.

4. Ownership of Property

There are currently a number of encumbrances on title to the Property that would prevent conveyance of the title to the unit to the purchaser. Prior to closing, Albert Gelman Inc., in its capacity as Receiver of Jefferson Properties Limited Partnership and 2011836 Ontario Corp., will apply to the Ontario Superior Court of Justice [Commercial List] for a vesting order that will vest title to the unit in the purchaser, free and clear of all such encumbrances, such that the sale can be completed.

HARMONIZED SALES TAXES

4. (a) The Purchase Price set out above includes the HST net of Rebates as assigned/transferred to the Vendor, and the Purchase Price has been established on the basis that Purchaser will qualify for the full amount of the Rebate or Rebates, as applicable, and that the Rebate or Rebates will be assigned or an equivalent amount transferred or credited to the Vendor, in addition to such Purchase Price. The current rate of HST is 13 percent and this is the rate that is applicable to this contract before netting out the Rebates from such HST. Purchasers are advised that the Purchase Price offered to the Purchaser has been calculated on the basis that the Purchaser shall qualify for and assign to and/or transfer and/or reimburse the Vendor the maximum Rebate based on the Purchase Price set out herein as adjusted, save and except as hereinafter set out to the contrary. The Vendor shall credit the Purchaser on Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date as determined by the Vendor, with all Rebates to which the Purchaser is entitled, subject to the Purchaser assigning and/or transferring or crediting the Rebates (or an equivalent amount) to the Vendor and/or reimbursing the Vendor for such Rebates as hereinafter set out subject to the assignment/transfer/crediting of the Rebates to the Vendor. The Purchaser warrants and represents that he/she qualifies for the full amount of the Rebate possible with respect to this purchase transaction and that either he or she or a blood relation, as set out in the Income Tax Act (Canada), shall be occupying the Property from and after the Closing Date. In the event that there is any legislation of any Governmental Authority that does not permit the assignment of the Rebate then the Purchaser shall transfer, credit and/or pay an equivalent amount of the Rebate to the Vendor on Closing (or thereafter as applicable) and the Vendor shall be entitled to vendor's lien for such amount and the Purchaser acknowledges that this amount form part of the consideration due to the Vendor.

(b) If the rate of HST is increased or decreased or the percentage of calculation of the Rebate is amended/reduced, or the rate or thresholds in respect of the HST exemptions or rebate entitlement are changed between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date, with the result that the net amount of the HST to be remitted by the Vendor increases, then the Purchaser shall pay the Vendor an amount on the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date (as determined by the Vendor) equal to such additional HST payable by the Vendor. A statutory declaration of any officer of the Vendor as to the alteration, increase amendment, etc., as hereinbefore set out shall be determinative in this regard.

(c) If the rate of the HST is reduced between the date of this Agreement and the Unit Transfer Date but such reduction is for the benefit of the Purchaser and not the Vendor (the "HST Credit"), then the Purchaser hereby assigns all right, benefit and entitlement to such HST Credit and shall execute any and all forms, documents, assignments, etc., as required by the Vendor in this regard in the Vendor's absolute discretion. The Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the HST Credit directly to the Vendor.

(d) The Purchaser covenants and warrants (which covenant and warranty shall survive the completion of this Agreement) that he/she has not made any claim and will not make any claim for any Rebate or HST Credit in respect of the Property.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the Purchaser agrees that the Purchase Price for the Property, set out on page 1 of this Agreement, does not include HST on closing adjustments and amounts payable for Extras and/or upgrades purchased or ordered by the Purchaser (whether as part of this Agreement or otherwise) payable under this Agreement and that same are subject to HST on the Closing Date and/or the Unit Transfer Date and that such HST shall be chargeable and payable by the Purchaser in addition to any other HST included in the Purchase Price. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the HST payable in respect of such adjustments and/or Extras and/or upgrades shall be at the rate of HST otherwise applicable to this Agreement.

5. The Purchaser hereby irrevocably assigns and/or transfers to and/or credits the Vendor all of the Purchaser's rights, interests and entitlements to the Rebate (and concomitantly releases all of the Purchaser's claims to or interests in the Rebate, to and in favour of the Vendor), and hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the Rebate directly to the Vendor. The Purchaser represents and warrants that the Purchaser is acquiring the Property for his or his blood relative's primary place of residence within the meaning of the Excise Tax Act (Canada) or Income Tax Act (Canada) or any replacement statute and is entitled to the maximum amount of the Rebate applicable to purchase transactions of this nature, at the Purchase Price as amended in accordance with in this Agreement. In the event that there are separate assignments and rebates of the provincial and/or federal portion of the HST with respect to this transaction, the Purchaser shall execute and deliver all applications, assignments, declarations, documents and/or other assurances (in the form required by the Vendor or the Government of Canada and/or the Province of Ontario) to the Vendor required to establish and assign all of his or her right, title and interest in the Rebates or any portion thereof. In the event that there is any legislation of any Governmental Authority that does not permit the assignment of the Rebate then the Purchaser shall transfer, credit and/or pay an equivalent amount of the Rebate to the Vendor on Closing (or thereafter as applicable) and the Vendor shall be entitled to vendor's lien for such amount and the Purchaser acknowledges that this amount form part of the consideration due to the Vendor. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that the Vendor shall have the right in its complete discretion to determine whether the Purchaser qualifies for any Rebates and the Vendor's determination of such entitlement shall be final and binding. The Purchaser hereby covenants, warrants and/or represents to the Vendor, with respect to this transaction, that:

(a) the Purchaser is a natural person who is acquiring the Property with the intention of being the sole beneficial owner thereof on the Unit Transfer Date (and not as the agent or trustee for or on behalf of any other party or parties),

(b) upon the Closing Date and continuing up to and including the Unit Transfer Date, and continuing thereafter, the Purchaser or one or more of the Purchaser's blood relations, as determined in accordance with the Excise Tax Act (Canada) and Income Tax Act (Canada), shall personally occupy the Property as his, her or their primary place of residence, for such period of time as shall be required by the applicable legislation in order to entitle the Purchaser to the Rebate (and the ultimate assignment thereof to and in favour of the Vendor) in respect of the Purchaser's acquisition of the Property; and

(c) he or she has not claimed (and hereby covenants not to hereafter claim), for the Purchaser's own account, any part of the Rebate in connection with the Purchaser's acquisition of the Property, save as otherwise hereinafter expressly provided or contemplated or permitted.

6. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that:

(a) the total consideration for the calculation of HST includes not only the Purchase Price but all other taxable supplies charged to the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise including without limitation, Extras, upgrades, applicable adjustments and/or reimbursements charged by the Vendor under this Agreement such as Tarion Enrolment fees, connections fees, as well as any charge for development charge levies and education levies or other levies and charges, etc. (with such additional amounts hereinafter referred to as the "Additional Charges"), the costs of which the Vendor may charge to the Purchaser. The Additional Charges and applicable HST shall constitute part of the taxable supply with respect to the said transaction and shall be added to the Purchase Price to determine the total consideration upon which HST and the Rebate are calculated; and

(b) any Extras and/or Additional Charges are part of the single supply of the home and for HST purposes constitutes a change in the price being paid for the Dwelling and for the purposes of HST shall be deemed to form part of the Purchase Price.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if it is determined by the Vendor, in its sole, subjective and absolute discretion, that the Purchaser is not entitled to the maximum permitted Rebate or any portion thereof (including any portion of same the Purchaser becomes disentitled to as a result of an increase in the total consideration payable hereunder as a result of any Additional Charges, Extras, etc., purchased or payable by the Purchaser), the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor, in addition to any other amounts stipulated in this Agreement, the amount of the Rebate to which the Purchaser becomes disentitled, (which shall be paid on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date as required by the Vendor as a requirement of closing), and until so paid, such amount shall form a charge/vendor's lien against the Property, which charge shall be recoverable by the Vendor in the same manner as a mortgage in default. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any loss, cost, damage and/or liability (including without limitation, legal fees and disbursements, and an amount equivalent to the Rebate, plus penalties and interest thereon) which the Vendor may suffer, incur or be charged with, as a result of the Purchaser's failure to qualify for the maximum permitted Rebate, or as a result of the Purchaser having qualified initially but being subsequently disentitled to the Rebate, or as a result of the inability to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor (or the ineffectiveness of the documents purporting to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor) and such amounts shall be deemed to comprise a vendor's lien registerable on title to the Property. If the Vendor determines that the Purchaser is not entitled to the Rebate at any time prior to the Unit Transfer Date then it shall be entitled to demand and the Purchaser shall pay, an additional deposit equal to an amount that is 20% of the Purchase Price as set out on Page 1 of this Agreement.

8. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that in the event of any amendment, revival, novation, re-instatement of this Agreement, acquisition of Extras or upgrades, or any other action of the Purchaser results in the Rebate or HST Credit not being assignable, in whole or in part, then the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor on the Closing Date or Unit Transfer Date (as determined by the Vendor) the amount of the Rebate or HST Credit which the Vendor does not receive or become entitled to.

9. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that any breach by it of the provisions as set out in these foregoing sections dealing with HST shall be deemed to be a fundamental breach by the Purchaser and the Vendor, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor (at law or in equity) may, at its sole option, unilaterally suspend all of the Purchaser's rights, benefits and privileges contained herein (including without limitation, the right to make colour and finish selections with respect to the Property as hereinbefore provided or contemplated), and/or may unilaterally declare this Agreement to be terminated and of no further force or effect, whereupon all deposit monies theretofore paid, together with all monies paid for any extras or changes to the Property, may be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at contract, law or in equity.

The Purchaser acknowledges that the Municipality and any Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction, shall have the right to enter upon the Property and Lands for such purpose in the event the Vendor and/or Subdivider and/or the Condominium fails to satisfy its obligations in respect of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the transfer of title to the Property may contain a right of re-entry in favor of the Vendor and/or the Municipality and/or any other Governmental Authority having jurisdiction as aforesaid.

(d) Title to the Property may be subject to Development Agreements (as hereinafter defined) as well as restrictions, and/or covenants may be required to be given by the Purchaser on closing, preventing any changes being subsequently made to any exterior colour, materials, windows, treatment and/or cladding material of any exterior component of the Dwelling for any period of time after closing and as well as preventing the alteration or removal of any trees, vegetation, fencing, berm, retaining wall and/or other exterior element and the parties acknowledge that such items may be controlled by the Vendor, third party and/or any other governmental authority having jurisdiction for any period of time after closing. The Development Agreements may also contain important warning clauses affecting the use and enjoyment of the Property and the Purchaser is strongly advised to review same. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to abide by and comply with the terms and conditions of the Development Agreements, architectural controls, restrictions and covenants and agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any losses and all damages, suits costs, expenses or liabilities incurred by the Vendor as a result of the Purchaser not complying with or defaulting under (in any way and with negligence not being required) with the terms and provisions of the such Development Agreements. In addition, the Purchaser covenants and agrees not to dump any materials, sod or other debris, garbage and/or landscaping or construction materials upon any other lands owned by the Vendor and\or the Municipality and the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on closing or thereafter, for the costs of removing such materials and dumping same, including inter alia, haulage costs, labour costs and/or any other costs, expenses or fines incurred by the Vendor as a result of the Purchaser breaching this covenant, and the Vendor shall be entitled to register and maintain a vendor's lien for such costs.

(e) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the filing of the consulting engineers' certificate(s) with the Municipality, or the issuance by the Municipality of an occupancy certificate or such other confirmation that the Property may be occupied shall, subject to the provisions of the Addendum, constitute complete and absolute acceptance by the Purchaser of all construction matters, and the quality and sufficiency thereof including, without limitation, all mechanical, structural and architectural matters. Acceptance of construction and siting of the Dwelling and\or grading of the POTL by the Municipality or governmental authorities shall conclusively constitute acceptance by the Purchaser. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Property, road allowance or private road fronting or flanking the Property may have one or more postal boxes, CATV boxes, telephone boxes, fire hydrants and/or hydro-electric transformers, hydro poles, sidewalks, landscape furniture, storm drains, etc., as required by the Municipality and the Purchaser agrees to accept same where located, notwithstanding that same may not be shown on any sales material, site plan, community property plan or brochures.

MAINTENANCE OF SOD AND LANDSCAPING

17. The Purchaser shall be solely responsible for the watering and general maintenance of the sod, tree, shrubs any other landscape plantings placed on the Property and any adjacent or abutting unpaved road allowances and/or boulevards from and after the closing date, or from the date that the sod is laid or the trees or shrubs or any other landscape plantings are planted, whichever date is later, and the Vendor shall have no obligation in that regard. In the event that the Vendor is required to water and/or replace laid sod, trees, shrubs or any other landscape plantings as a result of the Purchaser's default of the aforesaid obligation, then the Vendor shall not be obligated to do so until payment has been made therefor by the Purchaser. Purchasers of POTLs upon which the Vendor has installed landscaping in accordance with the final approved plans for the Condominium or the site shall be obliged to maintain and water and replace such soft landscaping and vegetation and shall not alter or remove any such soft landscaping materials or vegetation unless replaced by soft landscaping materials and vegetation in keeping with the approved landscaping plans for the Subdivision and Condominium.

LANDSCAPING, RETAINING WALLS, FENCES, BERMS AND STRUCTURES OR FEATURES

18. The Purchaser agrees that in the event that any retaining wall, fence, berm and/or similar or other structure are built on the Property, the Purchaser shall be solely responsible for the repair and maintenance of same. Where the Purchaser is obliged to make such repairs and undertake such maintenance, the Purchaser shall indemnify and save harmless the Vendor and any Governmental Authorities from all damages or costs associated with same and the Purchaser agrees, at the request of the Vendor, to execute such additional assurances in this regard as may be required by the Vendor and to have same registered on title by the Vendor if required by Vendor at the Vendor's option.

Where any portion of any fence is within twelve (12) centimetres internally or externally of the Property line, such fence shall be deemed not to be an encroachment at that point (the "Permitted Encroachment") and the Purchaser agrees to accept title to the Property and to complete the sale contemplated herein, without abatement of the Purchase Price. If any portion of any fence is not deemed to be a Permitted Encroachment (an "Unpermitted Encroachment") then the Purchaser shall complete the transaction herein either upon the Vendor's undertaking to take all reasonable lawful steps to remove the Unpermitted Encroachment; or, at the Vendor's sole option, upon an abatement in the Purchase Price, such abatement to be calculated by the Vendor, in its discretion, acting reasonably.

As of the date of this Agreement, the final grading plan relating to the Land or Property may not have been completed by the Vendor or approved by the Municipality. Consequently, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the grading of the Land may require the use of retaining walls on the Land or on adjoining properties. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall have the right to construct such retaining walls without notice to the Purchaser and without compensation or abatement to the Purchase Price and the Purchaser agrees that he shall be responsible for maintaining the retaining wall on the Land from and after the Closing Date. In the event that the Purchaser fails to comply with this obligation, the Purchaser shall be responsible for all damages and injuries which may result. In addition, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may construct any fences and/or berms on or near the Lands, as may be required.

TARION WARRANTY AND MODIFICATION OF PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS AND FINISHES

The Vendor agrees to erect the Dwelling upon the Property generally in accordance with plans and specifications already examined by the Purchaser and as attached to this Agreement (the "Plans"). Provided however that the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that decor, finishes, furniture, improvements, mirrors, wall coverings, floor coverings, and window coverings of the model home are for display purposes only, are not included in the Vendor's standard finishes and are not included in the Purchase Price. The Purchaser acknowledges that the area of the Dwelling purchased hereunder, as represented or referred to by the Vendor or any sales agent, is approximate only, and is measured in accordance with the applicable Tarion Bulletin 22 standard for homes of this classification. Note: actual useable floor space may vary from the stated floor area. Accordingly, the Purchaser hereby confirms and agrees that all details and dimensions of the Dwelling purchased hereunder are approximate only, and that the Purchase Price shall not be subject to any adjustment based upon square footage, net floor area or otherwise. In addition the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the ceilings may be dropped below standard heights and walls may be modified or bulk heads or mechanical spaces installed to accommodate mechanical systems thereby affecting the useable space in the Dwelling. Therefore the Vendor and the Purchaser agree as follows:

(a) The parties confirm and acknowledge that Tarion requires the Vendor to provide the Purchaser with a New Homeowner Information Package (the "Package" or the "HIP"), or electronic access to such HIP, at or before the pre-delivery inspection (the "PDI") of the Dwelling before the Closing Date and the Purchaser agrees to sign a Confirmation of Receipt for the same on receipt of the Package and/or electronic access to the Package being provided. The HIP or information on same is also available by contacting Tarion or obtaining same from their website at www.Tarion.com. The Purchaser shall have the right to designate a representative to undertake the PDI on his/her behalf without detracting from the Purchaser's right to conduct or be present when the PDI is being undertaken. The Purchaser and/or his or her designate, shall meet the Vendor's representative at the time designated by the Vendor prior to the Closing Date, to undertake the PDI of the Residential Dwelling and to list all items remaining uncompleted at the time of such inspection together with all mutually agreed deficiencies with respect to the Residential Dwelling, on the Tarion Certificate of Completion and Possession and/or such form as may be prescribed by Tarion (the "PDI Form"). The said Tarion certificate and/or PDI Form shall be executed by both the Purchaser and the Vendor's representative forthwith after such inspection.

(b) The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that any warranties of workmanship or materials, in respect of any aspect of the construction of the Dwelling, whether implied by this Agreement or imposed by law or in equity, or by any statute or otherwise, shall be restricted to only those warranties deemed to be given by the Vendor pursuant to the ONHWPA, and shall extend only for the time period (and in respect of those items) stipulated or covered by ONHWPA. The Purchaser is advised to read the terms of the warranty as set out in the HIP carefully so that he/she understands what is included and/or excluded from such warranty and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that his/her only remedy shall be to pursue any claim as against the Vendor pursuant to the ONHWPA and its procedures and the Purchaser agrees that he/she shall not have, maintain, pursue, prosecute, etc., any claim against the Vendor in contract or at common law with respect to the subject matter of this agreement and/or warranties provided hereunder and shall not make, file, prosecute or otherwise advance any claim against the Vendor in the courts in this regard and this covenant may be plead as estoppel in this regard. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser hereby releases the Vendor from any liability whatsoever in respect of water damage caused to improvements of, and chattels stored in, the Dwelling, and acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall not be liable or responsible for the repair or rectification of any damages to any exterior areas resulting from ordinary settlement, including the settlement of patio stones or sodded areas, nor for any damage to interior household improvements, chattels or decor caused by material shrinkage, twisting or warpage, nor for any secondary or consequential damages whatsoever resulting from any defects in materials, design or workmanship related to the Dwelling, and that the Vendor's only obligation shall be to rectify any defects pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and Tarion's warranty. The Purchaser acknowledges that any Third Party Work (as hereinafter defined) whether or not carried out by trades or subtrades employed by the Vendor shall be deemed to be work contracted directly by the Purchaser with the Vendor acting as agent for the Purchaser and as such, the Third Party Work shall not be covered by the Tarion warranty. The Purchaser covenants and agrees not to enter into any agreement or arrangement with any trade or subtrade employed by or under contract with the Vendor and/or any of its contractors, subcontractors and/or agents in respect of any work on the Dwelling. The Purchaser covenants and agrees not to undertake any renovation of finishing work in respect of the basement of the Dwelling for a period of 30 months after the Closing Date and in the event that the Purchaser does undertake such work, then the Vendor shall be relieved of any and all responsibility to restore such work or finishes in the event that the Vendor has to remove same in order to complete any warranty work and the Purchaser shall indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any and all costs incurred by the Vendor in removing such finishes in order for the Vendor or its agents to be able to complete such warranty work. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Dwelling or Property does/may contain wood flooring which will absorb excess moisture under humid conditions and release its normal moisture content under excessively dry conditions. Wood flooring will naturally swell during the humid seasons and will shrink when heat is applied. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor will not be responsible for any swelling or shrinkage cracks resulting from excessive humidity or excessive dryness within the Dwelling. When the heating system is not in use during late spring, summer and early fall, the Vendor strongly recommends that the Purchaser use a dehumidifier in the Dwelling. Correspondingly, when the heating system is on during the late fall, winter and early spring, the Vendor strongly recommends use of a humidifier system within the Dwelling. The Purchaser takes full responsibility for any damage to the wood flooring as a result of its failure to mitigate air quality conditions as herein set out

(c) The Vendor shall complete the exterior landscaping or exterior building elements of the Property and Dwelling as soon as reasonably practicable, but the failure of the Vendor to complete the exterior landscaping or building elements, on or before the Closing Date and/or the Unit Transfer Date, or the failure of the Developer to complete any element on the Lands, and/or Property, shall in no event entitle the Purchaser to refuse to take possession of the Dwelling and/or to close the within transaction on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date, or to fail to remit to the Vendor the entire amount of the Purchase Price and any other monies required to be paid by the Purchaser hereunder, or to maintain any holdback of any part of the Purchase Price or any other monies due to the Vendor, provided that the Vendor has complied with the occupancy requirements of the Addendum. The Vendor hereby undertakes to complete the

Dwelling and all unfinished work or improvements thereto in accordance with this Agreement, unless same affects the ability of the Dwelling to be legally occupied and in such event the terms and provisions of the Addendum shall prevail. The Vendor shall provide the Purchaser, on or before closing, with such evidence that the Dwelling may be legally occupied in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Addendum. The Purchaser agrees in such event to close the transaction, notwithstanding that there remains, without limitation, grading, landscaping or other exterior work or interior work to be completed, without any hold back of any part of the Purchase Price, on the Vendor's undertaking given to complete the Dwelling and all improvements to the Property. The Purchaser shall not hold the Vendor or the Municipality and/or any other Governmental Authorities and/or any of their respective agents liable for any damages, charges or inconvenience arising from, or in connection with the completion (or non-completion) of any item, including but not limited to boulevard sodding, sidewalks, driveway approach, paving, fencing, final POTL grading and/or POTL sodding.

(d) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may, from time to time, as required by it in its discretion and/or by any governmental authority having jurisdiction or any other rights with respect to the Property, change, vary or modify the plans and specifications pertaining to the Dwelling and Property, (including architectural, structural, engineering, landscaping, grading, mechanical, site service or other plans) from the plans and specifications existing at the inception of the project, or as they exist at the time the Purchaser has entered into this Agreement, or as same may be illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) in the sales office or otherwise, including reversing the layouts of the Dwelling or changing the elevation/facade of the Dwelling. The Purchaser shall have absolutely no claim or cause of action whatsoever against the Vendor or its agent(s) for any such changes, variances or modifications. The Vendor shall advise the Purchaser of the changes as soon as reasonably possible about the amendments and alterations. The Purchaser also acknowledges and agrees that architectural and/or engineering control of exterior elevations, driveway construction, boulevard tree planting, landscaping, corner POTL fencing (including the location of such corner POTL fencing), exterior colour schemes, or any other matter external to the Dwelling or Property designed to enhance the aesthetics of the area in which the Property is situate (the "Requirements"), may be imposed by the Municipality or any other Governmental Authority and the Purchaser agrees to take occupancy and title to the Property subject to the Requirements. In the event the Vendor is required by any Governmental Authority to construct, alter, amend or change, pursuant to such Requirements, the exterior elevation for the Property and\or Dwelling other than as shown on the schedules to this Agreement or specified herein or is required to alter or modify the driveway, building façade or elevation, internal road or other hardscape installation, construction or location, boulevard tree planting or landscaping plan for the Dwelling or Property (all of which is hereinafter referred to as the "Amended Plans"), the Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorizes the Vendor to complete and construct the Dwelling and Property in accordance with the Amended Plans and the Amended Plans shall be the approved plans for the purposes of the Purchaser's obligation to complete this Agreement. The Vendor shall have the right to construct the Dwelling on a reverse mirror image plan, including reversal of the interior floor layout and other minor modifications and the Purchaser agrees to accept such reversal and/or modification absolutely without any right of abatement of, or set-off against, the Purchase Price, in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligations herein. The Vendor shall have the right to alter, modify and/or substitute other materials for that provided for in the Plans, provided that such material is of substantially equal or better quality than the material in the Plans, as determined by the Vendor, acting reasonably. Further, in the event the Vendor determines that it needs to alter the grade of the Dwelling for any reason, than as depicted in the Plans, and as a result of such change in the elevation, the Vendor needs to install a step or series of steps to any entrance to the Dwelling or garage and this affects the interior dimensions of the Dwelling or garage, then the Purchaser agrees to accept such change in grade and the change in the usable interior space in the garage and/or Dwelling caused by the installation of steps and shall complete this transaction without any abatement in the Purchase Price. With respect to any aspect of construction, finishing or equipment, the Vendor shall have the right subject to the requirements of TARION or the provisions of the ONHWPA, without the Purchaser's consent, to substitute materials, designs and/or installations, for those described in this Agreement, any schedule of finishes or in the plans or specifications, provided the substituted materials, designs and/or installations are in the judgment of the Vendor, whose determination shall be final and binding, of equal or better quality or as may be required as a matter of law or any applicable building, fire, plumbing and/or electrical code or regulation. References to model types or model numbers in any schedule of finishes or Extras addendum or agreement refer to current manufacturer's models as of the date of this agreement and may change without notice and the Vendor shall be entitled to replace with the manufacturer's or alternate manufacture models that are of a similar size, style, design and quality. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that finishing materials contained in any model suites or sales office displays including but not limited to substrates, floor and wall coverings, broadloom, furniture, electrical fixtures, window coverings, flooring, upgrade cabinetry, staircases, railings, appliances etc. may be for display purposes and may not be of the same grade or type, or may not necessarily be included in the dwelling unit purchased herein. Purchasers are advised that any ceiling height set out in this agreement will be measured approximately from the upper surface of the floor to the underside of the ceiling structure, provided however that various areas of the Dwelling may contain (or be subject to) ceiling bulkheads and/or dropped ceilings, in order to facilitate the installation of structural components, mechanical and HVAC systems and/or ductwork, and accordingly in those areas of the unit that are subject to said bulkheads and/or dropped ceilings the Vendor shall be entitled to reduce the overall ceiling height accordingly and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to accept such situations and/or alterations. The Purchaser acknowledges that any room dimensions as shown on any plans attached to this agreement or otherwise are approximate and may vary based on the construction requirements of the development in which the Property is situate and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to accept such variations and/or alterations. The Purchaser acknowledges, confirms and agrees that the extent of the actual or useable living space or net floor area within the confines of the unit may vary from any represented square footage or floor area measurement(s) made by or on behalf of the Vendor based on the permitted Tarion method of area calculation. The Purchaser shall have no claim against the Vendor for any changes, variances, alterations, amendments and/or modifications as permitted in this Agreement nor shall the Vendor be required to give notice thereof. The Purchaser hereby consents to any such alterations, variances, amendments and/or modifications and agrees to complete the sale notwithstanding same. The Purchaser shall have no claim against the Vendor for any such changes, variances, alterations, amendments or modifications, etc., nor shall the Vendor be required to give notice thereof. The Purchaser hereby consents to any such alterations and agrees to complete the sale notwithstanding any of the foregoing and that none of these matter shall be considered any material change.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, it is understood and agreed by the parties hereto that in the event that construction of the Dwelling is not completed on or before the Closing Date or any extension thereof as hereinbefore contemplated, for any reason except for the Vendor's willful neglect, or in the event the Purchaser cannot take possession of the Dwelling on Closing Date by reason of any fire damage or other hazards or damages whatsoever occasioned thereto, constituting an event of Unavoidable Delay (as defined in the Addendum), then subject to the terms of the Addendum to the contrary, Vendor shall not be responsible or liable for reimbursing the Purchaser for any costs, expenses, or damages suffered or incurred by the Purchaser as a result of such delay or damage, and specifically shall not be responsible for any costs and expenses incurred by the Purchaser in obtaining alternate accommodation pending the completion of construction of the Dwelling or the rectification of the damage, nor for any costs incurred in having to store or move the Purchaser's furniture or other belongings pending such completion or rectification work.

(e) The Vendor shall have the right to enter upon the Dwelling for a period of eight (8) years after the completion of the transaction set out in this Agreement, as required by the Vendor in its complete discretion, in order to complete and/or rectify outstanding items identified in the PDI Form or any other list prescribed by Tarion and the Vendor agrees to complete and/or rectify same within a reasonable time after Closing (or some other date as prescribed by Tarion), having regard to the availability of equipment, materials and labour. The failure or refusal by the Purchaser to provide access to the Property and/or the Dwelling situate thereon by the Vendor or its workmen, servants, agents or contractors following reasonable notice by the Vendor, shall relieve the Vendor of any obligation to complete or rectify any items of work that may be outstanding and otherwise required to be completed by the Vendor pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

(f) The Purchaser agrees that in no event shall the Purchaser be entitled to obtain possession of the Dwelling and Property unless and until the Purchaser and/or his/her designated representative has completed the pre- delivery inspection and executed the said PDI Form. In the event that the Purchaser and/or his/her designated representative has omitted or refused to execute the said PDI Form prior to the Closing Date, and the Vendor has duly attended at the Dwelling for the purposes of completing the said PDI Form and to inspect the Dwelling, the Vendor shall have the unilateral right and option of either completing this transaction and refusing to allow possession of the Dwelling by the Purchaser until such PDI Form has been duly executed, or of terminating this Agreement, whereupon all Deposits and monies paid or payable in respect of Extras, together with all interest accrued thereon at the prescribed rate, shall be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at law or in equity.

(g) It is expressly understood and agreed that the Dwelling will be separately metered for utilities, including electricity, gas and water services, and accordingly the consumption of electricity, gas and water/waste water services (as well as cable television, internet and telephone charges), shall be borne and paid for by the Purchaser from and after Closing Date.

(h) The Purchaser covenants and agrees to pay to the Vendor all amounts to correct and remedy all damage caused by the Purchaser or those for whom he is in law responsible to any services installed within the Property, which services shall, without limitation, include survey stakes, landscaping, trees, planting, curbs, curb cuts, streets, roads, street signs, street lighting, sanitary and storm sewers and any underground services installed by or on behalf of any public or private utilities.

(i) It is understood and agreed that the Purchaser is not entitled to perform any work on the Property prior to Closing without the Vendor's written consent and in the event that such consent is obtained, the Purchaser must obtain at its expense, and without restriction, any applicable building permits for the subject work at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense. It is further understood and agreed that such work shall not be warranted by Tarion or the Vendor or any other party related to the Vendor and that the Vendor shall not be responsible for any delay, costs and/or penalties arising as a result of the delay by the Purchaser in completing such permitted work on or before the scheduled Closing Date.

(j) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that if due to grading or other requirements, as determined by the Vendor, at its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, that it cannot or will not build a side door and/or door from the garage with direct access to the Dwelling, the Vendor need not build such door(s) and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to accept the Dwelling without such door(s) and the Purchaser shall not be entitled to any compensation or abatement of the Purchase Price.

FINISH SELECTION AND EXTRAS

19. (a) The Purchaser covenants and agrees to notify the Vendor, in writing within seven (7) days of the Vendor's request, as to any colours and finishes or other items to be chosen by the Purchaser from the Vendor's samples, and if the Purchaser fails to so notify the Vendor of his colour and finish selection or other selection within such time, the Vendor shall not be held liable for any delays in having the Dwelling substantially completed sufficient to permit occupancy thereof by the Closing Date, and the Purchaser shall complete the transaction on such date, notwithstanding that the Dwelling may not be substantially completed by such date. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that as a result of the Tarion Delayed Closing rules and regulations as set out in the Addendum, that any delay caused by the Purchaser in the selection of the finishes and colours can result in a delay in a construction and delivery of the Dwelling and as a result, a breach of the Purchaser's covenants in this section shall be considered a material breach of contract entitling the Vendor to all of its remedies in contract, law and equity, including without limitation, the right to terminate this Agreement and retain all monies paid thereto by the Purchaser as liquidated damages and not as penalty. Notwithstanding and in addition to the foregoing, in the event the Purchaser fails to make such selections as aforesaid, the Vendor shall be entitled to make such selections on behalf of the Purchaser and the Purchaser shall be obliged to complete this transaction without any holdback or abatement whatsoever.

(b) Subject to the Vendor's approval, if the Purchaser chooses to order third party upgrades or extras other than those specified and provided by the Vendor or if the Vendor agrees to allow the Purchaser or its agents to complete certain work within the Dwelling (collectively referred to as "Third Party Work"), then, if any delays in the completion of such Third Party Work affects the availability of legal occupancy of the Dwelling, then the Vendor shall not be held liable for any delays in having the Dwelling substantially completed sufficient to permit occupancy thereof by the Closing Date, and the terms of the Addendum shall apply. If the delay in the delivery and/or installation of the Third Party Work does not prevent the legal occupation of the Dwelling and the provision of the evidence confirming same as set out in the Addendum, then the Purchaser shall complete the transaction notwithstanding, without any holdbacks in respect of the Purchase Price. In the event that the Purchaser ordered and paid for extras comprising or requiring Third Party Work through the Vendor and such extras are not available on closing, but the lack of installation of same does not prevent the closing of such transaction and/or legal occupancy of the Dwelling, then the Vendor shall have the option of either i) providing its undertaking to install such Third Party Work extras in the Dwelling within a reasonable time of receipt of same after the Unit Transfer Date or ii) refunding the cost of the Third Party Work extras on the Unit Transfer Date by way of providing the Purchaser with a credit in the final statement of adjustments. In such latter event, such credit shall be accepted by the Purchaser as full and final settlement of any claim by the Purchaser with respect to such extras.

(c) The Purchaser specifically acknowledges that in the manufacture of finishing items, colour variances sometimes occur. The Purchaser hereby agrees to accept any such colour variation resulting from the manufacturing process without any right of abatement of purchase price and in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligations herein. More specifically, the Purchaser acknowledges that colour, texture, appearance, grains, veining, natural variations in appearance etc. of features and finishes installed in the Dwelling or the Property may vary from Vendor's samples as a result of normal manufacturing and installation processes and as a result of any such finishes being of natural products and the Purchaser agrees that the Vendor is not responsible for same. The Vendor is not responsible for shade difference occurring in the manufacture of items such as, but not limited to, finishing materials or products such as carpet, tiles, bath tubs, sinks and other such products where the product manufacturer establishes the standard for such finishes. Nor shall the Vendor be responsible for shade difference in colour of components manufactured from different materials but which components are designed to be assembled into either one product or installed in conjunction with another product and in these circumstances the product as manufactured shall be accepted by the Purchaser. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that pre-finished wood flooring (if any) may react to normal fluctuating humidity levels inducing gapping or cupping. The Purchaser acknowledges that natural stone (if any) is a very soft stone which will require a substantial amount of maintenance by the Purchaser and is very easily scratched and damaged. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that carpeting may be seamed in certain circumstances and said seams may be visible. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that various types of flooring, including but not limited to carpets, marble, tile, laminate, hardwood floors, or engineered wood in the dwelling unit may result in different heights (to be established by the Vendor in its sole discretion) in the transitional areas between them, and that the Vendor may use appropriate reducers in the area. For greater certainty, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that insofar as the wood finishes, laminate, marble, stone, carpeting, tiles, kitchen cabinetry or other manufactured finishing materials installed within the Dwelling are concerned: (i) the colour, texture and/or shading of such wood finishes, laminate, carpet, tiles, kitchen cabinetry or other manufactured finishing materials may vary slightly from that of those selected by the Purchaser from the Vendor’s samples, due to variations or shading in dye-lots produced or manufactured by the suppliers; and (ii) the colour, finish and/or grain of wood and stone products may vary slightly from that of the wood or stone selected by the Purchaser from the Vendor’s samples, inasmuch as wood and stone are natural materials which inherently cannot be precisely replicated or matched with other pieces or samples, thereby accounting for variations of colour and/or grain even within the same POTL or section of wood or stone. The Purchaser shall accordingly be estopped from claiming any entitlement to an abatement in the Purchase Price, or any replacement (in whole or in part) of the carpet, tiles, kitchen cabinetry, manufactured finishing materials or wood or stone products so installed or any other relief as a result of the variations hereinbefore described or contemplated. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that all light coloured materials, especially flooring, may be subject to fading or yellowing after use or exposure to sunlight and such fading or yellowing will not be covered by any warranty. The Purchaser further acknowledges that light coloured and white carpeting may be subject to discolouring at walls and sub-floor joints due to the filtering process that occurs with forced air heating, generally caused by pollutants and candles and both exterior and interior air quality and is not covered by any warranty provided for herein.

(d) The Purchaser covenants and agrees that he\she shall pay the Vendor in advance, (unless otherwise agreed in writing), for any Extras and the applicable HST and other taxes thereon ordered by the Purchaser and agrees that such payment shall be non-refundable in the event that this transaction is not completed due to any default hereunder by the Purchaser, and the Vendor may deduct the cost of such Extras, (as well as applicable HST and other taxes thereon) if not already paid for, from any deposit monies which may otherwise be refundable. In the event that for any reason the Extras are not installed by the Vendor prior to closing, the Vendor shall be entitled to refund all or part of monies paid as appropriate and this shall be accepted by the Purchaser as full and final settlement of any claim by the Purchaser with respect to the Extras, upgrades or changes which remain incomplete as aforesaid.

NO ACCESS UNTIL CLOSING

20. The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and confirms that he shall not be allowed without the specific written consent of the Vendor, (which consent may be arbitrarily withheld by the Vendor) access to the Property, for any purpose whatsoever. Once such right of access is exercised by the Purchaser with consent as aforesaid, he agrees to comply with all regulations and requirements imposed by any governmental authorities or imposed by the Vendor which may prevent, restrict or regulate such access due to health, safety or other governmental requirements or policies. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that any access to the Property shall be at the Purchaser's sole risk and the Purchaser hereby forever discharges and releases the Vendor, its successors and assigns, agents, employees and contractors from any and all damages, actions and claims whatsoever that the Purchaser may have as a result of personal injury or property damage occasioned by entering onto the Property, whether such entry was with or without the Vendor's express written consent. If permitted onto the Property, the Purchaser shall not enter the Property unless accompanied by a representative of the Vendor and the Purchaser shall be responsible to provide and wear all such protective headwear and footwear and any other equipment or clothing as required pursuant to the Occupational Health and Safety Act and/or any successor or other legislation and its regulations and the Purchaser agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, charges, damages or fines that the Vendor or its agents incur as a result of the Purchaser's breach of the foregoing, and in particular the Purchaser shall indemnify and save the Vendor, its servants and agents harmless from action, causes of the action, claims and demands for, upon or by reason or any damages, loss or injury to person or property of the purchaser, or any of his friends, relatives, workmen or agents who have entered on the Property whether with or without authorization, express or implied, of the Vendor.

OCCUPANCY AND COMPLETION

21. The Purchaser agrees that the Dwelling may be occupied when the requirements of the Municipality have been complied with and the Vendor has complied with the terms of the Addendum, notwithstanding that there remains exterior or other work to be completed as hereinbefore and hereinafter set out, including but not limited to completion of requirements pertaining to the Property or the Lands, requirements of any Development Agreement, the painting, paving of the driveway (if part of the Purchase Price), and\or any other grading, sodding and landscaping, all as hereinbefore provided.

The title is to be examined by the Purchaser at his own expense and without the Purchaser calling for the production of any deeds or abstracts of title, surveys, proof of evidence of title or to have furnished any copies thereof, other than those in the Vendor's possession. The Purchaser is to be allowed until 15 days prior to the Unit Transfer Date hereof to examine the title at his own expense and if within that time he shall furnish the Vendor in writing with any valid objections to the title which the Vendor shall be unwilling or unable to remove and which the Purchaser will not waive, this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any intermediate acts or negotiations, be null and void and the portion of the Deposit and Extras paid to the Vendor shall be returned without interest (unless interest is required pursuant to the Addendum) and the Vendor shall not be liable for any damages or costs whatsoever, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, loss of bargain, loss of profit, relocation costs, loss of income, professional fees and disbursements and any amount paid to third parties on account of decoration, construction or fixturing costs, unless such compensation is required pursuant to the Addendum and/or ONHWPA. The Vendor shall be allowed to answer requisitions by way of a title advice statement addressed to purchasers of lands in the Subdivision. The Purchaser also acknowledges that the Vendor and the Vendor's Solicitor may arrange for the project to be enrolled with a title insurer or insurers acceptable to the Vendor (the "Title Insurer") in order to centralize underwriting for the project and avoid unnecessary duplication of costs for purchasers and their solicitors. Transfer Date. The Purchaser agrees to close the transaction notwithstanding the existence of such charge(s) and accept the Vendor's Solicitors' undertaking to register (partial) discharges of such mortgages in respect of the Property upon receipt, subject to the Vendor or the Vendor's Solicitors providing to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor the following:

(c) a mortgage statement or letter from the mortgagee(s) (or from their respective solicitors) confirming the amount, if any, or the terms if an amount is not applicable, required to be paid to the mortgagee(s) to obtain (partial) discharges of the mortgages with respect to the Property;

(i) a direction from the Vendor to the Purchaser to pay such amounts to its solicitors in trust and/or the mortgagee(s) (or to whomever the mortgagees may direct) on the Unit Transfer Date to obtain a (partial) discharge of the mortgage(s) with respect to the Property; and

(ii) an undertaking from the Vendor's Solicitors to deliver such amounts to the mortgagees and to register the (partial) discharge of the mortgages with respect to the Property upon receipt thereof and to advise the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor concerning registration particulars which notification can be performed by posting same on the world wide web in a location given to the Purchaser or his solicitor.

(d) For certainty, and without limiting the generality of the provisions of Section 23 of Schedule "D" herein, the Purchaser shall, both before and after closing, also grant and execute any and all temporary or permanent easement(s) for the installation and/or maintenance of private and/or municipal utility or other services to the Property, or to adjacent or neighbouring properties, in favour of any governmental authorities, private and/or public utilities and/or service providers and/or to adjacent or neighbouring land owners (including without limitation, any easement(s) for maintenance purposes for all lots within the plan of subdivision where less than 1.2 meter (4 foot) side yards are being provided), as well as easements for roof overhangs and eaves troughs and easements, forthwith upon the Vendor's request. In addition the Purchaser shall at the request of the Vendor, provide on Closing a transfer or transfers of easements in favour of any adjacent lands for overhead crane swings, facilitating the installation of shoring or foundations, installing and maintaining piles and/or tie-back installations, temporary working easements for construction on adjacent lands and/or the installation of temporary hoarding on the rear yard of the Lot as required in connection with any of the previously set out easements. The Purchaser shall procure any Planning Act consents and postponements from any holders of any mortgage or encumbrance registered on the Property by which such mortgage or encumbrance is postponed to any such easements, and the Purchaser shall be responsible for all costs and expenses in granting, procuring or registering such easements or postponements (including without limitation the cost of obtaining Planning Act consents). The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that due to the proximity of the Dwelling to adjacent Dwellings or structures, minor encroachments may exist with respect to eaves and/or exterior walls of certain dwellings, fences or other structures and the Purchaser specifically acknowledges and agrees to accept title to the Property subject to any such encroachments and such encroachments shall be deemed to be a "Permitted Encroachment" as defined above.

(e) Other than is required pursuant to the Addendum, the Vendor shall not be obliged to provide any title deeds, abstract, occupancy permits or certificates, surveys, grading certificates, or any other evidence of title or that the Dwelling may be legally occupied, and the Purchaser shall satisfy himself that the Dwelling may be occupied in accordance with municipal requirements. The Purchaser agrees to accept a transfer of title to the Property directly from the registered owner thereof, and to accept such owner's title covenants in lieu of the Vendor's title covenants, in the event that the Vendor is not the registered owner of the Property on closing, provided that the Vendor shall be obliged to provide such further and other covenants and undertakings as the Purchaser may be entitled to pursuant to this agreement.

PLANNING ACT

24. This Agreement shall be effective to create an interest in the Property and/or Lot only if there is compliance with the subdivision control provisions as set out in the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990 and any amendments thereto, including without limitation Section 50 thereof, on or before the Unit Transfer Date.

MANNER OF PURCHASER'S TITLE

25. The Purchaser agrees to advise the Vendor or its solicitors within fifteen (15) days of acceptance of this Agreement of the manner in which title is to be taken by the Purchaser, failing which the Vendor shall be entitled to endorse title to the Purchaser as set out in accordance with this Agreement.

COSTS OF REGISTRATION AND TAXES

26. The transfer/deed of land shall be prepared at the Vendor's expense and may contain any or all of the provisions set forth in this Agreement and shall be executed by the Purchaser, if required by the Vendor, and the Purchaser shall execute and deliver on the Closing Date and/or the Unit Transfer Date a covenant, undertaking or agreement incorporating all or any of the terms contained herein or as may be required by the Vendor. The Purchaser undertakes and agrees to register the transfer/ deed at his expense on the Unit Transfer Date at the time of Closing and agrees to pay the land transfer tax in connection with the registration of the transfer/deed.

27. All buildings and equipment comprising the Dwelling and the Property shall be and remain at the risk of the Vendor until Unit Transfer Date. Provided that from and after the Closing Date, if same occurs prior to the Unit Transfer Date, the Purchaser shall provide the Vendor with proof of liability insurance as provided for herein and shall be responsible for obtaining and maintaining any insurance for his/her personal property and contents and the Purchaser shall be responsible for the Dwelling and the Property pursuant to the terms of Schedule "C" of the Addendum attached hereto. Subject to the terms of the Addendum to the contrary, in the event of damage to the Dwelling or Property prior to the Unit Transfer Date, the Vendor may either repair the damage, finish the Dwelling and complete the sale or may terminate this Agreement and have the Deposits and Extras paid by the Purchaser to the Vendor returned to the Purchaser (together with any interest required by law) and the Vendor shall thereupon be released from its obligations hereunder. It is understood and agreed that the proceeds of all insurance policies held by the Vendor are for the benefit of the Vendor alone. These provisions are subject to any overriding provisions in the ONHWPA, its regulations and/or the Addendum to the contrary.

The Vendor’s consent allowing a corporate purchaser to purchase a Dwelling shall not derogate from such Purchaser’s obligation to reimburse the Vendor for an amount equivalent to the Rebate (as defined herein) in the event that such corporate purchaser does not qualify for the Rebate.

30. (a) The parties acknowledge that on the Unit Transfer Date this transaction shall be completed electronically and accordingly there will be no exchange of documents at the Land Registry Office between the parties or their respective solicitors. ELECTRONIC REGISTRATION

31. (a) The parties hereto agree that if the electronic registration system (the "Teraview Electronic Registration System" or "TERS") is operative in the applicable Land Titles Office, then, at the option of the Vendor's solicitor, the following provisions shall prevail, namely:

(i) the Purchaser shall be obliged to retain a lawyer, who is both an authorized TERS user and in good standing with the Law Society, to represent the Purchaser in connection with the completion of this transaction, and shall authorize such lawyer to enter into an escrow closing agreement with the Vendor's solicitor on the latter's standard form (the "Document Registration Agreement"), establishing the procedures and timing for completing this transaction and to be delivered by the Vendor's solicitor to the Purchaser's lawyers no later than 7 days before the Unit Transfer Date.

(ii) the delivery and exchange of documents, monies and keys to the Dwelling (and with "exchange" being the delivery of documents, monies and keys by each of the parties hereto as provided for in this Agreement), and the release thereof to the Vendor and the Purchaser, as the case may be:

(A) shall not occur at the same time as the registration of the transfer/deed (and other registerable documentation);

(B) shall be governed by Document Registration Agreement, pursuant to which the solicitor receiving any documents, keys and/or certified funds will be required to hold same in escrow, and will not be entitled to release same except in strict accordance with the provisions of the Documentation Registration Agreement;

(b) the Purchaser shall be obliged to deliver all documents and funds as may be required to close the transaction to the office of the Vendor's solicitor on or before the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date as the case may be, in accordance with the tender provisions of this Agreement;

(c) the Vendor may deliver all documents required for closing on the Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date, save and except for the electronic deed, to the Purchaser's solicitor, with the Vendor's documents executed electronically in accordance with the Electronic Commerce Act 2002 (Ontario);

(d) if the Purchaser's lawyer is unwilling or unable to complete this transaction via TERS, in accordance with the provision contemplated under the Document Registration Agreement, then said lawyer (or the authorized agent thereof) shall be obliged to personally attend at the office of the Vendor's solicitor, at such time on the scheduled Closing Date and/or Unit Transfer Date as may be directed by the Vendor's solicitor, in order to complete this transaction via TERS utilizing the computer facilities in the Vendor's solicitors office;

(e) the Purchaser expressly acknowledges and agrees that he or she will not be entitled to receive a completed electronic transfer/deed to the Dwelling for release and registration until the balance of the funds due on closing (as well as all other documents as may be required by the Vendor), in accordance with the statement of adjustments, are either remitted by certified cheque via personal delivery or by electronic funds transferred to the Vendor's solicitor (or in such other manner as the latter may direct) at its offices, prior to the release of the transfer/deed for registration;

(f) documents to be registered on title to the Dwelling may be delivered by the Vendor to the Purchaser or its solicitor party hereto by telefax or email (or by a similar system reproducing the original), provided that all documents so transmitted have been duly and properly executed by the appropriate parties/signatories thereto. The Purchaser and\or its solicitor shall be obliged to provide the Vendor with a copy of the registered transfer forthwith after the Unit Transfer Date;

(g) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, it is expressly understood and agreed by the parties hereto that an effective tender shall be deemed to have been validly made by the Vendor upon the Purchaser when the Vendor's solicitor has: delivered all closing documents and/or funds to the Purchaser's solicitor in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement (including delivery of such documents via the internet); and has completed all steps required by TERS in order to complete this transaction that can be performed or undertaken by the Vendor's solicitor without the co-operation or participation of the Purchaser's solicitor without the necessity of personally attending upon the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor with the aforementioned documents and/or funds [and without any requirement to have an independent witness evidencing the foregoing]. If TERS is not used for the completion of this transaction then an effective tender shall be deemed to have been validly made by the Vendor upon the Purchaser when the Vendor's solicitor has electronically and/or personally delivered all closing documents and deliveries to the Purchaser's solicitor in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement without the necessity of personally attending upon the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor with the aforementioned documents and deliveries [and without any requirement to have an independent witness evidencing the foregoing]. The parties acknowledge and agree that keys are not included in the deliveries and are to be released at the office or on-site office of the Vendor once the transaction contemplated herein is completed and therefore will not be available with the exchange of documents, deliveries and funds, and are accordingly not required for a tender.

RELEASE OF KEYS

32. The Purchaser acknowledges that the keys to the Property shall be available for release to the Purchaser at the site or other office of the Vendor and that this availability constitutes a valid tender of keys on the Purchaser.

FORCE MAJEURE

33. Whenever (and to the extent that) the Vendor are prevented, hindered or delayed in the fulfilment of any obligation hereunder, or in the doing of any work by reason of an "act of force majeure" or incident causing "Unavoidable Delay", then, save and except to the extent as provided for or restricted in the Addendum to the contrary, such party's liability to perform such obligation shall be postponed, and such party shall be relieved from any liability in damages or otherwise for breach thereof, for so long as (and to the extent that) such prevention, hindering or delay continues to exist. This right is intended to provide for those instances or situations not provided for in the Addendum, if any. An incident of "force majeure" shall have the same meaning as an incident comprising "Unavoidable Delay" as defined in the Addendum.

NON-REGISTRATION, ASSIGNMENT AND POSTPONEMENT AND SUBORDINATION

34. (a) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges the full priority of any construction financing or other mortgages arranged by the Vendor and secured by the Property over his interest as Purchaser for the full amount of the said mortgage or construction financing, notwithstanding any law or statute to the contrary and agrees to execute all acknowledgements or postponements required to give full effect thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser agrees that this Agreement shall be subordinated to and postponed to the mortgage(s) assumed and/or arranged by the Vendor (and presently registered or to be registered on title to the Property) and any advances made thereunder from time to time, and to any easements, Development Agreements or any other agreements referred to herein to which title may be subject. The Purchaser agrees to execute all necessary documents and assurances to give effect to the foregoing as required by the Vendor. Any breach by the Purchaser of this section shall be considered a material breach.

The Purchaser further covenants and agrees that he will in no way, directly or indirectly, assign, convey, list for sale, sell or transfer his rights under this Agreement prior to the Unit Transfer Date to any other person without the consent of the Vendor in writing, which consent may be withheld in the Vendor's sole discretion, and that he will at no time register or attempt to register this Agreement on title to the Property by way of caution, deposit, assignment or in any way whatsoever, or register a certificate of pending litigation and it is expressly agreed by all parties hereto that any such registration or attempt by the Purchaser or anyone acting for or through him shall, at the option of the Vendor, entitle the Vendor to terminate this Agreement and make it absolutely null and void and any monies paid under this Agreement, including inter alia all deposit monies together with all monies paid for any Extras or changes to the Property, may be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at contract, law or equity. In the event that this Agreement, a caution, certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument whatsoever is registered against or dealing with the title in contravention of this provision, then the Purchaser hereby appoints the Vendor his true and lawful attorney pursuant to The Powers of Attorney Act R.S.O. 1990, as amended and/or The Substitute Division Act 1992, as amended for the purposes of removing the contract, caution, certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument from title, including the giving of any discharge, the lifting of any caution, the granting of any order or the assignment of any rights pursuant to this Agreement and this power of attorney shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest. The Purchaser shall bear all costs incurred by the Vendor in the exercise of its function pursuant to this power of attorney. Further, the Purchaser hereby covenants and agrees that at any time prior to Unit Transfer Date any default by him in the performance of any of his covenants or obligations contained herein shall entitle the Vendor, at its sole option, to terminate this Agreement and, upon such termination, all monies paid to the Vendor hereunder shall be forfeited to the Vendor and this Agreement shall be at an end and the Purchaser shall not have any further rights hereunder. The Vendor shall have the right to assign this Agreement, provided that any such assignee shall be bound by all of the covenants made by the Vendor herein, and upon such assignment, the Vendor shall thereupon be released from all obligations hereunder, unless provided for in the Addendum to the contrary.

(b) The Purchaser further covenants and agrees that until the Vendor receives the entire

Purchase Price, that:

(i) he will not sell, mortgage, pledge, lien or in any way encumber the Property either directly or indirectly;

(ii) if an execution is filed against him/her and/or the Property he/she will forthwith have the execution removed;

(iii) if an execution is registered against person(s) with a similar name(s), he/she shall execute all documents required by the Vendor in its discretion, to evidence that he is not the same person(s) named in such execution(s), sufficient to enable the Vendor to obtain a clear execution certificate from the local Land Titles Office.

DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

35. In the event that the Purchaser defaults on any of his obligations contained in this Agreement, makes any assignment to creditors, files for bankruptcy or files any consumer proposal or becomes insolvent on or before Closing, including without limitation, breaching or failing in the performance or observance of any covenant, term, agreement, restriction, stipulation or provision of this Agreement to be performed and/or observed by the Purchaser or if there is any lien, execution or encumbrance arising from any action or default whatsoever of the Purchaser being charged against or affecting the Property, and such Purchaser fails to remedy such default forthwith upon request, then the Vendor, in addition to any other rights or remedies this Agreement provides, may, at its sole option, unilaterally suspend all of the Purchaser's rights, benefits and privileges contained herein (including without limitation, the right to make colour and finish selections with respect to the Dwelling as hereinbefore provided or contemplated), and/or unilaterally declare the Purchaser in default and\or this Agreement to be terminated and of no further force or effect, whereupon, save and except as provided in the Addendum to the contrary, all Deposits and Extras theretofore paid, together with all interest accrued thereon at the prescribed rate, if any, shall be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at law or in equity. Notwithstanding and in addition to the foregoing, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that time shall be of the essence with respect to all payments to be made by the Purchaser to the Vendor pursuant to this Agreement. 36. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that notwithstanding any rights which he might otherwise have at law or in equity arising out of this Agreement, he shall not assert any of such rights, nor have any claim or cause of action (as a result of any matter or thing arising under or in connection with this Agreement) against any person, firm, corporation or other legal entity, other than the person, firm, corporation or legal entity specifically named or defined as the Vendor herein, even though the Vendor may be found to be a nominee or agent of another person, firm, corporation or other legal entity, and this acknowledgment and agreement may be pleaded as an estoppel and bar against the Purchaser in any action or proceeding brought by the Purchaser to assert any of such rights, claims or causes of action. The rights, remedies and recourses of the Purchaser in connection with this Agreement are limited to the Vendor, notwithstanding that the Vendor may be, or be deemed to be by law, acting as an agent or otherwise on behalf of some other person, firm, corporation or other entity and the Purchaser hereby agrees that with respect to this Agreement it shall not have any rights, remedies or recourse against such other person, firm, corporation, or other entity at law or otherwise. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor is not required to deliver "hard" or paper copies of the documentation pertaining to the conveyance of title to the POTL, draft or otherwise, to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor (the "Closing Documentation"). The Vendor or the Vendor's representatives may, at their option, deliver to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor any or all of the Closing Documentation by email and/or by website. If delivered by website, the Closing Documentation shall be made available for download on an internet website designated by the Vendor and access to such website shall be affected by way of a confidential password to be provided to the Purchaser and/or the Purchaser's solicitor. In the event the Vendor delivers or tenders closing documents required in connection with this transaction on the Title Transfer Date by posting same on the world wide web, then the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on the Closing Date for the costs incurred by the Vendor to utilize such web services for the project and/or this transaction. In the event that any such fees are issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right to apportion such costs to the Purchaser in accordance with his/her proportionate ownership interest in the Condominium as set out in Schedule D to the Declaration.

13. Purchasers/tenants are advised that sound levels due to increasing road traffic may occasionally interfere with some activities of the dwelling occupants as the sound levels exceed the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria.

14. Purchasers/Tenants are advised that this dwelling unit has been fitted with a forced air heating system and the ducting, etc. was sized to accommodate central air conditioning. Installation of central air conditioning by the occupant will allow windows and exterior doors to remain closed, thereby ensuring that the indoor sound levels are within the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria. (Note: The location and installation of the outdoor air conditioning device should be done so as to comply with noise criteria of MOE Publication NPC-216, Residential Air Conditioning Devices and thus minimize the noise impacts both on and in the immediate vicinity of the subject property.)

1. Setting the Firm Closing Date

(a) Completing Construction Without Delay: The Vendor shall take all reasonable steps to complete construction of the home on the Property and to Close without delay.
(b) Firm Closing Date: The Vendor shall set a Firm Closing Date, which shall be set out in the Statement of Critical Dates at the time the Purchase Agreement is signed.

2. Changing the Firm Closing Date – Three Ways

(a) The Firm Closing Date, can be changed only:
  (i) by the Vendor setting a Delayed Closing Date in accordance with section 3;
  (ii) by the mutual written agreement of the Vendor and Purchaser in accordance with section 4; or
  (iii) as the result of an Unavoidable Delay of which proper written notice is given in accordance with section 5.
(b) If a new Firm Closing Date is set in accordance with section 4 or 5, then the new date is the "Firm Closing Date" for all purposes in this Addendum.

3. Changing the Firm Closing Date – By Setting a Delayed Closing Date

(a) If the Vendor cannot Close on the Firm Closing Date and sections 4 and 5 do not apply, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a Delayed Closing Date in accordance with this section, and delayed closing compensation is payable in accordance with section 7.
(b) The Delayed Closing Date may be any Business Day after the date the Purchaser receives written notice of the Delayed Closing Date but not later than the Outside Closing Date.
(c) The Vendor shall give written notice to the Purchaser of the Delayed Closing Date as soon as the Vendor knows that it will be unable to Close on the Firm Closing Date, and in any event at least 10 days before the Firm Closing Date, failing which delayed closing compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Closing Date, in accordance with paragraph 7(c). If notice of a new Delayed Closing Date is not given by the Vendor before the Firm Closing Date, then the new Delayed Closing Date shall be deemed to be the date which is 90 days after the Firm Closing Date.
(d) After the Delayed Closing Date is set, if the Vendor cannot Close on the Delayed Closing Date, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a new Delayed Closing Date, unless the delay arises due to Unavoidable Delay under section 5 or is mutually agreed upon under section 4, in which case the requirements of those sections must be met. Paragraphs (b) and (c) above apply with respect to the setting of the new Delayed Closing Date.
(e) Nothing in this section affects the right of the Purchaser or Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement on the bases set out in section 10.

4. Changing Critical Dates – By Mutual Agreement

(a) This Addendum sets out a framework for setting, extending and/or accelerating Critical dates, which cannot be altered contractually except as set out in this section 4. Any amendment not in accordance with this section is voidable at the option of the Purchaser.
(b) The Vendor and Purchaser may at any time, after signing the Purchase Agreement, mutually agree in writing to accelerate or extend any of the Critical Dates. Any amendment which accelerates or extends any of the Critical Dates must include the following provisions:

  (i) the Purchaser and Vendor agree that the amendment is entirely voluntary – the Purchaser has no obligation to sign the amendment and each understands that this purchase transaction will still be valid if the Purchaser does not sign this amendment;
  (ii) the amendment includes a revised Statement of Critical Dates which replaces the previous Statement of Critical Dates;
  (iii) the Purchaser acknowledges that the amendment may affect delayed closing compensation payable; and
  (iv) if the change involves extending either the Firm Closing Date or the Delayed Closing Date, then the amending agreement shall:

    i. disclose to the Purchaser that the signing of the amendment may result in the loss of delayed closing compensation as described in section 7;
    ii. unless there is an express waiver of compensation, describe in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation; and
    iii. contain a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser waives compensation or accepts the compensation referred to in clause ii above, in either case, in full satisfaction of any delayed closing compensation payable by the Vendor for the period up to the new Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date.

  If the Purchaser for his or her own purposes requests a change of the Firm Closing Date or the Delayed Closing Date, then subparagraphs (b)(i), (iii) and (iv) above shall not apply.
(c) A Vendor is permitted to include a provision in the Purchase Agreement allowing the Vendor a one-time unilateral right to extend a Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, as the case may be, for one (1) Business Day to avoid the necessity of tender where a Purchaser is not ready to complete the transaction on the Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, as the case may be. Delayed closing compensation will not be payable for such period and the Vendor may not impose any penalty or interest charge upon the Purchaser with respect to such extension.

TM AM

Authentisign ID: [redacted]

(d) The Vendor and Purchaser may agree in the Purchase Agreement to any unilateral extension or acceleration rights that are for the benefit of the Purchaser.

5. Extending Dates – Due to Unavoidable Delay

(a) If Unavoidable Delay occurs, the Vendor may extend Critical Dates by no more than the length of the Unavoidable Delay Period, without the approval of the Purchaser and without the requirement to pay delayed closing compensation in connection with the Unavoidable Delay, provided the requirements of this section are met.
(b) If the Vendor wishes to extend Critical Dates on account of Unavoidable Delay, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, and an estimate of the duration of the delay. Once the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has commenced, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser by the earlier of: 20 days thereafter; and the next Critical Date.
(c) As soon as reasonably possible, and no later than 20 days after the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has concluded, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, identifying the date of its conclusion, and setting new Critical Dates. The new Critical Dates are calculated by adding to the then next Critical Date the number of days of the Unavoidable Delay Period (the other Critical Dates changing accordingly), provided that the Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, as the case may be, must be at least 10 days after the day of giving notice unless the parties agree otherwise. Either the Vendor or the Purchaser may request in writing an earlier Firm Closing Date or Delayed Closing Date, and the other party's consent to the earlier date shall not be unreasonably withheld.
(d) If the Vendor fails to give written notice of the conclusion of the Unavoidable Delay in the manner required by paragraph (c) above, then the notice is ineffective, the existing Critical Dates are unchanged, and any delayed closing compensation payable under section 7 is payable from the existing Firm Closing Date.
(e) Any notice setting new Critical Dates given by the Vendor under this section shall include an updated revised Statement of Critical Dates.

6. Early Termination Conditions

(a) The Vendor and Purchaser may include conditions in the Purchase Agreement that, if not satisfied, give rise to early termination of the Purchase Agreement, but only in the limited way described in this section.
(b) The Vendor is not permitted to include any conditions in the Purchase Agreement other than: the types of Early Termination Conditions listed in Schedule A; and/or the conditions referred to in paragraphs (j), (k) and (l) below. Any other condition included in a Purchase Agreement for the benefit of the Vendor that is not expressly permitted under Schedule A or paragraphs (j), (k) and (l) below is deemed null and void and is not enforceable by the Vendor, but does not affect the validity of the balance of the Purchase Agreement.
(c) The Vendor confirms that this Purchase Agreement is subject to Early Termination Conditions that, if not satisfied (or waived, if applicable), may result in the termination of the Purchase Agreement. ○ Yes ○ No
(d) If the answer in (c) above is "Yes", then the Early Termination Conditions are as follows. The obligation of each of the Purchaser and Vendor to complete this purchase and sale transaction is subject to satisfaction (or waiver, if applicable) of the following conditions and any such conditions set out in an appendix headed "Early Termination Conditions":

Condition #1 (if applicable)
Description of the Early Termination Condition:

N/A

The Approving Authority (as that term is defined in Schedule A) is: N/A
The date by which Condition #1 is to be satisfied is the _____day of_____, 20 _____.

Description of the Early Termination Condition:

N/A

The Approving Authority (as that term is defined in Schedule A) is: N/A
The date by which Condition #2 is to be satisfied is the _____day of _____, 20_____.

The date for satisfaction of any Early Termination Condition may be changed by mutual agreement provided in all cases it is set at least 90 days before the Firm Closing Date, and will be deemed to be 90 days before the Firm Closing Date if no date is specified or if the date specified is later than 90 days before the Firm Closing Date. This time limitation does not apply to the condition in subparagraph 1(b)(iv) of Schedule A which must be satisfied or waived by the Vendor within 60 days following the later of: (A) the signing of the Purchase Agreement; and (B) the satisfaction or waiver by the Purchaser of a Purchaser financing condition permitted under paragraph (l) below.

Note: The parties must add additional pages as an appendix to this Addendum if there are additional Early Termination Conditions.

Authentisign ID: [redacted]

(e) There are no Early Termination Conditions applicable to this Purchase Agreement other than those identified in subparagraph (d) above and any appendix listing additional Early Termination Conditions.
(f) The Vendor agrees to take all commercially reasonable steps within its power to satisfy the Early Termination Conditions identified in subparagraph (d) above.
(g) For conditions under paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A the following applies:

(i) conditions in paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A may not be waived by either party;
(ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice not later than five (5) Business Days after the date specified for satisfaction of a condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied (together with reasonable details and backup materials) and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
(iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed not satisfied and the Purchase Agreement is terminated.

(h) For conditions under paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A the following applies:

(i) conditions in paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A may be waived by the Vendor;
(ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice on or before the date specified for satisfaction of the condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied or waived; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied nor waived, and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
(iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed satisfied or waived and the Purchase Agreement will continue to be binding on both parties.

(i) If a Purchase Agreement or proposed Purchase Agreement contains Early Termination Conditions, the Purchaser has three (3) Business Days after the day of receipt of a true and complete copy of the Purchase Agreement or proposed Purchase Agreement to review the nature of the conditions (preferably with legal counsel). If the Purchaser is not satisfied, in the Purchaser's sole discretion, with the Early Termination Conditions, the Purchaser may revoke the Purchaser's offer as set out in the proposed Purchase Agreement, or terminate the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, by giving written notice to the Vendor within those three Business Days.
(j) The Purchase Agreement may be conditional until Closing (transfer to the Purchaser of title to the home), upon compliance with the subdivision control provisions (section 50) of the Planning Act, which compliance shall be obtained by the Vendor at its sole expense, on or before Closing.
(k) The Purchaser is cautioned that there may be other conditions in the Purchase Agreement that allow the Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement due to the fault of the Purchaser.
(l) The Purchase Agreement may include any condition that is for the sole benefit of the Purchaser and that is agreed to by the Vendor (e.g., the sale of an existing dwelling, Purchaser financing or a basement walkout). The Purchase Agreement may specify that the Purchaser has a right to terminate the Purchase Agreement if any such condition is not met, and may set out the terms on which termination by the Purchaser may be effected.

MAKING A COMPENSATION CLAIM

7. Delayed Closing Compensation

(a) The Vendor warrants to the Purchaser that, if Closing is delayed beyond the Firm Closing Date (other than by mutual agreement or as a result of Unavoidable Delay as permitted under sections 4 and 5), then the Vendor shall compensate the Purchaser up to a total amount of $7,500, which amount includes: (i) payment to the Purchaser of a set amount of $150 a day for living expenses for each day of delay until the date of Closing; or the date of termination of the Purchase Agreement, as applicable under paragraph (b) below; and (ii) any other expenses (supported by receipts) incurred by the Purchaser due to the delay.
(b) Delayed closing compensation is payable only if: (i) Closing occurs; or (ii) the Purchase Agreement is terminated or deemed to have been terminated under paragraph 10(b) of this Addendum. Delayed closing compensation is payable only if the Purchaser's claim is made to Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Closing, or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and otherwise in accordance with this Addendum. Compensation claims are subject to any further conditions set out in the ONHWP Act.
(c) If the Vendor gives written notice of a Delayed Closing Date to the Purchaser less than 10 days before the Firm Closing Date, contrary to the requirements of paragraph 3(c), then delayed closing compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Closing Date.
(d) Living expenses are direct living costs such as for accommodation and meals. Receipts are not required in support of a claim for living expenses, as a set daily amount of $150 per day is payable. The Purchaser must provide receipts in support of any claim for other delayed closing compensation, such as for moving and storage costs. Submission of false receipts disentitles the Purchaser to any delayed closing compensation in connection with a claim.

TM AM

Authentisign ID: [illegible]

(e) If delayed closing compensation is payable, the Purchaser may make a claim to the Vendor for that compensation after Closing or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and shall include all receipts (apart from living expenses) which evidence any part of the Purchaser's claim. The Vendor shall assess the Purchaser's claim by determining the amount of delayed closing compensation payable based on the rules set out in section 7 and the receipts provided by the Purchaser, and the Vendor shall promptly provide that assessment information to the Purchaser. The Purchaser and the Vendor shall use reasonable efforts to settle the claim and when the claim is settled, the Vendor shall prepare an acknowledgement signed by both parties which:

(i) includes the Vendor's assessment of the delayed closing compensation payable;
(ii) describes in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation (the "Compensation"), if any; and
(iii) contains a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser accepts the Compensation in full satisfaction of any delay compensation payable by the Vendor.

(f) If the Vendor and Purchaser cannot agree as contemplated in paragraph 7(e), then to make a claim to Tarion the Purchaser must file a claim with Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Closing. A claim may also be made and the same rules apply if the sale transaction is terminated under paragraph 10(b), in which case, the deadline for a claim is one (1) year after termination.

8. Adjustments to Purchase Price

Only the items set out in Schedule B (or an amendment to Schedule B), shall be the subject of adjustment or change to the purchase price or the balance due on Closing. The Vendor agrees that it shall not charge as an adjustment or readjustment to the purchase price of the home, any reimbursement for a sum paid or payable by the Vendor to a third party unless the sum is ultimately paid to the third party either before or after Closing. If the Vendor charges an amount in contravention of the preceding sentence, the Vendor shall forthwith readjust with the Purchaser. This section shall not: restrict or prohibit payments for items disclosed in Part I of Schedule B which have a fixed fee; nor shall it restrict or prohibit the parties from agreeing on how to allocate as between them, any rebates, refunds or incentives provided by the federal government, a provincial or municipal government or an agency of any such government, before or after Closing.

MISCELLANEOUS

9. Ontario Building Code – Conditions of Closing

(a) On or before Closing, the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser:
(i) an Occupancy Permit (as defined in paragraph (d)) for the home; or
(ii) if an Occupancy Permit is not required under the Building Code, a signed written confirmation by the Vendor that all conditions of occupancy under the Building Code have been fulfilled and occupancy is permitted under the Building Code.

(b) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (a), to the extent that the Purchaser and the Vendor agree that the Purchaser shall be responsible for one or more prerequisites to obtaining permission for occupancy under the Building Code, (the "Purchaser Occupancy Obligations"):
(i) the Purchaser shall not be entitled to delayed closing compensation if the reason for the delay is that the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations have not been completed;
(ii) the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser, upon fulfilling all prerequisites to obtaining permission for occupancy under the Building Code (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations), a signed written confirmation that the Vendor has fulfilled such prerequisites; and
(iii) if the Purchaser and Vendor have agreed that such prerequisites (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations) are to be fulfilled prior to Closing, then the Vendor shall provide the signed written confirmation required by subparagraph (ii) on or before the date of Closing.

(c) If the Vendor cannot satisfy the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), the Vendor shall set a Delayed Closing Date (or new Delayed Closing Date) on a date that the Vendor reasonably expects to have satisfied the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), as the case may be. In setting the Delayed Closing Date (or new Delayed Closing Date), the Vendor shall comply with the requirements of section 3, and delayed closing compensation shall be payable in accordance with section 7. Despite the foregoing, delayed closing compensation shall not be payable for a delay under this paragraph (c) if the inability to satisfy the requirements of subparagraph (b)(ii) is because the Purchaser has failed to satisfy the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations.

(d) For the purposes of this section, an "Occupancy Permit" means any written or electronic document, however styled, whether final, provisional or temporary, provided by the chief building official (as defined in the Building Code Act) or a person designated by the chief building official, that evidences that permission to occupy the home under the Building Code has been granted.

10. Termination of the Purchase Agreement

(a) The Vendor and the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by mutual written agreement. Such written mutual agreement may specify how monies paid by the Purchaser, including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras are to be allocated if not repaid in full.

TM AM

Authentisign ID: [redacted]

(b) If for any reason (other than breach of contract by the Purchaser) Closing has not occurred by the Outside Closing Date, then the Purchaser has 30 days to terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor. If the Purchaser does not provide written notice of termination within such 30-day period then the Purchase Agreement shall continue to be binding on both parties and the Delayed Closing Date shall be the date set under paragraph 3(c), regardless of whether such date is beyond the Outside Closing Date.
(c) If: calendar dates for the applicable Critical Dates are not inserted in the Statement of Critical Dates; or if any date for Closing is expressed in the Purchase Agreement or in any other document to be subject to change depending upon the happening of an event (other than as permitted in this Addendum), then the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor.
(d) The Purchase Agreement may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of section 6.
(e) Nothing in this Addendum derogates from any right of termination that either the Purchaser or the Vendor may have at law or in equity on the basis of, for example, frustration of contract or fundamental breach of contract.
(f) Except as permitted in this section, the Purchase Agreement may not be terminated by reason of the Vendor's delay in Closing alone.

11. Refund of Monies Paid on Termination

(a) If the Purchase Agreement is terminated (other than as a result of breach of contract by the Purchaser), unless there is agreement to the contrary under paragraph 10(a), the Vendor shall refund all monies paid by the Purchaser including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras, within 10 days of such termination, with interest from the date each amount was paid to the Vendor to the date of refund to the Purchaser. The Purchaser cannot be compelled by the Vendor to execute a release of the Vendor as a prerequisite to obtaining the refund of monies payable as a result of termination of the Purchase Agreement under this paragraph, although the Purchaser may be required to sign a written acknowledgement confirming the amount of monies refunded and termination of the purchase transaction. Nothing in this Addendum prevents the Vendor and Purchaser from entering into such other termination agreement and/or release as may be agreed to by the parties.
(b) The rate of interest payable on the Purchaser's monies is 2% less than the minimum rate at which the Bank of Canada makes short-term advances to members of Canada Payments Association, as of the date of termination of the Purchase Agreement.
(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) above, if either party initiates legal proceedings to contest termination of the Purchase Agreement or the refund of monies paid by the Purchaser, and obtains a legal determination, such amounts and interest shall be payable as determined in those proceedings.

The Pre-Delivery Inspection (PDI)

Before you take possession of your new home, your builder is required to conduct a predelivery inspection (PDI) with you or someone you designate to act on your behalf. If you wish, you may be accompanied by someone who can provide expert assistance. The PDI is important because it is an opportunity to learn about how to operate and maintain parts of your home, such as the ventilation, plumbing, and heating systems. It is also important because it gives you an opportunity to note items in your home that are damaged, missing, incomplete, or not working properly before you take possession of your home. This record is also significant as it may help show what items may have been damaged before you moved in and helps resolve any disputes relating to whether or not an item of damage was caused by the use of the home.

The PDI is only one piece of evidence relating to damaged or incomplete Items, and you should note and document (e.g. via photos or video) any concerns or damaged items as soon as you notice them after taking possession if they were missed on your PDI. If the damaged items are not addressed by your builder, you can include them in your first warranty form submission to Tarion. Damaged items are covered under the warranty if the damage was caused by the builder or their trades. There is more information about the PDI here: https://www.tarion.com/homeowners/homeowner-resources-hub

The deposit you provide to your builder is protected up to certain limits if your builder goes bankrupt, fundamentally breaches your Agreement of Purchase and Sale or you exercise your legal right to terminate it. Deposit coverage limits are $60,000 if the purchase price is $600,000 or less and 10% of purchase price to a maximum of $100,000 if the purchase price is over $600,000. This protection includes the money you put down towards upgrades and other extras.

Delayed Closing Coverage

Your builder guarantees that your home will be ready for you to move in by a date specified in the Agreement of Purchase and Sale or a date that has been properly extended (if for certain reasons the original closing date cannot be met). You may be able to claim up to $7,500 from your builder in compensation if they do not meet the conditions for an allowable extension that are outlined in the Addendum to your Agreement of Purchase and Sale.

Warranty Coverage

The warranty on work and materials commences on your occupancy date and provides up to a maximum of $400,000 in coverage. There are limitations on scope and duration as follows. Your builder warrants that your home will, on delivery, have these warranties:

One-Year Warranty

- Your home is constructed in a workmanlike manner, free from defects in material, is fit for habitation and complies with Ontario's Building Code.

Two-Year Warranty

- Covers defects in work and materials in the electrical, plumbing, and heating delivery and distribution systems.
- Covers defects in work and materials that result in the detachment, displacement, or deterioration of exterior cladding (such as brick work, aluminum, or vinyl siding).
- Protects against violations of Ontario's Building Code that affect health and safety.

Seven-Year Warranty

- Protects against defects in work or materials that affect a structural load-bearing element of the home resulting in structural failure or that materially and adversely compromise the structural integrity; and/or that materially and adversely affect the use of a significant portion of the home.

Warranty Exclusions

Your warranty, provided to you by your builder and backed by Tarion, is a limited warranty – not all deficiencies are covered. And the protection provided by Tarion is also limited. Exclusions to coverage include: normal wear and tear, damage caused by improper maintenance, damage caused by a third party, secondary damage caused by defects that are under warranty, supplementary warranties, deficiencies caused by homeowner actions, elevators, HVAC appliances, specific defects accepted in writing and damage resulting from an Act of God.

Construction Performance Guidelines

The Construction Performance Guidelines are a resource to provide advance guidance as to how Tarion may decide disputes between homeowners and builders regarding defects in work or materials. The Construction Performance Guidelines are intended to complement Ontario's Building Code. They are supplemented by any applicable guidelines or standards produced by industry associations. They do not replace manufacturer warranties. The Construction Performance Guidelines are available in several different formats accessible via https://tarion.com/builders/construction-performance-guidelines

(b) Closing Date: The "Closing Date" or "Closing" shall be the later of the Occupancy Date or a date fixed by the Vendor at least ten (10) days after the Vendor's solicitors notifies the Purchaser or their solicitor of the registration of the Corporation upon which date a transfer of title to the Unit shall be delivered to the Purchaser. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor may, from time to time, substitute such other materials utilized in the construction of the Unit and the common elements of the Condominium, from those specified or contemplated in the aforesaid plans or specifications, provided that the quality of any substituted material(s) is comparable to or better than the material(s) originally indicated in the said plans or specifications. The determination of whether or not a substitute material is of equal or better quality shall be made by the Vendor's architect whose determination shall be final and binding.

The items set out in any features schedule attached hereto are included in the Purchase Price, unless specified in the features list. form and when completed shall constitute part of this Agreement (the "Colour Chart"). In the event any item on the Colour Chart becomes unavailable, or, if such selection would not be available in a timely fashion (such determination to be made by the Vendor at its sole discretion), the Purchaser shall be allowed seven (7) days written notice to attend to re-select an alternative from the Vendor's available samples. In the event the Purchaser does not attend and execute the Colour Chart at the date and time specified in the above-noted notice from the Vendor or if the Purchaser does not so re-select within the time hereinbefore limited, the Vendor may at its option, make such selection on behalf of the Purchaser, and in any such event, the Purchaser hereby irrevocably agrees to accept the Vendor's selection without any right of abatement of purchase price and in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligation herein. Only such item as may be unavailable, or unavailable in a timely fashion (as determined by the Vendor at its sole discretion) may be re-selected by the Purchaser. In the event of default by the Purchaser in re-selection, and a re-selection by the Vendor on behalf of the Purchaser, the re-selection shall be of equal or better quality than the original selection.

The Purchaser specifically acknowledges that in the manufacture of finishing items, colour variances sometimes occur. The Purchaser hereby agrees to accept any such colour variation resulting from the manufacturing process without any right of abatement of purchase price and in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligations herein. More specifically, the Purchaser acknowledges that colour, texture, appearance, grains, veining, natural variations in appearance etc. of features and finishes installed in the Unit may vary from Vendor's samples as a result of normal manufacturing and installation processes and as a result of any such finishes being of natural products and the Purchaser agrees that the Vendor is not responsible for same. The Vendor is not responsible for shade difference occurring in the manufacture of items such as, but not limited to, finishing materials or products such as carpet, tiles, bath tubs, sinks and other such products where the product manufacturer establishes the standard for such finishes. Nor shall the Vendor be responsible for shade difference in colour of components manufactured from different materials but which components are designed to be assembled into either one product or installed in conjunction with another product and in these circumstances the product as manufactured shall be accepted by the Purchaser. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that pre-finished wood flooring (if any) may react to normal fluctuating humidity levels inducing gapping or cupping. The Purchaser acknowledges that natural stone (if any) is a very soft stone which will require a substantial amount of maintenance by the Purchaser and is very easily scratched and damaged. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that carpeting may be seamed in certain circumstances and said seams may be visible. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that various types of flooring, including but not limited to carpets, marble, tile, laminate, hardwood floors, or engineered wood in the dwelling unit may result in different heights (to be established by the Vendor in its sole discretion) in the transitional areas between them, and that the Vendor may use appropriate reducers in the area.

The Purchaser covenants and agrees that he/she shall pay to the Vendor in advance for all extras, upgrades or changes ordered by the Purchaser at the time such order is made and the Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that such payment is non-refundable unless this transaction is not completed due only to the Vendor's default. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that if, upon the Occupancy Date, any of the extras, upgrades or changes ordered by the Purchaser remain incomplete in whole or in part or if the Vendor shall, in its sole discretion, determine that it will not provide extras, upgrades or changes or cannot complete the extras, upgrades or changes then there shall be refunded to the Purchaser upon Occupancy Date closing that portion of the amount paid by the Purchaser in connection with such extras, upgrades or changes which remain incomplete in whole or in part as aforesaid, as determined by the Vendor. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that the amount so paid to the Purchaser (or for which, in the alternative, the Purchaser receives credit in the statement of adjustments) shall be accepted by the Purchaser as full and final settlement of any claim by the Purchaser with respect to the extras, upgrades or changes which remain incomplete as aforesaid. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the Vendor's liability with respect to such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes shall be limited to the return of the amounts referred to aforesaid and, thereafter, there shall be no further liability upon the Vendor in connection with such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes and upon such payment being made or credit being given, the Vendor shall be deemed to have been released from any and all obligations, claims or demands whatsoever with respect to such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes. In the event the Purchaser neglects to advise the Vendor forthwith upon request as to the Purchaser's selection of finishing specifications, or orders any extras, upgrades in interior finishings, or performs any work in or about the dwelling unit which causes delay in the Vendor's construction operations, the Vendor may require the Purchaser to complete this transaction on the Occupancy Date herein set out without holdback of any part of the purchase price, on the Vendor's undertaking to complete any of the Vendor's outstanding work.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the confirmation by the municipality that occupancy of this unit is permitted shall constitute complete and absolute acceptance by the Purchaser of all construction matters and the quality and sufficiency thereof including, without limitation, all mechanical, structural and architectural matters.

7. Warranty

The Vendor covenants that on the Occupancy Date a written warranty in Tarion's standard form will be requested by the Vendor from Tarion. The Purchaser agrees to accept such warranty in lieu of any other warranty or guarantee, expressed or implied, it being understood and agreed that there is no representation, warranty, guarantee, collateral agreement or condition precedent to, concurrent with, or in any way affecting this Agreement or the subject land or Unit other than as expressed herein.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything contained in the said warranty, the Purchaser waives any right to any claim against the Vendor for damage to any ceiling or walls due to normal shrinkage and the Purchaser agrees that this Agreement may be pleaded by the Vendor in estoppel of any such claims by the Purchaser.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Unit does/may contain wood flooring which will absorb excess moisture under humid conditions and release its normal moisture content under excessively dry conditions. Wood flooring will naturally swell during the humid seasons and will shrink when heat is applied. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor will not be responsible for any swelling or shrinkage cracks resulting from excessive humidity or excessive dryness within the Unit. When the heating system is not in use during late spring, summer and early fall, the Vendor strongly recommends that the Purchaser use a dehumidifier in the Unit. Correspondingly, when the heating system is on during the late fall, winter and early spring, the Vendor strongly recommends use of a humidifier system within the Unit. The Purchaser takes full responsibility for any damage to the wood flooring as a result of its failure to mitigate air quality conditions as herein set out.

8. Inspection of Unit

(a) The Purchaser acknowledges that a Homeowner Information Package (the "Package") is available from Tarion and the Vendor will deliver one to the Purchaser at or before the Pre-Delivery Inspection ("PDI") required by Tarion. The Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) agrees to execute and provide to the Vendor the Confirmation of Receipt ("Receipt") of the Package, in the form required by Tarion, forthwith upon receipt of the Package. The Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) will meet at the Unit on or before the Occupancy Date to conduct the PDI. During the PDI, the Purchaser shall not be entitled to examine the Unit except when accompanied by a representative of the Vendor. The Purchaser agrees to comply with all regulations under the Occupational Health & Safety Act, including the wearing of head and foot protection and such other safety apparel as designated by the Vendor and the Purchaser agrees to indemnify the Vendor against any fines incurred as a result of non-compliance with these provisions by the Purchaser, or the Purchaser's designate, as the case may be. The Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) shall arrange the PDI with a representative of the Vendor and is to give the representative of the Vendor at least three (3) days' prior notice of the PDI, which shall be conducted at a mutually convenient time prior to the Occupancy Date. During the PDI, the Purchaser and the Vendor agree to list any incomplete, damaged or deficient items with respect to the Unit on the PDI Form (the "Form") required by or approved by Tarion. In addition, the Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) shall execute all other forms prescribed from time to time by, and required to be completed by Tarion, including any Certificate of Completion and Possession (the "CCP"). The Purchaser agrees that such warrantable items as are included in the Form represent the balance of work to be completed by the Vendor with respect to the Unit and the Purchaser agrees that no further request for completion of items may be maintained by the Purchaser, save and except as lawfully required by Tarion, and this shall serve as a good and sufficient release of the Vendor in that regard. Except for the PDI, the Purchaser agrees that prior to the Occupancy Date, the Purchaser, their agents or representatives will not, in any circumstances enter onto the Condominium and the Unit except at the request of the Vendor and accompanied by a representative of the Vendor and any entry other than as aforesaid shall be deemed to be a trespass and the Vendor shall be entitled to exercise any rights that it may have pursuant to this Agreement or at law as a result of same. In the event the Purchaser sends a designate to conduct the PDI in the Purchaser's place, the Purchaser shall first provide the Vendor with the Appointment of Designate for PDI in the form prescribed by Tarion, prior to the PDI, failing which the Purchaser shall be required to attend personally. In the event that the Purchaser appoints such designate, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Purchaser shall be bound by all of the documentation executed by the designate to the same degree and with the same force and effect as if executed by the Purchaser directly. The Purchaser further agrees that the Vendor shall have the right to enter the Unit after completion of the transaction in order to complete such items as are included in the Form. The Vendor shall complete such items as are contained in the Form within a reasonable time after closing, subject to weather conditions and the availability of supplies and trades. The warranties given under the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act, as amended, replace any warranties at law or otherwise. The Purchaser agrees that in no event shall the Purchaser be entitled to obtain possession of the Unit until and unless the Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) has executed the Receipt, Form and CCP, together with any other documents lawfully required by Tarion (collectively the "Documents"). In the event the Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) has failed to complete the PDI and execute the Documents on or before the Occupancy Date, the Vendor shall have the right, at the Vendor's sole option, to terminate this Agreement and forfeit all deposit monies paid by the Purchaser hereunder, together with any monies paid for extras, in full, in addition to and without prejudice to any other remedy available to the Vendor arising out of such default.

(b) Prior to the Occupancy Date, the Purchaser shall not be entitled to do or cause to be done any work, installation, improvement or alteration to the Unit or the common elements, in default of which, the Vendor shall have the right to either charge the Purchaser on the Occupancy Date or on the Closing Date, for all costs and expenses incurred by the Vendor in removing or rectifying all work done by the Purchaser, in such amounts as determined by the Vendor in its sole discretion or, at the Vendor's sole option, to terminate this Agreement and forfeit all deposit monies paid by the Purchaser hereunder, together with any monies paid for extras, in full, in addition to and without prejudice to any other remedy available to the Vendor arising out of such default.

9. Damages Before Closing

The Unit shall be and remain at the risk of the Vendor until Closing, and pending completion of the sale the Vendor will hold all insurance policies and the proceeds thereof in trust for the parties as their interests may appear, and in the event that the Unit or the Building of which the Unit forms a part are substantially damaged or destroyed, and the Vendor, in its sole discretion decides that it will not rebuild or repair such damage, then the Vendor may elect to terminate this Agreement and upon returning to the Purchaser the deposit without interest except as may be required by law, the Vendor's liability shall be at an end and the Purchaser shall execute and complete such documents as may be necessary to clear the title to the real property. The Purchaser is hereby advised that the Vendor's builder's risk and/or comprehensive liability insurance (effective prior to the registration of the Condominium), and the Condominium's master insurance policy (effective from and after the registration of the Condominium) will not cover any betterments or improvements made to the Unit, nor any furnishings or personal belongings of the Purchaser or other residents of the Unit, and accordingly the Purchaser shall arrange for his or her own insurance coverage with respect to same, effective from and after the Occupancy Date, all at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Purchaser alone is responsible for the repair and replacement of all improvements and betterments made or acquired by the Purchaser within or upon the Unit.

10. Access by Vendor for Maintenance and Completion

(a) Notwithstanding the transfer of title to the Unit to the Purchaser, or occupancy of the Unit by the Purchaser, the Vendor or its duly authorized agents shall have free access at all reasonable times to the Unit in order to make inspections or do any work or repairs thereon which may be deemed necessary in connection with the completion of the Unit or of any servicing or installations in connection with the Unit or the common elements or any other unit in the Condominium and this right shall be in addition to any rights and easements in favour of the Vendor under the Act. A right of entry in favour of the Vendor for a period not exceeding five (5) years similar to the foregoing may be included in the Transfer/Deed of Land provided on Closing.

(b) The Purchaser shall not interfere with the completion by the Vendor of other units and the common elements. Until all the units are completed and sold, the Vendor may make such use of the unsold units and the common elements as may facilitate such completion and sale, including but not limited to maintenance of a sales office, the showing of the units and the display of signs.

11. Acceptance of Title by Purchaser

(a) The Purchaser agrees to accept title subject to the following:

(i) the Declaration, Description, any By-laws, or other documents registered on behalf of, or for the benefit of the Condominium (the "Condominium Documents"), notwithstanding that they may be amended and varied from the proposed Condominium Documents in the general form attached to the Disclosure Statement delivered to the Purchaser as set out in the Acknowledgment;

(ii) registered restrictions or covenants that run with the land, including any encroachment agreement(s) with any governmental authorities or adjacent land owner(s), provided that same are complied with as at the Closing Date;

(iii) easements, encroachments, rights-of-way, leases, agreements and/or licences now registered, or to be registered hereafter, which are required by the Governmental Authorities or any authority, commission or corporation or required by the Vendor, including for the supply and installation of utility services, drainage, telephone services, telecommunication services, electricity, gas, storm and/or sanitary sewers, water, cable television and/or any other service(s) to or for the benefit of the Condominium or to any adjacent or neighbouring properties, as well as any easement(s) which may be required by the Vendor or by the owner of the land, if not one and the same as the Vendor, and/or by any owner(s) of adjacent or neighbouring properties for servicing and/or access to (or entry from) such properties, together with any easement and cost-sharing agreement(s) or reciprocal agreement(s) confirming (or pertaining to) any easement or right-of-way for access, egress, support, maintenance and/or servicing purposes, and/or pertaining to the sharing of any services, facilities and/or amenities with adjacent or neighbouring property owners, including the Vendor;

(iv) registered agreements with any governmental authority and registered agreements with utilities, service providers and/or with local ratepayer associations, including without limitation, any development, site plan, subdivision, engineering and/or other municipal agreement or similar agreements entered into with any governmental authorities (with all of such agreements being hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Development Agreements");

(v) unregistered or inchoate liens for unpaid utilities in respect of which no formal bill, account or invoice has been issued by the relevant utility authority (or if issued, the time for payment of same has not yet expired), without any claim or request by the Purchaser for any utility holdback(s) or reduction/abatement in the Purchase Price, provided that the Vendor delivers to the Purchaser the Vendor's written undertaking to pay all outstanding utility accounts owing with respect to the Unit(s) (including any amounts owing in connection with any final meter reading(s) taken on or immediately prior to the Closing Date, if applicable), as soon as reasonably possible after the completion of this transaction;

(vi) any by-law, regulation, restriction, easement, noise attenuation provision, environmental notice, warning, restrictive covenant, lease, license or other agreement relating to the use or development of the Condominium;

(viii) any agreement which is necessary for the operation, maintenance or repair of the Condominium;

(ix) any easement, right-of-way or other agreement in favour of the Vendor (and any successor in title) or in favour of any adjacent landowners to facilitate the development of and access to the remainder of the lands owned or previously owned by the Vendor, and to facilitate the development of and access to any adjacent lands;

(x) a temporary easement and right of re-entry in favour of the Vendor for the purpose of completing construction of the Condominium and complying with its obligations pursuant to any agreement with any governmental authority;

(xi) any restrictive covenant or building restrictions relating to the Unit or the Condominium;

(xii) the right of the Vendor, Corporation or the Governmental Authorities and it's or their servants, agents and employees, to enter, inspect and install services and utilities and to maintain and repair same;

(xiii) any conditional sales agreements, notices of security interests or other agreements relating to any rental or leased equipment in the Unit or Condominium;

(xiv) any noise report or noise study;

(b) It is understood and agreed that the Vendor shall not be obliged to obtain or register on title to the Unit a release or discharge of (or an amendment to) any of the aforementioned items referred to in subparagraph 11(a) hereof, nor shall the Vendor be obliged to have any of same deleted from the title to the property, and the Purchaser hereby expressly acknowledges and agrees that the Purchaser shall satisfy himself or herself as to compliance therewith. The Purchaser agrees to observe and comply with the terms and provisions of the Development Agreements, and all restrictive covenants registered on title. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that the retention by the Governmental Authorities of security (e.g. in the form of cash, letters of credit, a performance bond, etc., satisfactory to the Governmental Authorities) intended to guarantee the fulfilment of any outstanding obligations under the Development Agreements shall, for the purposes of the purchase and sale transaction contemplated hereunder, be deemed to be satisfactory compliance with the terms and provisions of the Development Agreements. The Purchaser also acknowledges that the wires, cables and fittings comprising the cable television system serving the Condominium are (or may be) owned by the local cable television supplier, or by a company associated, affiliated with or related to the Vendor.

(c) The Purchaser covenants and agrees to consent to the matters referred to in subparagraph 11(a) hereof and to execute all documents and do all things requisite for this purpose, either before or after the Closing Date.

(d) The Vendor shall be entitled to insert in the Transfer/Deed of Land, specific covenants by the Purchaser pertaining to any or all of the restrictions, easements, covenants and agreements referred to herein and in the Condominium Documents, and in such case, the Purchaser may be required to deliver separate written covenants on closing. If so requested by the Vendor, the Purchaser covenants to execute all documents and instruments required to convey or confirm any of the easements, licences, covenants, agreements, and/or rights, required pursuant to this Agreement and shall observe and comply with all of the terms and provisions therewith. The Purchaser may be required to obtain a similar covenant (enforceable by and in favour of the Vendor), in any agreement entered into between the Purchaser and any subsequent transferee of the Unit.

(e) The Vendor shall be entitled to a vendor's lien for any unpaid purchase monies or interest thereon and for any other adjustments required to be made by the Purchaser pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and not made at the time of Closing. The Purchaser hereby consents to registration of the Vendor's lien provided for herein, and the Vendor will upon request deliver to the Purchaser (for registration at the Purchaser's expense) a release of the Vendor's lien within a reasonable time after receipt by the Vendor of the final advance of the monies secured by the Vendor's lien.

(f) The Purchaser agrees to advise the Vendor's solicitor within thirty (30) days prior to the Occupancy Date, as to how title will be taken, failing which, the Vendor is hereby directed to engross title in the name of the Purchaser(s) named in this Agreement and the Vendor's solicitors shall be entitled to charge a fee in order to make any subsequent changes thereto. The Purchaser agrees to accept any changes required to the unit number of the subject property as a result of the registered plan of condominium or otherwise as determined by the Vendor.

(g) Subject to the terms of the Addendum attached to this agreement of purchase and sale, the Purchaser is responsible for obtaining their own occupancy permit or other occupancy authorization from the local municipality and shall satisfy himself that occupancy is permitted by the Municipality on the Occupancy Date. The Vendor shall not be liable for any damages the Purchaser may suffer in the event the Purchaser is unable to obtain same, except as may be stipulated by Tarion.

(h) The Purchaser further agrees to accept the Vendor's solicitors' personal undertaking to discharge any mortgages, liens or encumbrances against the Unit or common elements that the Purchaser is not assuming and to close notwithstanding such mortgages, liens or encumbrances.

12. Vendor's Covenants

The Vendor hereby covenants as follows:

(a) To take all reasonable steps to sell the residential units included in the property without delay other than any units leased by the Vendor. In that regard, the Vendor hereby specifically reserves to itself the right to lease any of the units that are not sold from time to time in the Condominium project in accordance with the terms of the registered Declaration and By-laws. This right of the Vendor shall apply to each and every unit in the Condominium project that is unsold from time to time and the Vendor hereby specifically declares that it intends to lease such unsold units as it may see fit. The Vendor may accept bona fide offers or options to purchase on leased units to close upon expiration of such a lease.

(b) To take all reasonable steps to deliver to the Purchaser a registerable deed or transfer of the Unit without delay.

(c) To hold in trust for the Corporation the money, if any, that the Vendor collects from the Purchaser on behalf of the Corporation.

The covenants of the Vendor in this paragraph contained are hereby understood and agreed to be the extent of the Vendor's obligations in that regard and it is understood and agreed that there are no further obligations or covenants in that regard other than those specifically stated above. Any breach by the Vendor of the foregoing covenants shall only entitle the Purchaser to such remedies as may be available under the Act and no other remedies or rights with respect thereto.

13. Purchaser's Acknowledgments/Covenants

The Purchaser covenants as follows:

(a) The Purchaser, and any authorized signing authority thereof listed in the Agreement, shall deliver to the Vendor a copy of a valid government-issued identification document within seven (7) days following the execution of this Agreement.

(b) The Purchaser shall occupy and take possession of the Unit on the Occupancy Date or within fifteen (15) days thereafter on the terms set out herein. The Purchaser will use the Unit for the purpose of the single family dwelling only.

(c) The Purchaser shall not assign the occupancy license or any rights thereunder or grant a sub-license or otherwise part with possession of the Unit without the Vendor's written consent, and the parties hereto acknowledge that it is reasonable for the Vendor to withhold such consent in the circumstances of this transaction.

(d) Prior to Closing, the Purchaser covenants and agrees not to sell, list for sale, lease, rent, transfer or assign this Agreement or the Unit or agree to sell, transfer or assign this Agreement or the Unit or any rights to occupancy of the Unit without the Vendor's written consent, which consent may be arbitrarily withheld. The Purchaser covenants that the Unit is being purchased and will be used for the Purchaser's personal use and not for investment or speculative purposes, and the Purchaser shall deliver a Statutory Declaration on the Occupancy Date confirming the foregoing. If the Purchaser should die prior to Closing, the Vendor shall at its option be entitled to declare this Agreement null and void and upon so doing shall return all monies paid hereunder to the personal representatives of the Purchaser without interest except as may be required by law.

(e) Prior to Closing, the Purchaser shall maintain the Unit in a clean and sightly condition and shall not make any alterations or additions thereto without first obtaining the Vendor's written approval.

(f) The monthly occupancy fee shall be paid by the Purchaser monthly, in advance, on the first day of each month commencing on the Occupancy Date, provided that if the Occupancy Date occurs on other than the first day of a month, then the occupancy fee for such month shall be pro-rated on a per diem basis and shall be paid in advance, on the Occupancy Date. On the Occupancy Date, the Purchaser agrees to prepay the adjusted occupancy fee for the month in which the Occupancy Date occurs and for the next full month thereafter.

(g) In the event that this Agreement is terminated, the Purchaser shall forthwith vacate the Unit and the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor the total cost, as estimated by the Vendor, of repairing any damage to the Unit caused by the Purchaser and removing any installation or decorations made by or on behalf of the Purchaser so that the Unit is put back into the same state as existed immediately prior to the Occupancy Date.

(g)(i) The Vendor shall not be liable for any death or injury arising from or out of any occurrence in, upon, at, or relating to the proposed Condominium, or the Unit or damage to property of the Purchaser or of others located on the proposed Condominium or the Unit, nor shall it be responsible for loss of or damage to any property of the Purchaser or others from any cause whatsoever, even if any such death, injury, loss or damage results from the negligence of the Vendor, its agents, servants or employees, or other persons from whom it may at law be responsible. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Vendor shall not be liable for any injury or damage to persons or property resulting from fire, explosion, falling plaster, steam, gas, electricity, water, rain, flood, snow or leaks from any part of the proposed Condominium or the Unit or from the pipes, appliances, plumbing, works, roof or subsurface of any floor or ceiling or from the street or any other place or by dampness or by any other cause whatsoever, The Vendor shall not be liable for any such damage caused by other owners, occupants, tenants, invitees or any other person on the proposed Condominium or by occupants of adjacent property thereto, or the public, or caused by construction or any private, public or quasi-public work. All property of the Purchaser kept or stored on the proposed Condominium or on or in the Unit shall be kept or stored at the risk of the Purchaser only and the Purchaser shall indemnify the Vendor and save it harmless from and against any claim arising out of any damages to the same, including without limitation, any subrogation claims by the Purchaser's insurers; and

(ii) Notwithstanding any other terms, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement, the Purchaser shall protect, indemnify and hold the Vendor harmless from and against any and all loss (including loss of all occupancy payments payable by the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement), claims actions, damages, liability and expense in connection with loss of life, personal injury, damaged property or any other loss or injury whatsoever arising from or out of this Agreement, or any occurrence in, upon or at the proposed Condominium, or the Unit, or the occupancy or use by the Purchaser of the proposed Condominium or any part thereof or the Unit, or occasioned wholly or in part by any act or omission of the Purchaser or by anyone permitted to be on the proposed Condominium or the Unit by the Purchaser, even if the Vendor or any of its servants, agents, employees or others from whom it is in law responsible has acted negligently. If the Vendor shall, without fault on its part, be made a party to any litigation commenced by or against the Purchaser, then the Purchaser shall protect, indemnify and hold the Vendor harmless and shall pay all costs, expenses and reasonable legal fees incurred or paid by the Vendor in connection with such litigation.

(h) The Purchaser agrees to comply with the provisions of the terms of the proposed Declaration, By-laws and Rules.

(i) Breach of any of the covenants contained in this paragraph shall be a default of the Purchaser under the terms of this Agreement.

(j) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the selling agent represents the Purchaser and does not represent the Vendor. The selling agent is not authorized by the Vendor to make any representations or promises regarding the project or the sale of the Unit to the Purchaser. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that in the event of any conflict between any oral comment or representation made by the Vendor or its sales staff and this Agreement, this Agreement and any schedule or addendum hereto shall govern. Furthermore, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that unless specified in writing in this Agreement, the Vendor and its sales staff shall been deemed to have not made any representations regarding the project or the Unit whatsoever.

(k) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that it shall not assist or take part in any class action suit filed or threatened to be filed against the Vendor or any party involved in the development of the Property and that any proceedings, whether in arbitration or in court, will be conducted only on an individual basis and not as a class, representative, mass, or consolidated action.

(l) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that notwithstanding anything else contained herein, the Purchaser shall have forty-five (45) days from the date that this Agreement is executed by both parties to select and confirm with the Vendor any Extras that the Purchaser wishes to purchase which Extras shall be in addition to the Purchase Price (the "Requirement"). The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that in the event that the Purchaser fails to satisfy the Requirement, the Dwelling shall be constructed with the standard features and finishes as provided in Schedule "A" attached hereto.

14. Examination of Title by Purchaser

The Vendor shall notify the Purchaser or his solicitor when the Condominium has been registered. The Purchaser shall be allowed 10 days thereafter to examine title to the Unit at his own expense. If within that time any valid objection to title is made in writing to the Vendor which the Vendor shall be unable or unwilling to remove and which the Purchaser will not waive, then the Agreement shall, notwithstanding any intermediate acts or negotiations in respect of such objections, become null and void, the Purchaser shall surrender to the Vendor vacant possession of the Unit and the Deposit shall be returned to the Purchaser with interest and without deduction and the Vendor shall have no further liability or obligation hereunder and shall not be liable for any costs or damages. Save as to any valid objection to title made within such time, the Purchaser shall be deemed to have accepted the title of the Vendor to the Unit. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall be entitled to respond to all requisitions through the use of a standard title memorandum or title advice statement prepared by the Vendor's Solicitor and that same shall constitute a satisfactory manner of responding to the Purchaser's title requisitions, thereby relieving the Vendor and the Vendor's Solicitor of the requirement to respond directly or specifically to the Purchaser's requisitions. The Purchaser also acknowledges that the Vendor and the Vendor's Solicitor may arrange for the project to be enrolled with a title insurer or insurers acceptable to the Vendor (the "Title Insurer") in order to centralize underwriting for the project and avoid unnecessary duplication of costs for purchasers and their solicitors. In the event that the Purchaser elects to obtain title insurance through the Title Insurer, the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall not be required to perform some or all of the following due diligence thereby saving the Purchaser significant transaction costs: title search and review of title search; preparation of requisition letter; prepare, send out and review responses to clearance letters; execution searches against the Vendor; and corporate status searches. As a result of the foregoing and regardless of whether the Purchaser obtains title insurance through the Title Insurer, the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor or its solicitors on the Closing Date an administration fee of three hundred dollars ($300.00) plus applicable taxes for enrolling the project with the Title Insurer and for preparing and delivering to the Purchaser's solicitor and Title Insurer a title advice statement.

15. Adjustments

The Purchaser shall be responsible and be obligated to pay the following costs and/or charges in respect of the Unit either on the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date as determined by the Vendor. The Purchase Price shall be adjusted to reflect the following items, which shall be apportioned and allowed to the Closing Date with the day itself apportioned to the Purchaser:

(a) assessments prepaid or owing for contribution towards the common expenses, and/or reserve fund and/or the monthly occupancy fee;

(b) an amount equal to that estimated by the Vendor to be payable by the Purchaser for the Purchaser's Unit contribution towards the common expenses and/or reserve fund of the corporation for a period of up to two (2) months, which sum shall be paid directly to the Corporation on closing and credited by the Corporation to the Purchaser, for use by the Corporation as it deems reasonable. Such sum shall be in addition to any common expenses otherwise payable to the Corporation. In addition, the

Purchaser agrees to deliver a series of twelve (12) post-dated cheques or execute a pre-authorized chequing plan in an amount estimated by the Vendor to be payable monthly to the Corporation on account of common expenses;

(c) unearned insurance premiums, and where such insurance is carried by the corporation, the Purchaser's Unit share of any unearned or accrued premiums determined by the Purchaser's proportionate contribution to the common expenses;

Without derogation from any other right or remedy of the Vendor, if such form is not complied with and a wire transfer or direct deposit is made on account of the Purchase Price, the Purchaser shall pay an additional adjustment of $250.00, plus Applicable Taxes, as an administrative fee per occurrence.

If any of the adjustments to be made on the Occupancy Date and/or Closing cannot be accurately determined at the respective time, then the Vendor may estimate the adjustment to be made and the Purchaser shall accept such estimate; there shall be a later and final adjustment when all the items to be adjusted can be accurately determined. All proper readjustments shall be made after the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date if necessary, forthwith upon request. Any monies owing to the Vendor pursuant to such readjustment or as a result of any expenses incurred by the Vendor arising from a breach by the Purchaser of any of the Purchaser's obligations set out in this Agreement shall be payable upon written demand by the Vendor and shall bear interest from the date of written demand at the rate of twenty percent (20%) per annum, calculated daily, not in advance, and shall be a charge on the Unit until paid and such charge shall be enforced in the same manner as a mortgage in default. The Purchaser shall, from the Occupancy Date take all necessary steps to assume sole responsibility for all charges for hydro, water, gas and other services attributable to the Unit, unless same are included as a proposed common expense. The Purchaser shall be required to execute and deliver on the Occupancy Date or thereafter as required by the Vendor, all documents and any cheques or pre-authorized chequing plan as required by the Vendor related to the sub-metering of any utility. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that a three hundred and fifty dollar ($350.00) administrative fee shall be charged to the Purchaser for any cheque paid with respect to any deposit payable pursuant to this Agreement or any extras or upgrades or the occupancy fee which is returned "N.S.F." or upon which a "Stop Payment" has been ordered and such administrative fee shall be paid within five (5) days of written demand therefore or as otherwise directed by the Vendor. Agreement, which fees shall be paid forthwith upon demand by the Vendor or its solicitors.

In the event that the Purchaser desires to increase the amount to be paid to the Vendor's solicitor on the Occupancy Date at any time after the expiry of the initial ten (10) day statutory rescission period, or wishes to vary the manner in which the Purchaser has previously requested to take title to the Unit, or wishes to add or change any unit(s) being acquired from the Vendor, then the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor's Solicitors, either on the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, as determined by the Vendor, their legal fees in the amount of $350.00 plus HST, per request, in order to implement any such change, but without there being any obligation whatsoever on the part of the Vendor to approve of, or to implement, any of the foregoing changes so requested.

The interest component of the monthly occupancy fee shall be adjusted on the Closing Date for any discrepancy between the interest rate employed in the calculation of the monthly occupancy fee and that actually payable pursuant to paragraph 5(a) hereof. In addition, on the Closing Date, the Purchaser and the Vendor covenant and agree to deliver mutual undertakings to readjust the realty tax component of the monthly occupancy fees paid, as soon as the final realty tax bill in respect of the Unit (including all supplementary assessments with respect thereto covering the period of time from the Occupancy Date to the Closing Date) has been determined or issued by the tax department of the Municipality, so as to accord with the amount actually assessed against the Unit.

Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Purchase Price does not include any HST exigible with respect to any of the adjustments payable by the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement, or any extras or upgrades purchased, ordered or chosen by the Purchaser from the Vendor which are not specifically set forth in this Agreement, and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to pay such HST to the Vendor in accordance with the Excise Tax Act.

The Purchaser acknowledges receipt of the Disclosure Statement which has been delivered by the Vendor to the Purchaser in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the regulations passed thereunder, together with all other documents required to be delivered with the Disclosure Statement as required by the Act.

18. Modification of Condominium Documents

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may, from time to time in its sole discretion, due to site conditions or constraints, or for marketing considerations, or for any other legitimate reason, including without limitation any request or requirement of any of the governmental authorities or any request or requirement of the Vendor's architect or other design consultants:

(i) change the Property's municipal address or numbering of the Unit (in terms of the unit number and/or level number ascribed to any one or more of the units comprising the Unit);

(ii) change, vary or modify the plans and specifications pertaining to the Unit or the Condominium, or any portion thereof (including architectural, structural, engineering, landscaping, grading, mechanical, site servicing and/or other plans and specifications) from the plans and specifications existing at the inception of the project, or existing at the time that the Purchaser has entered into this Agreement, or as same may be illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) in the sales office or otherwise, including without limitation, making any change to the total number of dwelling, parking and/or other ancillary units intended to be created within the Condominium, and/or any change to the total number of levels or floors within the Condominium, as well as any changes or alterations to the design, style, size and/or configuration of any dwelling or other ancillary units within the Condominium; and/or

(iii) change, vary, or modify the number, size and location of any windows, column(s) and/or bulkhead(s) within or adjacent to (or comprising part of) the Unit, from the number, size and/or location of same as displayed or illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) or floor plan(s) previously delivered or shown to the Purchaser, including the insertion or placement of any window(s), column(s) and/or bulkhead(s) in one or more locations within the Unit which have not been shown or illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) or floor plan(s) previously delivered or shown to the Purchaser (regardless of the extent or impact thereof), as well as the removal of any window(s), column(s) and/or bulkhead(s) from any location(s) previously shown or illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) in the sales office or otherwise;

and that the Purchaser shall have absolutely no claim or cause of action whatsoever against the Vendor or its sales representatives (whether based or founded in contract, tort or in equity) for any such changes, deletions, alterations or modifications, nor shall the Purchaser be entitled to any abatement or reduction in the Purchase Price whatsoever as a consequence thereof, nor any notice thereof (unless any such change, deletion, alteration or modification to the said plans and specifications is material in nature (as defined by the Act) and significantly affects the fundamental character, use or value of the Unit and/or the Condominium, in which case the Vendor shall be obliged to notify the Purchaser in writing of such change, deletion, alteration or modification as soon as reasonably possible after the Vendor proposes to implement same, or otherwise becomes aware of same), and where any such change, deletion, alteration or modification to the said plans and specifications is material in nature as set out in the Act, then the Purchaser's only recourse and remedy shall be the termination of this Agreement prior to the closing date (and specifically within 10 days after the Purchaser is notified or otherwise becomes aware of such material change), and the return of the Purchaser's deposit monies, together with interest accrued thereon at the rate prescribed by the Act.

20. Agreement not to be Registered

The Purchaser acknowledges that registration of this Agreement, a caution, a certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument of any kind whatsoever against title to the Unit or Condominium prior to closing, would obstruct mortgage advances and cause substantial damage to the Vendor. Therefore, the Purchaser covenants and agrees prior to closing, not to register this Agreement, a caution, a certificate of pending litigation or other instrument against title to the Unit or the Condominium, and further covenants and agrees not to give, register or permit to be registered any encumbrance against the Unit or sell or make any other disposition thereof until after Closing. In the event that this Agreement of Purchase and Sale, a caution, a certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument whatsoever is registered against or dealing with the title in contravention of this provision, the Purchaser shall be in default pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement and in addition to all other rights and remedies available to the Vendor, then the Purchaser hereby appoints the Vendor his true and lawful attorney for the purposes of removing the instrument from title including giving of any discharge, the lifting of any caution or the assignment of any rights pursuant to this Agreement, and the Purchaser shall bear all costs incurred by the Vendor in the pursuance of his function pursuant to this power of attorney.

21. Default

(a) The Purchaser shall be deemed to be in default of this Agreement in each and every of the following events, namely:

(i) upon the non-payment of all or any portion of any amount payable pursuant to this Agreement or any amount payable for extras or upgrades, on the date or within the time specified;

(ii) upon the breach of, or failure in the performance or observance of any covenant, term, agreement, restriction, stipulation or provision of this Agreement to be performed and/or observed by the Purchaser;

(iii) upon any lien, execution or encumbrance arising from any action or default whatsoever of the Purchaser being charged against or affecting the Unit or Condominium prior to successful completion of this transaction on the closing date; or

(iv) upon the Purchaser (and if the Purchaser is more than one person then any one of the Purchaser) makes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent by any court of competent jurisdiction under any legislation then in force, or takes the benefit of any act that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors, or shall go into liquidation, either voluntary or under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or otherwise acknowledges its insolvency;

(b) If any default by the Purchaser occurs under this Agreement, the Vendor shall have the right, in addition to any other rights or remedies which the Vendor may have, to terminate this Agreement and forfeit all monies paid (including all deposits paid) together with any interest earned thereon and monies paid or payable for extras or upgrades ordered by the Purchaser, whether or not installed in the dwelling. The deposit and further deposit(s) are expressly deemed to be deposit monies only, and not partial payments. In the event the Vendor's solicitors are holding any of the deposits in trust pursuant to this Agreement, then in the event of a default by the Purchaser, the Vendor's solicitors are irrevocably authorized and directed to pay to the Vendor the said deposits together with any interest earned thereon, provided the Vendor has delivered to its solicitors a certificate of an officer of the Vendor, certifying that the Purchaser has committed a default pursuant to this Agreement that has not been remedied and that the Vendor has terminated this Agreement and that the Vendor is therefore entitled to the deposits and accrued interest, if any. Thereupon the Purchaser hereby releases the said solicitors from any obligation to hold the deposit monies, if any, in trust and shall not make any claim whatsoever against the said solicitors and the Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the said solicitors to deliver the said deposit monies and accrued interest, if any, to the Vendor pursuant to the foregoing. Without prejudice to the Vendor's rights as to forfeiture of monies paid as aforesaid and in addition thereto, the Vendor shall have the right to recover from the Purchaser all costs, losses and damages arising out of default on the part of the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement including interest thereon from the date of demand at the rate of twenty percent (20%) per annum calculated daily, not in advance until paid. In the event this Agreement, in future, is amended for the benefit of the Purchaser and/or in order to induce the closing of the transaction by giving the Purchaser a credit or a reduction against the purchase price and the Purchaser fails to complete the transaction, all damages shall be assessed as if such amendment was not entered into.

(c) If the transaction is not completed for any reason whatsoever and notwithstanding refund or forfeiture of deposits, the Purchaser shall execute and deliver such documents affecting title to the Unit or Condominium or a release with respect to this Agreement or any agreement or document in a form designated by the Vendor, and in the event the Purchaser fails or neglects to execute such documents, the Purchaser hereby appoints and authorizes the Vendor, the Purchaser's true and lawful attorney to so execute the said documentation.

(d) It is understood and agreed that the rights contained in this section 21 on the part of the Vendor are in addition to any other rights (whether of a more onerous nature or not) which the Vendor may have at law, in equity, or under any other provisions of this Agreement, and the Vendor expressly has the right to exercise all or any one or more of the rights contained in this Agreement, or at law or in equity, without exercising at such time the remainder of such right or rights and without prejudice to the subsequent right of the Vendor to exercise any remaining right or rights at law, in equity or in this Agreement.

22. Agreement Not to Merge with Transfer

All of the covenants, warranties and obligations contained in this Agreement to be performed by the Purchaser shall survive the Closing of this transaction and shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the transfer of title to the Unit to the Purchaser. The Purchaser shall execute and deliver, when requested by the Vendor, one or more covenants incorporating the terms hereof.

23. Waiver

No provision of this Agreement may be waived by either party except in writing. The waiver of any of the provisions hereunder shall not affect the right of either party to enforce all other provisions not so waived.

24. Subordination of Agreement

The Purchaser agrees that this Agreement shall be subordinate to and postponed to any mortgages arranged by the Vendor and any advances thereunder from time to time, and to any easement, service agreement and other similar agreements made by the Vendor concerning the lands and also to the registration of all Condominium documents. The Purchaser agrees to do all acts necessary and execute and deliver all necessary documents, both before and after Closing, as may be reasonably required by the Vendor from time to time to give effect to this undertaking.

25. Acceptance

This Agreement by the Purchaser when accepted by the Vendor shall constitute a binding contract of purchase and sale.

26. Time of Essence and No Representations etc.

Time shall in all respects be strictly of the essence of this Agreement and no extension of time for any payment by the Purchaser or rectification of any breach of any agreement, stipulation, condition or restriction shall operate as a waiver of this provision with respect to any other payment or rectification of any other breach, except as specifically agreed upon in writing by the Vendor or the Purchaser, as the case may be.

The parties hereto agree that there are no representations, warranties, collateral agreements or conditions affecting this Agreement or the Unit other than as expressed herein in writing.

In the event that the date for payment of any deposit required to be paid pursuant to this Agreement or the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or statutory holiday, then such date shall be automatically deemed to be amended to the next business day.

The Purchaser acknowledges that the new home industry is complex and that while sales agents are knowledgeable about most issues regarding the purchase and construction of a new home, they cannot be expected to know all aspects in detail. Accordingly, the Purchaser acknowledges that no representations have been made to the Purchaser by the Vendor or its sales agents upon which the Purchaser relies and which were essential to the Purchaser's decision to purchase this property, except as are set forth herein in writing.

27. Preparation and Cost of Registering Documents

The Transfer is to be prepared at the expense of the Vendor on the Vendor's standard form. If required by the Vendor, the Transfer may contain covenants on the part of the Purchaser to comply with the stipulations set out above, the covenants, conditions, provisions and restrictions set out in the Declaration and By-laws, and is to be executed by the Purchaser and prepared at the expense of the Vendor. The Transfer shall be registered forthwith on Closing at the Purchasers expense. The Purchaser agrees to accept a transfer of the Unit from the registered owner of the Unit, as directed by the Vendor, and the Purchaser agrees to provide and execute and deliver on Closing, whatever indemnities, assurances and other documentation that may be required by the Vendor in order to transfer title as aforesaid. The Vendor shall have the option to collect the HST, if any, payable by the Purchaser on chattels which are involved in this transaction as a charge on Closing and the allocation of such chattels to be estimated, if necessary, by the Vendor.

28. Tender

Any tender of documents or money, or any notice to be given hereunder may be made upon the Vendor or the Purchaser or any party acting for the said Vendor or Purchaser and money may be tendered by negotiable cheque certified by a chartered bank or trust company carrying on business in the Province of Ontario.

The Purchaser agrees to attend at the appropriate Registry Office at noon on the Closing Date to complete this transaction unless an alternate time has been specifically agreed upon between the Vendor and Purchaser or their respective solicitors, in default of which attendance the Vendor shall be deemed to have affected a good and valid tender upon the Purchaser. On the Occupancy Date (provided that it is not also the Closing Date) the Purchaser shall deliver all required documents and funds to the offices of the Vendor's solicitors by 2:00 p.m. on that date, failing which the Purchaser shall be in default under this Agreement.

Keys will be released to the Purchaser at the construction site or the Registry Office or the Sales Office or the Head Office of the Vendor, as the Vendor in its absolute discretion determines, on the Occupancy Date after receipt of all required funds and documents, unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing between the Vendor and Purchaser. The Purchaser agrees that the Vendor's solicitor's advice that keys are available for release to the Purchaser constitutes a valid tender of keys on the Purchaser.

On the Occupancy Date the Purchaser shall deliver to the Vendor a clear execution certificate in respect of the Purchaser's name and any person in whose favour the Purchaser has given its written direction to engross title, from the Land Titles Office where the Condominium is situate, and shall also provide the Vendor with such other information and documentation as may be required in order to enable the Vendor to obtain a clear execution certificate as aforesaid (or alternatively, to satisfy the Vendor's solicitor, in their sole discretion, that the Purchaser and any person in whose favour the Purchaser has given its written direction to engross title is/are not one and the same person as any particular execution debtor named in any given execution certificate).

Notwithstanding subparagraph 35(d) hereof, or any other term to the contrary herein, in the event the Purchaser or his/her solicitor advise the Vendor or its solicitor, on or before the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, as applicable, that the Purchaser is unable or unwilling to complete the purchase or take occupancy, the Vendor is relieved of any obligation to make any formal tender upon the Purchaser or his/her solicitor and may exercise forthwith any and all of its rights and remedies provided for in this Agreement and at law.

29. Gender and Number

This Agreement and its acceptance are to be read with all changes of gender and number as may be required by the context.

30. Successors and Assigns

Except as expressly herein provided, the Parties hereto further agree that the covenants, agreements, provisos and conditions in this Agreement contained shall extend to and be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns. In the event that more than one party comprises the Purchaser herein, the

This Agreement of Purchase and Sale shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario. In the event any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement or any portion or portions thereof are invalid or unenforceable, the same shall be deemed to be deleted herefrom and shall not be deemed to affect the enforceability or validity of the balance of this Agreement of Purchase and Sale.

34. Electronic Registration

If the electronic registration system (hereinafter referred to as the "Teraview Electronic Registration System" or "TERS") is operative at the applicable land registry office on the Closing Date, the following provisions shall prevail:

(a) The Purchaser shall retain a solicitor who is both an authorized TERS user and in good standing with the Law Society of Ontario to represent the Purchaser for the closing. The Purchaser will authorize its solicitor to enter into a Document Registration Agreement on the Vendor's solicitors' standard form (the "Escrow Agreement"). The closing time and Release Deadline for the purposes of the Escrow Agreement shall be 5:00 p.m. on the closing date.

(b) The Purchaser acknowledges that the delivery of documents and/or money may not occur contemporaneously with the registration of the Transfer/Deed of Land and may be delivered in escrow pursuant to the Escrow Agreement. In the event of electronic registration of documents, the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on Closing for the additional legal costs incurred with respect to electronic registration.

(c) If the closing of this transaction cannot be completed in escrow pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, the Purchaser's solicitor shall attend at the offices of the Vendor's solicitors or at the appropriate land registry office, as directed by the Vendor's solicitors and at such time as directed by the Vendor's solicitors in order to complete this transaction.

(d) Paragraph 28 of this Schedule "X" is amended to provide that tender shall have been validly made by the Vendor when the "Completeness Signature" for the Transfer/Deed of Land has been electronically "signed" by the Vendor's solicitors on or before the closing date, and same shall be satisfactory evidence that the Vendor is ready, willing and able to complete the sale transaction and the Vendor shall be deemed to have effected a sufficient, good and valid tender upon the Purchaser.

(e) The parties agree that the delivery of documents (other than documents to be registered) on the Closing Date may occur by facsimile transmission or similar system reproducing them, provided that all documents have been properly executed by the appropriate parties, save and except for such documents as may be specified by the Vendor's solicitors as requiring original copies to be delivered on the Closing Date. The person transmitting the documents shall also provide original documents to the recipient within two (2) business days of the later of (i) facsimile transmission of the documents, or (ii) a request for the original documents by the recipient.

(f) At the option of the Vendor, the Purchaser agrees that the delivery of any documents not intended for registration on title to the Unit(s) may be delivered to the Purchaser by electronic transmission of electronically signed documents through the internet provided that all documents so transmitted have been duly and properly executed by the appropriate parties/signatories thereto. The Purchaser shall not require the delivery of originals of any such documents. The Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on closing for any additional legal costs incurred related to the electronic posting of documents in the amount of $250.00, plus Applicable Taxes.

(g) If the Purchaser's lawyer is unwilling or unable to complete this transaction via TERS, in accordance with the provisions contemplated under the Escrow Agreement, then said lawyer (or authorized agent thereof) shall be obligated to personally attend at the office of the Vendor's solicitor, at such time on the scheduled Closing Date as may be directed by the Vendor's solicitor or as mutually agreed upon, in order to complete this transaction via TERS utilizing the computer facilities in the Vendor's solicitor's office, and shall pay a fee as determined by the Vendor's solicitor, acting reasonably for the use of the Vendor's computer facilities.

(h) Notwithstanding that all closing funds payable by the Purchaser (in accordance with the statement of adjustments) in connection with the final closing of this transaction must be provided by way of a certified cheque made payable to the Vendor's solicitors and be drawn upon (or issued by) a Canadian chartered bank or trust company, it is understood and agreed that at the Vendor's sole option and discretion, exercisable on written notice to the Purchaser's solicitor by the Vendor's solicitor at any time prior to the scheduled final closing date, the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall be required to participate in (and shall correspondingly be obliged to comply with the procedures for transmitting all certified funds for closing this transaction in accordance with) the closing funds management service provided by Teranet

Enterprises Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Teranet"), provided however that in such case:

(a) the Vendor's solicitor shall receive written confirmation from Teranet (by fax or e-mail) of its receipt of all required closing funds from the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor, prior to the Vendor's solicitor being obliged to release the transfer for electronic registration (and the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall execute all requisite directions and/or authorizations to Teranet in order to implement and facilitate the foregoing); and

(b) all fees charged by Teranet [together with all applicable bank charges for the wired transfer(s) of funds] that are otherwise payable or incurred by either or both of the Vendor and the Purchaser in connection with Teranet's closing funds management service, shall be fully borne and paid for solely by the Purchaser.

35. Notices/Acknowledgements

(a) The Purchaser acknowledges that existing and/or future site plan agreements, section 37 agreements, development agreements and other agreements with the Municipality and other Governmental Authorities, affecting the real property may require the Vendor to provide the Purchaser with certain notices or warnings including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, notices or warnings regarding the usage of the real property, environmental issues, noise levels from adjacent or nearby buildings, hospitals, plazas, roadways or otherwise, school transportation and related educational issues, the absence of door-to-door mail delivery, the location of mailboxes, the status of services and works in the condominium and in general, any other matter that may be deemed by the Municipality and/or Governmental Authorities to inhibit the enjoyment by the Purchaser of the real property. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable at this time to provide the Purchaser with all such notices and warnings. On or before closing, the Purchaser shall forthwith execute upon request by the Vendor, acknowledgements or amendments to this Agreement containing the required notices and warning clauses. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable to sell the real property to the Purchaser unless the Purchaser executes such acknowledgements or amendments as aforesaid. In the event that the Purchaser fails to execute such acknowledgements or amendments forthwith upon being requested to do so by the Vendor, the Vendor shall be entitled, at its sole option, to terminate this Agreement and upon such termination, all monies paid to the Vendor hereunder shall be forfeited to the Vendor and this Agreement shall be at an end, and the Purchaser shall not have any further rights hereunder.

(b) The Purchaser expressly acknowledges that at the date of execution of this Agreement, draft plan and/or site plan approval pursuant to the provisions of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990 and/or Condominium Act, R.S.O. 1998 as either may be amended may not yet have been obtained with respect to the Condominium. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the draft conditions and any Development Agreements may contain warnings, and other provisions which are required to be included in agreements of purchase and sale for units in the Condominium. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to execute any and all documentation, including an amendment to this Agreement, as may be required by the Vendor, and in a form satisfactory to the Vendor, in order that the foregoing provisions shall be incorporated into this Agreement and acknowledged by the Purchaser.

(c) The Purchaser acknowledges receipt of notice from the Vendor that the Vendor or related or associated corporations may develop other lands in the vicinity of the Condominium and may apply for zoning or rezoning thereof, and the Purchaser agrees and undertakes on behalf of themselves, their successors and assigns not to object or oppose any applications for the development, zoning, rezoning, amendment to the Official Plan or Secondary Plan or any similar applications and agrees that this paragraph may be pleaded as a bar to any objection thereof. The Purchaser covenants to include this clause in any conveyance, mortgage or disposition of the Unit and to assign the benefit of such covenant to the Vendor.

(d) Without limiting the generality of the preceding subparagraph, the Purchaser is hereby advised that:

(i) noise levels caused by the Condominium's emergency generator, mechanical rooms, mechanical and/or electrical equipment, the HVAC system, the Condominium's recreation facilities, Jefferson Side Road and neighbouring properties, all may occasionally cause noise and inconvenience to the residential occupants; and

(ii) as and when other residential units in the Condominium are being completed and/or moved into, excessive levels of noise, vibration, dust and/or debris are possible, and same may accordingly temporarily cause noise and inconvenience to the residential occupants.

(e) The Vendor reserves the right to increase or decrease the final number of levels to be constructed within the Condominium as well as the final number of residential, parking and locker units intended to be created within the Condominium, as well as the right to alter the design, style, size and/or configuration of the residential units and commercial units ultimately comprised within the Condominium which have not yet been sold by the Vendor to any unit purchaser(s), all in the Vendor's sole discretion, and the Purchaser expressly acknowledges and agrees to the foregoing, provided that the final budget for the first year following registration of the Condominium is prepared in such a manner so that any such variance in the residential, parking and/or locker unit count will not affect in any material or substantial way, the percentages of common expenses and common interests allocated and attributable to the residential, parking and/or locker units sold by the Vendor to the Purchaser. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that one or more residential units situate adjacent to one another may be combined or amalgamated prior to the registration of the Condominium, in which case the common expenses and common interests attributable to such proposed former units will be incorporated into one figure or percentage in respect of the final combined unit, and the overall residential unit count of the Condominium will be varied and adjusted accordingly. None of the foregoing changes or revisions (if implemented) shall in any way be considered or construed as a material change to the disclosure statement prepared and delivered by the Vendor to the Purchaser in connection with this transaction.

(f) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor cannot guarantee (and will not be responsible for) the arrangement of a suitable move-in time for purposes of accommodating the Purchaser's occupancy of the Unit on the Occupancy Date (or any acceleration or extension thereof as hereinbefore provided), and under no circumstances shall the Purchaser be entitled to any claim, refund, credit, reduction/abatement or set-off whatsoever against any portion of the Purchase Price, or against any portion of the common expenses or other adjustments with respect thereto (nor with respect to any portion of the monthly occupancy fees so paid or payable, if applicable) as a result of the service elevator not being available to accommodate the Purchaser moving into the Condominium on (or within any period of time after) the Occupancy Date (or any acceleration or extension thereof, as aforesaid).

(g) The Vendor's builder's risk and/or comprehensive liability insurance (effective prior to the registration of the Condominium), and the Condominium's master insurance policy (effective from and after the registration of the Condominium) will only cover the common elements and the standard unit and will not cover any betterments or improvements made to the standard unit, nor any furnishings or personal belongings of the Purchaser or other residents of the Unit, and accordingly the Purchaser should arrange for his or her own insurance coverage with respect to same, effective from and after the Occupancy Date, all at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense.

(h) The Municipality does not require off-site snow removal. However, in the case of heavy snow falls the limited storage space available on the property may make it necessary to truck the snow off the site and the cost of same will be included in the common expense fees.

(i) Purchasers are advised that the Vendor has no control over the development of lands adjacent to/or in proximity of the Condominium, and as such, notwithstanding any representations made to the Purchaser whether by a sales representative or in any marketing materials, the Vendor cannot guarantee that the Purchaser will have an unobstructed view from his or her Unit.

(j) Each Residential Unit has conduit(s) for the provision of television, telephone and internet service. These services are to be paid for directly by the owner of the Unit.

(k) Electricity, water and gas consumption in each Unit may be measured and invoiced by a submetering system installed and operated by a third party supplier (the "Supplier"). In such event each Unit owner shall receive and be responsible for payment of the invoice with respect to the electricity, water and gas consumption for his/her Unit, from the Occupancy Date forward. The Unit owner shall remit payment to the Supplier for electricity, water and gas consumption, separate from any other obligations the Unit owner has with respect to payment of common expenses as an owner within the condominium. The Unit owner will on either the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, execute the Supplier's form of contract and pre-authorized payment form and will provide the Supplier with a security deposit if required by the Supplier.

(l) Purchasers are advised that the Vendor may from time to time, in its sole and absolute discretion or as required by any Governmental Authority or construction requirements, change, vary or modify the plans, colours, materials, finishes, equipment, appliances, fixtures and specifications pertaining to the Condominium, the Residential Units Parking Units and/or Locker Units (all as defined in the Disclosure Statement) (including architectural, structural, mechanical, electrical or other plans, interior layout, height or rooms and interior spaces, unit numbering and level numbering) from the plans, colours, materials, finishes, equipment, appliances, fixtures and specifications existing at the time that the Purchaser entered into the Agreement of Purchase and Sale or as same may be illustrated in any sales brochures, models, representative view sets, photographs, illustrations or renderings, showroom displays, model suites, vignettes or otherwise, all without notice to or consent from the Purchaser. The Purchaser specifically acknowledges that he/she has not acquired the Unit based on the current layout, interior design, fixturing or furnishing of the display suite located in the Vendor's sales presentation centre. With respect to any aspect of construction, materials, finishes, colours, appliances, fixtures, equipment or dimensions, the Vendor shall have the right without notice to or consent from the Purchaser to make any changes to the plans and to substitutes materials, finishes, colours, appliances, fixtures, equipment or dimensions from those described in the Agreement of Purchase and Sale or in the plans and specifications associated therewith, provided that the substituted items are of equal or better quality, planning and construction. Purchasers are advised that the Agreement of Purchase and Sale contains provisions pursuant to which each Purchaser consents to any such changes, modifications and/or substitutions and agrees to complete the transaction of purchase and sale notwithstanding same.

(m) Purchasers are advised that the acquisition of a dwelling unit does not entitle the Purchaser to acquire a Parking Unit or Locker Unit unless specifically set out on the front page of this Agreement of Purchase and Sale or by way of a separate addendum.

(n) The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor has made no representation regarding the site lines and view from the Purchaser's Unit. In addition, purchasers are advised that other adjoining landowners may develop or redevelop their properties which may impact on the site lines and views from the Purchasers Unit.

(o) The Purchaser acknowledges that, with the exception of the budget attached to the Disclosure Statement accompanying this Agreement, no representation or warranty has been made to the Purchaser by the Vendor or any of its agents, employees or representatives with respect to municipal taxes, utility costs or other expenses relating to the ownership or operation of the Unit. The Purchaser acknowledges that he shall be responsible for making his own inquiries to the appropriate municipal authorities or utilities in this regard.

(p) The actual number of dwelling units in the Condominium may be amended as disclosed in various provisions of the Disclosure Statement. Consequently, the legal description and suite number which identifies a purchaser's dwelling unit on the front page of this Agreement of Purchase and Sale may be changed by the Vendor, in its sole and absolute discretion prior to final closing.

(q) Purchasers are advised that as a result of uncertainty in the natural gas, hydro and water distribution markets, the Vendor's reasonable assumptions regarding such utility costs may be incorrect as a result of circumstances which are not capable of being accurately predicted as of the date of this Agreement and which are beyond the Vendor's control. Consequently, prior to registration of the Condominium, the projected costs for such utilities for the first year shall be updated to reflect market conditions as of the date of registration as an alternative (in the Vendor's sole discretion) to applying the inflation factor referenced in the Disclosure Statement. The Budget and common expenses applicable to each unit shall be revised accordingly. Purchasers specifically acknowledge and agree that any increase in utility costs from that which was originally represented in the Budget shall not be the responsibility of the Vendor, despite section 75 of the Condominium Act. Purchasers acknowledge that the possibility of an increase in utility costs has been properly disclosed and, consequently, any increase shall not constitute a material change to the Disclosure Statement and Budget. In addition, Purchasers agree that this acknowledgement may be pleaded by the Vendor as complete defence to any application or objection raised by Purchasers in this regard.

(r) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that as a condition of closing, the Purchaser shall on either the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, as determined by the Vendor, in its sole and absolute discretion, enter into or assume lease(s) (collectively the "Lease") for the use of the heating, ventilation and air-conditioning unit and ancillary devices and systems servicing his/her Unit ("HVAC Unit") and/or the lease of a hot water heater tank and ancillary devices ("Hot Water Tank"). The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that by entering into or assume the Lease, the Purchaser shall be fully responsible for all rental payments and other costs associated with the Lease, including any security deposit required under the Lease. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that in the event that the Purchaser sells or assigns his/her Unit, on the closing of that transaction, the Purchaser shall assign and the transferee shall assume all of the rights and obligations under the Lease. In addition, in the event that the Purchaser is in default of the Lease or does not assign or assume the Lease on its closing day, then the lessor under the Lease or its representative, accompanied by the property manager or another representative of the Condominium, may enter onto the common elements of the Condominium and enter into the Unit to remove the HVAC Unit at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense. Any costs incurred by the Condominium related to the removal of the HVAC Unit and/or the Hot Water Tank shall be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser and all such amounts shall be collected by the Condominium as if same where Common Expenses. This condition is inserted for the sole benefit of the Vendor and may be waived by the Vendor at any time prior to 6:00 pm on the Closing Date by providing notice to the Purchaser of the Vendor's intention to waive this condition.

(s) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor (and any of its authorized agents, representatives and/or contractors), as well as one or more authorized representatives of the Condominium, shall be permitted to enter the Unit after Closing, from time to time, in order to enable the Vendor to correct outstanding deficiencies or incomplete work for which the Vendor is responsible, and to enable the Condominium to inspect the condition or state of repair of the Unit and undertake or complete any requisite repairs thereto (which the owner of the Unit has failed to do) in accordance with the Act.

(t) Vendor hereby specifically reserves to itself the right to lease any of the units that are not sold from time to time in the Condominium project in accordance with the terms of the registered Declaration and By-laws. This right of the Vendor shall apply to each and every unit in the Condominium project that is unsold from time to time and the Vendor hereby specifically declares that it intends to lease such unsold units as it may see fit. The Vendor may accept bona fide offers or options to purchase on leased units to close upon expiration of such a lease.

(u) The Purchaser acknowledges that the location of mechanical, electrical, heating, air conditioning and other service installations, may or may not be shown on sales brochures and, in any event, such mechanical, electrical, heating, air conditioning and other service installations will be located in accordance with approved plans and/or good construction practices, which may result in among other things, bulk heads, reduction in closet sizes and other changes to the Unit, and the Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that he or she shall correspondingly be obliged to accept the Unit in its delivered condition on Closing without any abatement or claim for compensation whatsoever.

(v) The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor is not required to deliver "hard" or paper copies of the documentation pertaining to the Occupancy of the Unit or the conveyance of title to the Unit, draft or otherwise, to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor (the "Closing Documentation"). The Vendor or the Vendor's representatives may, at their option, deliver to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor any or all of the Closing Documentation by email and/or by website. If delivered by website, the Closing Documentation shall be made available for download on an internet website designated by the Vendor and access to such website shall be effected by way of a confidential password to be provided to the Purchaser and/or the Purchaser's solicitor. In the event the Vendor delivers or tenders closing documents required in connection with this transaction on the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date by posting same on the world wide web, then the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on the Closing Date for the costs incurred by the Vendor to utilize such web services for the Condominium and/or this transaction. In the event that any such fees are issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right to apportion such costs to the Purchaser in accordance with his/her proportionate ownership interest in the Condominium as set out in Schedule D to the Declaration.

(w) The Purchasers acknowledges that supply of electricity and natural gas and/or water to each residential unit may be individually metered (the "Unit Meter") for consumption within the residential unit and the Purchaser will be invoiced for such consumption and all service or administration charges relating thereto (the "Unit Invoices") either by one or more private corporations providing re-sale, meter reading, payment and invoicing services to the Corporation and Purchaser and/or by a water, natural gas or hydro-electricity service provider or re-seller (collectively the "Service Provider"). The Unit Invoices will include the costs of all water, natural gas and/or electrical power as well as heat and cooling services consumed by the residential unit as well as service charges based on per litre or gallon of water, cubic metre of gas consumed or BTU consumed, per kilowatt per hour electricity consumed and other administration charges applicable to the metering service (with the costs of electricity, natural gas and other service charges hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Unit Services"). The Purchaser shall be responsible to pay the Unit Invoices in respect of the Unit Services as and when same are due and payable and such amounts, after the registration of the Condominium, shall be in addition to the common expenses payable by the Purchaser and shall not be included in the said common expenses. The cost of such Unit Services shall constitute an additional charge and such payment will not be credited against such Purchaser's obligation to pay occupancy fees in respect of the Purchaser's occupation of the residential unit. In addition to the Unit Invoices, the Service Provider may oblige the Purchaser to provide and/or replenish a security deposit, from time to time, in respect of Unit Services and such security deposit may be collected by the Vendor on closing. In the event that the Purchaser fails to pay the Unit Invoices on the due date, the Service Provider shall have the right to use the security deposit to satisfy the Unit Invoices and/or the right to terminate the supply of the Unit Service to the residential unit, and not to commence supplying such Unit Services again unless and until the Purchaser provides or replenishes the security deposit and pays the Unit Invoices. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to execute, upon request, any metering/invoicing/leasing/service or utility supply agreement, or assumption of acknowledgment of same, as required by the Service Provider and/or Vendor.

(x) In the event that the Vendor receives any rebate, credit, recovery, adjustment, discount or similar benefit from any party or parties in respect of any item that the Vendor is entitled to charge the Purchaser for in accordance with this, then the Vendor shall be entitled to retain any such rebate, credit, recovery, adjustment, discount or similar benefit for its own use and as its own property absolutely and shall not be obligated to credit or adjust with the Purchaser for any such rebate, credit, recovery, adjustment, discount or similar benefit.

(y) For owners of Residential Units located in Block G of the Site Plan, purchasers/tenants are advised that sound levels due to increasing road traffic may occasionally interfere with some activities of the dwelling occupants as the sound levels exceed the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria.

This dwelling unit has been supplied with a central air conditioning system which will allow windows and exterior doors to remain closed, thereby ensuring that the indoor sound levels are within the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment's, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria.

(z) For owners of Residential Units located in Block H of the Site Plan

Purchasers/tenants are advised that sound levels due to increasing road traffic may occasionally interfere with some activities of the dwelling occupants as the sound levels exceed the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria.

This dwelling unit has been fitted with a forced air heating system and the ducting, etc. was sized to accommodate central air conditioning. Installation of central air conditioning by the occupant will allow windows and exterior doors to remain closed, thereby ensuring that the indoor sound levels are within the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria. (Note: The location and installation of the outdoor air conditioning device should be done so as to comply with noise criteria of MOE Publication NPC-216, Residential Air Conditioning Devices and thus minimize the noise impacts both on and in the immediate vicinity of the subject property.)

36. Harmonized Sales Taxes

(a) (i) The Purchase Price set out above includes the HST net of Rebates as provided for in this agreement, being hereinbefore defined as the Net HST, and the Purchase Price has been established on the basis that the Rebate or Rebates, as applicable, will be assigned to the Vendor, in addition to such Purchase Price. The current rate of HST is 13 percent and this is the rate that is applicable to this contract before netting out the Rebates from such HST. Purchasers are advised that the Purchase Price offered to the Purchaser has been calculated on the basis that the Purchaser shall qualify for and assign to and/or reimburse the Vendor the maximum Rebate based on the Purchase Price set out herein as adjusted, save and except as hereinafter set out to the contrary and this is what is meant in paragraph 2 when the Purchase Price is stipulated to be "inclusive of Harmonized Sales Taxes net of all Rebates". This can also be stated as (and with the Purchaser acknowledging and agreeing to) the HST being applicable to this agreement being calculated on the basis of the Purchase Price less the Net HST. Subject to section 36(d) herein, the Vendor covenants and agrees to credit the Purchaser on Closing with all Rebates to which the Purchaser is entitled, subject to the Purchaser assigning and/or transferring the Rebates to the Vendor and/or reimbursing the Vendor for such Rebates as hereinafter set out.

(ii) If the rate of HST is increased or decreased or the percentage of calculation of the Rebate is amended, or the rate or thresholds in respect of the HST exemptions or rebate entitlement are changed between the date of this Agreement and the Occupancy Date or Closing Date, with the result that the net amount of the HST to be remitted by the Vendor increases, then the Purchaser shall pay the Vendor an amount on the Occupancy Date or Closing Date equal to such additional HST payable by the Vendor. A statutory declaration of any officer of the Vendor as to the alteration, increase amendment, etc., as hereinbefore set out shall be determinative in this regard.

(iii) If the rate of the HST is reduced between the date of this agreement and the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date but such reduction is for the benefit of the Purchaser and not the Vendor (the "HST Credit"), then the Purchaser hereby assigns all right, benefit and entitlement to such HST Credit and shall execute any and all forms, documents, assignments, etc., as required by the Vendor in this regard in the Vendor's absolute discretion. The Purchaser hereby irrevocably assigns to the Vendor all of the Purchaser's rights, interests and entitlements to the HST Credit (and concomitantly releases all of the Purchaser's claims to or interests in the HST Credit, to and in favour of the Vendor), and hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the HST Credit directly to the Vendor.

(iv) The Purchaser covenants and warrants (which covenant and warranty shall survive the completion of this agreement) that it has not made any claim and will not make any claim for any Rebate or HST Credit in respect of the Unit.

(v) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the Purchaser agrees that the Purchase Price for the Property, set out on page 1 of this Agreement, does not include HST on closing adjustments and amounts payable for Extras and/or upgrades purchased or ordered by the Purchaser (whether as part of this Agreement or otherwise) payable under this Agreement and that same are subject to HST on the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date and that such HST shall be chargeable and payable by the Purchaser in addition to any other HST included in the Purchase Price. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the HST payable in respect of such adjustments and/or Extras and/or upgrades shall be at the rate of HST otherwise applicable to this Agreement.

(b) The Purchaser hereby irrevocably assigns to the Vendor all of the Purchaser's rights, interests and entitlements to the Rebate (and concomitantly releases all of the Purchaser's claims to or interests in the Rebate, to and in favour of the Vendor), and hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the Rebate directly to the Vendor. The Purchaser shall receive a credit on closing for such Rebate (provided to the extent he/she qualifies for same) if required by law in order for such Rebate to be assigned, transferred or reimbursed to the Vendor. The Purchaser represents and warrants that the Purchaser is acquiring the Property for his or his blood relative's primary place of residence within the meaning of the Excise Tax Act (Canada) or Income Tax Act (Canada) or any replacement statute and is entitled to the maximum amount of the Rebate applicable to purchase transactions of this nature at the Purchase Price set out in this Agreement. In the event that there are separate assignments and rebates of the provincial and/or federal portion of the HST with respect to this transaction, the Purchaser shall execute and deliver all applications, assignments, declarations, documents and/or other assurances (in the form required by the Vendor or the Government of Canada and/or the Province of Ontario) to the Vendor required to establish and assign all of his or her right, title and interest in the Rebate or any portion thereof. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that the Vendor shall have the right to determine whether the Purchaser qualifies for any Rebates and the Vendor's determination of such entitlement shall be final and binding. The Purchaser hereby covenants, warrants and/or represents to the Vendor, with respect to this transaction, that:

(i) the Purchaser is a natural person who is acquiring the Property with the intention of being the sole beneficial owner thereof of on the Closing Date (and not as the agent or trustee for or on behalf of any other party or parties),

(ii) upon the Occupancy Date and continuing up to and including the Closing Date, the Purchaser or one or more of the Purchaser's blood relations, as determined in accordance with the Excise Tax Act (Canada) and Income Tax Act (Canada), shall personally occupy the Unit as his, her or their primary place of residence, for such period of time as shall be required by the applicable legislation in order to entitle the Purchaser to the Rebate (and the ultimate assignment thereof to and in favour of the Vendor) in respect of the Purchaser's acquisition of the Unit; and

(iii) he or she has not claimed (and hereby covenants not to hereafter claim), for the Purchaser's own account, any part of the Rebate in connection with the Purchaser's acquisition of the Unit, save as otherwise hereinafter expressly provided or contemplated or permitted.

(c) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the total consideration for the calculation of HST includes not only the Purchase Price but all other taxable supplies charged to the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise including without limitation, Extras, upgrades, applicable adjustments and/or reimbursements charged by the Vendor under this Agreement such as enrolment fees, connections fees, as well as any charge for development charge levies and education levies or other levies and charges, etc. (with such additional amounts hereinafter referred to as the "Additional Charges"), the costs of which the Vendor may charge to the Purchaser. The Additional Charges and applicable HST shall constitute part of the taxable supply with respect to the said transaction and shall be added to the Purchase Price to determine the total consideration upon which HST is calculated; and

(ii) any Extras or Additional Charge is part of the single supply of the home and for HST purposes constitutes a change in the price being paid for the home and for the purposes of HST shall be deemed to form part of the Purchase Price.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if it is determined by the Vendor, in its sole, subjective, and absolute discretion, that the Purchaser is not entitled to the maximum permitted Rebate or any portion thereof (including any portion of same the Purchaser becomes disentitled to as a result of an increase in the total consideration payable hereunder as a result of any Additional Charges, Extras, etc., purchased or payable by the Purchaser), the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor, in addition to any other amounts stipulated in this Agreement, the amount of the Rebate to which the Purchaser becomes disentitled, (which shall be paid on the Occupancy Date or Closing Date as a requirement of closing), and until so paid, such amount shall form a charge/vendor's lien against the Units and/or Property, which charge shall be recoverable by the Vendor in the same manner as a mortgage in default. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any loss, cost, damage and/or liability (including without limitation, legal fees and disbursements, and an amount equivalent to the Rebate, plus penalties and interest thereon) which the Vendor may suffer, incur or be charged with, as a result of the Purchaser's failure to qualify for the maximum permitted Rebate, or as a result of the Purchaser having qualified initially but being subsequently disentitled to the Rebate, or as a result of the inability to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor (or the ineffectiveness of the documents purporting to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor) and such amounts shall be deemed to comprise a Vendor's lien registrable on title to the Unit and/or Property.

(e) The Purchaser covenants and agrees that in the event of any amendment, revival, novation, re-instatement of this agreement, acquisition of Extras or upgrades, or any other action of the Purchaser results in the Rebate or HST Credit not being assignable, in whole or in part, then the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor on the Occupancy Date or Closing Date the amount of the Rebate or HST Credit which the Vendor does not receive or become entitled to.

(f) The Purchaser covenants and agrees that any breach by it of the provisions as set out in these foregoing sections dealing with HST shall be deemed to be a fundamental breach by the Purchaser and the Vendor, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor (at law or in equity) may, at its sole option, unilaterally suspend all of the Purchaser's rights, benefits and privileges contained herein (including without limitation, the right to make colour and finish selections with respect to the Unit as hereinbefore provided or contemplated), and/or may unilaterally declare this Agreement and the Occupancy License to be terminated and of no further force or effect, whereupon all deposit monies theretofore paid, together with all monies paid for any extras or changes to the Unit, may be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at law or in equity.

37. Size of Unit

The Purchaser acknowledges that the location of mechanical and other service installations may or may not be shown on sales brochures and, in any event, such mechanical and other service installations will be located in accordance with approved plans and/or good construction practices, as determined by the Vendor in its sole and absolute discretion, which may result in room size reductions commensurate with the mechanical and other service installations being installed. The Purchaser acknowledges that the suite area of the Unit, as may be represented or referred to by the Vendor or any sales agent, or which appear in any sales material is approximate only, and is generally measured to the outside of all exterior, corridor and stairwell walls, and to the centre line of all party walls separating one unit from another. NOTE: For more information on the method of calculating the floor area of any unit, reference should be made to appropriate Builder Bulletin published by Tarion. Actual useable floor space may vary from any stated or represented floor area or gross floor area, and the extent of the actual or useable living space within the confines of the Unit may vary from any represented square footage or floor area measurement(s) made by or on behalf of the Vendor. In addition, the Purchaser is advised that the floor area measurements and supporting column and other wall sizes are generally calculated based on the middle floor of the Condominium building for each suite type, such that units on lower floors may have less floor space or larger supporting columns and other walls due to thicker structural members, while units on higher floors may have more floor space or thinner supporting columns and walls. Accordingly, the Purchaser hereby confirms and agrees that all details and dimensions of the Unit purchased hereunder are approximate only, and that in the event the dimensions or square footage of the Unit and/or dimensions or square footage of any room or area or structure within the Unit as measured in accordance with the appropriate Tarion Builder Bulletin are varied from those specified in this Agreement or as shown on any sales brochure, floor plan or other marketing documents, or any or all of the foregoing, the Purchaser agrees to accept all such variations without notice and without claim for compensation or abatement in the purchase price and this Agreement shall be read with all amendments required thereby. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the ceiling height of the Unit is measured from the upper surface of the concrete floor slab (or subfloor) to the underside surface of the concrete ceiling slab (or joists). However, where ceiling bulkheads are installed within the Unit, and/or where dropped ceilings are required, then the ceiling height of the Unit will be less than that represented, and the Purchaser shall correspondingly be obliged to accept the same without any abatement or claim for compensation whatsoever.

38. Deposit Receipt

The Purchaser hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Vendor to be and act as their lawful attorney, pursuant to the provisions of the Powers of Attorney Act, R.S.O. 1990 as amended from time to time, in the Purchaser's name, place and stead, in order to execute the deposit receipt issued pursuant to Tarion and the regulations thereunder as may be amended from time to time, and any excess condominium deposit insurance policy (and related documents) issued by any insurer or bonding company providing prescribed security for the Purchaser's deposit monies pursuant to the Act if, in fact, same is procured by the Vendor. In accordance with the provisions of the Powers of Attorney Act, R.S.O. 1990 as amended, the Purchaser hereby confirms and agrees that this power of attorney may be exercised by the Vendor during any subsequent legal incapacity of the Purchaser.

39. Deposits

All deposits paid by the Purchaser shall be held by the Vendor's solicitors in accordance with the Act and shall be released only in accordance with the provisions of section 81 of the Act and the regulations thereto, as amended. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that for the purposes of subsection 81(6) of the Act, compliance with the requirement to provide written evidence in the form prescribed by the Act of payment of monies by or on behalf of the Purchaser on account of the purchase price of the Unit shall be deemed to have been sufficiently made by delivery of such written evidence to the address of the Purchaser noted on the front page of this Agreement to which this Schedule is attached. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that any deposit cheques provided to the Vendor upon execution of this Agreement will not be deposited and accordingly interest as prescribed by the Act will not accrue thereon until after the expiry of the ten (10) day rescission period as provided for in Section 73 of the Act (or any extension thereof as may be agreed to in writing by the Vendor). The Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor on the Occupancy Date or Closing the Vendor's solicitors charges for each evidence of compliance delivered to the Purchaser or its solicitors, pursuant to subsection 81(6) of the Act. The Purchaser represents and warrants that the Purchaser is not a non-resident of Canada within the meaning of the Income Tax Act of Canada ("ITA"). If the Purchaser is not a resident of Canada for the purposes of the ITA, the Vendor shall be entitled to withhold and remit to Revenue Canada, the appropriate amount of interest payable to the Purchaser on account of the deposits paid hereunder, under the ITA. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Vendor shall be permitted to transfer deposit funds from one solicitors trust account to another solicitors trust account, in its sole discretion. Upon the transfer of any such deposit funds the new solicitor shall provide the Purchaser with notice that such deposit funds have been transferred.

40. Powers of Attorney

If any documents required to be executed and delivered by the Purchaser to the Vendor are, in fact, executed by a third party appointed as the attorney for the Purchaser, then the power of attorney appointing such person must be registered in the applicable Land Titles office, and a duplicate registered copy thereof (together with a statutory declaration sworn by the Purchaser's solicitor unequivocally confirming, without any qualification whatsoever, that said power of attorney has not been revoked) shall be delivered to the Vendor along with such documents.

41. Purchaser's Consent To The Collection And Limited Use Of Personal Information

For the purposes of facilitating compliance with the provisions of any applicable Federal and/or Provincial privacy legislation (including without limitation, the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act S.C. 2000, as amended), the Purchaser hereby consents to the Vendor's collection and use of the Purchaser's personal information necessary and sufficient to enable the Vendor to proceed with the Purchaser's purchase of the Unit, including without limitation, the Purchaser's name, home address, e-mail address, telefax/telephone number, age, date of birth, and in respect of marital status only for the limited purposes described in subparagraphs (c), (d), (h), (i) and (j) below, and in respect of residency status, and social insurance number only for the limited purpose described in subparagraph (i) and (j) below, as well as the Purchaser's financial information and desired suite design(s) and colour/finish selections, in connection with the completion of this transaction and for post-closing and after-sales customer care purposes, and to the disclosure and/or distribution of any or all of such personal information to the following entities, on the express understanding and agreement that the Vendor shall not sell or otherwise provide or distribute such personal information to anyone other than the following entities, namely to:

b) one or more third party data processing companies which handle or process marketing campaigns on behalf of the Vendor or other companies that are associated with, related to or affiliated with the Vendor, and who may send (by e-mail or other means) promotional literature/brochures about new condominiums and/or related services to the Purchaser and/or members of the Purchaser's family;

e) any insurance companies providing (or wishing to provide) insurance coverage with respect to the Property (or any portion thereof) and/or the common elements of the Condominium, including without limitation, any title insurance companies providing (or wishing to provide) title insurance to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's mortgage lender(s) in connection with the completion of this transaction;

f) any trades/suppliers or sub-trades/suppliers, who have been retained by or on behalf of the Vendor (or who are otherwise dealing with the Vendor) to facilitate the completion and finishing of the Unit and the installation of any extras or upgrades ordered or requested by the Purchaser;

g) one or more providers of cable television, cable communication, internet service, telephone, telecommunication, security alarm systems, hydro-electricity, chilled water/hot water, gas and/or other similar or related services to the Property (or any portion thereof) and/or the Condominium, unless the Purchaser advises the Vendor in writing not to provide such personal information to any such entity;

h) any relevant governmental authorities or agencies, including without limitation, the Land Titles Office (in which the Condominium is registered), the Ministry of Finance for the Province of Ontario (i.e. with respect to Land Transfer Tax), and Canada Revenue Agency (i.e. with respect to HST);

l) the Vendor's accountants and/or auditors who will prepare the Vendor's regular financial statements and audits; and

m) any person, where the Purchaser further consents to such disclosure or disclosures required by-law.

42. Purchaser Selling or Assigning

This Agreement is not assignable or transferable in any manner whatsoever by the Purchaser, and the Purchaser covenants not to offer, list or advertise for sale, lease or transfer the Unit, nor to sell, lease, assign or transfer his interest under this Agreement (or in the Unit) until after acquisition of title to the Unit on the Unit Transfer Date. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that once a breach of the preceding covenant occurs, such breach is (or shall be) incapable of rectification, and accordingly the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that in the event of such breach, the Vendor shall have the unilateral right and option of terminating this Agreement (and the Occupancy Agreement) effective upon delivery of notice of termination to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor, whereupon the provisions of this Agreement dealing with the consequence of termination by reason of the Purchaser's default, shall apply. At any time prior to the Unit Transfer Date, the Vendor shall be permitted to assign this Agreement to any party registered as a Vendor pursuant to the Warranty Act, and upon notification of assumption of this Agreement and such assignment to the Purchaser, the Vendor shall be automatically released from all obligations arising pursuant to this Agreement and the assignee shall continue from the date of such assignment as the Vendor as if it had been the original party to this Agreement.

SETTING AND CHANGING CRITICAL DATES

1. Setting the Firm Occupancy Date

(a) Completing Construction Without Delay: The Vendor shall take all reasonable steps to complete construction of the Building subject to all prescribed requirements, to provide Occupancy of the home without delay, and, to register without delay the declaration and description in respect of the Building.
(b) Firm Occupancy Date: The Vendor shall set out a Firm Occupancy Date which shall be set out in the Statement of Critical Dates at the time the Purchase Agreement is signed.

2. Changing the Firm Occupancy Date – Three Ways

(a) The Firm Occupancy Date can be changed only:
  (i) by the Vendor setting a Delayed Occupancy Date in accordance with section 3;
  (ii) by the mutual written agreement of the Vendor and Purchaser in accordance with section 4; or
  (iii) as the result of an Unavoidable Delay of which proper written notice is given in accordance with section 5.
(b) If a new Firm Occupancy Date is set in accordance with section 4 or 5, then the new date is the "Firm Occupancy Date" for all purposes in this Addendum.

3. Changing the Firm Occupancy Date – By Setting a Delayed Occupancy Date

(a) If the Vendor cannot provide Occupancy on the Firm Occupancy Date and sections 4 and 5 do not apply, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a Delayed Occupancy Date in accordance with this section, and delayed occupancy compensation is payable in accordance with section 7.
(b) The Delayed Occupancy Date may be any Business Day after the date the Purchaser receives written notice of the Delayed Occupancy Date but not later than the Outside Occupancy Date.
(c) The Vendor shall give written notice to the Purchaser of the Delayed Occupancy Date as soon as the Vendor knows that it will be unable to provide Occupancy on the Firm Occupancy Date, and in any event at least 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, failing which delayed occupancy compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, in accordance with paragraph 7(c). If notice of a new Delayed Occupancy Date is not given by the Vendor before the Firm Occupancy Date, then the new Delayed Occupancy Date shall be deemed to be the date which is 90 days after the Firm Occupancy Date.
(d) After the Delayed Occupancy Date is set, if the Vendor cannot provide Occupancy on the Delayed Occupancy Date, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a new Delayed Occupancy Date, unless the delay arises due to Unavoidable Delay under section 5 or is mutually agreed upon under section 4, in which case the requirements of those sections must be met. Paragraphs (b) and (c) above apply with respect to the setting of the new Delayed Occupancy Date.
(e) Nothing in this section affects the right of the Purchaser or Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement on the bases set out in section 10.

4. Changing Critical Dates – By Mutual Agreement

(a) This Addendum sets out a framework for setting, extending and/or accelerating Critical Dates, which cannot be altered contractually except as set out in this section 4. Any amendment not in accordance with this section is voidable at the option of the Purchaser. For greater certainty, this Addendum does not restrict any extensions of the Closing date (i.e., title transfer date) where Occupancy of the home has already been given to the Purchaser.
(b) The Vendor and Purchaser may at any time, after signing the Purchase Agreement, mutually agree in writing to accelerate or extend any of the Critical Dates. Any amendment which accelerates or extends any of the Critical Dates must include the following provisions:

  (i) the Purchaser and Vendor agree that the amendment is entirely voluntary – the Purchaser has no obligation to sign the amendment and each understands that this purchase transaction will still be valid if the Purchaser does not sign this amendment;
  (ii) the amendment includes a revised Statement of Critical Dates which replaces the previous Statement of Critical Dates;
  (iii) the Purchaser acknowledges that the amendment may affect delayed occupancy compensation payable; and
  (iv) if the change involves extending either the Firm Occupancy Date or the Delayed Occupancy Date, then the amending agreement shall:

    i. disclose to the Purchaser that the signing of the amendment may result in the loss of delayed occupancy compensation as described in section 7;
    ii. unless there is an express waiver of compensation, describe in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation; and
    iii. contain a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser waives compensation or accepts the compensation referred to in clause ii above, in either case, in full satisfaction of any delayed occupancy compensation payable by the Vendor for the period up to the new Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date.

  If the Purchaser for his or her own purposes requests a change of the Firm Occupancy Date or the Delayed Occupancy Date, then subparagraphs (b)(i), (iii) and (iv) above shall not apply.

MR OF THE RECEIVER, P. 0613

(c) A Vendor is permitted to include a provision in the Purchase Agreement allowing the Vendor a one-time unilateral right to extend a Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be, for one (1) Business Day to avoid the necessity of tender where a Purchaser is not ready to complete the transaction on the Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be. Delayed occupancy compensation will not be payable for such period and the Vendor may not impose any penalty or interest charge upon the Purchaser with respect to such extension.
(d) The Vendor and Purchaser may agree in the Purchase Agreement to any unilateral extension or acceleration rights that are for the benefit of the Purchaser.

5. Extending Dates – Due to Unavoidable Delay

(a) If Unavoidable Delay occurs, the Vendor may extend Critical Dates by no more than the length of the Unavoidable Delay Period, without the approval of the Purchaser and without the requirement to pay delayed occupancy compensation in connection with the Unavoidable Delay, provided the requirements of this section are met.
(b) If the Vendor wishes to extend Critical Dates on account of Unavoidable Delay, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, and an estimate of the duration of the delay. Once the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has commenced, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser by the earlier of: 20 days thereafter; and the next Critical Date.
(c) As soon as reasonably possible, and no later than 20 days after the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has concluded, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, identifying the date of its conclusion, and setting new Critical Dates. The new Critical Dates are calculated by adding to the then next Critical Date the number of days of the Unavoidable Delay Period (the other Critical Dates changing accordingly), provided that the Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be, must be at least 10 days after the day of giving notice unless the parties agree otherwise. Either the Vendor or the Purchaser may request in writing an earlier Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, and the other party's consent to the earlier date shall not be unreasonably withheld.
(d) If the Vendor fails to give written notice of the conclusion of the Unavoidable Delay in the manner required by paragraph (c) above, then the notice is ineffective, the existing Critical Dates are unchanged, and any delayed occupancy compensation payable under section 7 is payable from the existing Firm Occupancy Date.
(e) Any notice setting new Critical Dates given by the Vendor under this section shall include an updated revised Statement of Critical Dates.

6. Early Termination Conditions

(a) The Vendor and Purchaser may include conditions in the Purchase Agreement that, if not satisfied, give rise to early termination of the Purchase Agreement, but only in the limited way described in this section.
(b) The Vendor is not permitted to include any conditions in the Purchase Agreement other than: the types of Early Termination Conditions listed in Schedule A; and/or the conditions referred to in paragraphs (i), (j) and (k) below. Any other condition included in a Purchase Agreement for the benefit of the Vendor that is not expressly permitted under Schedule A or paragraphs (i), (j) and (k) below is deemed null and void and is not enforceable by the Vendor, but does not affect the validity of the balance of the Purchase Agreement.
(c) The Vendor confirms that this Purchase Agreement is subject to Early Termination Conditions that, if not satisfied (or waived, if applicable), may result in the termination of the Purchase Agreement. ○ Yes ○ No
(d) If the answer in (c) above is "Yes", then the Early Termination Conditions are as follows. The obligation of each of the Purchaser and Vendor to complete this purchase and sale transaction is subject to satisfaction (or waiver, if applicable) of the following conditions and any such conditions set out in an appendix headed "Early Termination Conditions":

This time limitation does not apply to the condition in subparagraph 1(b)(iv) of Schedule A which must be satisfied or waived by the Vendor within 60 days following the later of: (A) the signing of the Purchase Agreement; and (B) the satisfaction or waiver by the Purchaser of a Purchaser financing condition permitted under paragraph (k) below.

(h) For conditions under paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A the following applies:

(i) conditions in paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A may be waived by the Vendor;
(ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice on or before the date specified for satisfaction of the condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied or waived; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied nor waived, and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
(iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed satisfied or waived and the Purchase Agreement will continue to be binding on both parties.

(i) The Purchase Agreement may be conditional until Closing (transfer to the Purchaser of title to the home), upon compliance with the subdivision control provisions (section 50) of the Planning Act and, if applicable, registration of the declaration and description for the Building under the Condominium Act, 1998, which compliance shall be obtained by the Vendor at its sole expense, on or before Closing.
(j) The Purchaser is cautioned that there may be other conditions in the Purchase Agreement that allow the Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement due to the fault of the Purchaser.
(k) The Purchase Agreement may include any condition that is for the sole benefit of the Purchaser and that is agreed to by the Vendor (e.g., the sale of an existing dwelling, Purchaser financing or a basement walkout). The Purchase Agreement may specify that the Purchaser has a right to terminate the Purchase Agreement if any such condition is not met, and may set out the terms on which termination by the Purchaser may be effected.

MAKING A COMPENSATION CLAIM

7. Delayed Occupancy Compensation

(a) The Vendor warrants to the Purchaser that, if Occupancy is delayed beyond the Firm Occupancy Date (other than by mutual agreement or as a result of Unavoidable Delay as permitted under sections 4 and 5), then the Vendor shall compensate the Purchaser up to a total amount of $7,500, which amount includes: (i) payment to the Purchaser of a set amount of $150 a day for living expenses for each day of delay until the Occupancy Date or the date of termination of the Purchase Agreement, as applicable under paragraph (b) below; and (ii) any other expenses (supported by receipts) incurred by the Purchaser due to the delay.

(b) Delayed occupancy compensation is payable only if: (i) Occupancy and Closing occurs; or (ii) the Purchase Agreement is terminated or deemed to have been terminated under paragraph 10(b) of this Addendum. Delayed occupancy compensation is payable only if the Purchaser's claim is made to Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Occupancy, or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and otherwise in accordance with this Addendum. Compensation claims are subject to any further conditions set out in the ONHWP Act.

(c) If the Vendor gives written notice of a Delayed Occupancy Date to the Purchaser less than 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, contrary to the requirements of paragraph 3(c), then delayed occupancy compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date.

(d) Living expenses are direct living costs such as for accommodation and meals. Receipts are not required in support of a claim for living expenses, as a set daily amount of $150 per day is payable. The Purchaser must provide receipts in support of any claim for other delayed occupancy compensation, such as for moving and storage costs. Submission of false receipts disentitles the Purchaser to any delayed occupancy compensation in connection with a claim.

(e) If delayed occupancy compensation is payable, the Purchaser may make a claim to the Vendor for that compensation after Occupancy or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and shall include all receipts (apart from living expenses) which evidence any part of the Purchaser's claim. The Vendor shall assess the Purchaser's claim by determining the amount of delayed occupancy compensation payable based on the rules set out in section 7 and the receipts provided by the Purchaser, and the Vendor shall promptly provide that assessment information to the Purchaser. The Purchaser and the Vendor shall use reasonable efforts to settle the claim and when the claim is settled, the Vendor shall prepare an acknowledgement signed by both parties which:

  (i) includes the Vendor's assessment of the delayed occupancy compensation payable;
  (ii) describes in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation (the "Compensation"), if any; and
  (iii) contains a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser accepts the Compensation in full satisfaction of any delayed occupancy compensation payable by the Vendor.

(f) If the Vendor and Purchaser cannot agree as contemplated in paragraph 7(e), then to make a claim to Tarion the Purchaser must file a claim with Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Occupancy. A claim may also be made and the same rules apply if the sale transaction is terminated under paragraph 10(b), in which case, the deadline for a claim is one (1) year after termination.

(g) If delayed occupancy compensation is payable, the Vendor shall either: pay the compensation as soon as the proper amount is determined; or pay such amount with interest (at the prescribed rate as specified in subsection 19(1) of O.Reg. 48/01 of the Condominium Act, 1998), from the Occupancy Date to the date of Closing, such amount to be an adjustment to the balance due on the day of Closing.

8. Adjustments to Purchase Price

Only the items set out in Schedule B (or an amendment to Schedule B), shall be the subject of adjustment or change to the purchase price or the balance due on Closing. The Vendor agrees that it shall not charge as an adjustment or readjustment to the purchase price of the home, any reimbursement for a sum paid or payable by the Vendor to a third party unless the sum is ultimately paid to the third party either before or after Closing. If the Vendor charges an amount in contravention of the preceding sentence, the Vendor shall forthwith readjust with the Purchaser. This section shall not: restrict or prohibit payments for items disclosed in Part I of Schedule B which have a fixed fee; nor shall it restrict or prohibit the parties from agreeing on how to allocate as between them, any rebates, refunds or incentives provided by the federal government, a provincial or municipal government or an agency of any such government, before or after Closing.

MISCELLANEOUS

9. Ontario Building Code – Conditions of Occupancy

(a) On or before the Occupancy Date, the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser:
  (i) an Occupancy Permit (as defined in paragraph (d)) for the home; or
  (ii) if an Occupancy Permit is not required under the Building Code, a signed written confirmation by the Vendor that all conditions of occupancy under the Building Code have been fulfilled and Occupancy is permitted under the Building Code.

(b) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (a), to the extent that the Purchaser and the Vendor agree that the Purchaser shall be responsible for one or more prerequisites to obtaining permission for Occupancy under the Building Code, (the "Purchaser Occupancy Obligations"):
  (i) the Purchaser shall not be entitled to delayed occupancy compensation if the reason for the delay is that the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations have not been completed;
  (ii) the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser, upon fulfilling all prerequisites to obtaining permission for Occupancy under the Building Code (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations), a signed written confirmation that the Vendor has fulfilled such prerequisites; and
  (iii) if the Purchaser and Vendor have agreed that such prerequisites (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations) are to be fulfilled prior to Occupancy, then the Vendor shall provide the signed written confirmation required by subparagraph (ii) on or before the Occupancy Date.

(c) If the Vendor cannot satisfy the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), the Vendor shall set a Delayed Occupancy Date (or new Delayed Occupancy Date) on a date that the Vendor reasonably expects to have satisfied the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), as the case may be. In setting the Delayed Occupancy Date (or new Delayed Occupancy Date), the Vendor shall comply with the requirements of section 3, and delayed occupancy compensation shall be payable in accordance with section 7. Despite the foregoing, delayed occupancy compensation shall not be payable for a delay under this paragraph (c) if the inability to satisfy the requirements of subparagraph (b)(ii) is because the Purchaser has failed to satisfy the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations.

(d) For the purposes of this section, an "Occupancy Permit" means any written or electronic document, however styled, whether final, provisional or temporary, provided by the chief building official (as defined in the Building Code Act) or a person designated by the chief building official, that evidences that permission to occupy the home under the Building Code has been granted.

10. Termination of the Purchase Agreement

(a) The Vendor and the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by mutual written agreement. Such written mutual agreement may specify how monies paid by the Purchaser, including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras are to be allocated if not repaid in full.

(b) If for any reason (other than breach of contract by the Purchaser) Occupancy has not been given to the Purchaser by the Outside Occupancy Date, then the Purchaser has 30 days to terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor. If the Purchaser does not provide written notice of termination within such 30-day period, then the Purchase Agreement shall continue to be binding on both parties and the Delayed Occupancy Date shall be the date set under paragraph 3(c), regardless of whether such date is beyond the Outside Occupancy Date.

(c) If: calendar dates for the applicable Critical Dates are not inserted in the Statement of Critical Dates; or if any date for Occupancy is expressed in the Purchase Agreement or in any other document to be subject to change depending upon the happening of an event (other than as permitted in this Addendum), then the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor.

(d) The Purchase Agreement may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of section 6.

(e) Nothing in this Addendum derogates from any right of termination that either the Purchaser or the Vendor may have at law or in equity on the basis of, for example, frustration of contract or fundamental breach of contract.

(f) Except as permitted in this section, the Purchase Agreement may not be terminated by reason of the Vendor's delay in providing Occupancy alone.

11. Refund of Monies Paid on Termination

(a) If the Purchase Agreement is terminated (other than as a result of breach of contract by the Purchaser), then unless there is agreement to the contrary under paragraph 10(a), the Vendor shall refund all monies paid by the Purchaser including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras, within 10 days of such termination, with interest from the date each amount was paid to the Vendor to the date of refund to the Purchaser. The Purchaser cannot be compelled by the Vendor to execute a release of the Vendor as a prerequisite to obtaining the refund of monies payable as a result of termination of the Purchase Agreement under this paragraph, although the Purchaser may be required to sign a written acknowledgement confirming the amount of monies refunded and termination of the purchase transaction. Nothing in this Addendum prevents the Vendor and Purchaser from entering into such other termination agreement and/or release as may be agreed to by the parties.

(b) The rate of interest payable on the Purchaser's monies shall be calculated in accordance with the Condominium Act, 1998.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) above, if either party initiates legal proceedings to contest termination of the Purchase Agreement or the refund of monies paid by the Purchaser, and obtains a legal determination, such amounts and interest shall be payable as determined in those proceedings.

INFORMATION FOR BUYERS OF NEW/PRE-CONSTRUCTION CONDOMINIUM HOMES ABOUT THE POSSIBLE TERMINATION OF PURCHASE AGREEMENT

To: Purchaser(s) of the Property

1. Take Note

You are entering into a purchase transaction which relates to a new/pre-construction condominium unit[1]. You should be aware of the possibility that it may never be completed.

Important information about your purchase is set out in this document.

You should review your purchase agreement including this document with a legal professional familiar with condominium transactions.

Remember that you have a 10-day period to cancel your purchase.[2]

2. Be Aware of Timing

The Vendor's best estimate as to when your unit will be ready for occupancy is shown as the "First Tentative Occupancy Date" on the Statement of Critical Dates and is January 15, 2026 (Month/Day/Year). This date may be further extended. Please refer to the Statement of Critical Dates in the Condominium Addendum (which forms part of your Purchase Agreement) for an explanation of how this date may change.

3. Completion of Your Purchase Is Not Certain – It Can Be Terminated by the Vendor[3]

Your Purchase Agreement contains early termination conditions which could result in your purchase being terminated. These are set out in detail in the Condominium Addendum. In general terms, the Vendor can end your purchase if:

a. By N/A (Month/Day/Year), a set level of sales for the project has not been achieved.

b. By N/A (Month/Day/Year), certain zoning and/or development approvals have not been obtained.

MR OF THE RECEIVER, P. 0641

4. Delay

The Unit shall be deemed to be completed for the purposes of the Occupancy Date or any extension thereof when the interior of the dwelling unit shall have been substantially completed in the opinion of the Vendor, and the Purchaser agrees that the sale shall be completed on that date, as hereinafter provided, without holdback of any part of the purchase price and the Vendor shall complete any outstanding details of construction required by the contract within a reasonable time thereafter having regard to weather conditions and the availability of supplies or tradesmen. In any event, the Purchaser acknowledges that failure to complete the common elements on or before the Occupancy Date shall not be deemed to be a failure to complete the Unit.

5. (a) Interim Occupancy: If the Unit is substantially completed, as set out in paragraph 4 hereof, on the Occupancy Date, but the Corporation has not yet been registered, then the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor the amount payable on the Occupancy Date as herein provided and shall occupy the Unit as a licensee on that date pursuant to the Vendor's standard occupancy agreement and shall pay to the Vendor a monthly occupancy fee which, in addition to any other components or factors which the Vendor may from time to time lawfully utilize in calculating said occupancy fee, shall be equal to the monthly estimated common expenses for the Unit, an amount reasonably estimated on a monthly basis for municipal taxes attributable to the Unit and interest, calculated in accordance with the Act, on a monthly basis, on the Unpaid Balance and the occupancy by the Purchaser shall be governed insofar as is applicable, by the provisions of the proposed Declaration and by-laws. The Purchaser shall provide on or before the Occupancy Date a series of post-dated cheques for the monthly occupancy fee as requested by the Vendor. IT IS UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED THAT ALL AMOUNTS PAID BY THE PURCHASER BY WAY OF OCCUPANCY FEE ARE PAYABLE AS AN OCCUPANCY LICENSE FEE ONLY AND ARE NOT TO BE CREDITED TO THE PURCHASER AS PAYMENTS ON ACCOUNT OF THE PURCHASE PRICE. If the Declaration and Description have not been registered by the tenth (10th) day following the end of the Purchaser's Termination Period as described in the Addendum attached hereto, the Purchaser agrees to vacate the Unit at the Vendor's sole option on that day and deliver up possession of the Unit to the Vendor, in which event the deposits and any amount paid to the Vendor on account of the Purchase Price shall be returned to the Purchaser, subject to any repair and redecorating expenses of the Vendor necessary to restore the Unit to its original state on occupancy, reasonable wear and tear excepted and the return of such monies shall be deemed to terminate this Agreement. The Purchaser hereby consents to such termination pursuant to Section 79(2) of the Act and agrees to provide the Vendor with a release of this Agreement in the Vendor's standard form. The occupancy fee shall be proportionately adjusted in the event of such termination. If the Declaration and Description have not been registered within six (6) months after the Occupancy Date, the Vendor has the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the monthly occupancy fee payable by the Purchaser, such that the common expense component thereof excludes any projected contribution to the reserve fund, which will obviate any obligation on the part of the Vendor, pursuant to the Act, to remit any reserve fund contribution to the Corporation upon registration, for each month of occupancy after the sixth month.

(b) Closing Date: The "Closing Date" or "Closing" shall be the later of the Occupancy Date or a date fixed by the Vendor at least ten (10) days after the Vendor's solicitors notifies the Purchaser or their solicitor of the registration of the Corporation upon which date a transfer of title to the Unit shall be delivered to the Purchaser. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that they will, at their own expense complete the transaction in accordance with the notice aforesaid and register the transfer of title immediately upon delivery of the transfer to them.

6. Construction and Changes

The Vendor agrees to complete the Unit and common elements in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with the standards established by the Home Construction Regulatory Authority and/or the Condominium Authority of Ontario and/or Tarion Warranty Corporation ("Tarion"). The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may, from time to time, in its sole discretion, or as required by the Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction, or the Vendor's Mortgagee, change, vary or modify the plans and specifications pertaining to the Unit or the Condominium (including architectural, structural, engineering, landscaping, grading, mechanical, site, servicing or other plans) from the plans and specifications existing at the inception of the project, or as they exist at the time the Purchaser has entered into this Agreement, or as same may be illustrated in any sales brochure, model in the sales office or otherwise, and the Purchaser shall have absolutely no claim or cause of action against the Vendor or its agents for any such changes, variances or modifications, nor shall the Purchaser be entitled to any notice thereof and where any such change, variation or modification is a material change as set out in the Act, then the Purchaser's only recourse and remedy shall be pursuant to the Act. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor may, from time to time, substitute such other materials utilized in the construction of the Unit and the common elements of the Condominium, from those specified or contemplated in the aforesaid plans or specifications, provided that the quality of any substituted material(s) is comparable to or better than the material(s) originally indicated in the said plans or specifications. The determination of whether or not a substitute material is of equal or better quality shall be made by the Vendor's architect whose determination shall be final and binding.

The items set out in any features schedule attached hereto are included in the Purchase Price, unless specified in the features list. Model unit or sales office furnishings, decor, improvements, mirrors, drapes, tracks, and wallpaper are for display purposes only and are not included in the Purchase Price. Any item identified as optional or an upgrade in the sales or marketing material and information is not included in the dwelling unit but may be purchased at additional cost under a separate schedule to this Agreement. The location of mechanical installations may not be as shown on the sales brochure and will be located in accordance with approved plans and/or good construction practice and may result in room size reduction.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that architectural control of boulevard tree planting, landscaping, acoustical fencing, exterior colour schemes, or any other matter external to the dwelling unit designed to enhance the aesthetics of the Condominium as a whole, may be imposed by the Governmental Authorities and the Purchaser agrees to accept, without any right of abatement or purchase price, any changes required as a result of such architectural control. The Vendor shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to construct the hereinbefore described dwelling unit either as shown on the sales brochures, renderings and other plans and specifications therefore reviewed and approved by the Purchaser, or, to construct such dwelling unit on a reverse mirror image plan, including reversal of interior floor plan layout. Construction of a reverse mirror image dwelling unit plan is hereby irrevocably accepted by the Purchaser without any right of abatement of purchase price and in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligations as to construction of the dwelling unit type hereinbefore described.

The Purchaser covenants and agrees to attend upon receipt of notice from the Vendor, at the date and time specified in such notice, to make colour and other selections from the Vendor's standard samples, such selections to be noted on the Vendor's standard form and when completed shall constitute part of this Agreement (the "Colour Chart"). In the event any item on the Colour Chart becomes unavailable, or, if such selection would not be available in a timely fashion (such determination to be made by the Vendor at its sole discretion), the Purchaser shall be allowed seven (7) days written notice to attend to re-select an alternative from the Vendor's available samples. In the event the Purchaser does not attend and execute the Colour Chart at the date and time specified in the above-noted notice from the Vendor or if the Purchaser does not so re-select within the time hereinbefore limited, the Vendor may at its option, make such selection on behalf of the Purchaser, and in any such event, the Purchaser hereby irrevocably agrees to accept the Vendor's selection without any right of abatement of purchase price and in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligation herein. Only such item as may be unavailable, or unavailable in a timely fashion (as determined by the Vendor at its sole discretion) may be re-selected by the Purchaser. In the event of default by the Purchaser in re-selection, and a re-selection by the Vendor on behalf of the Purchaser, the re-selection shall be of equal or better quality than the original selection.

The Purchaser specifically acknowledges that in the manufacture of finishing items, colour variances sometimes occur. The Purchaser hereby agrees to accept any such colour variation resulting from the manufacturing process without any right of abatement of purchase price and in full satisfaction of the Vendor's obligations herein. More specifically, the Purchaser acknowledges that colour, texture, appearance, grains, veining, natural variations in appearance etc. of features and finishes installed in the Unit may vary from Vendor's samples as a result of normal manufacturing and installation processes and as a result of any such finishes being of natural products and the Purchaser agrees that the Vendor is not responsible for same. The Vendor is not responsible for shade difference occurring in the manufacture of items such as, but not limited to, finishing materials or products such as carpet, tiles, bath tubs, sinks and other such products where the product manufacturer establishes the standard for such finishes. Nor shall the Vendor be responsible for shade difference in colour of components manufactured from different materials but which components are designed to be assembled into either one product or installed in conjunction with another product and in these circumstances the product as manufactured shall be accepted by the Purchaser. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that pre-finished wood flooring (if any) may react to normal fluctuating humidity levels inducing gapping or cupping. The Purchaser acknowledges that natural stone (if any) is a very soft stone which will require a substantial amount of maintenance by the Purchaser and is very easily scratched and damaged. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that carpeting may be seamed in certain circumstances and said seams may be visible. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that various types of flooring, including but not limited to carpets, marble, tile, laminate, hardwood floors, or engineered wood in the dwelling unit may result in different heights (to be established by the Vendor in its sole discretion) in the transitional areas between them, and that the Vendor may use appropriate reducers in the area.

The Purchaser covenants and agrees that he/she shall pay to the Vendor in advance for all extras, upgrades or changes ordered by the Purchaser at the time such order is made and the Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that such payment is non-refundable unless this transaction is not completed due only to the Vendor's default. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that if, upon the Occupancy Date, any of the extras, upgrades or changes ordered by the Purchaser remain incomplete in whole or in part or if the Vendor shall, in its sole discretion, determine that it will not provide extras, upgrades or changes or cannot complete the extras, upgrades or changes then there shall be refunded to the Purchaser upon Occupancy Date closing that portion of the amount paid by the Purchaser in connection with such extras, upgrades or changes which remain incomplete in whole or in part as aforesaid, as determined by the Vendor. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that the amount so paid to the Purchaser (or for which, in the alternative, the Purchaser receives credit in the statement of adjustments) shall be accepted by the Purchaser as full and final settlement of any claim by the Purchaser with respect to the extras, upgrades or changes which remain incomplete as aforesaid. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the Vendor's liability with respect to such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes shall be limited to the return of the amounts referred to aforesaid and, thereafter, there shall be no further liability upon the Vendor in connection with such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes and upon such payment being made or credit being given, the Vendor shall be deemed to have been released from any and all obligations, claims or demands whatsoever with respect to such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes. In the event the Purchaser neglects to advise the Vendor forthwith upon request as to the Purchaser's selection of finishing specifications, or orders any extras, upgrades in interior finishings, or performs any work in or about the dwelling unit which causes delay in the Vendor's construction operations, the Vendor may require the Purchaser to complete this transaction on the Occupancy Date herein set out without holdback of any part of the purchase price, on the Vendor's undertaking to complete any of the Vendor's outstanding work.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the confirmation by the municipality that occupancy of this unit is permitted shall constitute complete and absolute acceptance by the Purchaser of all construction matters and the quality and sufficiency thereof including, without limitation, all mechanical, structural and architectural matters.

7. Warranty

The Vendor covenants that on the Occupancy Date a written warranty in Tarion's standard form will be requested by the Vendor from Tarion. The Purchaser agrees to accept such warranty in lieu of any other warranty or guarantee, expressed or implied, it being understood and agreed that there is no representation, warranty, guarantee, collateral agreement or condition precedent to, concurrent with, or in any way affecting this Agreement or the subject land or Unit other than as expressed herein.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything contained in the said warranty, the Purchaser waives any right to any claim against the Vendor for damage to any ceiling or walls due to normal shrinkage and the Purchaser agrees that this Agreement may be pleaded by the Vendor in estoppel of any such claims by the Purchaser.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Unit does/may contain wood flooring which will absorb excess moisture under humid conditions and release its normal moisture content under excessively dry conditions. Wood flooring will naturally swell during the humid seasons and will shrink when heat is applied. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor will not be responsible for any swelling or shrinkage cracks resulting from excessive humidity or excessive dryness within the Unit. When the heating system is not in use during late spring, summer and early fall, the Vendor strongly recommends that the Purchaser use a dehumidifier in the Unit. Correspondingly, when the heating system is on during the late fall, winter and early spring, the Vendor strongly recommends use of a humidifier system within the Unit. The Purchaser takes full responsibility for any damage to the wood flooring as a result of its failure to mitigate air quality conditions as herein set out.

8. Inspection of Unit

(a) The Purchaser acknowledges that a Homeowner Information Package (the "Package") is available from Tarion and the Vendor will deliver one to the Purchaser at or before the Pre-Delivery Inspection ("PDI") required by Tarion. The Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) agrees to execute and provide to the Vendor the Confirmation of Receipt ("Receipt") of the Package, in the form required by Tarion, forthwith upon receipt of the Package. the Unit on or before the Occupancy Date to conduct the PDI. During the PDI, the Purchaser shall not be entitled to examine the Unit except when accompanied by a representative of the Vendor. The Purchaser agrees to comply with all regulations under the Occupational Health & Safety Act, including the wearing of head and foot protection and such other safety apparel as designated by the Vendor and the Purchaser agrees to indemnify the Vendor against any fines incurred as a result of non-compliance with these provisions by the Purchaser, or the Purchaser's designate, as the case may be. The Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) shall arrange the PDI with a representative of the Vendor and is to give the representative of the Vendor at least three (3) days' prior notice of the PDI, which shall be conducted at a mutually convenient time prior to the Occupancy Date. During the PDI, the Purchaser and the Vendor agree to list any incomplete, damaged or deficient items with respect to the Unit on the PDI Form (the "Form") required by or approved by Tarion. In addition, the Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) shall execute all other forms prescribed from time to time by, and required to be completed by Tarion, including any Certificate of Completion and Possession (the "CCP"). The Purchaser agrees that such warrantable items as are included in the Form represent the balance of work to be completed by the Vendor with respect to the Unit and the Purchaser agrees that no further request for completion of items may be maintained by the Purchaser, save and except as lawfully required by Tarion, and this shall serve as a good and sufficient release of the Vendor in that regard. Except for the PDI, the Purchaser agrees that prior to the Occupancy Date, the Purchaser, their agents or representatives will not, in any circumstances enter onto the Condominium and the Unit except at the request of the Vendor and accompanied by a representative of the Vendor and any entry other than as aforesaid shall be deemed to be a trespass and the Vendor shall be entitled to exercise any rights that it may have pursuant to this Agreement or at law as a result of same. In the event the Purchaser sends a designate to conduct the PDI in the Purchaser's place, the Purchaser shall first provide the Vendor with the Appointment of Designate for PDI in the form prescribed by Tarion, prior to the PDI, failing which the Purchaser shall be required to attend personally. In the event that the Purchaser appoints such designate, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Purchaser shall be bound by all of the documentation executed by the designate to the same degree and with the same force and effect as if executed by the Purchaser directly. The Purchaser further agrees that the Vendor shall have the right to enter the Unit after completion of the transaction in order to complete such items as are included in the Form. The Vendor shall complete such items as are contained in the Form within a reasonable time after closing, subject to weather conditions and the availability of supplies and trades. The warranties given under the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act, as amended, replace any warranties at law or otherwise. The Purchaser agrees that in no event shall the Purchaser be entitled to obtain possession of the Unit until and unless the Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) has executed the Receipt, Form and CCP, together with any other documents lawfully required by Tarion (collectively the "Documents"). In the event the Purchaser (or the Purchaser's designate) has failed to complete the PDI and execute the Documents on or before the Occupancy Date, the Vendor shall have the right, at the Vendor's sole option, to terminate this Agreement and forfeit all deposit monies paid by the Purchaser hereunder, together with any monies paid for extras, in full, in addition to and without prejudice to any other remedy available to the Vendor arising out of such default.

(b) Prior to the Occupancy Date, the Purchaser shall not be entitled to do or cause to be done any work, installation, improvement or alteration to the Unit or the common elements, in default of which, the Vendor shall have the right to either charge the Purchaser on the Occupancy Date or on the Closing Date, for all costs and expenses incurred by the Vendor in removing or rectifying all work done by the Purchaser, in such amounts as determined by the Vendor in its sole discretion or, at the Vendor's sole option, to terminate this Agreement and forfeit all deposit monies paid by the Purchaser hereunder, together with any monies paid for extras, in full, in addition to and without prejudice to any other remedy available to the Vendor arising out of such default.

9. Damages Before Closing

The Unit shall be and remain at the risk of the Vendor until Closing, and pending completion of the sale the Vendor will hold all insurance policies and the proceeds thereof in trust for the parties as their interests may appear, and in the event that the Unit or the Building of which the Unit forms a part are substantially damaged or destroyed, and the Vendor, in its sole discretion decides that it will not rebuild or repair such damage, then the Vendor may elect to terminate this Agreement and upon returning to the Purchaser the deposit without interest except as may be required by law, the Vendor's liability shall be at an end and the Purchaser shall execute and complete such documents as may be necessary to clear the title to the real property. The Purchaser is hereby advised that the Vendor's builder's risk and/or comprehensive liability insurance (effective prior to the registration of the Condominium), and the Condominium's master insurance policy (effective from and after the registration of the Condominium) will not cover any betterments or improvements made to the Unit, nor any furnishings or personal belongings of the Purchaser or other residents of the Unit, and accordingly the Purchaser shall arrange for his or her own insurance coverage with respect to same, effective from and after the Occupancy Date, all at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Purchaser alone is responsible for the repair and replacement of all improvements and betterments made or acquired by the Purchaser within or upon the Unit.

10. Access by Vendor for Maintenance and Completion

(a) Notwithstanding the transfer of title to the Unit to the Purchaser, or occupancy of the Unit by the Purchaser, the Vendor or its duly authorized agents shall have free access at all reasonable times to the Unit in order to make inspections or do any work or repairs thereon which may be deemed necessary in connection with the completion of the Unit or of any servicing or installations in connection with the Unit or the common elements or any other unit in the Condominium and this right shall be in addition to any rights and easements in favour of the Vendor under the Act. The Purchaser agrees to observe and comply with the terms and provisions of the Development Agreements, and all restrictive covenants registered on title. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that the retention by the Governmental Authorities of security (e.g. in the form of cash, letters of credit, a performance bond, etc., satisfactory to the Governmental Authorities) intended to guarantee the fulfilment of any outstanding obligations under the Development Agreements shall, for the purposes of the purchase and sale transaction contemplated hereunder, be deemed to be satisfactory compliance with the terms and provisions of the Development Agreements. hereby consents to registration of the Vendor's lien provided for herein, and the Vendor will upon request deliver to the Purchaser (for registration at the Purchaser's expense) a release of the Vendor's lien within a reasonable time after receipt by the Vendor of the final advance of the monies secured by the Vendor's lien.

(f) The Purchaser agrees to advise the Vendor's solicitor within thirty (30) days prior to the Occupancy Date, as to how title will be taken, failing which, the Vendor is hereby directed to engross title in the name of the Purchaser(s) named in this Agreement and the Vendor's solicitors shall be entitled to charge a fee in order to make any subsequent changes thereto. The Purchaser agrees to accept any changes required to the unit number of the subject property as a result of the registered plan of condominium or otherwise as determined by the Vendor.

(g) Subject to the terms of the Addendum attached to this agreement of purchase and sale, the Purchaser is responsible for obtaining their own occupancy permit or other occupancy authorization from the local municipality and shall satisfy himself that occupancy is permitted by the Municipality on the Occupancy Date. The Vendor shall not be liable for any damages the Purchaser may suffer in the event the Purchaser is unable to obtain same, except as may be stipulated by Tarion.

12. Vendor's Covenants

The Vendor hereby covenants as follows:

(a) To take all reasonable steps to sell the residential units included in the property without delay other than any units leased by the Vendor. In that regard, the Vendor hereby specifically reserves to itself the right to lease any of the units that are not sold from time to time in the Condominium project in accordance with the terms of the registered Declaration and By-laws. This right of the Vendor shall apply to each and every unit in the Condominium project that is unsold from time to time and the Vendor hereby specifically declares that it intends to lease such unsold units as it may see fit. The Vendor may accept bona fide offers or options to purchase on leased units to close upon expiration of such a lease.

(b) To take all reasonable steps to deliver to the Purchaser a registerable deed or transfer of the Unit without delay.

(c) To hold in trust for the Corporation the money, if any, that the Vendor collects from the Purchaser on behalf of the Corporation.

The covenants of the Vendor in this paragraph contained are hereby understood and agreed to be the extent of the Vendor's obligations in that regard and it is understood and agreed that there are no further obligations or covenants in that regard other than those specifically stated above. Any breach by the Vendor of the foregoing covenants shall only entitle the Purchaser to such remedies as may be available under the Act and no other remedies or rights with respect thereto.

13. Purchaser's Acknowledgments/Covenants

The Purchaser covenants as follows:

(a) The Purchaser, and any authorized signing authority thereof listed in the Agreement, shall deliver to the Vendor a copy of a valid government-issued identification document within seven (7) days following the execution of this Agreement.

(b) The Purchaser shall occupy and take possession of the Unit on the Occupancy Date or within fifteen (15) days thereafter on the terms set out herein. The Purchaser will use the Unit for the purpose of the single family dwelling only.

(c) The Purchaser shall not assign the occupancy license or any rights thereunder or grant a sub-license or otherwise part with possession of the Unit without the Vendor's written consent, and the parties hereto acknowledge that it is reasonable for the Vendor to withhold such consent in the circumstances of this transaction.

(d) Prior to Closing, the Purchaser covenants and agrees not to sell, list for sale, lease, rent, transfer or assign this Agreement or the Unit or agree to sell, transfer or assign this Agreement or the Unit or any rights to occupancy of the Unit without the Vendor's written consent, which consent may be arbitrarily withheld. The Purchaser covenants that the Unit is being purchased and will be used for the Purchaser's personal use and not for investment or speculative purposes, and the Purchaser shall deliver a Statutory Declaration on the Occupancy Date confirming the foregoing. If the Purchaser should die prior to Closing, the Vendor shall at its option be entitled to declare this Agreement null and void and upon so doing shall return all monies paid hereunder to the personal representatives of the Purchaser without interest except as may be required by law.

(e) Prior to Closing, the Purchaser shall maintain the Unit in a clean and sightly condition and shall not make any alterations or additions thereto without first obtaining the Vendor's written approval.

(f) The monthly occupancy fee shall be paid by the Purchaser monthly, in advance, on the first day of each month commencing on the Occupancy Date, provided that if the Occupancy Date occurs on other than the first day of a month, then the occupancy fee for such month shall be pro-rated on a per diem basis and shall be paid in advance, on the Occupancy Date. On the Occupancy Date, the Purchaser agrees to prepay the adjusted occupancy fee for the month in which the Occupancy Date occurs and for the next full month thereafter.

(g) In the event that this Agreement is terminated, the Purchaser shall forthwith vacate the Unit and the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor the total cost, as estimated by the Vendor, of repairing any damage to the Unit caused by the Purchaser and removing any installation or decorations made by or on behalf of the Purchaser so that the Unit is put back into the same state as existed immediately prior to the Occupancy Date.

(g)(i) The Vendor shall not be liable for any death or injury arising from or out of any occurrence in, upon, at, or relating to the proposed Condominium, or the Unit or damage to property of the Purchaser or of others located on the proposed Condominium or the Unit, nor shall it be responsible for loss of or damage to any property of the Purchaser or others from any cause whatsoever, even if any such death, injury, loss or damage results from the negligence of the Vendor, its agents, servants or employees, or be liable for any injury or damage to persons or property resulting from fire, explosion, falling plaster, steam, gas, electricity, water, rain, flood, snow or leaks from any part of the proposed Condominium or the Unit or from the pipes, appliances, plumbing, works, roof or subsurface of any floor or ceiling or from the street or any other place or by dampness or by any other cause whatsoever, The Vendor shall not be liable for any such damage caused by other owners, occupants, tenants, invitees or any other person on the proposed Condominium or by occupants of adjacent property thereto, or the public, or caused by construction or any private, public or quasi-public work. All property of the Purchaser kept or stored on the proposed Condominium or on or in the Unit shall be kept or stored at the risk of the Purchaser only and the Purchaser shall indemnify the Vendor and save it harmless from and against any claim arising out of any damages to the same, including without limitation, any subrogation claims by the Purchaser's insurers; and

(ii) Notwithstanding any other terms, covenants and conditions contained in this Agreement, the Purchaser shall protect, indemnify and hold the Vendor harmless from and against any and all loss (including loss of all occupancy payments payable by the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement), claims actions, damages, liability and expense in connection with loss of life, personal injury, damaged property or any other loss or injury whatsoever arising from or out of this Agreement, or any occurrence in, upon or at the proposed Condominium, or the Unit, or the occupancy or use by the Purchaser of the proposed Condominium or any part thereof or the Unit, or occasioned wholly or in part by any act or omission of the Purchaser or by anyone permitted to be on the proposed Condominium or the Unit by the Purchaser, even if the Vendor or any of its servants, agents, employees or others from whom it is in law responsible has acted negligently. If the Vendor shall, without fault on its part, be made a party to any litigation commenced by or against the Purchaser, then the Purchaser shall protect, indemnify and hold the Vendor harmless and shall pay all costs, expenses and reasonable legal fees incurred or paid by the Vendor in connection with such litigation.

(h) The Purchaser agrees to comply with the provisions of the terms of the proposed Declaration, By-laws and Rules.

(i) Breach of any of the covenants contained in this paragraph shall be a default of the Purchaser under the terms of this Agreement.

(j) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the selling agent represents the Purchaser and does not represent the Vendor. The selling agent is not authorized by the Vendor to make any representations or promises regarding the project or the sale of the Unit to the Purchaser. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that in the event of any conflict between any oral comment or representation made by the Vendor or its sales staff and this Agreement, this Agreement and any schedule or addendum hereto shall govern. Furthermore, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that unless specified in writing in this Agreement, the Vendor and its sales staff shall been deemed to have not made any representations regarding the project or the Unit whatsoever.

(k) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that it shall not assist or take part in any class action suit filed or threatened to be filed against the Vendor or any party involved in the development of the Property and that any proceedings, whether in arbitration or in court, will be conducted only on an individual basis and not as a class, representative, mass, or consolidated action.

(l) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that notwithstanding anything else contained herein, the Purchaser shall have forty-five (45) days from the date that this Agreement is executed by both parties to select and confirm with the Vendor any Extras that the Purchaser wishes to purchase which Extras shall be in addition to the Purchase Price (the "Requirement"). The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that in the event that the Purchaser fails to satisfy the Requirement, the Dwelling shall be constructed with the standard features and finishes as provided in Schedule "A" attached hereto.

14. Examination of Title by Purchaser

The Vendor shall notify the Purchaser or his solicitor when the Condominium has been registered. The Purchaser shall be allowed 10 days thereafter to examine title to the Unit at his own expense. If within that time any valid objection to title is made in writing to the Vendor which the Vendor shall be unable or unwilling to remove and which the Purchaser will not waive, then the Agreement shall, notwithstanding any intermediate acts or negotiations in respect of such objections, become null and void, the Purchaser shall surrender to the Vendor vacant possession of the Unit and the Deposit shall be returned to the Purchaser with interest and without deduction and the Vendor shall have no further liability or obligation hereunder and shall not be liable for any costs or damages. Save as to any valid objection to title made within such time, the Purchaser shall be deemed to have accepted the title of the Vendor to the Unit. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall be entitled to respond to all requisitions through the use of a standard title memorandum or title advice statement prepared by the Vendor's Solicitor and that same shall constitute a satisfactory manner of responding to the Purchaser's title requisitions, thereby relieving the Vendor and the Vendor's Solicitor of the requirement to respond directly or specifically to the Purchaser's requisitions. The Purchaser also acknowledges that the Vendor and the Vendor's Solicitor may arrange for the project to be enrolled with a title insurer or insurers acceptable to the Vendor (the "Title Insurer") in order to centralize underwriting for the project and avoid unnecessary duplication of costs for purchasers and their solicitors. In the event that the Purchaser elects to obtain title insurance through the Title Insurer, the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall not be required to perform some or all of the following due diligence thereby saving the Purchaser significant transaction costs: title search and review of title search; preparation of requisition letter; prepare, send out and review responses to clearance letters; execution searches against the Vendor; and corporate status searches. As a result of the foregoing and regardless of whether the Purchaser obtains title insurance through the Title Insurer, the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor or its solicitors on the Closing Date an administration fee of three hundred dollars ($300.00) plus applicable taxes for enrolling the project with the Title Insurer and for preparing and delivering to the Purchaser's solicitor and Title Insurer a title advice statement.

15. Adjustments

The Purchaser shall be responsible and be obligated to pay the following costs and/or charges in respect of the Unit either on the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date as determined by the Vendor. The Purchase Price shall be adjusted to reflect the following items, which shall be apportioned and allowed to the Closing Date with the day itself apportioned to the Purchaser:

(a) assessments prepaid or owing for contribution towards the common expenses, and/or reserve fund and/or the monthly occupancy fee;

(b) an amount equal to that estimated by the Vendor to be payable by the Purchaser for the Purchaser's Unit contribution towards the common expenses and/or reserve fund of the corporation for a period of up to two (2) months, which sum shall be paid directly to the Corporation on closing and credited by the Corporation to the Purchaser, for use by the Corporation as it deems reasonable. Such sum shall be in addition to any common expenses otherwise payable to the Corporation. In addition, the

(c) unearned insurance premiums, and where such insurance is carried by the corporation, the Purchaser's Unit share of any unearned or accrued premiums determined by the Purchaser's proportionate contribution to the common expenses;

(d) realty taxes (including local improvement rates) on the Unit, and at the Vendor's option, said realty taxes shall be estimated by the Vendor for the calendar year in which this transaction is completed and all or part of the next ensuing year, as determined by the Vendor, in its sole discretion, and shall be adjusted as if such sum had been paid by the Vendor notwithstanding that the same may not by the Closing Date have been levied or paid, subject, however, to readjustment upon the actual amount of said realty taxes being ascertained, and the Purchaser shall forthwith pay to the Vendor any balance owing to the Vendor upon receiving notice in writing thereof and the Vendor shall forthwith return to the Purchaser any balance owing to him. If realty taxes are owing for a period when the Condominium project was assessed and taxed as one structure and not as individual units, then the adjustment of realty taxes shall include an amount calculated to attribute a portion of such realty taxes owing on the Condominium project to the Unit based on its common interest.

(e) any other prepaid or current expense, such as gas, electricity, fuel, water, etc., which shall be adjusted by attributing to the Purchaser's Unit its share of such expenses, as determined by its common interest;

(f) a charge of three hundred ($300.00) dollars plus HST for each Charge to be discharged by the Vendor to complete this transaction;

(g) An amount representing interest on the balance of the Purchase Price calculated at the Vendor's borrowing rate from its principal banker from the Closing Date to and including the next following banking date;

(h) any charges paid by the Vendor to a utility or service provider or supplier, including without limitation any charges for the installation, connection, energization, meter or meter installation of water, gas or hydro services, such charges being absolutely determined by a certificate signed on the part of the Vendor, as well as the cost of any check meters and ancillary devices and equipment related thereto and the cost of installation thereof. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that should any of the aforementioned charges be issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right at its sole discretion, to apportion the cost of such charges to the Purchaser on a proportionate basis, based on the Purchaser's percentage interest in the common elements as set out in Schedule "D" to the Declaration;

(i) any enrolment and/or regulatory fees paid by the Vendor for the Unit under, pursuant to or as a requirement or prerequisite of any governmental authority and any of the following: the New Homes Warranty Act, New Home Construction Licensing Act, 2017, the Act, the Condominium Management Services Act, or by any of the regulators or authorities pursuant to any of the foregoing, including, without limitation, the Tarion Warranty Corporation, the Home Construction Regulatory Authority and/or the Condominium Authority of Ontario, plus applicable taxes;

(j) the real estate transaction levy surcharge charged by the Law Society and to be paid by the Vendor to its solicitors for this transaction;

(k) the amount of any increase after January 20, 2021 in any development charge(s) or levies and/or education development charge(s) or levies as well as the entire amount of all other levies, charges, obligations or assessments assessed against or attributable to the Units, Condominium and/or Property or any portion thereof pursuant to The Development Charges Act 1997, S.O. 1997, as amended from time to time, the Education Act S.O. 1997, as amended from time to time, the Planning Act, R.S.O., 1990 as amended from time to time, the Municipal Act, 2001, S.O. 2001, as amended from time to time, and/or pursuant to any other relevant legislation, regulation, policy or authority (collectively referred to as the "Levies" or individually as a "Levy"). The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that should any of the Levies be issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right in its sole discretion, to apportion the Levies to the Purchaser on a proportionate basis, based on either the Purchaser's percentage interest in the common elements as set out in Schedule "D" to the Declaration, or by dividing the total amount of Levies by the number of residential dwelling units in the Condominium and by charging the Purchaser in the statement of adjustments with that portion of the Levies.

(l) the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor for the costs of any public art, planting, hard and soft landscaping, landscape furniture or other aesthetic or architectural treatment on the Condominium or Property or public lands adjacent or proximate thereto (the "Exterior Aesthetics") required by Governmental Authorities with respect to the development of the Condominium or lands in general. The amount of the foregoing adjustment shall be determined by a certificate signed on the part of the Vendor which the Purchaser agrees to accept. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that should the costs associated with the Exterior Aesthetics be issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right in its sole discretion, to apportion the Exterior Aesthetics to the Purchaser on a proportionate basis, based on either the Purchaser's percentage interest in the common elements as set out in Schedule "D" to the Declaration, or by dividing the total amount of the costs associated with the Exterior Aesthetics by the number of residential dwelling units in the Condominium and by charging the Purchaser in the statement of adjustments with that portion of the costs associated with the Exterior Aesthetics.

The amount of the foregoing adjustment shall be determined by a certificate signed on the part of the Vendor which the Purchaser agrees to accept. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that should any of the aforementioned payments or charges be issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right in its sole discretion, to apportion the cost of such payments or charges to the Purchaser on a proportionate basis, based on either the Purchaser's percentage interest in the common elements as set out in Schedule "D" to the Declaration, or by dividing the total amount of such payments, charges and/or costs by the number of residential dwelling units in the Condominium and by charging the Purchaser in the statement of adjustments with that portion of the payments, charges and/or costs;

(r) any new taxes imposed on the Unit by the federal, provincial or municipal government or any increases to existing taxes currently imposed on the Unit by such government;

(s) In the event that there are any changes in the Ontario Building Code Act, the Building Code, the Fire Code, Electrical Code or any other building or construction code, legislation, regulation or requirement that affects the design and/or construction of the Unit, Property and/or Condominium and increases the cost of same to the Vendor or owner of the Property, or if the Municipality imposes any architectural, landscaping, site plan or other amendments to the Unit, Condominium or Property after the date of this agreement then the Purchaser agrees to reimburse the Vendor for such increased costs, either based on the direct costs applicable to the unit or on a proportionate share basis as determined by the Vendor. If any of the adjustments to be made on the Occupancy Date and/or Closing cannot be accurately determined at the respective time, then the Vendor may estimate the adjustment to be made and the Purchaser shall accept such estimate; there shall be a later and final adjustment when all the items to be adjusted can be accurately determined. All proper readjustments shall be made after the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date if necessary, forthwith upon request. Any monies owing to the Vendor pursuant to such readjustment or as a result of any expenses incurred by the Vendor arising from a breach by the Purchaser of any of the Purchaser's obligations set out in this Agreement shall be payable upon written demand by the Vendor and shall bear interest from the date of written demand at the rate of twenty percent (20%) per annum, calculated daily, not in advance, and shall be a charge on the Unit until paid and such charge shall be enforced in the same manner as a mortgage in default. The balance due on the Occupancy Date and/or the Closing Date shall be paid by certified cheque drawn in favour of those parties as may be directed by the Vendor and/or its solicitors.

The Purchaser shall, from the Occupancy Date take all necessary steps to assume sole responsibility for all charges for hydro, water, gas and other services attributable to the Unit, unless same are included as a proposed common expense. The Purchaser shall be required to execute and deliver on the Occupancy Date or thereafter as required by the Vendor, all documents and any cheques or pre-authorized chequing plan as required by the Vendor related to the sub-metering of any utility. The Vendor shall be entitled to rebates issued or paid by any utility provider or by any entity supplying the various equipment to the Unit, even though such equipment may be of a rental/leased nature. The Purchaser agrees that he will execute any form of acknowledgement, direction, consent or assignment required by the Vendor in order to evidence the Vendor's entitlement to any such rebate.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that a three hundred and fifty dollar ($350.00) administrative fee shall be charged to the Purchaser for any cheque paid with respect to any deposit payable pursuant to this Agreement or any extras or upgrades or the occupancy fee which is returned "N.S.F." or upon which a "Stop Payment" has been ordered and such administrative fee shall be paid within five (5) days of written demand therefore or as otherwise directed by the Vendor. In addition, the Purchaser shall pay any legal fees and disbursements charged by the Vendor's solicitors, plus applicable taxes, in connection with any such cheque which is returned N.S.F. or for which a Stop Payment has been ordered, as well as for the Purchaser's failure or delay in complying with the terms of this

In the event that the Purchaser desires to increase the amount to be paid to the Vendor's solicitor on the Occupancy Date at any time after the expiry of the initial ten (10) day statutory rescission period, or wishes to vary the manner in which the Purchaser has previously requested to take title to the Unit, or wishes to add or change any unit(s) being acquired from the Vendor, then the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor's Solicitors, either on the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, as determined by the Vendor, their legal fees in the amount of $350.00 plus HST, per request, in order to implement any such change, but without there being any obligation whatsoever on the part of the Vendor to approve of, or to implement, any of the foregoing changes so requested.

The interest component of the monthly occupancy fee shall be adjusted on the Closing Date for any discrepancy between the interest rate employed in the calculation of the monthly occupancy fee and that actually payable pursuant to paragraph 5(a) hereof. In addition, on the Closing Date, the Purchaser and the Vendor covenant and agree to deliver mutual undertakings to readjust the realty tax component of the monthly occupancy fees paid, as soon as the final realty tax bill in respect of the Unit (including all supplementary assessments with respect thereto covering the period of time from the Occupancy Date to the Closing Date) has been determined or issued by the tax department of the Municipality, so as to accord with the amount actually assessed against the Unit.

Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Purchase Price does not include any HST exigible with respect to any of the adjustments payable by the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement, or any extras or upgrades purchased, ordered or chosen by the Purchaser from the Vendor which are not specifically set forth in this Agreement, and the Purchaser covenants and agrees to pay such HST to the Vendor in accordance with the Excise Tax Act.

16. Management of the Condominium Project

The Vendor or a management company to be named by the Vendor shall manage the Condominium. The Vendor or the management company shall enter into a management agreement with the Corporation and the management fees, together with all proper common expenses incurred in connection with such management, shall be a common expense and will be included with the monthly maintenance charge.

17. Condominium Documents - Disclosure Statement

The Purchaser acknowledges receipt of the Disclosure Statement which has been delivered by the Vendor to the Purchaser in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the regulations passed thereunder, together with all other documents required to be delivered with the Disclosure Statement as required by the Act.

18. Modification of Condominium Documents

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may, from time to time in its sole discretion, due to site conditions or constraints, or for marketing considerations, or for any other legitimate reason, including without limitation any request or requirement of any of the governmental authorities or any request or requirement of the Vendor's architect or other design consultants:

(i) change the Property's municipal address or numbering of the Unit (in terms of the unit number and/or level number ascribed to any one or more of the units comprising the Unit);

(ii) change, vary or modify the plans and specifications pertaining to the Unit or the Condominium, or any portion thereof (including architectural, structural, engineering, landscaping, grading, mechanical, site servicing and/or other plans and specifications) from the plans and specifications existing at the inception of the project, or existing at the time that the Purchaser has entered into this Agreement, or as same may be illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) in the sales office or otherwise, including without limitation, making any change to the total number of dwelling, parking and/or other ancillary units intended to be created within the Condominium, and/or any change to the total number of levels or floors within the Condominium, as well as any changes or alterations to the design, style, size and/or configuration of any dwelling or other ancillary units within the Condominium; and/or

(iii) change, vary, or modify the number, size and location of any windows, column(s) and/or bulkhead(s) within or adjacent to (or comprising part of) the Unit, from the number, size and/or location of same as displayed or illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) or floor plan(s) previously delivered or shown to the Purchaser, including the insertion or placement of any window(s), column(s) and/or bulkhead(s) in one or more locations within the Unit which have not been shown or illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) or floor plan(s) previously delivered or shown to the Purchaser (regardless of the extent or impact thereof), as well as the removal of any window(s), column(s) and/or bulkhead(s) from any location(s) previously shown or illustrated in any sales brochure(s), model(s) in the sales office or otherwise;

and that the Purchaser shall have absolutely no claim or cause of action whatsoever against the Vendor or its sales representatives (whether based or founded in contract, tort or in equity) for any such changes, deletions, alterations or modifications, nor shall the Purchaser be entitled to any abatement or reduction in the Purchase Price whatsoever as a consequence thereof, nor any notice thereof (unless any such change, deletion, alteration or modification to the said plans and specifications is material in nature (as defined by the Act) and significantly affects the fundamental character, use or value of the Unit and/or the Condominium, in which case the Vendor shall be obliged to notify the Purchaser in writing of such change, deletion, alteration or modification as soon as reasonably possible after the Vendor proposes to implement same, or otherwise becomes aware of same), and where any such change, deletion, alteration or modification to the said plans and specifications is material in nature as set out in the Act, then the Purchaser's only recourse and remedy shall be the termination of this Agreement prior to the closing date (and specifically within 10 days after the Purchaser is notified or otherwise becomes aware of such material change), and the return of the Purchaser's deposit monies, together with interest accrued thereon at the rate prescribed by the Act.

19. Planning Act

20. Agreement not to be Registered

The Purchaser acknowledges that registration of this Agreement, a caution, a certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument of any kind whatsoever against title to the Unit or Condominium prior to closing, would obstruct mortgage advances and cause substantial damage to the Vendor. Therefore, the Purchaser covenants and agrees prior to closing, not to register this Agreement, a caution, a certificate of pending litigation or other instrument against title to the Unit or the Condominium, and further covenants and agrees not to give, register or permit to be registered any encumbrance against the Unit or sell or make any other disposition thereof until after Closing. In the event that this Agreement of Purchase and Sale, a caution, a certificate of pending litigation or any other instrument whatsoever is registered against or dealing with the title in contravention of this provision, the Purchaser shall be in default pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement and in addition to all other rights and remedies available to the Vendor, then the Purchaser hereby appoints the Vendor his true and lawful attorney for the purposes of removing the instrument from title including giving of any discharge, the lifting of any caution or the assignment of any rights pursuant to this Agreement, and the Purchaser shall bear all costs incurred by the Vendor in the pursuance of his function pursuant to this power of attorney.

21. Default

(a) The Purchaser shall be deemed to be in default of this Agreement in each and every of the following events, namely:

(i) upon the non-payment of all or any portion of any amount payable pursuant to this Agreement or any amount payable for extras or upgrades, on the date or within the time specified;

(ii) upon the breach of, or failure in the performance or observance of any covenant, term, agreement, restriction, stipulation or provision of this Agreement to be performed and/or observed by the Purchaser;

(iii) upon any lien, execution or encumbrance arising from any action or default whatsoever of the Purchaser being charged against or affecting the Unit or Condominium prior to successful completion of this transaction on the closing date; or

(iv) upon the Purchaser (and if the Purchaser is more than one person then any one of the Purchaser) makes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent by any court of competent jurisdiction under any legislation then in force, or takes the benefit of any act that may be in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors, or shall go into liquidation, either voluntary or under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or otherwise acknowledges its insolvency;

(b) If any default by the Purchaser occurs under this Agreement, the Vendor shall have the right, in addition to any other rights or remedies which the Vendor may have, to terminate this Agreement and forfeit all monies paid (including all deposits paid) together with any interest earned thereon and monies paid or payable for extras or upgrades ordered by the Purchaser, whether or not installed in the dwelling. The deposit and further deposit(s) are expressly deemed to be deposit monies only, and not partial payments. In the event the Vendor's solicitors are holding any of the deposits in trust pursuant to this Agreement, then in the event of a default by the Purchaser, the Vendor's solicitors are irrevocably authorized and directed to pay to the Vendor the said deposits together with any interest earned thereon, provided the Vendor has delivered to its solicitors a certificate of an officer of the Vendor, certifying that the Purchaser has committed a default pursuant to this Agreement that has not been remedied and that the Vendor has terminated this Agreement and that the Vendor is therefore entitled to the deposits and accrued interest, if any. Thereupon the Purchaser hereby releases the said solicitors from any obligation to hold the deposit monies, if any, in trust and shall not make any claim whatsoever against the said solicitors and the Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the said solicitors to deliver the said deposit monies and accrued interest, if any, to the Vendor pursuant to the foregoing. Without prejudice to the Vendor's rights as to forfeiture of monies paid as aforesaid and in addition thereto, the Vendor shall have the right to recover from the Purchaser all costs, losses and damages arising out of default on the part of the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement including interest thereon from the date of demand at the rate of twenty percent (20%) per annum calculated daily, not in advance until paid. In the event this Agreement, in future, is amended for the benefit of the Purchaser and/or in order to induce the closing of the transaction by giving the Purchaser a credit or a reduction against the purchase price and the Purchaser fails to complete the transaction, all damages shall be assessed as if such amendment was not entered into.

(c) If the transaction is not completed for any reason whatsoever and notwithstanding refund or forfeiture of deposits, the Purchaser shall execute and deliver such documents affecting title to the Unit or Condominium or a release with respect to this Agreement or any agreement or document in a form designated by the Vendor, and in the event the Purchaser fails or neglects to execute such documents, the Purchaser hereby appoints and authorizes the Vendor, the Purchaser's true and lawful attorney to so execute the said documentation.

(d) It is understood and agreed that the rights contained in this section 21 on the part of the Vendor are in addition to any other rights (whether of a more onerous nature or not) which the Vendor may have at law, in equity, or under any other provisions of this Agreement, and the Vendor expressly has the right to exercise all or any one or more of the rights contained in this Agreement, or at law or in equity, without exercising at such time the remainder of such right or rights and without prejudice to the subsequent right of the Vendor to exercise any remaining right or rights at law, in equity or in this Agreement.

22. Agreement Not to Merge with Transfer

All of the covenants, warranties and obligations contained in this Agreement to be performed by the Purchaser shall survive the Closing of this transaction and shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the transfer of title to the Unit to the Purchaser. The Purchaser shall execute and deliver, when requested by the Vendor, one or more covenants incorporating the terms hereof.

23. Waiver

No provision of this Agreement may be waived by either party except in writing. The waiver of any of the provisions hereunder shall not affect the right of either party to enforce all other provisions not so waived.

24. Subordination of Agreement

The Purchaser agrees that this Agreement shall be subordinate to and postponed to any mortgages arranged by the Vendor and any advances thereunder from time to time, and to any easement, service agreement and other similar agreements made by the Vendor concerning the lands and also to the registration of all Condominium documents. The Purchaser agrees to do all acts necessary and execute and deliver all necessary documents, both before and after Closing, as may be reasonably required by the Vendor from time to time to give effect to this undertaking.

25. Acceptance

This Agreement by the Purchaser when accepted by the Vendor shall constitute a binding contract of purchase and sale.

26. Time of Essence and No Representations etc.

Time shall in all respects be strictly of the essence of this Agreement and no extension of time for any payment by the Purchaser or rectification of any breach of any agreement, stipulation, condition or restriction shall operate as a waiver of this provision with respect to any other payment or rectification of any other breach, except as specifically agreed upon in writing by the Vendor or the Purchaser, as the case may be.

The parties hereto agree that there are no representations, warranties, collateral agreements or conditions affecting this Agreement or the Unit other than as expressed herein in writing.

In the event that the date for payment of any deposit required to be paid pursuant to this Agreement or the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or statutory holiday, then such date shall be automatically deemed to be amended to the next business day.

The Purchaser acknowledges that the new home industry is complex and that while sales agents are knowledgeable about most issues regarding the purchase and construction of a new home, they cannot be expected to know all aspects in detail. Accordingly, the Purchaser acknowledges that no representations have been made to the Purchaser by the Vendor or its sales agents upon which the Purchaser relies and which were essential to the Purchaser's decision to purchase this property, except as are set forth herein in writing.

27. Preparation and Cost of Registering Documents

The Transfer is to be prepared at the expense of the Vendor on the Vendor's standard form. If required by the Vendor, the Transfer may contain covenants on the part of the Purchaser to comply with the stipulations set out above, the covenants, conditions, provisions and restrictions set out in the Declaration and By-laws, and is to be executed by the Purchaser and prepared at the expense of the Vendor. The Transfer shall be registered forthwith on Closing at the Purchasers expense. The Purchaser agrees to accept a transfer of the Unit from the registered owner of the Unit, as directed by the Vendor, and the Purchaser agrees to provide and execute and deliver on Closing, whatever indemnities, assurances and other documentation that may be required by the Vendor in order to transfer title as aforesaid. The Vendor shall have the option to collect the HST, if any, payable by the Purchaser on chattels which are involved in this transaction as a charge on Closing and the allocation of such chattels to be estimated, if necessary, by the Vendor.

28. Tender

Any tender of documents or money, or any notice to be given hereunder may be made upon the Vendor or the Purchaser or any party acting for the said Vendor or Purchaser and money may be tendered by negotiable cheque certified by a chartered bank or trust company carrying on business in the Province of Ontario.

The Purchaser agrees to attend at the appropriate Registry Office at noon on the Closing Date to complete this transaction unless an alternate time has been specifically agreed upon between the Vendor and Purchaser or their respective solicitors, in default of which attendance the Vendor shall be deemed to have affected a good and valid tender upon the Purchaser. On the Occupancy Date (provided that it is not also the Closing Date) the Purchaser shall deliver all required documents and funds to the offices of the Vendor's solicitors by 2:00 p.m. on that date, failing which the Purchaser shall be in default under this Agreement.

Keys will be released to the Purchaser at the construction site or the Registry Office or the Sales Office or the Head Office of the Vendor, as the Vendor in its absolute discretion determines, on the Occupancy Date after receipt of all required funds and documents, unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing between the Vendor and Purchaser. The Purchaser agrees that the Vendor's solicitor's advice that keys are available for release to the Purchaser constitutes a valid tender of keys on the Purchaser.

On the Occupancy Date the Purchaser shall deliver to the Vendor a clear execution certificate in respect of the Purchaser's name and any person in whose favour the Purchaser has given its written direction to engross title, from the Land Titles Office where the Condominium is situate, and shall also provide the Vendor with such other information and documentation as may be required in order to enable the Vendor to obtain a clear execution certificate as aforesaid (or alternatively, to satisfy the Vendor's solicitor, in their sole discretion, that the Purchaser and any person in whose favour the Purchaser has given its written direction to engross title is/are not one and the same person as any particular execution debtor named in any given execution certificate).

Notwithstanding subparagraph 35(d) hereof, or any other term to the contrary herein, in the event the Purchaser or his/her solicitor advise the Vendor or its solicitor, on or before the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, as applicable, that the Purchaser is unable or unwilling to complete the purchase or take occupancy, the Vendor is relieved of any obligation to make any formal tender upon the Purchaser or his/her solicitor and may exercise forthwith any and all of its rights and remedies provided for in this Agreement and at law.

29. Gender and Number

This Agreement and its acceptance are to be read with all changes of gender and number as may be required by the context.

30. Successors and Assigns

Except as expressly herein provided, the Parties hereto further agree that the covenants, agreements, provisos and conditions in this Agreement contained shall extend to and be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns. In the event that more than one party comprises the Purchaser herein, the obligations of such parties under this Agreement shall be joint and several, and the execution of a Colour Chart or any amendment to this Agreement by only one (1) party which comprises the Purchaser herein, shall bind all other parties comprising the Purchaser and each such party hereby grants a Power of Attorney to the other or others for any such purpose.

31. Headings and Notice

The headings to the clauses of this Agreement form no part of the Agreement but shall be deemed to be inserted for convenience of reference only. Any notice required to be given pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been properly given if it is in writing and is delivered by hand, e-mail, facsimile machine or by ordinary prepaid post to the attention of the Purchaser or to the Purchaser's solicitor to their respective addresses indicated herein or as may be advised from time to time in writing, or to the address of the Unit after the Occupancy Date, and to the Vendor at 1001-980 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario M4W 3V8, with a copy to the Vendor's solicitor at the address indicated in this Agreement or such other address as may from time to time be given by notice in accordance with the foregoing. Such notice shall be deemed to have been received on the day it was delivered by hand, e-mail or facsimile machine and upon the second day following posting. The Purchasers hereby agrees to immediately update the Vendor, by providing written notice of any change of the Purchaser's address, phone number, fax number and/or email address.

32. Meaning of Words

The meaning of the words and phrases used in this Agreement shall be as described in the Condominium Act, 1998, S.O. 1998, C.19, and any amendments thereto (herein referred to as the "Act") unless specifically amended herein.

33. Applicable Law

This Agreement of Purchase and Sale shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario. In the event any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement or any portion or portions thereof are invalid or unenforceable, the same shall be deemed to be deleted herefrom and shall not be deemed to affect the enforceability or validity of the balance of this Agreement of Purchase and Sale.

34. Electronic Registration

If the electronic registration system (hereinafter referred to as the "Teraview Electronic Registration System" or "TERS") is operative at the applicable land registry office on the Closing Date, the following provisions shall prevail:

(a) The Purchaser shall retain a solicitor who is both an authorized TERS user and in good standing with the Law Society of Ontario to represent the Purchaser for the closing. The Purchaser will authorize its solicitor to enter into a Document Registration Agreement on the Vendor's solicitors' standard form (the "Escrow Agreement"). The closing time and Release Deadline for the purposes of the Escrow Agreement shall be 5:00 p.m. on the closing date.

(b) The Purchaser acknowledges that the delivery of documents and/or money may not occur contemporaneously with the registration of the Transfer/Deed of Land and may be delivered in escrow pursuant to the Escrow Agreement. In the event of electronic registration of documents, the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on Closing for the additional legal costs incurred with respect to electronic registration.

(c) If the closing of this transaction cannot be completed in escrow pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, the Purchaser's solicitor shall attend at the offices of the Vendor's solicitors or at the appropriate land registry office, as directed by the Vendor's solicitors and at such time as directed by the Vendor's solicitors in order to complete this transaction.

(d) Paragraph 28 of this Schedule "X" is amended to provide that tender shall have been validly made by the Vendor when the "Completeness Signature" for the Transfer/Deed of Land has been electronically "signed" by the Vendor's solicitors on or before the closing date, and same shall be satisfactory evidence that the Vendor is ready, willing and able to complete the sale transaction and the Vendor shall be deemed to have effected a sufficient, good and valid tender upon the Purchaser.

(e) The parties agree that the delivery of documents (other than documents to be registered) on the Closing Date may occur by facsimile transmission or similar system reproducing them, provided that all documents have been properly executed by the appropriate parties, save and except for such documents as may be specified by the Vendor's solicitors as requiring original copies to be delivered on the Closing Date. The person transmitting the documents shall also provide original documents to the recipient within two (2) business days of the later of (i) facsimile transmission of the documents, or (ii) a request for the original documents by the recipient.

(f) At the option of the Vendor, the Purchaser agrees that the delivery of any documents not intended for registration on title to the Unit(s) may be delivered to the Purchaser by electronic transmission of electronically signed documents through the internet provided that all documents so transmitted have been duly and properly executed by the appropriate parties/signatories thereto. The Purchaser shall not require the delivery of originals of any such documents. The Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on closing for any additional legal costs incurred related to the electronic posting of documents in the amount of $250.00, plus Applicable Taxes.

(g) If the Purchaser's lawyer is unwilling or unable to complete this transaction via TERS, in accordance with the provisions contemplated under the Escrow Agreement, then said lawyer (or authorized agent thereof) shall be obligated to personally attend at the office of the Vendor's solicitor, at such time on the scheduled Closing Date as may be directed by the Vendor's solicitor or as mutually agreed upon, in order to complete this transaction via TERS utilizing the computer facilities in the Vendor's solicitor's office, and shall pay a fee as determined by the Vendor's solicitor, acting reasonably for the use of the Vendor's computer facilities.

(h) Notwithstanding that all closing funds payable by the Purchaser (in accordance with the statement of adjustments) in connection with the final closing of this transaction must be provided by way of a certified cheque made payable to the Vendor's solicitors and be drawn upon (or issued by) a Canadian chartered bank or trust company, it is understood and agreed that at the Vendor's sole option and discretion, exercisable on written notice to the Purchaser's solicitor by the Vendor's solicitor at any time prior to the scheduled final closing date, the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall be required to participate in (and shall correspondingly be obliged to comply with the procedures for transmitting all certified funds for closing this transaction in accordance with) the closing funds management service provided by Teranet

Enterprises Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Teranet"), provided however that in such case:

(a) the Vendor's solicitor shall receive written confirmation from Teranet (by fax or e-mail) of its receipt of all required closing funds from the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor, prior to the Vendor's solicitor being obliged to release the transfer for electronic registration (and the Purchaser and the Purchaser's solicitor shall execute all requisite directions and/or authorizations to Teranet in order to implement and facilitate the foregoing); and

(b) all fees charged by Teranet [together with all applicable bank charges for the wired transfer(s) of funds] that are otherwise payable or incurred by either or both of the Vendor and the Purchaser in connection with Teranet's closing funds management service, shall be fully borne and paid for solely by the Purchaser.

35. Notices/Acknowledgements

(a) The Purchaser acknowledges that existing and/or future site plan agreements, section 37 agreements, development agreements and other agreements with the Municipality and other Governmental Authorities, affecting the real property may require the Vendor to provide the Purchaser with certain notices or warnings including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, notices or warnings regarding the usage of the real property, environmental issues, noise levels from adjacent or nearby buildings, hospitals, plazas, roadways or otherwise, school transportation and related educational issues, the absence of door-to-door mail delivery, the location of mailboxes, the status of services and works in the condominium and in general, any other matter that may be deemed by the Municipality and/or Governmental Authorities to inhibit the enjoyment by the Purchaser of the real property. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable at this time to provide the Purchaser with all such notices and warnings. On or before closing, the Purchaser shall forthwith execute upon request by the Vendor, acknowledgements or amendments to this Agreement containing the required notices and warning clauses. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may be unable to sell the real property to the Purchaser unless the Purchaser executes such acknowledgements or amendments as aforesaid. In the event that the Purchaser fails to execute such acknowledgements or amendments forthwith upon being requested to do so by the Vendor, the Vendor shall be entitled, at its sole option, to terminate this Agreement and upon such termination, all monies paid to the Vendor hereunder shall be forfeited to the Vendor and this Agreement shall be at an end, and the Purchaser shall not have any further rights hereunder.

(b) The Purchaser expressly acknowledges that at the date of execution of this Agreement, draft plan and/or site plan approval pursuant to the provisions of the Planning Act, R.S.O. 1990 and/or Condominium Act, R.S.O. 1998 as either may be amended may not yet have been obtained with respect to the Condominium. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the draft conditions and any Development Agreements may contain warnings, and other provisions which are required to be included in agreements of purchase and sale for units in the Condominium. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to execute any and all documentation, including an amendment to this Agreement, as may be required by the Vendor, and in a form satisfactory to the Vendor, in order that the foregoing provisions shall be incorporated into this Agreement and acknowledged by the Purchaser.

(c) The Purchaser acknowledges receipt of notice from the Vendor that the Vendor or related or associated corporations may develop other lands in the vicinity of the Condominium and may apply for zoning or rezoning thereof, and the Purchaser agrees and undertakes on behalf of themselves, their successors and assigns not to object or oppose any applications for the development, zoning, rezoning, amendment to the Official Plan or Secondary Plan or any similar applications and agrees that this paragraph may be pleaded as a bar to any objection thereof. The Purchaser covenants to include this clause in any conveyance, mortgage or disposition of the Unit and to assign the benefit of such covenant to the Vendor.

(d) Without limiting the generality of the preceding subparagraph, the Purchaser is hereby advised that:

(i) noise levels caused by the Condominium's emergency generator, mechanical rooms, mechanical and/or electrical equipment, the HVAC system, the Condominium's recreation facilities, Jefferson Side Road and neighbouring properties, all may occasionally cause noise and inconvenience to the residential occupants; and

(ii) as and when other residential units in the Condominium are being completed and/or moved into, excessive levels of noise, vibration, dust and/or debris are possible, and same may accordingly temporarily cause noise and inconvenience to the residential occupants.

(e) The Vendor reserves the right to increase or decrease the final number of levels to be constructed within the Condominium as well as the final number of residential, parking and locker units intended to be created within the Condominium, as well as the right to alter the design, style, size and/or configuration of the residential units and commercial units ultimately comprised within the Condominium which have not yet been sold by the Vendor to any unit purchaser(s), all in the Vendor's sole discretion, and the Purchaser expressly acknowledges and agrees to the foregoing, provided that the final budget for the first year following registration of the Condominium is prepared in such a manner so that any such variance in the residential, parking and/or locker unit count will not affect in any material or substantial way, the percentages of common expenses and common interests allocated and attributable to the residential, parking and/or locker units sold by the Vendor to the Purchaser. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that one or more residential units situate adjacent to one another may be combined or amalgamated prior to the registration of the Condominium, in which case the common expenses and common interests attributable to such proposed former units will be incorporated into one figure or percentage in respect of the final combined unit, and the overall residential unit count of the Condominium will be varied and adjusted accordingly. None of the foregoing changes or revisions (if implemented) shall in any way be considered or construed as a material change to the disclosure statement prepared and delivered by the Vendor to the Purchaser in connection with this transaction.

(f) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor cannot guarantee (and will not be responsible for) the arrangement of a suitable move-in time for purposes of accommodating the Purchaser's occupancy of the Unit on the Occupancy Date (or any acceleration or extension thereof as hereinbefore provided), and under no circumstances shall the Purchaser be entitled to any claim, refund, credit, reduction/abatement or set-off whatsoever against any portion of the Purchase Price, or against any portion of the common expenses or other adjustments with respect thereto (nor with respect to any portion of the monthly occupancy fees so paid or payable, if applicable) as a result of the service elevator not being available to accommodate the Purchaser moving into the Condominium on (or within any period of time after) the Occupancy Date (or any acceleration or extension thereof, as aforesaid).

(g) The Vendor's builder's risk and/or comprehensive liability insurance (effective prior to the registration of the Condominium), and the Condominium's master insurance policy (effective from and after the registration of the Condominium) will only cover the common elements and the standard unit and will not cover any betterments or improvements made to the standard unit, nor any furnishings or personal belongings of the Purchaser or other residents of the Unit, and accordingly the Purchaser should arrange for his or her own insurance coverage with respect to same, effective from and after the Occupancy Date, all at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense.

(h) The Municipality does not require off-site snow removal. However, in the case of heavy snow falls the limited storage space available on the property may make it necessary to truck the snow off the site and the cost of same will be included in the common expense fees.

(i) Purchasers are advised that the Vendor has no control over the development of lands adjacent to/or in proximity of the Condominium, and as such, notwithstanding any representations made to the Purchaser whether by a sales representative or in any marketing materials, the Vendor cannot guarantee that the Purchaser will have an unobstructed view from his or her Unit.

(j) Each Residential Unit has conduit(s) for the provision of television, telephone and internet service. These services are to be paid for directly by the owner of the Unit.

(k) Electricity, water and gas consumption in each Unit may be measured and invoiced by a submetering system installed and operated by a third party supplier (the "Supplier"). In such event each Unit owner shall receive and be responsible for payment of the invoice with respect to the electricity, water and gas consumption for his/her Unit, from the Occupancy Date forward. The Unit owner shall remit payment to the Supplier for electricity, water and gas consumption, separate from any other obligations the Unit owner has with respect to payment of common expenses as an owner within the condominium. The Unit owner will on either the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, execute the Supplier's form of contract and pre-authorized payment form and will provide the Supplier with a security deposit if required by the Supplier.

(l) Purchasers are advised that the Vendor may from time to time, in its sole and absolute discretion or as required by any Governmental Authority or construction requirements, change, vary or modify the plans, colours, materials, finishes, equipment, appliances, fixtures and specifications pertaining to the Condominium, the Residential Units Parking Units and/or Locker Units (all as defined in the Disclosure Statement) (including architectural, structural, mechanical, electrical or other plans, interior layout, height or rooms and interior spaces, unit numbering and level numbering) from the plans, colours, materials, finishes, equipment, appliances, fixtures and specifications existing at the time that the Purchaser entered into the Agreement of Purchase and Sale or as same may be illustrated in any sales brochures, models, representative view sets, photographs, illustrations or renderings, showroom displays, model suites, vignettes or otherwise, all without notice to or consent from the Purchaser. The Purchaser specifically acknowledges that he/she has not acquired the Unit based on the current layout, interior design, fixturing or furnishing of the display suite located in the Vendor's sales presentation centre. With respect to any aspect of construction, materials, finishes, colours, appliances, fixtures, equipment or dimensions, the Vendor shall have the right without notice to or consent from the Purchaser to make any changes to the plans and to substitutes materials, finishes, colours, appliances, fixtures, equipment or dimensions from those described in the Agreement of Purchase and Sale or in the plans and specifications associated therewith, provided that the substituted items are of equal or better quality, planning and construction. Purchasers are advised that the Agreement of Purchase and Sale contains provisions pursuant to which each Purchaser consents to any such changes, modifications and/or substitutions and agrees to complete the transaction of purchase and sale notwithstanding same.

(m) Purchasers are advised that the acquisition of a dwelling unit does not entitle the Purchaser to acquire a Parking Unit or Locker Unit unless specifically set out on the front page of this Agreement of Purchase and Sale or by way of a separate addendum.

(n) The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor has made no representation regarding the site lines and view from the Purchaser's Unit. In addition, purchasers are advised that other adjoining landowners may develop or redevelop their properties which may impact on the site lines and views from the Purchasers Unit.

(o) The Purchaser acknowledges that, with the exception of the budget attached to the Disclosure Statement accompanying this Agreement, no representation or warranty has been made to the Purchaser by the Vendor or any of its agents, employees or representatives with respect to municipal taxes, utility costs or other expenses relating to the ownership or operation of the Unit. The Purchaser acknowledges that he shall be responsible for making his own inquiries to the appropriate municipal authorities or utilities in this regard.

(p) The actual number of dwelling units in the Condominium may be amended as disclosed in various provisions of the Disclosure Statement. Consequently, the legal description and suite number which identifies a purchaser's dwelling unit on the front page of this Agreement of Purchase and Sale may be changed by the Vendor, in its sole and absolute discretion prior to final closing.

(q) Purchasers are advised that as a result of uncertainty in the natural gas, hydro and water distribution markets, the Vendor's reasonable assumptions regarding such utility costs may be incorrect as a result of circumstances which are not capable of being accurately predicted as of the date of this Agreement and which are beyond the Vendor's control. Consequently, prior to registration of the Condominium, the projected costs for such utilities for the first year shall be updated to reflect market conditions as of the date of registration as an alternative (in the Vendor's sole discretion) to applying the inflation factor referenced in the Disclosure Statement. The Budget and common expenses applicable to each unit shall be revised accordingly. Purchasers specifically acknowledge and agree that any increase in utility costs from that which was originally represented in the Budget shall not be the responsibility of the Vendor, despite section 75 of the Condominium Act. Purchasers acknowledge that the possibility of an increase in utility costs has been properly disclosed and, consequently, any increase shall not constitute a material change to the Disclosure Statement and Budget. In addition, Purchasers agree that this acknowledgement may be pleaded by the Vendor as complete defence to any application or objection raised by Purchasers in this regard.

(r) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that as a condition of closing, the Purchaser shall on either the Occupancy Date or the Closing Date, as determined by the Vendor, in its sole and absolute discretion, enter into or assume lease(s) (collectively the "Lease") for the use of the heating, ventilation and air-conditioning unit and ancillary devices and systems servicing his/her Unit ("HVAC Unit") and/or the lease of a hot water heater tank and ancillary devices ("Hot Water Tank"). The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that by entering into or assume the Lease, the Purchaser shall be fully responsible for all rental payments and other costs associated with the Lease, including any security deposit required under the Lease. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that in the event that the Purchaser sells or assigns his/her Unit, on the closing of that transaction, the Purchaser shall assign and the transferee shall assume all of the rights and obligations under the Lease. In addition, in the event that the Purchaser is in default of the Lease or does not assign or assume the Lease on its closing day, then the lessor under the Lease or its representative, accompanied by the property manager or another representative of the Condominium, may enter onto the common elements of the Condominium and enter into the Unit to remove the HVAC Unit at the Purchaser's sole cost and expense. Any costs incurred by the Condominium related to the removal of the HVAC Unit and/or the Hot Water Tank shall be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser and all such amounts shall be collected by the Condominium as if same where Common Expenses. This condition is inserted for the sole benefit of the Vendor and may be waived by the Vendor at any time prior to 6:00 pm on the Closing Date by providing notice to the Purchaser of the Vendor's intention to waive this condition.

(s) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor (and any of its authorized agents, representatives and/or contractors), as well as one or more authorized representatives of the Condominium, shall be permitted to enter the Unit after Closing, from time to time, in order to enable the Vendor to correct outstanding deficiencies or incomplete work for which the Vendor is responsible, and to enable the Condominium to inspect the condition or state of repair of the Unit and undertake or complete any requisite repairs thereto (which the owner of the Unit has failed to do) in accordance with the Act.

(t) Vendor hereby specifically reserves to itself the right to lease any of the units that are not sold from time to time in the Condominium project in accordance with the terms of the registered Declaration and By-laws. This right of the Vendor shall apply to each and every unit in the Condominium project that is unsold from time to time and the Vendor hereby specifically declares that it intends to lease such unsold units as it may see fit. The Vendor may accept bona fide offers or options to purchase on leased units to close upon expiration of such a lease.

(u) The Purchaser acknowledges that the location of mechanical, electrical, heating, air conditioning and other service installations, may or may not be shown on sales brochures and, in any event, such mechanical, electrical, heating, air conditioning and other service installations will be located in accordance with approved plans and/or good construction practices, which may result in among other things, bulk heads, reduction in closet sizes and other changes to the Unit, and the Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that he or she shall correspondingly be obliged to accept the Unit in its delivered condition on Closing without any abatement or claim for compensation whatsoever.

(v) The Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor is not required to deliver "hard" or paper copies of the documentation pertaining to the Occupancy of the Unit or the conveyance of title to the Unit, draft or otherwise, to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor (the "Closing Documentation"). The Vendor or the Vendor's representatives may, at their option, deliver to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor any or all of the Closing Documentation by email and/or by website. If delivered by website, the Closing Documentation shall be made available for download on an internet website designated by the Vendor and access to such website shall be effected by way of a confidential password to be provided to the Purchaser and/or the Purchaser's solicitor. In the event the Vendor delivers or tenders closing documents required in connection with this transaction on the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date by posting same on the world wide web, then the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor on the Closing Date for the costs incurred by the Vendor to utilize such web services for the Condominium and/or this transaction. In the event that any such fees are issued on a bulk basis, the Vendor shall have the right to apportion such costs to the Purchaser in accordance with his/her proportionate ownership interest in the Condominium as set out in Schedule D to the Declaration.

(w) The Purchasers acknowledges that supply of electricity and natural gas and/or water to each residential unit may be individually metered (the "Unit Meter") for consumption within the residential unit and the Purchaser will be invoiced for such consumption and all service or administration charges relating thereto (the "Unit Invoices") either by one or more private corporations providing re-sale, meter reading, payment and invoicing services to the Corporation and Purchaser and/or by a water, natural gas or hydro-electricity service provider or re-seller (collectively the "Service Provider"). The Unit Invoices will include the costs of all water, natural gas and/or electrical power as well as heat and cooling services consumed by the residential unit as well as service charges based on per litre or gallon of water, cubic metre of gas consumed or BTU consumed, per kilowatt per hour electricity consumed and other administration charges applicable to the metering service (with the costs of electricity, natural gas and other service charges hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Unit Services"). The Purchaser shall be responsible to pay the Unit Invoices in respect of the Unit Services as and when same are due and payable and such amounts, after the registration of the Condominium, shall be in addition to the common expenses payable by the Purchaser and shall not be included in the said common expenses. The cost of such Unit Services shall constitute an additional charge and such payment will not be credited against such Purchaser's obligation to pay occupancy fees in respect of the Purchaser's occupation of the residential unit. In addition to the Unit Invoices, the Service Provider may oblige the Purchaser to provide and/or replenish a security deposit, from time to time, in respect of Unit Services and such security deposit may be collected by the Vendor on closing. In the event that the Purchaser fails to pay the Unit Invoices on the due date, the Service Provider shall have the right to use the security deposit to satisfy the Unit Invoices and/or the right to terminate the supply of the Unit Service to the residential unit, and not to commence supplying such Unit Services again unless and until the Purchaser provides or replenishes the security deposit and pays the Unit Invoices. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to execute, upon request, any metering/invoicing/leasing/service or utility supply agreement, or assumption of acknowledgment of same, as required by the Service Provider and/or Vendor.

(x) In the event that the Vendor receives any rebate, credit, recovery, adjustment, discount or similar benefit from any party or parties in respect of any item that the Vendor is entitled to charge the Purchaser for in accordance with this, then the Vendor shall be entitled to retain any such rebate, credit, recovery, adjustment, discount or similar benefit for its own use and as its own property absolutely and shall not be obligated to credit or adjust with the Purchaser for any such rebate, credit, recovery, adjustment, discount or similar benefit.

(y) For owners of Residential Units located in Block G of the Site Plan, purchasers/tenants are advised that sound levels due to increasing road traffic may occasionally interfere with some activities of the dwelling occupants as the sound levels exceed the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria.

This dwelling unit has been supplied with a central air conditioning system which will allow windows and exterior doors to remain closed, thereby ensuring that the indoor sound levels are within the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment's, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria.

Purchasers/tenants are advised that sound levels due to increasing road traffic may occasionally interfere with some activities of the dwelling occupants as the sound levels exceed the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria.

This dwelling unit has been fitted with a forced air heating system and the ducting, etc. was sized to accommodate central air conditioning. Installation of central air conditioning by the occupant will allow windows and exterior doors to remain closed, thereby ensuring that the indoor sound levels are within the Municipality's and the Ministry of the Environment, Conservation and Parks' noise criteria. (Note: The location and installation of the outdoor air conditioning device should be done so as to comply with noise criteria of MOE Publication NPC-216, Residential Air Conditioning Devices and thus minimize the noise impacts both on and in the immediate vicinity of the subject property.)

36. Harmonized Sales Taxes

(a) (i) The Purchase Price set out above includes the HST net of Rebates as provided for in this agreement, being hereinbefore defined as the Net HST, and the Purchase Price has been established on the basis that the Rebate or Rebates, as applicable, will be assigned to the Vendor, in addition to such Purchase Price. The current rate of HST is 13 percent and this is the rate that is applicable to this contract before netting out the Rebates from such HST. Purchasers are advised that the Purchase Price offered to the Purchaser has been calculated on the basis that the Purchaser shall qualify for and assign to and/or reimburse the Vendor the maximum Rebate based on the Purchase Price set out herein as adjusted, save and except as hereinafter set out to the contrary and this is what is meant in paragraph 2 when the Purchase Price is stipulated to be "inclusive of Harmonized Sales Taxes net of all Rebates". This can also be stated as (and with the Purchaser acknowledging and agreeing to) the HST being applicable to this agreement being calculated on the basis of the Purchase Price less the Net HST. Subject to section 36(d) herein, the Vendor covenants and agrees to credit the Purchaser on Closing with all Rebates to which the Purchaser is entitled, subject to the Purchaser assigning and/or transferring the Rebates to the Vendor and/or reimbursing the Vendor for such Rebates as hereinafter set out.

(ii) If the rate of HST is increased or decreased or the percentage of calculation of the Rebate is amended, or the rate or thresholds in respect of the HST exemptions or rebate entitlement are changed between the date of this Agreement and the Occupancy Date or Closing Date, with the result that the net amount of the HST to be remitted by the Vendor increases, then the Purchaser shall pay the Vendor an amount on the Occupancy Date or Closing Date equal to such additional HST payable by the Vendor. A statutory declaration of any officer of the Vendor as to the alteration, increase amendment, etc., as hereinbefore set out shall be determinative in this regard.

(iii) If the rate of the HST is reduced between the date of this agreement and the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date but such reduction is for the benefit of the Purchaser and not the Vendor (the "HST Credit"), then the Purchaser hereby assigns all right, benefit and entitlement to such HST Credit and shall execute any and all forms, documents, assignments, etc., as required by the Vendor in this regard in the Vendor's absolute discretion. The Purchaser hereby irrevocably assigns to the Vendor all of the Purchaser's rights, interests and entitlements to the HST Credit (and concomitantly releases all of the Purchaser's claims to or interests in the HST Credit, to and in favour of the Vendor), and hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the HST Credit directly to the Vendor.

(iv) The Purchaser covenants and warrants (which covenant and warranty shall survive the completion of this agreement) that it has not made any claim and will not make any claim for any Rebate or HST Credit in respect of the Unit.

(v) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the Purchaser agrees that the Purchase Price for the Property, set out on page 1 of this Agreement, does not include HST on closing adjustments and amounts payable for Extras and/or upgrades purchased or ordered by the Purchaser (whether as part of this Agreement or otherwise) payable under this Agreement and that same are subject to HST on the Occupancy Date and/or Closing Date and that such HST shall be chargeable and payable by the Purchaser in addition to any other HST included in the Purchase Price. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the HST payable in respect of such adjustments and/or Extras and/or upgrades shall be at the rate of HST otherwise applicable to this Agreement.

(b) The Purchaser hereby irrevocably assigns to the Vendor all of the Purchaser's rights, interests and entitlements to the Rebate (and concomitantly releases all of the Purchaser's claims to or interests in the Rebate, to and in favour of the Vendor), and hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs CRA to pay or credit the Rebate directly to the Vendor. The Purchaser shall receive a credit on closing for such Rebate (provided to the extent he/she qualifies for same) if required by law in order for such Rebate to be assigned, transferred or reimbursed to the Vendor. The Purchaser represents and warrants that the Purchaser is acquiring the Property for his or his blood relative's primary place of residence within the meaning of the Excise Tax Act (Canada) or Income Tax Act (Canada) or any replacement statute and is entitled to the maximum amount of the Rebate applicable to purchase transactions of this nature at the Purchase Price set out in this Agreement. In the event that there are separate assignments and rebates of the provincial and/or federal portion of the HST with respect to this transaction, the Purchaser shall execute and deliver all applications, assignments, declarations, documents and/or other assurances (in the form required by the Vendor or the Government of Canada and/or the Province of Ontario) to the Vendor required to establish and assign all of his or her right, title and interest in the Rebate or any portion thereof. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that the Vendor shall have the right to determine whether the Purchaser qualifies for any Rebates and the Vendor's determination of such entitlement shall be final and binding. The Purchaser hereby covenants, warrants and/or represents to the Vendor, with respect to this transaction, that:

(i) the Purchaser is a natural person who is acquiring the Property with the intention of being the sole beneficial owner thereof of on the Closing Date (and not as the agent or trustee for or on behalf of any other party or parties),

(ii) upon the Occupancy Date and continuing up to and including the Closing Date, the Purchaser or one or more of the Purchaser's blood relations, as determined in accordance with the Excise Tax Act (Canada) and Income Tax Act (Canada), shall personally occupy the Unit as his, her or their primary place of residence, for such period of time as shall be required by the applicable legislation in order to entitle the Purchaser to the Rebate (and the ultimate assignment thereof to and in favour of the Vendor) in respect of the Purchaser's acquisition of the Unit; and

(iii) he or she has not claimed (and hereby covenants not to hereafter claim), for the Purchaser's own account, any part of the Rebate in connection with the Purchaser's acquisition of the Unit, save as otherwise hereinafter expressly provided or contemplated or permitted.

(c) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that:

(i) the total consideration for the calculation of HST includes not only the Purchase Price but all other taxable supplies charged to the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise including without limitation, Extras, upgrades, applicable adjustments and/or reimbursements charged by the Vendor under this Agreement such as enrolment fees, connections fees, as well as any charge for development charge levies and education levies or other levies and charges, etc. (with such additional amounts hereinafter referred to as the "Additional Charges"), the costs of which the Vendor may charge to the Purchaser. The Additional Charges and applicable HST shall constitute part of the taxable supply with respect to the said transaction and shall be added to the Purchase Price to determine the total consideration upon which HST is calculated; and

(ii) any Extras or Additional Charge is part of the single supply of the home and for HST purposes constitutes a change in the price being paid for the home and for the purposes of HST shall be deemed to form part of the Purchase Price.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if it is determined by the Vendor, in its sole, subjective, and absolute discretion, that the Purchaser is not entitled to the maximum permitted Rebate or any portion thereof (including any portion of same the Purchaser becomes disentitled to as a result of an increase in the total consideration payable hereunder as a result of any Additional Charges, Extras, etc., purchased or payable by the Purchaser), the Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor, in addition to any other amounts stipulated in this Agreement, the amount of the Rebate to which the Purchaser becomes disentitled, (which shall be paid on the Occupancy Date or Closing Date as a requirement of closing), and until so paid, such amount shall form a charge/vendor's lien against the Units and/or Property, which charge shall be recoverable by the Vendor in the same manner as a mortgage in default. The Purchaser covenants and agrees to indemnify and save the Vendor harmless from and against any loss, cost, damage and/or liability (including without limitation, legal fees and disbursements, and an amount equivalent to the Rebate, plus penalties and interest thereon) which the Vendor may suffer, incur or be charged with, as a result of the Purchaser's failure to qualify for the maximum permitted Rebate, or as a result of the Purchaser having qualified initially but being subsequently disentitled to the Rebate, or as a result of the inability to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor (or the ineffectiveness of the documents purporting to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor) and such amounts shall be deemed to comprise a Vendor's lien registrable on title to the Unit and/or Property.

(e) The Purchaser covenants and agrees that in the event of any amendment, revival, novation, re-instatement of this agreement, acquisition of Extras or upgrades, or any other action of the Purchaser results in the Rebate or HST Credit not being assignable, in whole or in part, then the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor on the Occupancy Date or Closing Date the amount of the Rebate or HST Credit which the Vendor does not receive or become entitled to.

(f) The Purchaser covenants and agrees that any breach by it of the provisions as set out in these foregoing sections dealing with HST shall be deemed to be a fundamental breach by the Purchaser and the Vendor, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor (at law or in equity) may, at its sole option, unilaterally suspend all of the Purchaser's rights, benefits and privileges contained herein (including without limitation, the right to make colour and finish selections with respect to the Unit as hereinbefore provided or contemplated), and/or may unilaterally declare this Agreement and the Occupancy License to be terminated and of no further force or effect, whereupon all deposit monies theretofore paid, together with all monies paid for any extras or changes to the Unit, may be retained by the Vendor as its liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in addition to (and without prejudice to) any other rights or remedies available to the Vendor at law or in equity.

37. Size of Unit

The Purchaser acknowledges that the location of mechanical and other service installations may or may not be shown on sales brochures and, in any event, such mechanical and other service installations will be located in accordance with approved plans and/or good construction practices, as determined by the Vendor in its sole and absolute discretion, which may result in room size reductions commensurate with the mechanical and other service installations being installed. The Purchaser acknowledges that the suite area of the Unit, as may be represented or referred to by the Vendor or any sales agent, or which appear in any sales material is approximate only, and is generally measured to the outside of all exterior, corridor and stairwell walls, and to the centre line of all party walls separating one unit from another. NOTE: For more information on the method of calculating the floor area of any unit, reference should be made to appropriate Builder Bulletin published by Tarion. Actual useable floor space may vary from any stated or represented floor area or gross floor area, and the extent of the actual or useable living space within the confines of the Unit may vary from any represented square footage or floor area measurement(s) made by or on behalf of the Vendor. In addition, the Purchaser is advised that the floor area measurements and supporting column and other wall sizes are generally calculated based on the middle floor of the Condominium building for each suite type, such that units on lower floors may have less floor space or larger supporting columns and other walls due to thicker structural members, while units on higher floors may have more floor space or thinner supporting columns and walls. Accordingly, the Purchaser hereby confirms and agrees that all details and dimensions of the Unit purchased hereunder are approximate only, and that in the event the dimensions or square footage of the Unit and/or dimensions or square footage of any room or area or structure within the Unit as measured in accordance with the appropriate Tarion Builder Bulletin are varied from those specified in this Agreement or as shown on any sales brochure, floor plan or other marketing documents, or any or all of the foregoing, the Purchaser agrees to accept all such variations without notice and without claim for compensation or abatement in the purchase price and this Agreement shall be read with all amendments required thereby. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the ceiling height of the Unit is measured from the upper surface of the concrete floor slab (or subfloor) to the underside surface of the concrete ceiling slab (or joists). However, where ceiling bulkheads are installed within the Unit, and/or where dropped ceilings are required, then the ceiling height of the Unit will be less than that represented, and the Purchaser shall correspondingly be obliged to accept the same without any abatement or claim for compensation whatsoever.

38. Deposit Receipt

The Purchaser hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Vendor to be and act as their lawful attorney, pursuant to the provisions of the Powers of Attorney Act, R.S.O. 1990 as amended from time to time, in the Purchaser's name, place and stead, in order to execute the deposit receipt issued pursuant to Tarion and the regulations thereunder as may be amended from time to time, and any excess condominium deposit insurance policy (and related documents) issued by any insurer or bonding company providing prescribed security for the Purchaser's deposit monies pursuant to the Act if, in fact, same is procured by the Vendor. In accordance with the provisions of the Powers of Attorney Act, R.S.O. 1990 as amended, the Purchaser hereby confirms and agrees that this power of attorney may be exercised by the Vendor during any subsequent legal incapacity of the Purchaser.

39. Deposits

All deposits paid by the Purchaser shall be held by the Vendor's solicitors in accordance with the Act and shall be released only in accordance with the provisions of section 81 of the Act and the regulations thereto, as amended. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that for the purposes of subsection 81(6) of the Act, compliance with the requirement to provide written evidence in the form prescribed by the Act of payment of monies by or on behalf of the Purchaser on account of the purchase price of the Unit shall be deemed to have been sufficiently made by delivery of such written evidence to the address of the Purchaser noted on the front page of this Agreement to which this Schedule is attached. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that any deposit cheques provided to the Vendor upon execution of this Agreement will not be deposited and accordingly interest as prescribed by the Act will not accrue thereon until after the expiry of the ten (10) day rescission period as provided for in Section 73 of the Act (or any extension thereof as may be agreed to in writing by the Vendor). The Purchaser agrees to pay to the Vendor on the Occupancy Date or Closing the Vendor's solicitors charges for each evidence of compliance delivered to the Purchaser or its solicitors, pursuant to subsection 81(6) of the Act. The Purchaser represents and warrants that the Purchaser is not a non-resident of Canada within the meaning of the Income Tax Act of Canada ("ITA"). If the Purchaser is not a resident of Canada for the purposes of the ITA, the Vendor shall be entitled to withhold and remit to Revenue Canada, the appropriate amount of interest payable to the Purchaser on account of the deposits paid hereunder, under the ITA. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Vendor shall be permitted to transfer deposit funds from one solicitors trust account to another solicitors trust account, in its sole discretion. Upon the transfer of any such deposit funds the new solicitor shall provide the Purchaser with notice that such deposit funds have been transferred.

40. Powers of Attorney

If any documents required to be executed and delivered by the Purchaser to the Vendor are, in fact, executed by a third party appointed as the attorney for the Purchaser, then the power of attorney appointing such person must be registered in the applicable Land Titles office, and a duplicate registered copy thereof (together with a statutory declaration sworn by the Purchaser's solicitor unequivocally confirming, without any qualification whatsoever, that said power of attorney has not been revoked) shall be delivered to the Vendor along with such documents.

41. Purchaser's Consent To The Collection And Limited Use Of Personal Information

For the purposes of facilitating compliance with the provisions of any applicable Federal and/or Provincial privacy legislation (including without limitation, the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act S.C. 2000, as amended), the Purchaser hereby consents to the Vendor's collection and use of the Purchaser's personal information necessary and sufficient to enable the Vendor to proceed with the Purchaser's purchase of the Unit, including without limitation, the Purchaser's name, home address, e-mail address, telefax/telephone number, age, date of birth, and in respect of marital status only for the limited purposes described in subparagraphs (c), (d), (h), (i) and (j) below, and in respect of residency status, and social insurance number only for the limited purpose described in subparagraph (i) and (j) below, as well as the Purchaser's financial information and desired suite design(s) and colour/finish selections, in connection with the completion of this transaction and for post-closing and after-sales customer care purposes, and to the disclosure and/or distribution of any or all of such personal information to the following entities, on the express understanding and agreement that the Vendor shall not sell or otherwise provide or distribute such personal information to anyone other than the following entities, namely to:

a) any companies or legal entities that are associated with, related to or affiliated with the Vendor, as well as other future condominium declarants that are likewise associated with, related to or affiliated with the Vendor (or with the Vendor's parent/holding company) and are developing one or more other condominium projects or communities that may be of interest to the Purchaser or members of the Purchaser's family, for the limited purposes of marketing, advertising and/or selling various products and/or services to the Purchaser and/or members of the Purchaser's family;

SETTING AND CHANGING CRITICAL DATES

1. Setting the Firm Occupancy Date

(a) Completing Construction Without Delay: The Vendor shall take all reasonable steps to complete construction of the Building subject to all prescribed requirements, to provide Occupancy of the home without delay, and, to register without delay the declaration and description in respect of the Building.
(b) Firm Occupancy Date: The Vendor shall set out a Firm Occupancy Date which shall be set out in the Statement of Critical Dates at the time the Purchase Agreement is signed.

2. Changing the Firm Occupancy Date – Three Ways

(a) The Firm Occupancy Date can be changed only:
  (i) by the Vendor setting a Delayed Occupancy Date in accordance with section 3;
  (ii) by the mutual written agreement of the Vendor and Purchaser in accordance with section 4; or
  (iii) as the result of an Unavoidable Delay of which proper written notice is given in accordance with section 5.
(b) If a new Firm Occupancy Date is set in accordance with section 4 or 5, then the new date is the "Firm Occupancy Date" for all purposes in this Addendum.

3. Changing the Firm Occupancy Date – By Setting a Delayed Occupancy Date

(a) If the Vendor cannot provide Occupancy on the Firm Occupancy Date and sections 4 and 5 do not apply, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a Delayed Occupancy Date in accordance with this section, and delayed occupancy compensation is payable in accordance with section 7.
(b) The Delayed Occupancy Date may be any Business Day after the date the Purchaser receives written notice of the Delayed Occupancy Date but not later than the Outside Occupancy Date.
(c) The Vendor shall give written notice to the Purchaser of the Delayed Occupancy Date as soon as the Vendor knows that it will be unable to provide Occupancy on the Firm Occupancy Date, and in any event at least 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, failing which delayed occupancy compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, in accordance with paragraph 7(c). If notice of a new Delayed Occupancy Date is not given by the Vendor before the Firm Occupancy Date, then the new Delayed Occupancy Date shall be deemed to be the date which is 90 days after the Firm Occupancy Date.
(d) After the Delayed Occupancy Date is set, if the Vendor cannot provide Occupancy on the Delayed Occupancy Date, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a new Delayed Occupancy Date, unless the delay arises due to Unavoidable Delay under section 5 or is mutually agreed upon under section 4, in which case the requirements of those sections must be met. Paragraphs (b) and (c) above apply with respect to the setting of the new Delayed Occupancy Date.
(e) Nothing in this section affects the right of the Purchaser or Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement on the bases set out in section 10.

4. Changing Critical Dates – By Mutual Agreement

(a) This Addendum sets out a framework for setting, extending and/or accelerating Critical Dates, which cannot be altered contractually except as set out in this section 4. Any amendment not in accordance with this section is voidable at the option of the Purchaser. For greater certainty, this Addendum does not restrict any extensions of the Closing date (i.e., title transfer date) where Occupancy of the home has already been given to the Purchaser.
(b) The Vendor and Purchaser may at any time, after signing the Purchase Agreement, mutually agree in writing to accelerate or extend any of the Critical Dates. Any amendment which accelerates or extends any of the Critical Dates must include the following provisions:

  (i) the Purchaser and Vendor agree that the amendment is entirely voluntary – the Purchaser has no obligation to sign the amendment and each understands that this purchase transaction will still be valid if the Purchaser does not sign this amendment;
  (ii) the amendment includes a revised Statement of Critical Dates which replaces the previous Statement of Critical Dates;
  (iii) the Purchaser acknowledges that the amendment may affect delayed occupancy compensation payable; and
  (iv) if the change involves extending either the Firm Occupancy Date or the Delayed Occupancy Date, then the amending agreement shall:

    i. disclose to the Purchaser that the signing of the amendment may result in the loss of delayed occupancy compensation as described in section 7;
    ii. unless there is an express waiver of compensation, describe in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation; and
    iii. contain a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser waives compensation or accepts the compensation referred to in clause ii above, in either case, in full satisfaction of any delayed occupancy compensation payable by the Vendor for the period up to the new Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date.

  If the Purchaser for his or her own purposes requests a change of the Firm Occupancy Date or the Delayed Occupancy Date, then subparagraphs (b)(i), (iii) and (iv) above shall not apply.

NW TM

MR OF THE RECEIVER, P. 0665

(c) A Vendor is permitted to include a provision in the Purchase Agreement allowing the Vendor a one-time unilateral right to extend a Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be, for one (1) Business Day to avoid the necessity of tender where a Purchaser is not ready to complete the transaction on the Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be. Delayed occupancy compensation will not be payable for such period and the Vendor may not impose any penalty or interest charge upon the Purchaser with respect to such extension.
(d) The Vendor and Purchaser may agree in the Purchase Agreement to any unilateral extension or acceleration rights that are for the benefit of the Purchaser.

5. Extending Dates – Due to Unavoidable Delay

(a) If Unavoidable Delay occurs, the Vendor may extend Critical Dates by no more than the length of the Unavoidable Delay Period, without the approval of the Purchaser and without the requirement to pay delayed occupancy compensation in connection with the Unavoidable Delay, provided the requirements of this section are met.
(b) If the Vendor wishes to extend Critical Dates on account of Unavoidable Delay, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, and an estimate of the duration of the delay. Once the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has commenced, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser by the earlier of: 20 days thereafter; and the next Critical Date.
(c) As soon as reasonably possible, and no later than 20 days after the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has concluded, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, identifying the date of its conclusion, and setting new Critical Dates. The new Critical Dates are calculated by adding to the then next Critical Date the number of days of the Unavoidable Delay Period (the other Critical Dates changing accordingly), provided that the Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be, must be at least 10 days after the day of giving notice unless the parties agree otherwise. Either the Vendor or the Purchaser may request in writing an earlier Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, and the other party's consent to the earlier date shall not be unreasonably withheld.
(d) If the Vendor fails to give written notice of the conclusion of the Unavoidable Delay in the manner required by paragraph (c) above, then the notice is ineffective, the existing Critical Dates are unchanged, and any delayed occupancy compensation payable under section 7 is payable from the existing Firm Occupancy Date.
(e) Any notice setting new Critical Dates given by the Vendor under this section shall include an updated revised Statement of Critical Dates.

6. Early Termination Conditions

(a) The Vendor and Purchaser may include conditions in the Purchase Agreement that, if not satisfied, give rise to early termination of the Purchase Agreement, but only in the limited way described in this section.
(b) The Vendor is not permitted to include any conditions in the Purchase Agreement other than: the types of Early Termination Conditions listed in Schedule A; and/or the conditions referred to in paragraphs (i), (j) and (k) below. Any other condition included in a Purchase Agreement for the benefit of the Vendor that is not expressly permitted under Schedule A or paragraphs (i), (j) and (k) below is deemed null and void and is not enforceable by the Vendor, but does not affect the validity of the balance of the Purchase Agreement.
(c) The Vendor confirms that this Purchase Agreement is subject to Early Termination Conditions that, if not satisfied (or waived, if applicable), may result in the termination of the Purchase Agreement. ○ Yes ○ No
(d) If the answer in (c) above is "Yes", then the Early Termination Conditions are as follows. The obligation of each of the Purchaser and Vendor to complete this purchase and sale transaction is subject to satisfaction (or waiver, if applicable) of the following conditions and any such conditions set out in an appendix headed "Early Termination Conditions":

NW TM

Description of the Early Termination Condition:

N/A

The Approving Authority (as that term is defined in Schedule A) is: N/A

The date by which Condition #1 is to be satisfied is the _____day of_____, 20 _____.

Description of the Early Termination Condition:

N/A

The Approving Authority (as that term is defined in Schedule A) is: N/A

The date by which Condition #2 is to be satisfied is the _____day of _____, 20_____.

The date for satisfaction of any Early Termination Condition may be changed by mutual agreement provided in all cases it is set at least 90 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, and will be deemed to be 90 days before the Firm Occupancy Date if no date is specified or if the date specified is later than 90 days before the Firm Occupancy Date. This time limitation does not apply to the condition in subparagraph 1(b)(iv) of Schedule A which must be satisfied or waived by the Vendor within 60 days following the later of: (A) the signing of the Purchase Agreement; and (B) the satisfaction or waiver by the Purchaser of a Purchaser financing condition permitted under paragraph (k) below.

Note: The parties must add additional pages as an appendix to this Addendum if there are additional Early Termination Conditions.

(e) There are no Early Termination Conditions applicable to this Purchase Agreement other than those identified in subparagraph (d) above and any appendix listing additional Early Termination Conditions.
(f) The Vendor agrees to take all commercially reasonable steps within its power to satisfy the Early Termination Conditions identified in subparagraph (d) above.
(g) For conditions under paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A the following applies:

(i) conditions in paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A may not be waived by either party;
(ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice not later than five (5) Business Days after the date specified for satisfaction of a condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied (together with reasonable details and backup materials) and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
(iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed not satisfied and the Purchase Agreement is terminated.

(h) For conditions under paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A the following applies:

(i) conditions in paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A may be waived by the Vendor;
(ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice on or before the date specified for satisfaction of the condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied or waived; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied nor waived, and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
(iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed satisfied or waived and the Purchase Agreement will continue to be binding on both parties.

(i) The Purchase Agreement may be conditional until Closing (transfer to the Purchaser of title to the home), upon compliance with the subdivision control provisions (section 50) of the Planning Act and, if applicable, registration of the declaration and description for the Building under the Condominium Act, 1998, which compliance shall be obtained by the Vendor at its sole expense, on or before Closing.
(j) The Purchaser is cautioned that there may be other conditions in the Purchase Agreement that allow the Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement due to the fault of the Purchaser.
(k) The Purchase Agreement may include any condition that is for the sole benefit of the Purchaser and that is agreed to by the Vendor (e.g., the sale of an existing dwelling, Purchaser financing or a basement walkout). The Purchase Agreement may specify that the Purchaser has a right to terminate the Purchase Agreement if any such condition is not met, and may set out the terms on which termination by the Purchaser may be effected.

MAKING A COMPENSATION CLAIM

7. Delayed Occupancy Compensation

(a) The Vendor warrants to the Purchaser that, if Occupancy is delayed beyond the Firm Occupancy Date (other than by mutual agreement or as a result of Unavoidable Delay as permitted under sections 4 and 5), then the Vendor shall compensate the Purchaser up to a total amount of $7,500, which amount includes: (i) payment to the Purchaser of a set amount of $150 a day for living expenses for each day of delay until the Occupancy Date or the date of termination of the Purchase Agreement, as applicable under paragraph (b) below; and (ii) any other expenses (supported by receipts) incurred by the Purchaser due to the delay.

NW TM

MR OF THE RECEIVER, P. 0667

(b) Delayed occupancy compensation is payable only if: (i) Occupancy and Closing occurs; or (ii) the Purchase Agreement is terminated or deemed to have been terminated under paragraph 10(b) of this Addendum. Delayed occupancy compensation is payable only if the Purchaser's claim is made to Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Occupancy, or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and otherwise in accordance with this Addendum. Compensation claims are subject to any further conditions set out in the ONHWP Act.

(c) If the Vendor gives written notice of a Delayed Occupancy Date to the Purchaser less than 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, contrary to the requirements of paragraph 3(c), then delayed occupancy compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date.

(d) Living expenses are direct living costs such as for accommodation and meals. Receipts are not required in support of a claim for living expenses, as a set daily amount of $150 per day is payable. The Purchaser must provide receipts in support of any claim for other delayed occupancy compensation, such as for moving and storage costs. Submission of false receipts disentitles the Purchaser to any delayed occupancy compensation in connection with a claim.

(e) If delayed occupancy compensation is payable, the Purchaser may make a claim to the Vendor for that compensation after Occupancy or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and shall include all receipts (apart from living expenses) which evidence any part of the Purchaser's claim. The Vendor shall assess the Purchaser's claim by determining the amount of delayed occupancy compensation payable based on the rules set out in section 7 and the receipts provided by the Purchaser, and the Vendor shall promptly provide that assessment information to the Purchaser. The Purchaser and the Vendor shall use reasonable efforts to settle the claim and when the claim is settled, the Vendor shall prepare an acknowledgement signed by both parties which:

  (i) includes the Vendor's assessment of the delayed occupancy compensation payable;
  (ii) describes in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation (the "Compensation"), if any; and
  (iii) contains a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser accepts the Compensation in full satisfaction of any delayed occupancy compensation payable by the Vendor.

(f) If the Vendor and Purchaser cannot agree as contemplated in paragraph 7(e), then to make a claim to Tarion the Purchaser must file a claim with Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Occupancy. A claim may also be made and the same rules apply if the sale transaction is terminated under paragraph 10(b), in which case, the deadline for a claim is one (1) year after termination.

(g) If delayed occupancy compensation is payable, the Vendor shall either: pay the compensation as soon as the proper amount is determined; or pay such amount with interest (at the prescribed rate as specified in subsection 19(1) of O.Reg. 48/01 of the Condominium Act, 1998), from the Occupancy Date to the date of Closing, such amount to be an adjustment to the balance due on the day of Closing.

8. Adjustments to Purchase Price

Only the items set out in Schedule B (or an amendment to Schedule B), shall be the subject of adjustment or change to the purchase price or the balance due on Closing. The Vendor agrees that it shall not charge as an adjustment or readjustment to the purchase price of the home, any reimbursement for a sum paid or payable by the Vendor to a third party unless the sum is ultimately paid to the third party either before or after Closing. If the Vendor charges an amount in contravention of the preceding sentence, the Vendor shall forthwith readjust with the Purchaser. This section shall not: restrict or prohibit payments for items disclosed in Part I of Schedule B which have a fixed fee; nor shall it restrict or prohibit the parties from agreeing on how to allocate as between them, any rebates, refunds or incentives provided by the federal government, a provincial or municipal government or an agency of any such government, before or after Closing.

MISCELLANEOUS

9. Ontario Building Code – Conditions of Occupancy

(a) On or before the Occupancy Date, the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser:
  (i) an Occupancy Permit (as defined in paragraph (d)) for the home; or
  (ii) if an Occupancy Permit is not required under the Building Code, a signed written confirmation by the Vendor that all conditions of occupancy under the Building Code have been fulfilled and Occupancy is permitted under the Building Code.

(b) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (a), to the extent that the Purchaser and the Vendor agree that the Purchaser shall be responsible for one or more prerequisites to obtaining permission for Occupancy under the Building Code, (the "Purchaser Occupancy Obligations"):
  (i) the Purchaser shall not be entitled to delayed occupancy compensation if the reason for the delay is that the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations have not been completed;
  (ii) the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser, upon fulfilling all prerequisites to obtaining permission for Occupancy under the Building Code (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations), a signed written confirmation that the Vendor has fulfilled such prerequisites; and
  (iii) if the Purchaser and Vendor have agreed that such prerequisites (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations) are to be fulfilled prior to Occupancy, then the Vendor shall provide the signed written confirmation required by subparagraph (ii) on or before the Occupancy Date.

NW TM

(c) If the Vendor cannot satisfy the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), the Vendor shall set a Delayed Occupancy Date (or new Delayed Occupancy Date) on a date that the Vendor reasonably expects to have satisfied the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), as the case may be. In setting the Delayed Occupancy Date (or new Delayed Occupancy Date), the Vendor shall comply with the requirements of section 3, and delayed occupancy compensation shall be payable in accordance with section 7. Despite the foregoing, delayed occupancy compensation shall not be payable for a delay under this paragraph (c) if the inability to satisfy the requirements of subparagraph (b)(ii) is because the Purchaser has failed to satisfy the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations.

(d) For the purposes of this section, an "Occupancy Permit" means any written or electronic document, however styled, whether final, provisional or temporary, provided by the chief building official (as defined in the Building Code Act) or a person designated by the chief building official, that evidences that permission to occupy the home under the Building Code has been granted.

10. Termination of the Purchase Agreement

The Purchaser cannot be compelled by the Vendor to execute a release of the Vendor as a prerequisite to obtaining the refund of monies payable as a result of termination of the Purchase Agreement under this paragraph, although the Purchaser may be required to sign a written acknowledgement confirming the amount of monies refunded and termination of the purchase transaction. Nothing in this Addendum prevents the Vendor and Purchaser from entering into such other termination agreement and/or release as may be agreed to by the parties.
